It was a wonderful moment, when they started to unveil that quilt, there was absolute total silence. And the names were read one at a time, hundreds of names. And people began to cry, and total strangers were hugging each other. It was the only way we knew to show our love, and it was wonderful.

01:15

When you see the quilt, you understand how it began with one name, sewn with love, and grew to thousands of names. Stitch with memories, surrounded by favorite things. Each name is a proud inscription. But all of them together make a national monument to those who died of AIDS, a monument that says remember me.
