I gotcha. Do you think it's strange for to be dating for three months and not feel an enormous amount of love or anything yet?

00:08

Oh, of course. No, I think it's a, it's a love process that we all have to go through and everyone is different, we all have to go at our own pace, and we can't be rushed, and they will come. If it's meant to be, it will come eventually. And it's just something that we all both couples got to work at, you know, what do you think maybe in this day and age, some people might push it too fast and want it so bad? Well, the wrong and actually the wrong one is actually there, but they just they fantasize about it so much. And then when they get a little in, and you want to try to say

00:28

00:45

I, ya know, push you or whatever, like pointing that finger, of course, you know, you know, it will, it will come eventually, and there's no reason to rush into anything. You know, it's just a process of all of a relationship that we all have to go through. And if it's going to be meant to be it will happen if it's not, it won't

01:08

526-573-8526 KPFT. You're listening to Scott Lewis and Howard Big Daddy McHale, Sandy and Jennifer in the house, and Dr. John Antonio, the love doctor here, taking your questions on sex. There's a light on that panel there that's lit up. Would you push that for me? Caller Are you there? Yeah. Hi, who's this? Rich? Rich? You have a question for the doctor. Yeah. Okay, go ahead.

01:38

Well, I just want to know how to go about telling my parents about myself because I'm in the closet. Oh, how old are you?

01:49

01:51

Are they paying your bills? Yeah.

01:58

Wait till you get a job?

02:00

Yeah. Is it? Is it really bothering you that you haven't told him?

02:04

No Leave hits? Let them let them approach the subject.

02:07

Hey, I think your parents know when when I told Mary Jane the first thing she said to me was that doesn't surprise me. Those were her words, confirmation dress you are wearing.

02:15

02:19

But you know, what? Do you do any activities in the community hatch or going out to the discos or anything? Yeah, go to the club. G and you have friends and stuff down there. Just go and have a good end have they have so you about going out or anything? No. Go and have it.

02:36

Go? Did they ever ask you where you go? No.

02:40

Go and have a good

02:41

long, lengthy, long, lengthy experience. do you how do you think they'll react?

02:45

02:49

I have no idea.

02:51

Do you live with them? Yeah, yeah, they pay them? Well, I mean, just because you pay your bills. I mean, the the gesture.

02:57

Must be nice to have parents like that.

03:00

Where do you live at the height? Oh, well, you know, that's pretty. That's pretty liberal.

03:04

03:07

If your parents ever mentioned anything about homosexuality to you, it's never been brought up in the house. Never.

03:14

Do you know what their personal views are on homosexuality?

03:18

Are they Democrats, Republicans? Who don't know your political affiliation of your parents? My parents?

03:26

Oh, no. They must be libertarian before before you tell him your preference. You ought to know their political? I don't know. I don't talk to them that much. We don't have like an open relationship.

03:29

03:33

03:38

Keep your mouth shut? I wouldn't say anything. Just you know, except when you're ever at my house later. I Richie, I was wouldn't say that, you know, I would wait if it. I waited until I moved out. And then I told her doctor, what do you think?

03:55

03:57

Well, I went through a different experience because I told my parents, right when I was about 18, or 19. And still living at home. And I was actually not living at home anymore. Which kind of made it I guess a little bit easier. But still, we still had a close relationship with one another. It was hard to do. But you know, in the long run, it was the best thing that I did for myself because it liberated me from having that, that fear of what my parents would think. And although they did kind of react with an emotion that they didn't want to have anything to do with me for a while, in the long run. It was them who suffered more because they lost the kid. And I didn't lose a parent I gained more friends. And and they came back they came back to me because they realized what they had done that they were wrong. And it was the greatest feeling knowing that my parents came and asked me back and so you know, we all have our different points of view coming out and stuff like that, but it's something that probably you have to do yourself and you're the only one that knows what what is best.

05:20

Perhaps maybe for Christmas you should have brought bought them that book called Loving someone gay. Maybe that would have been dropped a subtle hint of the Christmas tree. That would have been subtle to me. Well, thank you for calling. Okay, thanks. Bye bye. 526-573-8526

05:39

He lives across the street from me and I travel with him. Why do you want to know? What is his real hair color? Oh, you down? No. I've never seen that just real hair. Except they're spaced. She's always making fun of my hair. You know, we went to Dallas here always has a hard on I like it. Hi. I'm a Yankee with high hair. I say you know, goes goes along with your heels. Yes. Yeah. And 06:53

06:48

but we had a wonderful time in Dallas for another TT in Dallas. Yeah, I'll tell you later.

06:57

Okay. Anyway, people have been calling in with requests for music where music and that always thrills me. And I guess you announced already the Pepsi division is going to be here at Fitzgeralds on February the sixth. And we had a request for pansy division. So let's play some. How about that.

07:17

Sounds like being the Boy Scouts, Panzer Division, okay.

07:19

Oh, yeah, fancy division, my request we've had some Janis Joplin request that also Cindy and Pasadena wild crowd out there tonight. And so I got something ready to go and I want to dedicate this to Scott and Camille.

07:43

To me, Camille, whew, yeah. Oh, already? Yeah. Ready? Okay, hit it, girl.

07:59

Yes, yes, yes. Yes, yes. Yes, yes. Yes. Yes. Oh, yes. Yes, yes. Yes, yes. Janis Joplin just for who? Scott and me, but not be confused with the dedication of my own. I have for him at the end of the show.

08:15

08:19

Oh, okay. The other thing I want to say we got a call from Leslie who sent me. Oh, gosh, one of my most highly prized Christmas presents this year. It's a tape of Melissa Etheridge live from various source sources. And in fact, I opened the show tonight with the duet of Melissa and kady. Baby, you can sleep while I drive. You will be hearing more off of that drive another nail into your heart.

⌚ 08:47

⌚ 08:50

Do you think that has hidden messages?

⌚ 08:51

Oh, yes. Oh, yes. Oh, yes. There wasn't a dry seat in the house. When they did that. I just wanted to throw that in. I'll give it back to you.

⌚ 09:05

I didn't know I had given it. I loaned it to you to take.

⌚ 09:09

I'm not I'm not gonna be here for two weeks. That's right.

⌚ 09:12

On to Hawaii.

⌚ 09:14

Do you know where she's going? She's going to Hawaii Hawaii for two weeks. Can you believe

⌚ 09:19

I swim across

⌚ 09:20

my lover stand is taking me

09:24

Ah, that sounds wonderful. Yeah. What are you doing over there?

09:30

I sit on my fat ass on the beach and watch the sun go down.

09:35

Just another old woman sitting on the beach with a bad wig. Oh, it's a lot of fun. We have a condo right on the beach with a balcony overlooking the sunset was like a second honeymoon. Yeah, good. Good.

09:41

09:53

09:56

Second, you mean?

09:58

So is there a lot of Rome Am 10:00

I 2000s

10:04

Now is there is there a lot of romance between between you and your husband? Yeah, the honeymoon and the trip the trip?

10:11

Stanley and I've been together for 16 years there. I know six. Nothing, huh? Is he in town? I see. He's in bed. He's 400 years old.

10:14

10:23

He's older than Santa Claus.

10:25

What do you mean? No, not quite. But he is my kind of Santa Claus. Yes.

10:30

Yeah. Good. Oh, Stan. Another Stanley floating around. Yeah. Totally reason Stanley's like Santa Claus, because he's full of president's brother being full of fajitas. So let's talk about men tonight. Where's the doctor? Where's he? Is he over there? Still? We can get him over there during the house. Doctor, we got a couple more minutes. We got to take maybe one question. I have a couple of questions.

10:34

10:42

10:51

10:59

Five to 65738526 KPFT. We could take just a couple as we wind down get ready to close the show out for the evening. I'm ready to get home. I am tired.

11:10

You sure are tired.

11:13

Like lack of set. The doctor said it's a lack of sex. What mic? Is he on?

11:19

Lack of sex? I think it's a lack of choice but what the heck? Oh means wise choices.

11:28

Who knows? Who

11:28

knows? Anyway, the holidays are coming garland girl. New Year. Any new year's resolution Sandy. Jennifer, what are your New Year's resolutions?

11:35

11:39

Come on? None. None. Doctor, Doctor, how about you?

11:44

My New Year's resolution is? I don't know.

11:49

You don't know what?

11:50

I knew that the day I met you? I don't I didn't know it was your New Year's resolution.

11:54

Your degree?

11:58

Everyone is asking me questions. I don't know.

12:02

Sounds like good luck or good resolution. Sure. God got any resolutions.

12:11

Um, you know what, somebody I asked somebody what their New Year's resolution was. And I think this is the best New Year's and I've had two different people tell me this. And I think it is such a good New Year's resolution that I want to make it my own. Actually, my only New Year's resolution was really that I wasn't gonna sleep with any white men in 1995. But I've already blown that when I'm literally just kidding, just kidding. But I do think that this was the best resolution I've heard is that I'm going to look out for me in 1995. More than being so concerned about other people always looking out for other people trying to make other people happy trying to look out for other people's wishes and desires and stuff. I'm gonna look out for myself a little more this year. And I think that's a great new year.

12:55

A little selfish. It sounds like but I know where you're coming from fish but it's a good one. I mean, I don't think like screw the whole world. I miss Scott Lewis, look out for me. Number one, I you know, that's not what I mean. It's just a positive match into yourself, you know, taking care of me a little more good. And I take good care of your heart and all that stuff. Of course, we should talk pamper ourselves, I guess every once in a while.

12:59

13:13

13:19

broke that resolution to her.

13:20

SMB be 13:24

okay, I'll get off. I'll get off it. I won't say another word about anything that's going on in the world right now. We have a caller on six my ticket.

13:33

Hey, let's take it Dr. Antonia, will you push that button there big daddy, give me just a second. Okay. Hello, I think that line is broken actually is what they were telling me earlier. Is it not clicking off? Yeah, I think that lines broken.

13:52

Well, whoever it is, have fun. But you know, you know, I made some new year's resolutions also this year.

14:00

Of course, here we've 14:04

there's an Mona

14:05

that Sandy. That's Jennifer.

14:10

Probably Probably no white boys either. But I think I think a little more self positive about myself. Tried to be more relaxed, more calm, lower my stress level, not to worry so much about life because it's already gone on its path this long. It's gonna help goes on a lot longer. But I just realized that there are things I can do to contribute to myself. And the guys in the opera was just wonderful. What they just wonderful.

14:42

I would think it's such a privilege and an honor. I'm so proud to have gotten to meet them.

14:46

It's been a wonderful way to start off the new year this year. This tonight show I hope everyone enjoyed it out there. And we didn't get any freaky calls. But we'll take like, hey, let's take line eight. Hey, line eight. Dr. John. Okay. At anytime push that button Big Daddy. Okay, which one? All right caller Are you there? Hi, who's this? Bill? Hi, Bill. How are you? I'm fine. How y'all doing? Hey, pretty good. What's up? You have a question for the doctor. Um, yeah, kinda. Okay.

14:55

15:15

I was going out one night, and I was caught by my parents dressing. And they kicked me out of the house and they don't want to deal with me. So I don't know what to do. What?

15:29

Have you found a place to stay?

15:30

Oh, yeah, I'm living with my friend right now. I can you support yourself? Oh, yeah, I can support myself. Okay. But none of my family don't want to talk to me no more. Okay.

15:39

Now, where does the problem lie in the cross dressing are the family problems?

15:44

We never had no family problems. Problems ever had. They don't know that I was gay.

15:50

Oh, no. Do you think being gay has something to do with the cross dressing? Because know that? Most, most cross dressers, most of them are not homosexuals.

16:00

That show that? We need that. Yeah. But the issue being the issue here being that his family caught him cross dressing. Joe America sees cross dressing assumes homosexuality in this case they were correct. Your relationship with your parents has been completely destroyed. Correct?

16:18

Correct. How old? Are you? 25.

16:22

Middle Age Have you

16:23

tried to contact them?

16:24

Um, yeah, but they keep hanging up on me.

16:27

You know, it's gonna have What was your name again? Bill, Bill. You know, what's gonna happen is in a few years, they're going to realize that they're the ones that have lost out that they've lost their son wouldn't you agree? Of course they've they've lost their son. And because, too, and I'll share a little personal experience with you. My mother through fits when I wanted to bring a lover home. And one time through Fitz when I wanted to go to the mall wearing earrings with her. And I, I I picked up my bags, and I went to the front of the house. And I said take me to the airport. I'm going home. Because if you don't accept me, if you don't accept my lover, as as a whole, then you don't accept me and I'm not welcome here. If my lover is not welcome here, I'm not welcome here. If I can't go out in public with you to a mall wearing hoop earrings, then it's because you're ashamed of me because you have a problem with it not because I do and you just have stand up and you know what? She came back to me? And and apologize. I'm sorry. I'm not ashamed of you. I love you. You're my son. And you're just going to have to let them take time and realize that yeah, Bill.

17:39

It's a process of education. They have to be educated, buy him a book, go to local and pick up a book Crossroads market, exactly names of books to parents dealing with the same problem, come up a book and mail it to them and hope that they read it. Because what happens is as long as it took you to deal with it and realize this is who I am the whole coming out process, which takes many years, that it takes them just as long to go through the whole process. Okay, okay. Well, thanks a lot. Thank you, Bill. Thanks for calling. Big Daddy. We're just about out of time. Let's do our close up. Dr. John Antonio.

17:49

18:12

Thank you, doctor.

18:13

18:15

19:51

Hello, I'm Ray Miller, and you're listening to KPFT in Houston.

19:54

I was too young to realize that at the time, but I was constantly horny Every time Astroboy blasted off, and the little flame shot out of his red boots, I got so excited I could barely everytime Spider Man Shot webs from his wrists. I died a little inside. The fact that he didn't have a mouth drove me wild. I would be glued to the Addams Family so blindly in love with thing that I didn't even notice what he was a disembodied hand that lived in a box. And every time Lerch said, You rang, it sent shivers up my spine. I would lay in front of the television set, I would lay almost under the television set, craning my neck and twisting my head trying to look up Tarzan's loincloth. If I was the only girl left on earth, and I had to choose just one man who would I pick? Moe, Larry, or curly. Like looking back on it all now? I realized that it would have to be Shemp

21:07

Hello, I'm Ray Miller and you're listening to KPFT in Houston.

21:13

God dammit. Cards not rewound. Well now I gotta scramble. Okay, listen to this. It's time once again to ask Dr. Science. So let's ask Dr. Science. That's me. Remember, he knows more than you do. That's right. The butum from Cullowhee North Carolina writes Dear Dr. Science, what is the best container for a universal solvent,

21:47

I use Tupperware although any old mayonnaise Jarl work if first coated with a few microns of triethyl tattooing course you'll want to store the solvent in a dark room, preferably a root cellar and nestled a comfortable distance beneath the surface, say 5000 meters. That way any liquid that escapes will meet bedrock and below that liquid magma. Let's face it, accidents do happen. And if you lose a substantial amount of universal solvent, well, you can always watch the ads in the Sunday paper and buy more when it goes on sale.

22:21

Thank you, Dr. Science. Send your science questions to ask Dr. Science. Remember, he's not a real doctor. I have a master's degree in science.
