Keep this one keep that. Okay, we're dividing up we are dividing up. I'm keeping my joke about the 80 year old. Oh, I got another job for you. Why? Oh? What? Oh my god. Really? Oh no, Jimmy. I had it right here it was right after the lady with the 80 year old man. 20 year olds with their belly button between your nipples. I was right after that one. What did I do?

 00:28

Well, I don't know. Well,

 Peter 00:32

and I thought Oh, no. You know what I've done? I've been got it caught up in something else. Oh, here it is. Okay. Oh, well, guy walks into a bar. Yeah, with this pet monkey.

 00:46

You love these guys walking into the bar? Which petstay? Yes. Yeah, guy walks into a bar with his pet monkey. And he orders a drink. And while he's drinking it, the monkey jumps all over the place. And the monkey grabs some olives off the bar and he eats them and then he grabbed a slice of lime and he eats them and then he jumps over in the pool table. And he grabs a cue ball and swallows that hole. And the bartender screams this guy. Did you get what your McGee just did? The guy says know what he says he just ate the cue ball off my boob table. Oh, oh guy says Tammy says yeah, he said well, that doesn't surprise me. He said the damn thing. He said he eats everything insightful bastard. He said I'll pay for anything. He eats cue ball and all he said I'm really really sorry. So the patron finishes a drink pays his bill pays for the cue ball pays for half the other damn things he ate and leaves. Two weeks later, he's in the bargain. And then he has this monkey with him. And he orders a drink and the money the monkey starts running around the bar again and the monkey finds a Mara Tino cherry off the bar. And he grabs the cherry and he sticks it up his butt and he pulls it out. And the Bartender goes through that again because monkey runs around. He's eating everything in sight. He grabs his chin cherry Marcio cherry, yeah, and sticks it up as button pulls it out neath it and the bartender's just disgusted. Is he What's your monkey did? He's like you said well, now what? You simply stuck this marriage you know, Jay was button hold on. Hey, the guy says yeah, so well. That didn't surprise me. He said he still eats everything in sight. But ever since he ate that damn Cue. Cue Ball he measures everything first Did you that came for you right out of the other side. Like what's gone? Oh, boy,

 Peter 00:51

02:56

I can imagine

Peter 02:57

we have a little something for the lesbian girls. Or something for the older people. For those in the estimate visitors low something for everybody. We're in trouble now in trouble now. Oh, I could get in big trouble or new operations

03:18

I guess that's Murphy's Law. Whatever can go wrong. We'll like to start off this evening's news by mentioning how that Mayor Lee Brown has selected Matthew as our Feature I hope I'm saying by mentioning how that Mayor Lee Brown has selected. Matthew assess East US I hope I'm saying that right, as his administrative liaison to the gay community. Now Mr. Status is an attorney with the Houston law firm of Baker and Bots. And he plans to meet with leaders from the gay community and the city itself. He said that he's going to try to meet with the police chief, the fire chief and the members of council who care who cover the Montrose area as well as the large ones and get to know them. And the mayor has indicated that he would call East US when faced with gay related legislation. And Asa said that he may ask for his perspective at some time, and he's not going to rely just on his own instincts, and that he is going to consult with leaders of the community where it is appropriate. Well, I'm glad you brought that one up. Tonight. Why? Because for those in the community who would like to actually meet with Matthew, it happens that this Wednesday, April 1, at the caucus meeting, which is the Houston gay and lesbian caucus, Matthew Easter's is going to be coming and speaking to the members of the caucus, so everybody who wants to invite him to come out and see that, in addition, as part of that, Gabriel Bass Quays, who is part of the Democratic Party and a University of Houston professor is going to show up at the caucus meeting, and do a focus group trying to get input from the lesbian and gay community for the Democratic Party. So both of those, both of those gentlemen are going to be there this Wednesday, April 1, at the caucus meeting now the caucus meeting is at beloved in

M

Michelle Meyers 22:21

That's a 239 Westheimer. So what do we have here on the PWA? Coalition?

27:29

Okay, well, the warehouse program at PayPal with a PWA coalition still are in need of us furniture and high household items for distribution to ended antigen individuals and families with AIDS. Now remember, we just finished doing the news item I think it was a week or two ago concerning a new aids complex. Oh yes. So you know that people going to need this furniture. But it's not just them. Now, they're, they're in very short supply of sheets, towels, dishes, pots, pans, small appliances, and flatware. And they all felt desperately need furniture items such as dressers, tables, chairs, lamps. Now, items are distributed, free of charge to the eligible clients. And these clients are very poor, and they really do need your support. In fact, they have income at below the federal poverty level of like $600 A month or less.

M

Michelle Meyers 28:38

I don't know how anybody could survive on that. And I need to have

o

28:43

donations may be dropped off at their main office of the coalition which is located at 3400 Montrose suite 106. And they do have staff that is available to pick up the donated items, especially those large pieces of furniture like sofas and beds and stuff. And these donations are tax deductible and tax receipts will be provided upon request. So you do have to ask for the receipts. And now to schedule a pickup called Dora. She's the Program Director at 713-522-5428. That's 713-522-5428.

M

Michelle Meyers 29:27

Okay, I wanted to start mentioning a few things on the clubs. Following on from what Peter was talking about a little bit earlier in the program. There's a roast and toast for Don Gill that's going to be on May 6 at 8pm at the BRB.

29:46

Now Don Gill has been a very faithful member of this community and he has, he has okay, I've been here since 82, April of 82. And this guy has always been in the forefront of Being a fundraiser and he is one of the he's one of my champions. He's one of my heroes,

M

Michelle Meyers 30:06

Mr. Everything, there you go. Just for your information, there will be a donation at the door to enter for $10 Rather than just enter for $10. If you wish to buy your own barstool for the evening, it's $15. Ah, and if you wish to buy a table for four, that's 100,000. Well, all of this going to the charity.

30:31

Now I'll tell you something by you barstool for $15 a day. So that is a tremendous bargain. buying yourself a table for $100. That is a tremendous bargain. Because if you've ever been to one of these events, it's usually standing room only. And if you move your feet, you lose your seat.

M

Michelle Meyers 30:49

Oh, yeah. So this is o

30:51

really,

M

Michelle Meyers 30:52

so I was born, I always wanted a bar stool. So I thought that was that's that's going to be again on March 6 at 8pm at the BRB. And everyone should be out there to show their appreciation to John Gill for all the work he's done for the PWA holiday charities and his commitment to the community. Just all the things that he's he's organized over the years. I will mention this a few more times before the actual event. So what do you got there?

31:22

Well, the number one gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered program on the planet is proud to announce, Houston's number one Latino Club, which which has just opened up it's called toys. And it's that 5322 glenmont at Chimney Rock. And they have this open every night of the week and if you haven't been there, and you're Hispanic or you like Hispanic people, my boyfriend is from Spain, and you know, you need to go to Toys.

Stone Soup really need some money and this is a great chance to go out and have friends meet with your friends and have a bunch of fun.

Roy 32:29
