B

Bobby 02:04

Hello. Hey, how you doing? I'm finally here.

J

Jimmy Carper 02:07

I do want to give a big, big howdy to eat to two after hours north? Yeah. Started out last week. I haven't heard the first show yet. I'm gonna get a copy of the first show. And I'm anxious to hear it. Yes.

B

Bobby 02:24

An adorable little creature better send you

J

Jimmy Carper 02:28

and that's up there. KSHU 90.5. And that's for all you folks who just maybe were coming in kind of scratchy. And you're close to to be in up there. And those lucky folks or maybe you get good reception and you're still up there. I mean, you're you can get to queer shows. I love that. They love that. Love that then I hope they're they're going to have a good show tonight, too. Let's see if that guy has anything to say about that. They certainly Yeah.

B Bobby 02:57

J Jimmy Carper 03:02

I do want to mention that jewel and Jim are off tonight. Jewel had something come up. You know how it is when you got kids? Here, here we all these years, gays and lesbians fought to get kids and now that we have them,

B Bobby 03:18

we have to deal with the problems.

J Jimmy Carper 03:21

Right. But I do want to mention some of the music you heard, actually, all the music you heard before the opening. That last song was by Neil and it's called what you do to me jealousy. It's off of his CD. So self titled self titled Yes. And before that something brand new for me. Anyway, it's a group called frustrated housewives. And it's an EP off of their forthcoming album called deconstructing Dreamland. And that was called Midtown matinee. I'll be I liked that one. I like the I like what it has to say. I'd like to be I like it all. Anyway, you'll be hearing more from frustrated house housewives. That's lots of dancing type music.

B Bobby 04:16

Frustrated housewives? Yes.

J Jimmy Carper 04:18

Yeah.

B Bobby 04:21

And line there somewhere.

J Jimmy Carper 04:23

I know. I want to give out a big congratulations. I know they're not here. They're in San Antonio right now. Celebrating but a very big congratulations to Robin and Jessica wick.

B Bobby 04:34

Yes. Yes. I talked to her this week. Did you talk to Jessica this week? I called her just before the day before they were going to they were writing up their ceremony and stuff. And yeah, I talked to them this week. So that was very cool. And much happy for them.

J Jimmy Carper 04:55

And for those of you who don't know, or haven't been watching the news, I mean, it's been all Little news is national news to Jessica and Robin wicks are two women who legally got married in bear County this evening. Yay. Thank you to that silly ass judge and his chromosome law.

B Bobby 05:23

You know, that's got to be one of the first times in history that that didn't work for that it worked for us,

J Jimmy Carper 05:29

right? That's right, Jessica. Jessica Wix is a male to female transsexual. And legally in Harris County, at least she's female. She has all of her name change and all of that. But it seems to be that Christy little tin Lee law out there and bear county that whatever that district is, that covers that bad area. Decided that oh, well, your gender is determined by your chromosomes. So And strangely, they never checked hers. You know, that's a Go Go. Figure.

B Bobby 06:10

I'm telling you.

J Jimmy Carper 06:11

I have heard through the grapevine that there's some queer programming on if you get more and more cable. Well, if you get any cable but Warner and particularly because I have it. Number channel number 74. On Warner Cable is see I see one TV, and they have some core program. gramming They're playing Queer as Folk, Mondays at 10 o'clock. So I heard that the new is I don't know if he knew what to do. I don't know. I don't know. Because there's there's a new one coming out. Yeah. And we're all excited about that. Let's see. Let's see. Let's see what because you know, channel eight occasionally does in the life.

B Bobby 06:40

J Jimmy Carper 06:42

B Bobby 06:53

J Jimmy Carper 06:57

Usually at midnight, usually at midnight

B Bobby 06:59

one. And you sort of sit there and go. Okay, I can watch this. I'm up at that out. But yeah, but some people are just, you know, gone by then.

J Jimmy Carper 07:11

I know. I knew I knew it. So anyway, we're going to do a lot of music and little chatter. For the first half of the show. And second half of the show. Charlie Pacheco will be here. And we're going to have a live telephone interview with Doug Stephens. Oh, Doug. Stephen. Fan. Yeah. tapes. He's he does out in the country. I mean, that's the most requested song at after hours. Ever, actually.

B Bobby 07:44

Although that that one the Charlie does. Yeah, it was nice, too. I love that one. That would be my first go around there. Well,

J Jimmy Carper 07:53

we'll probably get that. Anyway, Doug was here a couple of months ago. And but this was before Charlie had his spot. And it was Charlie and Doug and, and Patrick Haggerty. And so we had to like spend a whole lot of this country all in one spot. So now tonight, in the second half of the show, we'll get to really devote some time to to duck and see what he's up to. Very cool. Yeah,

B Bobby 08:22

J Jimmy Carper 08:23

I think that's very cool. Like I said, I'm going to do a bunch of music and right now I'm going to do a kind of tribute to a Texas boy who has made it good. At least in gay circles. His name is Jimmy James.

B Bobby 08:39

I was about to say we I know who you're not talking about.

J Jimmy Carper 08:43

Jimmy James. I remember him from the mid 80s little short guy kind of tends on the chubby chubby side but hey, but he did the most amazing. Amazing what do I want to say?

B Bobby 09:09

version of something there? Yes.

J Jimmy Carper 09:13

I got a rendition of rock guy that just played the music and shout out. Yes, it is. That feeling of Marilyn Monroe. He was I mean, perfect. He looked apart, except he was a little bit chubbier, but looked the part and had the boys wasn't exactly. Yeah. You know, I understand that that error, you know, was into that sort of thing. But there's a there's a CD out called The One and many voices of Jimmy James live. It's a live recording from he had a show that ran for the entire summer at Provincetown. And this was the last show and as I it says in the very beginning that 70 second show that he did. And he does. I mean, he does Eartha. He does. Share he does, Judy. He does. Betty Davis. He does them all. So usually I with these kinds of CDs, you know, you get it up when you go to a theater and see why do you have the visual to go with it? And it's like, oh, yeah, okay, it sounds like it. But you get the record home. It's like, that doesn't sound like her. This is a bit different. This sounds He's good. He's really what you're getting. Yeah, I wish it would come back to Texas and play some gigs Saturday.

B Bobby 09:29

J Jimmy Carper 09:37

B Bobby 10:39

Is that her on? Yes.

J Jimmy Carper 10:43

That's that's Jimmy. You know, she could really go as a girl. Yeah, so yes. That's a girl.

B Bobby 10:44

J Jimmy Carper 10:49

Yeah. Yeah, yeah. Anyway, all 400

B Bobby 10:53

of her on the cover.

J Jimmy Carper 10:57

Let's shut up and then start playing some music as they you go. Okay. This is Remember folks, all of this is live. I'm going to do three cuts and this is going to be Sonny and Cher. And you're listening to it on KPFT Houston and ke O 's college stations. This is after hours queer radio with attitude.

11:23

But we still have share we will always have share because honey long after the nuclear holocaust.

J Jimmy Carper 11:32

I like that the one the many Jimmy James. Yes, that was good. I like that. I had fun with that. I was cute. I've had that for a while and I you know I had given it to kind of cursory listen and I was really listened to it tonight and I was like you I was like cracking up over there. Some of this stuff is just like

B

Bobby 11:50

J

Jimmy Carper 11:51

very, very talented man and from Texas, Jimmy J. Oh, well, hey. And so in the same kind of vein. I've got that same kind of music. I've got something but this time it's by a real woman. It's Elaine St. George, and she's doing my favorite piece just around the corner and this is my very very favorite piece from it well that was Elaine St. George when they finally got the right button pushed. She Shang Hai LEAH What I like about that this is it's a song that Dick Powell sang Ruby Keeler. Actually, Ruby Keeler and Dick Powell did this in a movie back in the 30s. And, believe it or not, I've actually heard of both of those people. Wow.

B

Bobby 12:54

J

Jimmy Carper 12:57

And I liked that Elaine sang it. She does a lot of that type of Broadway kind of show tune things. Broadway shows. And cabaret I think is the term how stereotypical JD would say, JD Doyle, who actually has his hour of queer music heritage heard every fourth Monday, right here during lesbian and gay voices. On Monday night, Monday nights eight to 10. Yes. She, anyway, Elaine, St. George thing is things this doesn't change any of the pronouns, which I think is very, very important. Yeah, you go. She's saying you Shanghai, Lil now I've got some, some some kind of sad stuff. And then maybe something's kind of funny stuff. I got it. I got a letter today from Mike Williams. And you are saying who was Mike Winger? Yeah. Mike Williams has been here a couple of times. He's He's a teenager. He may not be by now. But it seems as though strange Texas laws and bitter parents. He was around sexually at age 16 with a 14 year old boy. 1614 Yes,

B

Bobby 14:20

I got that. Okay.

J

Jimmy Carper 14:23

However, eventually, the boy either told his parents or his parents found out somehow and they waited until Michael was 17 and took him to jail. I mean, took him to court and he is in jail for it. It's it's a strange set of circumstances. Ray Hill shakes his head to and it should have never happened. I mean, just nothing like a little family love.

B Bobby 14:50

J Jimmy Carper 14:51

Yeah, I know. Anyway. Let's see he is he's talked with Ray recently. As a matter of fact, I Ray's working and trying to get him out. They're doing everything they can. He's, he's a really, really nice guy. I just don't, I don't get it. Anyway, let's see, oh, when he received a letter from two girls about a week ago, I just saw it just so happened that he went to school with them. But they were listening to KPFT and heard about me. I was really glad to hear from them, like long lost friends. She said, some of the radio station gave them the address. And so I'm gonna do that again. Those of you who know Mike Williams, who remember him from the show, or just know him from school. His address is Mike Williams. Write this down now. And by the way, don't send greeting cards because they're not accepted. They only take letters. I didn't know. Anything. I don't get it. Mike Williams. Number Oh, 16122159 that and then there's a dash. space there. Nine, C. C is in cantaloupe, three. The address 1301 Franklin Street, Houston. 7702. He's in County right downtown. And he's been there for six months to a year.

B Bobby 16:33

Cheese. So welcome to the well lovely justice system.

J Jimmy Carper 16:41

If you know Mike, drop him a line. He would love to hear from you. He's a he's a really great kid. And I can't wait till he gets out. And he's a free man. And we can talk about it and scream and yell and carry on. Anyway, speaking of police and throw some parents, here's some things that you should not say to a police officer. Ah. There he stopped you. You're in your car and he says Absolutely. Do not say these things. I can't reach my license unless you hold my beer. No, don't say that.

B Bobby 17:15

Don't say that.

J Jimmy Carper 17:17

Here's something else you really shouldn't say, aren't you? The guy from the village people?

B Bobby 17:22

Definitely do not say that. No.

J Jimmy Carper 17:23

How about I thought you had to be in relative really good physical condition to be a police officer?

B Bobby 17:32

Definitely a bad.

J Jimmy Carper 17:35

Yeah. How about CI officers? That's terrific. The last officer only gave me a warning to know Don't say no, no, no, no, no. And the big one is when the officer says gee, Son, your eyes look red. Have you been drinking? You probably should not respond with G officer. Your eyes look glazed. Have you been eating doughnuts? Oh, don't say that. No, no, that would be bad. Honest. But we're gonna get back to the music. And I'm gonna be all over the place. I am going to be I'm going to be foci I'm going to be country. I'm going to be women. I'm going to be men. I'm gonna be let's see. What are you being a woman would be well, I mean it's just, you know, whatever comes my way. I'm gonna play it. And so don't don't expect this to go smoothly. Oh, no. Expect whiplash in between songs. Yes. I'm not. It's not one of these things. Suspecting smooth. Yeah. Go on.

B Bobby 18:03

J Jimmy Carper 18:08

B Bobby 18:37

J Jimmy Carper 18:42

With a man that Charlie Pacheco interviewed last month on the show. Jeff Miller is a long term openly gay Country and Western singer by the way, in case you don't know, okay, if you're just tuning in any performer, any artists that you hear on this show? Assume they are gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgendered. I will let you know if they're straight. I mean, that will be you know, they probably I probably won't play any strings. But you know. So here we go. Jeff Miller with I think it was Charlie's favorite ones and I liked this too. This is fun. It's called Little the leather side and you're hearing it on after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station.
