Jimmy Carper 01:49

Hello, Houston and welcome to after hours queer radio with attitude. Right here on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station. I'm Jimmy Carper. And you are listening to the October 2 edition. A couple of things I want to talk about first before we get into the bisexual hour, or the bisexual hour and 20 minutes is the music that you heard that last piece of music was Katie Curtis off of her new album a crash course in roses. It's called a What's the matter? Katie Curtis, a lesbian, proud out lesbian from Austin. And she's been beginning been getting like, nationwide play on that, on that particular song and that album. And before that, of course, Michelle on the day Dr. Cello with satisfy from her, her new brand new album, bitter, and she's done it again. She's come up with wonderful, wonderful music. This time. I hope she gets to sell some of it. Anyway. This evening we have in the studio by by net folks. Yes. Was JJ. Yes.

Michelle 03:13

And J

J Jimmy Carper 03:18

So what's going on?

G Gigi 03:20

Where tonight Jay's gonna do a couple of book reviews. And then we're gonna talk a little bit about the bisexual conference coming up the 22nd to the 24th coming up a lot faster than I think I'm ready for.

M Michelle 03:32

∅ 03:37

Yeah,

J Jimmy Carper 03:38

it just seemed like it's all of a sudden it's here. When you talked about it. It just seemed like months and months and months away and then all of a sudden Tada. Oh, gosh.

G Gigi 03:49

And three more weekends. That's it? I don't know. We also have some movie tickets to give away later in the show. For guests what? The Rocky Horror Picture Show a big deal going on with landmarks River Oaks theater because they do Rocky Horror at midnight. And these are free passes to those. Those evenings only on October 29 and 30th. While yes, it's

J Jimmy Carper 03:53

G Gigi 04:24

Halloween after they come to the conference, right, baby

J Jimmy Carper 04:31

gotta look little email here from your friend JG who says hello to you, Tony Adams from the Gay Men's Chorus if you Okay, he's gonna be here on the fifth Saturday of this month. That Halloween weekend he's going to be talking about what the Gay Men's Chorus is doing. We've been talking about the Gay Men's Chorus during the news and for quite a few weeks now because they have open auditions and you actually just got to rehearse all, you know, if you want to sing, they can take you. And he states in his in his memo that believe it or not. We have had 54 singers at the last night's rehearsal. Before that's the that's the most they've ever had. So cool, good. Course a fish, they should come to rebels. That group has been growing and growing and really, yeah, really professional stuff going on with them. So we're looking forward to that. And and you're the bisexual conference is going to be held

 Gigi 05:41

October 22 to the 24 it Yes. And it's going to be at the Shamrock I mean, Sheraton Bert collar Hotel, which is located at 290 and 610. And oh, that's a wonderful place for me to get lost. There all the time.

 Jimmy Carper 05:57

 Michelle 06:02

Well, it's very easy to see the hotel, it's kind of hard to get there. It's already too late. But guess what? The hotel is gonna fly by flag the whole weekend. No kidding. Yeah.

 Gigi 06:09

 06:15

Whoa.

 Michelle 06:18

So incredibly awesome.

 Jimmy Carper 06:19

So I guess there's no problems here with having a bunch of bugs around the place. Not only that, but they know everything we're gonna be doing. Oh, my goodness, Gigi is going to spread them wide.

 Gigi 06:24

M

Michelle 06:34

And they have no problems with that. Good.

G

Gigi 06:39

Half the staff are going to join us

J

Jimmy Carper 06:42

for a good reason. Why don't you tell us a little bit. You want to talk about the book review first, or?

G

Gigi 06:51

Oh, we can go with the

M

Michelle 06:53

books or you're saying

J

Jimmy Carper 06:55

conference? We're sitting in? Yeah. Hello.

G

Gigi 07:03

I kind of wanted to talk a little bit about what it you know, the specifics of what's happening at the conference. Okay. And before I go into those, I did want to say that, you know, this conference is really about bringing the whole community get together, whether gay, lesbian, transgendered, leather, lather, whoever, whatever. Questioning, you bet, come and join us, you know, because a big part of what this conference is about is an educational experience and diversity. And believe me we're gonna be diverse.

J

Jimmy Carper 07:48

Well, like the gay community, the bisexual community cuts across all strata and all class. Oh, yeah. ethnics

G

Giai 08:00

and all sexuality. You're

J Jimmy Carper 08:03

probably you're everywhere about twice as much as the gay community is.

G Gigi 08:08

Well, it's everywhere but very hidden. But, but we're coming out and shown that colors. Base basically we've got quite a lineup of people coming in from by activists from all over the country. We've to kick everything off, we've got Dr. Fritz Klein is going to be doing opening keynote on the oral history of some of the by men.

J Jimmy Carper 08:42

And he is He is

M Michelle 08:44

Mr. Bisexual.

G Gigi 08:46

Yes. He kind of wrote

M Michelle 08:50

one of the first books on bisexuality that was out there the bisexual option. Yeah. Which for the longest time was basically the only book out there. And the only book out there I should say that was positive toward bisexuals.

G Gigi 09:04

Yeah, you know, that didn't like math or somebody that just hadn't made up their mind yet. Or anything? Yeah.

M Michelle 09:15

So he's considered the one of the pioneers of movement. Really nice guy.

G

Gigi 09:21

How'd you get him? I went to the San Diego conference years and years ago and flitted around that conference.

J

Jimmy Carper 09:32

As you are want to do

G

Gigi 09:38

and you know, in California, where are you? We're just in San Diego. Yes, I well. It's like all year round. The flowers are just blooming and beautiful everywhere.

J

Jimmy Carper 09:49

Well, actually, yeah, cuz San Diego is in effect, a desert. Yeah. Just the desert with a lot of fog and every morning so good. flowers can bloom. Yeah.

G

Gigi 10:02

Wow. I put flowers all in my hair and was running around just all over the conference. And he kept coming up and said, Wow about what most people say, for the first time. Wow. And so now he wants to do Texas. There's more like me around here.

o

10:27

I guess

J

Jimmy Carper 10:29

there's probably a few. But like I said, there's folks from all kinds of different areas.

G

Gigi 10:36

And then right after his opening keynote, then we're going into body massage clothing optional. get right into it. Well, we want to treat our buddy, right. You know,

M

Michelle 10:50

it's a good way to meet people.

10:51

Oh, yeah. Yeah. Oh.

Gigi 10:55

And I tell you, Well, I did that. Because when I went to the San Diego conference, I got there after riding my motorcycle all the way to San Diego from here, whoo. And at that conference, I had a body massage clothing optional the first night. It was a little later in the night after a few other events. And they gave me an hour extra on the massage table for riding my motorcycle all the way from Houston, Texas. That was really nice. So I'm gonna tell everybody here I ride my motorcycle from my house to the hotel and see what I get.

11:36

Oh, no, I'm so bad. I

Michelle 11:39

don't think you'll have quite the same reception.

Gigi 11:42

And then later that night after that, we're going to do a pagan ceremony. Actually, that kind of runs a little bit and during the body massage too.

Jimmy Carper 11:54

Okay, so what does it mean to be? That's that's doing a pagan ceremony, necessarily, anti Christian?

Gigi 12:06

Actually, no, I mean, Christianity is borrowed so much from pagans. I should love it.

Jimmy Carper 12:12

It'll be very familiar to a lot of Christians.

Giai 12:17

I mean, the only real big difference is that, you know, paganism is more matriarchal. Yeah, religion and Christianity is a little bit more. Patriot. I asked that question because I don't want to scare people off thinking, oh, gosh, a bunch of Satanists are out there.

J Jimmy Carper 12:28

G Gigi 12:33

Well, actually, Satanists is a Christian concept. Well, that's true, isn't it? Pagans predate Satan worship,

M Michelle 12:42

like nature worship. People always bring up the whole Satanists thing. It's really more of nature and you know, kind of Mother Earth type thing. This is where the matriarchal comes in. And of course, just participating in the ceremony doesn't necessarily mean you're going to be a pagan. You don't have to be a pagan to be in it. I've pagan ceremonies and I show so Boston so you know, it's just kind of a way to bring in some of the spirituality and the spiritual side of bisexuality. So it should be

G Gigi 13:15

and then and that, pretty much we'll also be doing some pagan workshops later in the evening, so people can learn more about paganism. Just kind of an overview and then some of the different branches. And while we're on that subject, Jay and I are doing Ravels this year again, yeah, rentals. Kind of thing.

M Michelle 13:42

Every year, we take a different culture and perform songs and dances and poetry. From that culture is tradition centering around the winter solstice. And we call it the Christmas rebels because we do it around Christmas time. But really, it should be the winter solstice rebels because Christian, you know, could the Christian tradition doesn't really come into it that that much is much more the winter solstice. Sun dying, coming back to life.

J Jimmy Carper 14:09

That type of thing. Yeah. A lot of fun.

M Michelle 14:13

This year is going to be English. Medieval king in the fool. Oh, the costumes are excellent. So very beautiful.

 Gigi 14:22

We saw a preview today.

 Michelle 14:25

Some of them that were half done, and we were drooling. Really quality performance and we're doing it two weekends this year. So that'll be fun. Oh, good.

 Gigi 14:35

So there's lots of pagan stuff coming in.

 Jimmy Carper 14:39

That kind of reminds me that there's I don't have the information with me but there's a fairy group Yeah, the radical fairies saying yes. Gardening up here in Houston. meant sounds like it's right up your old alley.

 Gigi 14:53

Yeah met had the the person that's organizing this over to my house the other night for pagan retro.

 Jimmy Carper 15:00

Oh, good. Good. Okay, so we're up on this.

 15:04

Oh, yeah. Very Yeah. So to speak. You know, Miss JG would be Oh, you wouldn't be there. Oh, yeah. Fairy but me it rages well, that pretty much wraps up Friday night. And then Saturday we're going to be kicking things off with our second keynote speech, who is going to be Wayne Bryan, and he wrote the book, bisexual characters in film, he's going to be kind of giving. For the keynote speech, he's talking about beyond bisexual, an examination of the bisexual identity and the usefulness of labels in general, in the battle to make America safe for diversity. And I think this is a workshop for everybody, you know, it's all Yeah, no kidding. How can we bring equality to all? You know?

 Gigi 15:22

M

Michelle 16:09

Actually, it sounds like what we were talking about earlier, how people seem to be putting more and more labels on themselves, and in doing so almost subverting the whole idea of labels, you know, and, and, you know, experimenting more with what does it mean to be gay? What does it mean to be bisexual? What does it mean to be? You know, a lot of people, a lot of kids in college are now calling themselves questioning instead of like, having an actual identity. I'm gay, I'm straight. I'm questioning what does that mean? So it sounds like that's kind of what he's going to be talking about sensory. Yeah.

J

Jimmy Carper 16:41

But, you know, while we're just mentioned, mentioning the thing about labels, I mean, there's a, there's a big move that, oh, I don't want to be labeled this, I don't want to be labeled that. But you know, until you have a name, you can't have a history and be and if you don't have a history, you can't have a community.

G

Gigi 17:03

Also, I think, you know, I've I've been labeled all my life, dyslexic ADHD, this that pantsy. Yeah. And you're all of the above. And, you know, it's like sissy. And I realized long ago, there's a power in naming names. Yep. And how you choose names, and what you choose to call yourself can be very empowering.

J

Jimmy Carper 17:33

And sometimes, yeah, and sometimes you have to fight because Oh, yeah, society wanting to label you was one thing. You have to fight there with the name of your choice. Yeah.

G

Gigi 17:42

And so, you know, I'd rather comments, self all kinds of things.

J

Jackie Thorne 17:48

Well, Jimmy, also, yes, as far as the labeling is concerned, it's not so much that you have to fight to label yourself because of what society wants to call you. It's a matter that oftentimes, you're afraid to label yourself, because of the reaction that you may get from people within quotation marks that same label group, ie, a person who is gay, who occasionally has heterosexual relationships, doesn't want to necessarily identify as being bisexual. And I think that's part of the problem is the fact that it's most most people given the right person in the right situation. Our our nature is such that we're bisexual. And it's just whatever, you know, whatever our predominant. preference is, is is how we identify.

J Jimmy Carper 18:45

And if you like, both, really like both.

J Jackie Thorne 18:48

Yeah, if you like, both, you know, about equally or close to being equal then then yeah, you would you would not be uncomfortable labeling yourself as bisexual but a but a gay male, who has one particular girlfriend that you know, he just really enjoys getting together with, or a lesbian who has a male friend that she just really really enjoys getting together with and it may lead to a sexual relationship as well. I know the little cartoon strip and about bikes to watch out for is addressing that subject right now.

M Michelle 19:29

Yeah, I thought that was very appropriate. Coming out as Biden's pretty cool.

G Gigi 19:36

We can go a lot, many places with that one.

J Jimmy Carper 19:41

There are people who will he will name you bisexual if you have sexual relations with both and but it's really from the inside, isn't it? How you feel? Yeah,

M Michelle 19:51

yeah. It's not so much what you do or who you do. It's more what you call yourself. And

J Jimmy Carper 19:55

I mean, from the real inside. I don't mean they regressed inside.

J Jackie Thorne 20:03

That's I think that's also part of the problem is the fact that that a person may in fact, actually have bisexual feelings, but because of peer pressure, or their friends or family or so forth like that, that they, they can't or won't identify as bisexual. Right.

 Gigi 20:28

And that brings us to the next item on the agenda for the conference. It's that point where bisexuals have the most trouble making a decision. The first breakout session and for its class is going to be doing by one on one. So anybody that wants to learn about the most basics of bisexuality will really get a lot out of that workshop. I'll be doing advance bisexuality 12,000,001. After the conference,

 Jackie Thorne 21:14

does that mean how many partners you've had?

 Gigi 21:18

That's an underestimate.

 21:21

You're bragging again?

 Gigi 21:24

That's that's the different positions I've done.

 Jackie Thorne 21:29

You have you have a well, you have a well dogeared copy of the Kama Sutra

 Gigi 21:38

they wrote the Kama Sutra based on me.

 Jimmy Carper 21:42

I know you always talk about about being a sexual person. Yes. But I know that the emotional part is very important to you all.

 Giai 21:54

Oh, yes. And I do like relationships of all different types, whether an ominous or very committed or anywhere in between or whatever you mean by committed you know, there's lots of definitions there. Well,

J Jimmy Carper 22:06

G Gigi 22:11

I'm, I'm in to the polyamorous commitment type thing. Now, I'm not into the monogamous thing. But you know, respect people that are whatever works for you, as long as it's safe, sane and consensual. That's the way

M Michelle 22:20

J Jackie Thorne 22:25

it is. It is possible. It is possible to have non sexual relationships. I realize a lot of people don't think so. And of course, you know, Ann Landers has been hitting on that subject. Every once in a while. I think I had one of the couples who lived who lived together and do not have sexual relationships. But you can be friends with someone and not have a sexual relationship with them.

M Michelle 22:51

Very close friends. Yeah, yeah. Do you have friends? Yeah.

J Jimmy Carper 22:57

That's called our family of choice. Oh,

J Jackie Thorne 22:59

yeah. extended family.

G Gigi 23:03

The next choice during this first breakout session is bisexuality and the media by my supplements. Never can say my ski.

J Jimmy Carper 23:16

And we've talked to him over the fun Yeah, a couple of times.

G Gigi 23:20

He's gonna do a really cool workshop. It's tell your story to the world. Are you ready to really this is a hands on seminar about going on talk shows the pitfalls of it, writing letters to the editor, telling your own stories about your sexuality. How do you do it and make sense? Bring pens, paper, a personal history and an open mind and be ready to do some interactive workshops.

J Jimmy Carper 23:49

That sounds like that could be really healing for a lot of

G Gigi 23:54

and he's really emphasizing he has been on talk shows where you know, he walked on stage and it was like, from all corners of worlds came out you know the pounds? And so he's got practical

J Jackie Thorne 24:10

Well, a lot of that a lot of that pouncing I think is is more hypocrisy and discomfort on the part of the people who are doing the pouncing than anything. Oh yeah.

G Gigi 24:20

But it still feels pretty nasty when I'm on stage. And then the third hard choice exhibitionism for the shy by Carol queen.

♀ 24:33

Oh my I know already.

G Gigi 24:38

I told you it's make up your mind time get up that

M

Michelle 24:45

actually what's really funny is that all the other bike conferences I've been to what happens is people go to spend 10 minutes in one and then go to another 110 minutes they go to the boss Boston conference would wander in and out It was it was kind of funny.

G

Gigi 25:03

So anyway, that's the first breakout session.

∅

25:06

That's just the start. That's the start.

G

Gigi 25:09

It gets better and better from the second breakout session and here we go choice time again. forging a bi trans alliance by Vanessa Edwards Foster. Oh, yes, sir De Palma. Wendy curry from bi net USA and y la. Miss Gigi.

J

Jimmy Carper 25:32

Wow, yes, that'll work.

∅

25:36

Yeah,

G

Gigi 25:37

so we're gonna it's kind of an interactive workshop. Also, we're gonna be talking and just kind of throwing some things out and getting some dialogues going between everybody present.

J

Jimmy Carper 25:48

For those of you out there that who may be on the internet and you're hooked up maybe hooked up to Hamnet. Yeah, you've heard Vanessa. Oh, that's right out there. credibly articulate.

∅

26:00

J Jackie Thorne 26:06

Well, the other thing too, as far as the relationship between bisexuals and transgendered people, oftentimes because of their transgenderism. They, the people in the gender community are perhaps more willing to admit their bisexuality than someone who is predominantly in the in the gay community or the lesbian community, and is not a transgendered individual.

G Gigi 26:39

The next for chop? I've seen that yes, for the second breakout is neither fish nor fowl. The bisexual is a queer among queers.

J Jimmy Carper 26:51

Gosh, I know where that's going. You know, maybe it's eternal. Yeah.

G Gigi 27:00

And then the third one is love who I want to explain attractions and orientation by Timothy Turner, who is also with binary USA. And he's going to do an interactive discussion on gender, sexuality, attractions, orientation. He says, Leave your labels at the door. We'll explore our topics from both the presenter and the audience. We will move beyond our current labels and into a new perspective on attraction and orientation. Wow. He says, and he's addressing this to bisexuals. He says bring an open mind.

J Jimmy Carper 27:41

Well, you know, just talking about labels, and he's gonna cover all the different aspects. Yeah, if we could just get one word.

G Gigi 27:54

That's not alphabet soup.

M Michelle 27:59

GLBT Q. Says that always sounds like a sandwich. There'll be tea. Thank you.

J Jimmy Carper 28:09

Yeah, and I want that thing toasted.

28:14

Oh, yeah.

Gigi 28:18

And then we move to the third breakout session decision time again.

Michelle 28:25

Saturday is gonna be a tough one.

Gigi 28:28

There's gonna be people wandering around going, Oh, my God.

Michelle 28:33

Okay, I think

28:36

I want to go to

Gigi 28:40

is the bisexual movement part of the gay movement? Should it be by Wendy curry. And she's going to really get political in this and I know, Wendy, she gets pulled out. Well, that's a really tough topic. Yeah. Hardly anybody just doesn't feel it feels like they don't care one way or the other. There is it's either, you know, no, or Yes.

Jimmy Carper 28:51

Michelle 29:06

Had some pretty serious discussions about that.

Gigi 29:09

Yeah. And then we're the other next choice is Health Matters for lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered women by Deborah Bell. In Houston,

 Jimmy Carper 29:20

yes. Then she knows from which she talks in her emails, you know, and it's great, right? Because it's very important. Lesbians really kind of are the low on the totem pole in professional health care. And many doctors really don't even know their butt from a hole in the ground when it comes to women's health.

 Gigi 29:47

But on the other button from the hole in the ground when it comes to me.

 29:52

Nobody does.

 Jimmy Carper 29:54

But you know, male and female systems are very different and different.

 Gigi 29:58

And when you have a Lola bit of both Yeah, really goes wow.

 Jimmy Carper 30:04

Nothing really brought that home to me more than the AIDS crisis, where all of these medicines were being used on males. And all of the reactions were from a male body. And these medications can do different things in the female body. But I'll never forget I thought this was such the lamest thing I ever heard. That doctor gave an explanation of why women weren't in more clinical trials. It's because well, they may get pregnant in the middle of it and screw up their results well, this is gonna make the third workshop choice. Really difficult. The third one being offered is bisexual adult entertainment by porn. By Michael ski. He is like the leading expert in how Hollywood California on pornography period. He has some he has the most extensive porn collection I've ever seen. What doesn't he do critiques of porn film? Yeah, yes, he does reviews. He knows the porn makers, the porn stars. He has come to his house all the time or met a few when I was up in LA and

 Gigi 30:54

J Jimmy Carper 31:24

G Gigi 31:27

M Michelle 31:44

most intriguing.

♀ 31:47

Be still my heart.

M Michelle 31:50

Love people out there saying ooh, how can I get that kind of

G Gigi 31:54

did someone let Miss JG into the candy store I won't even go there. But anyway, he is going to talk about all kinds of stuff in his workshop and never view of adult videos bisexuality and porn. Frank sexual discussions a talk about and safer sex and the adult porn industry. He's gonna have film clubs. Yeah,

M Michelle 32:31

we know which one which room is going to be jam packed. In fact,

G Gigi 32:33

as his disclaimer, he says if nudity makes you squeamish, please find another workshop and you mean he's gonna be nude?

♀ 32:43

 G

Gigi 32:48

Ever? No. There won't be nudity in some of these workshops.

 J

Jackie Thorne 32:56

You know, talking about pornography and so forth like that. There's been several scientific studies and so forth, but show that men are very turned on by lesbian pornography to women. Together.

 G

Gigi 33:15

I get that phone call all the time.

 M

Michelle 33:19

was also studies actually show that a lot of women especially lesbians, for some reason get really turned on by gay male porn. Yes. That's what that whole book was which hitters book was all about Carol Queen and Lauren Schimmel. And it was gay men writing lesbian porn and lesbians writing gay male porn. And, you know, I mean, because when lesbians see that, you know, quote, unquote, lesbian porn with women with you know, three inch long nails and stuff. There's no I don't think so. Worm is not in a good way. So, but yeah, there's this whole deal and this is very underground because nobody likes to admit it. But you know, lesbians really get off to gay male

 ♀

33:58

Wow.

 G

Gigi 34:01

Then the next breakouts is going to be a little easier to choose while maybe not. It's a men's gathering, the women's gathering in the intelligence gathering. So however you want to define yourself, you've got a place to go. You may

 M

Michelle 34:17

still have some

 G

Gigi 34:21

met Jay is going to do a workshop on the Vagina Monologues. interactive workshops. You know where that goes.

M

Michelle 34:33

Later on in the evening, darling.

G

Gigi 34:36

We're giving things away.

J

Jackie Thorne 34:37

You say that's gonna be a monologue.

G

Gigi 34:43

The book is anyway, yeah, it's

M

Michelle 34:45

from the book Vagina Monologues. Reading from that and then talking about various body images. Sex,

G

Gigi 34:53

I'm gonna be doing the Androgyny gathering and it's a by gendered intersex and there been an individual All will be yes. We'll be talking about living in male female dichotomous society. In this gather we'll explore gender identity issues and body image as well as the fit between spiritual gender identity and physical gender identity. And will go a lot of places.

M

Michelle 35:23

I want to go to that.

G

Gigi 35:26

I want to go the Vagina Monologues.

♀

35:33

Oh my,

M

Michelle 35:34

we're not quite sure who's going to be doing the men's gathering yet?

G

Gigi 35:36

No, not yet. Okay. In fact, I think Deb Dixon up in Dallas is checking in with some checking with some of the men up there to see if she can recruit someone. We do have some possible lineups, but we're still working on it. Then we're having a dinner. And that's going to be fabulous. And we're having entertainment by DaVita, who has also appeared on the show.

J

Jimmy Carper 36:13

I just want to say one thing on the conference that we're really trying to make. I mean, you talked about the sexual the spiritual, the emotional, and we want to try to have something for everybody. Yeah. And that's really what we're trying to go for here. And if the sexuality part isn't your gig, then you can go someplace else. If you like the sex, then of course you can do that. We try to have we're really trying to make this open and, you know, accepting for everybody. And hopefully whatever your your deal is, you'll find it there at the conference. We're really trying to make it as diverse as possible.

J Jimmy Carper 38:43

I'm looking at the price for this conference, and it does not seem like you're out to make money.
