What is that? I'm sitting here thinking even that's a cut right circus. Or it's an old recording of the Moscow marching band. What is that?

00:19

We carry the BBC, but for a minute you thought we were carrying Radio Moscow?

00:22

I know it.

00:24

No girl. That was me.

00:26

Why? How do you play all those instruments?

00:29

Not all Oh, I was in the Van Buren high school marching band. Of course, I was a dancer from your high school.

00:35

00:41

Playing the 00:42

girl they had tape recorders back then.

00:50

We made a record when I was a junior in high school. What? And next week, on our first show of the year, we're going to do what we've been talking about. We're going to talk about our life story.

01:01

Oh, lucky. Lucky you out there. Lucky unison. Oh, my head's hurting already. Just thinking about it. We've had several calls from folks wanting to hear the good homosexual again, and we'll play that for you here in a minute. Okay. Matt called up and said the reason we lacked leadership in the community is that we have so many good homosexuals and responsible positions. Well, they're not actually good homosexual.

01:05

01:30

There are a lot of good hard working people out there. We had the Pride Week committee on and I was just very uplifted over the attitude and the all encompassing attitudes of Felix Garcia and Annabel Ivara. What baby? Oh, man, go ahead, interrupt that call back again and head back into this microphone towards the end of the show. If nothing else is going on too much, then we might think about taking new year's resolutions. We're gonna do that. And that sounds like a good night. Mr. Heard the show for the last four years for the first time in years and years and years and years. I have one. Do you really? Yes, I do. I New Year's resolution. Save it, Mary. That's what people have been telling me all my life.

01:55

02:09

02:25

Anyway, 90.1 FM KPFT. Houston.

02:30

We're here. And we're queer. And some of us are hateful.

02:33

02:38

When we're going to do these predictions, we'll do those later. Gosh, there's so many wonderful ones there.

02:45

What's that? What is this?

02:46

These are predictions?

02:48

Oh, please. Yeah. When Frank's writing and we'll get to in a minute. No, no, no, you're being channeled into Yes. They're being channeled through him. From Elvis know from SR. Willamina. from beyond the grave.

02:52

03:02

Oh, God, Sister Willamina. And she 03:05

is definitely beyond the grade.

03:10

Kids. Do you believe this? A bunch of queers in here acting like 03:14

yes, we are. We're all folks. Hey, somebody said that. They talked to the guy at the QC the other day, and I want to know if this was the policeman that worked for the gay radio show. Why not really a policeman marry? Just a police dispatcher? There you go. We'll be back in a minute. Hang on. I want to play this for the I can't remember her name. How awful. I Oh, no, not Blanca.

03:17

03:47

Where do you work with? No, you're in? June, I'm not going to guess anymore. Take a look.

03:54

Wait a minute. Hang on. Let's

04:01

play it for Tiffany. Back in September of 1988. We got a letter that said I'm a lesbian. And do not ever remember feeling any difference toward women than I do now. I came out of the closet about four years ago and was basically upset accepted by all or should I say most of my friends. When I decided to tell my father who by the way is also gay. He told me that he'd already knew. And I asked him how and he said that. He can't read you that. Anyway, her mom had a fit and threw them all out of the house. But she finally did accept herself. And she said in this letter that she just recently discovered after hours on 90.1 FM. And after listening to the crew, and all the people there she got really excited and was so relieved to know that there's somewhere you can turn and get involved in your life. She continues to me the game lesbian community is much more than just a group of people fighting for their rights, but a family striving for acceptance, and to stand up for our beliefs. Being gay or lesbian does indeed have its trials and tribulations, but I'm proud of myself and what I am, and I'll be damned if I'm gonna let society bring me to my knees for leading a life that I'm pleased with. I'm 18 years old now. And I hope that this letter will inspire some other younger people. And let them know that there is a place to turn. There are people who care. Well, you get that from Tiffany in September 16. On September 16 90, it was printed the mattress was.

05:51

weighed around the wall. See, this is a little notebook that we've carried around for the last four years almost. Because this one has been four years. This is the fourth year we've done a New Year's show. That's That's right. And this notebook is what we use to carry around all used to carry around. This is something that's real special to me. It's a message that came to me at Central at the Houston Police Department for I work Central Dispatch. So yeah, this is how it looked on the screen. And I printed it that morning. And it came in August is that August 8? Is that right? Eight to 88 August the second 1988 at 556 16. Five hours, 56 minutes and 16 seconds. August the second 1988 516 Six 556 16, which was a Sunday morning because we did after hours for two hours. And then I went to work to Central Dispatch from WEC, which is the computer one of the computer terminals over at Western with the cop shop. Oh, and the message simply says, You are my hero, buddy. But I never have in all these years, found out who sent the message. No kidding. Yeah,

07:14

I asked nice in a way. I asked how bad I got was, we know nothing.

07:21

I'm just I'm just a homosexual. And now he didn't even say that or she hadn't even if it was a man or woman. Just someone that said they were a dedicated professional. Looking for answers, I guess. This is also a letter that we got. Actually we didn't get this letter. The TW t got this letter. They never did print it. But they did forward it to me shortly after Mark timmers who was a Houston police officer and just harassed to the point of quitting. Because he was homosexual. They never did come right out and say that, but that's why they did it. Yeah. And this letter was written and sent to me it says, As I typed this letter to the readers of TW T I do it in fear that someone I work with might come in and see the reasons for the fear is that I am one of the Houston Police. I had the reasons for one of the fears is that I am at one of the Houston Police Department substations. I listened to the radio program that Mark timmers Did on KPFT. And I laughed with him a lot. But I also cried because I know Mark. I worked with him and felt that he was the one one of the most caring police officers not only for the people of Houston, but for other officers. I know how I felt because I too, am again, police officer. I know of all the troubles Mark had with the police department and how hard he tried at first to hide the fact that he was gay. I then saw Mark just become self and go about his business as a police officer. Other officers seldom insulted mark to his face. But the worst is what I saw what they would say about him behind his back, I would see Mark walk into a row call room and have to sit with him and have to sit by himself. Even though Mark knew what was going on, he kept doing his job better than anyone else I feel. I feel a lot of fear. Mark didn't know what to do. And listen to the advice of one of the attorneys and resigned from the police department. It was sad for me and I don't think the community will ever realize how much they lost and how much it hurt them. I don't know what to do. I'm afraid to do anything because the department feels mark as a criminal. And so to the state. I know better. Mark is not a criminal. He just knew he could never try Is anyone with authority on the Houston Police Department? Because there is no one who cares. It's just the one who wants to stand up and fight that wins. I don't want to say anyway, because I'm not like other the other officers who wrote in the twit, sooner or later,

I will do something. And God only knows they will transfer me or worse yet, fire me too. I have not talked to Mark since he left the department, but I know he will succeed in life. I just wish you were back out on the streets of Houston, watching my back and helping people like me, and helping the people of the city as much as he did. PS to any internal affairs sergeant, you should get a medal on how you scared Mark Timmers into not knowing what to do, or trying to talk with you. Maybe there should be a commendation from the chief's office for your Nazi methods. As usual, I will not find this letter, it may not get published. And the editors of TW T will probably not print it, and possibly the readers will not hear it. But in case they do. Thanks for listening to the words of another gay Houston police officer who will help while being in the closet. And that's something that's wonderful. I remember when Mark was on I do.

That was a great interview. He was so I don't know. He kind of changed my attitude about policemen. Because he was so human. Well, you just said the only thing Yeah, now the only thing he ever wanted to do was be a policeman have that uniform on?

11:59

You just said earlier tonight that you're scared of the police and I am sometimes and it's it's conditioning it's I guess it's because of someone my age who is used to the police tactics of the 60s. As as happen to gay and lesbian people when bars were raided all the time. And we just grew up feeling that the police were not our friends. That was what I realized that that was the 60s it is different now things aren't like that anymore. No, but even when I see a policeman pull up behind me, I look at the speedometer and think, Oh God, what am I doing? You know what I mean? Either I worked there for all these years. But that was a very special program when Mark Timmers was on, you bet. And we'll play part of that for you next week. And in the week after as we continue to celebrate after hours going into its fourth year of service. But Mark Timmers was here in uniform. On September the sixth 1987. When we did our very first program, I was sitting here shaking like a leaf, because I just knew that those hateful homophobic people would rush down here and kill me or even worse fire me and he walked in the station. While he was here to show me support. We turned out to be pretty good friends. And this, this policeman that wrote this letter is right mark should never have quit because you can't fight from the outside. And it's really funny baby and in three going on for years that I've done after hours. The only grief, the only hate the only resentment. The big battles I've had to fight have been in the gay community, not from the city. And a lot of people say, Well, you're just protected by KPFT. That's not true. I'm protected by the same thing that protected Perry Watkins the Constitution. I'm a gay man who is proud of who and what he is. And there came a point in my life when I stood up and I said, yes, the Constitution is true. It does begin with the words we the people.

12:02

12:29

And that includes me, no matter what my mother said, no matter what the church has said, no matter what the schools have said, This is my country. And by golly, I'm going to have a wonderful life. And they can't stand it. Earlier I was talking about a woman, a young woman who just joined the shift that I worked on. And now all the police officers are running in to take a look at her because she's new meet on the rag. Girl. I've been broadcasting for almost four years and I can't get a date with a cop. I don't even really want to date with one although that wouldn't be a fantasy, wouldn't it?

14:54

A short hair with a lot of people? Yeah, well, it would be nice just Have one police officer find the courage to come to me and say, Wow, I really do appreciate what you're doing. And I want you to hang in there and continue to do it. And there are others here who feel like me, but they're scared and they haven't got enough courage to come to you yet. It'll happen someday. Someday, a gay and lesbian police officer, gay and lesbian members of the Houston Police Department will march with us in the game lesbian Pride Week parades I have no doubt your eventual I guess I'm a good person. I'm a damn good dispatcher. And I love my job just as much as Mark timorous loved his job. I only wish he were back there in that blue suit. I know he does too. Yeah, this is what we played on the show the morning that Mark was on and if you listen real close, you can hear yours truly dispatching. What item 52 It that's okay. We get here we get her hooked up into what

14:58

23:06

23:10

23:14

can help us talk about Dr. Stephen Hawking.

23:16

Talking about the nonsensical ravings of a lunatic mind. We know that.

23:21

I'll do that right now.

23:23

Are you gonna do that?

23:24

I'm gonna do it.

23:25

I just got a call from one of our favorite clowns. Oh, yeah. Rainbow. Rainbow de clown. She said she's a limp wristed queen, and she's happy of it because it makes her give her lots of money.

23:39

That's another prediction. Oh, okay. Okay.

23:42

I'm gonna save that. Yes. No, no, no. We're just like going through the bog grabbing all the good stuff. This is something you don't hear get to hear too often. It's Harvey Milk being sworn in as the first honest to god openly gay politician. Yeah, San Francisco solemnly swear or affirm that you will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California against all enemies foreign and domestic that you will bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California. That you take this obligation freely without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion and that you will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which you are about to enter and during such time as you hold the office of supervisor, district number five

24:03

25:00

Oh, I didn't even read the drought what you don't understand is Anita Bryant did say that gay people brought the drought to San Francisco. And the day Harvey was sworn in it rained.

25:20

In fact much for that girl

25:22

he talked later that he said he was gonna he had been getting letters and calls and we're trying to impeach him to get rid of the rain. Anyway, are we gonna do this? This can this do yours thing? Yes. Okay, hang on. We'll be right back usually when you hear that music We're rocking one of our friends. Yeah.

25:57

26:02

Oh, that's right. No one is immune. Okay, girl. So we got these already. Yes. These are from Sister Willamina.

26:12

She's been. They've been Frank and Jimmy had been in the dark, right with Kevin and we're looking for Kelly. Yes, Sister Willamina needs to get that queen to call Roger. Roger is getting hot. I think he's doing anyway. But sister Willamina is they're all huddled here and she's getting us these predictions for 1991. And here's her first prediction. She said that President Bush will come out of come out and say the reason that he picked in coil is that he has a soft spot for Dizzy blonde Oh.

26:52

Well, sister will remain there predicts that Kathy wittmeyer will actually say the a word. She however, will not fund any AIDS related project with city money.

27:08

Oh, Lesley Perez will get a new wig and win a day of beauty from Montgomery Ward.

27:17

We're all looking forward to that when 27:20

she's come through again.

27:22

Lindsay will appropriate $1 million from the Greater Houston AIDS Alliance budget to install toll gates at the entrance of the Thomas Street Clinic so that those using the services can pay for them.

27:41

And we continue. SR Willamina. The Texas sodomy law will be ruled unconstitutional, then constitutional, then unconstitutional then constitutional, then unconstitutional. The cycle won't end until the year 2010. Much time it will be made into a movie. There you go. 69 plus 22.

28:07

Okay, Dr. Steven hotsy will be arrested at Memorial Park and charged with being in violation of Texas Penal Code statute. 2106. After his conviction, he will come out of the closet and then run for the office of President of the G LPC. Yeah.

28:29

Speaking of them, the Houston gay and little gay and lesbian Political Caucus. Oh, can we edit that out iPhone,

28:37

28:38

okay. The jhG LPC will endorse the grand dragon of the kk k for state senate position because he will explain that just because the kk k hates homosexuals and would kill them on site. He doesn't agree with them personally.

29:03

I mean, I get her in here.

29:04

Oh, well, I feel her power fading. Yes, yes. Yes.

29:08

She's gone.

29:09

She's gone. Gone. For now. She's 29:20

no, no rainbow was just letting us know that she's a happy little fairy. We knew that. Rainbow didn't come in this year. Santa Claus.

29:28

I know what happened girl and I always look forward to that because we never know what kind of Santa Claus character rainbow is going to be. That's true.

29:38

29:41

Either. Mr. Claus or Mrs. Claus or Mrs. Claus or, you know. Did you run by and see random rainbows department this year? Know what happened? She puts about 4 million lights more than you just About it's incredible. It's wonderful.

30:03

No, he usually goes out of his way. I

⌚ 30:05 really does.

⌚ 30:06
I had car trouble.

⌚ 30:08
Oh, that's right. You have had car trouble for six months you've had car trouble. Yeah. Poor baby's been kind of up and down lately hasn't it? Yeah. Talking about my car. Yeah that too.

⌚ 30:23
We have a new segment that we're going to introduce go on after hours in 1991 and we will play it of course backwards to get all of this satanic messages out of it. You bet it's brought to you by Dr. Steven Holtzman. You are talking about the nonsensical ravings of a lunatic mind

⌚ 30:37

⌚ 30:43
watch you don't watch watch watch watch watch that no exceptions to watch watch you hear sound bites and checks the best to watch watch we'll be right around it some folks don't know

⌚ 31:36
You know what's funny, right? And you know what's funny about this right? Was that they had this sodomy law forever, right?

⌚ 31:43
111 years to be

⌚ 31:44
exact. And here I am. That's pretty 31:46

much forever as far as I'm aware.

31:48

I have a you know what, homosexual? We just can't say it on the radio. Practicing. Yeah, well, girl. I've got it figured out. Yeah, that's practicing. But I got it figured out. I've heard stories. I do it every chance I can get in here. I worked for the police department. Or I could be arrested and laid out and they don't so 32:11

31:52

31:55

32:07

follow up from the from the queers. Well, no one doing homosexuals

32:15

fools law has been declared unconstitutional right now we know that in bookstores and bath houses and French quarters and or else Mary bedrooms, bedrooms and back back rooms and wood back seats and woods. And anywhere you can pull your pants down and do it. On it. And for the women, all I can say is hallelujah. Yeah, they're doing it too.

32:19

32:43

That's right.

...

32:44

And you got Dr. Steven, what's his name? Holsey.

32:48

You are talking about the nonsensical ravings of a lunatic mind

32:53

screaming and yet one

32:54

has a hard half in it. Texas has a horror house.

33:04

We know we know. We know. We know. We know. We know. Is this. This the city councilman? What does he want? There? So what does he want to talk to me, buddy? Wow. Well, we'll talk to him. Well, okay.

33:18

33:22

Oh, we're telling Dr. Hulsey. Right. Is that we just want a little you got a baby is girl. Constitution says We the people and that's us. Now, we do know it's a little a little not a lot. We know it's a little upsetting. A lot of settings for these good folks that are not of the homosexual persuasion, to hear us and really don't know what to do about us. So we'll let our good friend Pat Parker, who is born and raised here in Houston. Black feminists for many, many years. tell you just what you can do with your blood and concern. Is that what she's going to tell them? This is for the straight folks. Yeah, it's 34:11 called.

34:10

34:13

It's called for the straight folks who don't mind gays, but wish they weren't so blatant.

34:26

You know, some people got a lot of nerve. Sometimes I don't believe that things I see in here. Have you met the woman who shocked by two women kissing and in the same breath tells you that she's pregnant. But gays shouldn't be blatant. Or the strike couple sits next to you in a movie and he can't hear the dialogue because of the sound effects. But gays shouldn't be blatant. And the woman in your office, spend your whole lunch hour talking about her new bikini drawers and how much her husband likes stuff. But gays shouldn't be blatant. Or the hip check in your class, rattling a mile a minute while you're trying to get stoned in the John about the camping trip she took with her musician boyfriend. But gays shouldn't be blatant. You go in a public bathroom, and all over the walls. There's John loves Mary Janice digs, Richard Pepe loves Dolores, etc. But gays shouldn't be blamed. Or you go to an amusement park, and there's a tunnel of love and pictures, the streets painted on the front and grinning couples coming in and out. But gays shouldn't be blatant. Fact is blatant Heterosexuals are all over the place. Supermarkets, movies, at work, in church, in books on television every day and night, every place even in gay bars. And they want gay men and women to go hide in the closets. So do you straight folks? I say Sure. I'll go if you go to, but I'm polite. So after you

36:27

What do you think about when you hear this?

36:28

So I think of the seven days I think of dancing, I think of partying. I think of Sylvester, our late, great national hero. Yeah.

36:41

KPFT. Hey,

36:45

I just like to repeat a Happy New Year to you and John. happy, prosperous new year. And I was wondering if you could do me a big favor in the name of anti censorship.

36:57

What's that? Could you please iustify mv love? You bet we'll aet to that. God bless her. Do you have anything for the new year? Resolution? Yeah, that kind of stuff.

37:10

That kind of stuff. Well,

37:11

I plan to quit smoking this year. Oh, good luck.

37:15

And I'm going to take last part again. No what?

37:19

Well, good luck with that. Thanks for calling. Mary, why don't you quit smoking this year?

37:28

Because I don't want to 37:34

just keep Jesse Helms in 37:36

power, but there's no one like Sylvester and no music. I want to talk about her cigarettes. I'm not I like smoking and I'm not giving it up. Okay, Mary. Okay. That's cool. That's it.

37:47

37:51

And I'm over people in restaurants who sit in the non smoking section and give me dirty looks.

37:58

You know, we went to Conroe is that right? On our way to the Renaissance Festival. I didn't get there because it rained like hell and canceled but when we booked our hotel they wanted to know if we wanted a Smoking or non smoking room.

38:18

Yeah, they've had years now he potel girl.

38:21

I couldn't believe it. Anyway. Any new year's resolutions franker? He's gonna let the cards fall where they are. I'm gonna let him fly already quit smoking. I should have waited then I'm gonna have a New Year's resolution will take it up for the next few days. No, I would never, never never tell anybody to take up smoking. No, I'm not ready to stop. Elena when my body tells me to stop. I will. Oh, God, I'm good. My New Year's resolution is yeah, how we'll talk about that later. And what do you got your hand? What is it? Do you have one i for the first time in years and years and years. I really have one and I am going to renew my membership at fitness exchange but this year I'm going to go

38:31

38:38

39:17

You didn't go last year.

39:19

I went for about a month. So nice kinda you got a workout buddy. No, I know at noon girl. She's not gonna get up. I wanted you to go Can't you go I can't get to noon classes are great. There's only a dozen people there and it's just a lot of fun

39:24

39:28

39:32

to go after we started looking slim and trim

39:35

jelly and I have pegged you do I'm gonna order him my New Year's resolution goes with that. Oh yeah. joined the gym last week, but I'm not gonna go until January the seventh. Oh, because I didn't figure like I didn't feel like I could do anything during the holidays. Right? Oh, I know. That's right. But my New Year's resolution is to try and take care of myself. off for a change physically or mentally both, okay? Because I'm doing pretty good financially, I'm starting to learn that you can dial 976 numbers every 20 minutes. In fact, I met one of our listeners last week on a 976 line immediately following this program, I see. And we had a wonderful call, and it just really went. Nevermind. What does he mean by that? This is some of what we've done over the last four years, our very first program, September the sixth 1987. We had Mary with the National march on Washington. She was the organizer here in the Houston, Houston area and interesting story about her very interesting story because she called the gay and lesbian switchboard, trying to find information about the community, cried for 45 minutes and hung up and called back and got her information. That's when she was first coming out. And then a couple of years later, she was leading the march to Washington. Our second guest was the Gay Lesbian switchboard. How interesting.

39:43

41:06

And then we tried to have them on on the second anniversary show. That's right. I mean, the second show after the anniversary show, that's true. We've also had, who else? The Church of the rock, we're getting ready to have a church group on right we are we're going to get into contact with a church group.

41:16

41:22

41:22

41:28

We've had the Montrose Symphony Band, which is now called the Lone Star band Lone Star Symphonic Band. We've had Joe Watson the group Theater Workshop, Mike Wilson, back when there was a parkway Athletic Club, but Mark Michelson has been here doing other things. You bet just recently to Bob Hodge January and Ronnie pig with the community Gospel Church. Ray Hill, of course. John Gill from him CCR, we need to have John in here to February the 28th 1988. The Montrose singers. The next week, Ron sparks of Houston, AIDS Foundation, couples that was a couple's group that's still going strong reflections of a Rock Lobster, the Aaron Frick story, girl, we do that all the time. We do that at least once a year. Don Sanders, director of the American gay atheist has been here and will be here again. Gays behind the badge. The Mark timmers interview we're talking about earlier was on June the fifth 1988

42:28

We need to repeat that too. It's really good.

42:31

We did our first live for our broadcasts from a lesbian bar kindred spirits back on June the 19th 1988.

42:40

I had only been on the show a few weeks.

42:44

Yeah. Let's see we've done what else have we done girl Christmas Halloween original broadcast this that something else? And of course, we've dragged everybody you can think of yes, we have been my favorite part.

43:00

He Well, that's such a bitch. No, because just because it is a gay leader or a leading group does not mean they're infallible. And if it's true, what we've really done is we say things that we don't like we're gonna talk about it. One of the things we saw in the last three and a half years that we didn't like, came from a poster that says aid a thon aid Athan, a noun described as a lively social gathering to raise money for AIDS. Five hours of dancing at 2401 San Jacinto sponsored by the AIDS Foundation of Houston. August 24 1990 9pm. That's okay. That's a good cause. But down on the bottom it says dance till there's a cure. That made me so mad. Are they still dancing girl?

43:19

43:59

Girl, they went home that made me so angry. I lost my cool on the radio that I know.

44:01

44:07

I've lost my cool on the radio before too. Hi, Chris. Hi. What's you up to?

44:11

Well, I just started I call up to and wish you guys a happy new year.

44:16

Do you have any new year's resolutions? Yeah, but I'd probably have to 44:19

pull the whole roll of toilet paper down and 44:24

I know what you mean. I don't think you have enough time. What? What part of town are you calling from? Spring? Okay. Thanks for calling baby. Take care of baby. Yeah. Hey, Matt. How are you? Okay, Happy New Year.

44:38

Yeah. How to Ben?

44:39

Yeah, he's at home listening. Oh, really? Yeah, we're fixing to get a phone so he'll be able to call you all up again.

44:45

You guys have been around for so long with us. A year.

44:50

I know. But it seems like a lot longer. I guess because you're so active with us.

44:55

We're coming up on a year together.

44:56

I know. And that is exciting. Oh yeah. Writing Okay, what's your New Year's resolution?

45:00

45:02

Well, my New Year's resolution is to continue to come out to the hedgerows around me, you know, in a gentle and non threatening manner. So that, you know, dispel some of the myths and alleviate some of their apprehensions.

45:19

Good idea. In fact, I'm kind of surprised because you're, you seem to me so open about your lifestyle. I can't imagine that there's too many people who don't know.

45:31

Yeah. Well, it's not always easy. Because I work in a real redneck place, you know, and all of these big burly men come in and stuff and sometimes when they ask what that pink triangle I'm wearing means you know, I get butterflies whenever I start explaining it, baby. Thanks for calling. Yeah, say hello to Ben. We said hi. Ben, if you're listening Hi. We'll take your calls right after the news so stay with us you're listening to after hours? Right radio celebrating life from the hunter Montrose.

45:47

46:00

46:04

We're here and work where are we? Thank you don't 46:10

shout it out. Girl.

46:11

You don't look like you believe it right now. Now we are I don't know. She was pretty clear to me. Yeah, look clear. You hide some bitch. You got your hair cut. Or did you just get caught in something? We'll be back
