Stacy Bolding, Jimmy Carper

00:01

timed Okay,

S Stacy Bolding 00:02

now the reason I I had read these definitions and I'm reading them to you now is because I wanted to have a better understanding of how 2106 applied to me. I had originally thought that orals any type of oral sex was illegal just to do in the state of Texas. And that's that's not necessarily the case.

00:24

The way

S Stacy Bolding 00:28

2106 reads is a person commits an offence if he engages in a devious and devious sexual intercourse with an individual of the same sex. Now, this is a Class C misdemeanor. Okay, read that again, because it sound like that we just defined the gay and lesbian lifestyle right there.

00:41

S Stacy Bolding 00:49

Oh yeah So yes and I'll read it again Okav A person commits an offense if he engages in

... yeah, and I read it again. Okay, a person commits an offense if he engages in... deviant sexual intercourse with an individual of the same sex.

01:00

So no matter what you and I do with our partners, because we are gay and lesbian. It's illegal according to this law, according to this law. Yes. Okay. So basically, folks realize out there, this is not a sodomy law. This is a homosexual law. And it's offensive to everybody.

S Stacy Bolding 01:22

Well, I think I think my biggest problem with this with this particular penal code is that it takes a group of people and tells them that because you are who you are, right? This is against the law for you. What upset me even more is is this will only apply to a heterosexual couple, if they decide to do it in public.

01:47

2106 applies to a heterosexual couple

S Stacy Bolding 01:50

devious intercourse only applies to heterosexual if they do it in public. If they do it in public. That's when it's against the law. If they decided to do it in the privacy of their own home, they'd have no problem.

02:03

Okay. But 2106 Definitely defines homosexual conduct. And because of this makes it illegal. Okay, why did all the fury about this, why has it died down then?

S Stacy Bolding 02:18

I would, I would assume is because most people don't understand it. The way it's written, right? They really did not understand how it affected them. Okay. The reason is, is because most people believe that if they put it on the back burner, right? Don't talk about it. Right? That it will eventually just be taken off the book, or you know, it'll be written off.

02:39

It can happen, it can happen. There are still some crazy laws out there. Oh, yeah.

S

Stacy Bolding 02:46

I mean, I have discovered many of them. It's illegal in the state of Texas to shoot an Indian off the back of a stagecoach, okay, it's also illegal in Dallas to have cattle in downtown. I read an article the other day. I believe it was one of the eye states Indiana, Iowa, something like that. It's illegal for a woman to kiss a man with a mustache. And so why couldn't we just call this a loony law and just let it sit there till it does go away?

02:52

S

Stacy Bolding 03:17

Well, I think one of the reasons I have a problem with it just sitting there and going away is, is because if this law, if this particular penal Penal Code applied to any other minority, it would have already been gone.

Right? Okay. All right. Now, I spoke to a friend of mine the other day, he happens to be a lawyer. And I brought this up. And he says, To date, he didn't think anybody had been persecuted on this law, what they're getting people on is the public glutinous. So therefore, for some reason, the law isn't being used. So again, why can't we just sit back and let it more or less mold and disappear?

S

Stacy Bolding 04:08

Well, I think I think in doing that, and not stepping up and saying something about, you're saying it's okay for people to be treated that way.

♂

04:17

Okay, so we're in to discrimination now. Exactly. Okay.

S

Stacy Bolding 04:21

What I'm what I'm trying, I don't care if people accept the fact that I'm homosexual, right? Because that's such a small part of my life. Right? And if that's all you're gonna, if that is the only reason you're gonna like me or dislike me, I really don't care to know you paints a very narrow view of you. I mean, but But overall, we've all fought for different civil rights, right. Privacy issues. This is a privacy issue. This is what I do in my home. And in my opinion, that's nobody's business, but my own right. It upsets me that someone tells me it's against the law for me to do it. Okay. Okay. not apply it to, uh, to everyone to everyone.

05:02

Right? So again, we're back to the discrimination type thing. Okay. You've also got 2107, which I think a lot of people were confusing with 2106, which is what a 2107 is a public lewdness, penal code. And it basically reads that a person commits an offense if he knowingly engages in any of the following acts in public in a public place, or if in a public place, he is reckless about whether another is present who will be offended or alarmed by his act. And then of course, they list a series, what these things are, and the first one is any act of sexual intercourse. The second one is any act of deviant sexual intercourse. Okay, the third one is an act of sexual conduct. Okay, and the fourth one is an act of involving contact between a person's mouth or genitals to the behind, or gentle tools of an animal or foul. Okay, that's an Aggie law. No kidding. I'm kidding.

S Stacy Bolding 05:16

06:04

S Stacy Bolding 06:08

All right. But my whole point is, if they're not going to do it across the board,

06:13

S Stacy Bolding 06:14

what they're doing here is, is there, they've got it in two different sections, right? Which I don't understand why they're doing it that well, it sounds like to cover in the laws to cover homosexuality in 2107, they had to define it in 2106, they had to make it illegal. So now they can prosecute people on it. The other thing I don't understand, and this is for those people that are that are straight. If you're in your home, and there is a third party involved in a conduct, and that third person for whatever reason, then becomes offended and calls the police. Now, is that illegal? Because according to 2107, it sounds like it is because it says if a person gets offended, so these two people are in their own home, and they chose to invite somebody and this person gets offended. Their act is now illegal,

06:24

s

Stacy Bolding 07:22

basically. Yes.

o

07:24

Okay. All right. So therefore 2107 goes against everybody's personal rights.

s

Stacy Bolding 07:31

Right now, I'm not saying that people should be able to have any type of sexual contact in public

o

07:37

right now, we're not discussing that. We're not saying right

s

Stacy Bolding 07:39

at all. But because of if you're going to do that, if that is what your kink is, then if you want to do that, that's fine. But you have to realize what the consequences of doing that are, right. Going back to what you were talking about, inviting someone in, and it offending them, right. Number one, I guess you should screen better who

o

08:06

you're right. Oh, yeah,

Stacy Bolding 08:08

definitely. Definitely. But number two, it's It's ridiculous. It's I don't understand the point behind it. My question, no, but behind making that private, okay. Your legal simply because somebody you invited into it was offended. Yeah. Because if they had any information about anything, they should have known that before, right there.

08:36

Right. And if, if the people had been involved, I don't think they would have been in fence. But you know, me, I'll take things way out.

s

Stacy Bolding 08:46

Well, we had also talked about earlier today, when we had this discussion on on 2121 2107. What would happen if a man and woman were in the middle of a sexual act right living room and someone went walked by and saw it? What would actually be done? More than likely the person that saw

o

which is illegal? Yeah. Yeah. But which is illegal? Yeah.

s

Stacy Bolding 09:12

More than likely, because you're dealing with a heterosexual couple, the person who is looking in the window is the one who's going to get in trouble.

o

09:19

So if it's your eye with our partners, the person looking in the window does not get prosecuted? We do because until it's 21, he is sick when he went because of the discrimination law. And so therefore, the person peeping into my home, if I don't shoot him first, would not be arrested. Right?

s

Stacy Bolding 09:40

I would assume. Okay, with the way this is written. We have offended them. Maybe we should close our blinds. I don't know. But then again, I don't normally look in windows where the bones are open or not.

o

09:55

Nope, nope. But you know, people if they see an accident, they just have to slow down then look, and everybody's experienced this on 610 and 59. And all of our fun free ways around here. Okay, so let me ask you this, where did you get this information?

s

Stacy Bolding 10:12

I got this from a paralegals state law book. Okay. I tried to go to the, excuse me,

o

10:22

okay, is go ahead,

Stacy Bolding 10:24

I tried to try to go to the library, the Law Library downtown. And I could not understand the way they had it written. I couldn't I couldn't understand a word of it. So I called a friend of mine has a paralegal and asked her to give me the simplest definition of 2106 and public lewdness. Because I wanted to be able to understand it myself. And I was upset with myself, because I didn't get was written and said something completely different than what I believed. Okay, that I believe that it that it said,

10:57

Okay, and so these are not the actual laws. These are just are these someone's interpretations like yours and eyes interpretation? No, no, no, no. Is this all the legalese being brought back into English? This is a yeah, basically, lady who's a paralegal has a dictionary on that has all the penal codes. And I saw the book itself. And before she made copies, because I wanted to know exactly if I was even going to be able to understand it and talk about it on the show. Again, I'm gonna go back to go ahead. Because I didn't understand it, I'm going to assume that there are a lot of people out there who don't, who don't understand the actual meaning. They don't know how it applies to our community. Okay. In reference to the strike community. Okay. And that might be one of the reasons why it hasn't gone any further, right, because everything that I remember ever seen was all the legalese on it. And you know, as well, as I knew how fun that is to read. Of course, the papers have to give some translation, but it was never enough. So now what we're what we're back saying on 2106, is it's not a sodomy law, is a homosexual conduct attacking our personal lives and civil rights. Exactly. This is no different than a color issue, or a woman's issue. This is the majority attacking a minority. Well,

Stacy Bolding 11:10

11:59

Stacy Bolding 12:37

I believe that if this if this law, or if this Penal Code said that it was illegal for a white man to have sex with a black woman, it wouldn't be in here. It wouldn't exist. It wouldn't. Because and because one of my biggest things is as people say, well, that's your choice. You choose to do that. So you choose to black break the law. Okay. And that's not what it's about at all right? I mean, this is how I am. And I don't like to be discriminated discriminated against because of it. Right.

13:11

Okay. So we're into a discrimination issue. What I'd like to do and say in the next coming weeks, then John is, let's get a lawyer on here. Sure, because you and I are talking from a limited basis. And although it's a good discussion, and we're getting some interesting responses, and I'd like to get a lawyer on here, who can probably give us a little more information. What I'd like to do also is get Jimmy's opinion, have you been listening? No, not at No.

J Jimmy Carper 13:42

Okay. Actually, I've been taking care of things in the lobby. And I've been, you know, you hit a couple of points that that kind of surprised me, like, about straight people involved. You know, I didn't think this, this would cover this covered straight people at all. I thought it was just ah, well, 2106 doesn't recover. Oh, seven when he went, Oh, seven does? Yeah. What upsets me about this law about this particular penal code is that what is against the law for us to do in private? Is not against the law for a straight couple to do in private. Isn't that weird? Yes, it becomes illegal for them to do it. If they decide they want to do it in public. Yeah. Or if somebody gets offended, or if someone's offended by what they're doing. Which that's what surprised me. Yeah. And it upset me. Probably because I did. I had no idea how it was written. And I didn't really know what the meaning was. I was probably more mad at myself. Then I was at the actual law as as at the actual penal code, but as I read it more and more and more, it made me more upset and more upset and more upset. Yeah. I'd like to ask you, what was your interpretation of it?

S Stacy Bolding 14:01

J Jimmy Carper 14:58

I just thought it was at At the sodomy law, that's that, you know, I, until tonight, I never heard of 2107 It's always been 2106 and it's always been the sodomy law. And I guess maybe, well, I know, I've never read it. Actually, I most people, it's just, you know, you hear 2106 21 You know, we're, we're, it's against the law to be gay, period.

Ω 15:23

Actually, if you reread this 2106 I'd like to point out a couple of point out one thing, so we read it for me,

S Stacy Bolding 15:31

okay. 2106 a person commits an offence if he engages in deviant sexual intercourse with another individual of the same sex. This bothers me to say it really upsets me because it says he

15:46

defines he specifically not

S Stacy Bolding 15:49

she or people in general,

J Jimmy Carper 15:51

sort of like the Victorian laws where it's right it was it was against the law to be gay in in England, but not to be a lesbian because of Queen Victoria. didn't believe in lesbianism.

16:03

Right? Right. Right. So you know, it's like,

J Jimmy Carper 16:07

what could two women possibly do together? We showed 16:13

we can have several discussions on that one. You know, Becky villain.

S Stacy Bolding 16:17

You know why, while we're on this and talking about laws that are almost ridiculous, I was reading an article about Singapore. And it they have told their people that it is illegal for a married couple to perform oral sex on each other, unless it is going to lead into procreation or regular sex, vanilla sex, okay. But it's not illegal for unmarried couples to do it. Do you understand that now, my big question is would it be illegal for the for the man or the woman to do it with someone else?

17:03

To do it outside their marriage?

S Stacy Bolding 17:07

Well, when they asked the judge about it, he said, he said, Well, I don't see anything wrong

Well, when they asked the judge about it, he said, he said, well, I don't see anything wrong with that.

J Jimmy Carper 17:14

I mean, it doesn't see

S Stacy Bolding 17:16

anything wrong with scary. Well, obviously, he saw nothing wrong with it to tell straight people, they couldn't tell married couples that they couldn't do it.

Ω 17:23

That's true. That's true. Okay, so we're going to talk to a couple of lawyers and get some more information on this.

S Stacy Bolding 17:30

Exactly. No, no, of course, anybody who has an opinion?

Ω 17:33

Oh, yeah. This topic is open for discussion from now on till four o'clock. So anybody want to call and talk to spanic? Great.

J Jimmy Carper 17:41

55738.

Ω 17:44

Thank you. I just want to make the point that just because the law specifies he does not make it just a gay issue. It makes it a gay and lesbian issue and are all one community which does that mean? It's like the legal he which means people?

J Jimmy Carper 18:00

S Stacy Bolding 18:04

I certainly would hope so. Yeah.

18:07

Right. Right. Okay. Have you got a little piece of music?

Jimmy Carper 18:10

I sure do. I've got a brand new music by eraser. Good album came out this week, and I've been listening to it and this is my very best favorite. And I think that you know, you probably have to listen to the words because the title might throw you off a little. It's called fingers and thumbs.

18:32

Sounds like my kind of song. We'll be back Alright, this is bed plate, erect the bed see if the rain I'm over at chances revenue an excellent time over here on a Wednesday night. We're talking to KPFT Houston. come out and visit us at the winds or if that is not close enough, come to chances on Westheimer you listen to and I'll listen to KPFT Houston.

18:35

19:05

That's Betsy from the ranch. And she listens to after hours and you're listening to after hours. It is 130 in the morning. Yes, that magical time has come and God two o'clock became one o'clock. So it's 130 the bars are still open. And you're listening to after hours with Stacy and John.

19:31

Hey, we're back to cause more trouble.

S Stacy Bolding 19:36

Sounds like fun. Oh, yeah.

19:37

Are you going to do another song? Are we going to move into what

J

Jimmy Carper 19:43

where are we going from here? We talked about the

19:46

you want to do that intro. Okay, let's do that. Before before you queue it. I think you and I need to do sort of a preview as to what's coming up because We've had to explain it even to a lot of our friends this is, this is something that John and I put together more or less on the spur of the moment. A lot of people do not understand, I guess, the SM lifestyle and what's involved. And we're always getting questions about it. Always the same questions. And that's fine. We don't mind explaining. Not at all. No, not at all. But we thought it would be fun to turn the tables, we thought it would be fun to, I guess, ask you all the same questions. Because we're always trying to explain ourselves. And after a little bit that gets a little tiresome, and it's, again, we do not mind explaining, but we thought it would be fun to turn the tables and what we've done is we've put together a little audio play. And I'm just gonna do a quick intro on it. And then we're gonna go into the play. So if you'll just queue up the music for me.

Please remember that.

21:11

Oh, yeah. All in humor. And. Okay. What I need you to do is pretend you stepped into the Twilight Zone sort of thing. Just close your eyes and relax. Pretend that the world is different. What we do is normal. What you do is now a new phenomenon. So relax, and enjoy. And close your eyes. We're going into an alternate universe keep those eyes closed. We're not there yet. Oh, yes.

♂

22:02

Please remaster John. Till Kpf. Team 90.1. We're radio with an attitude. Master John. Can you imagine a life without spanking with the bondage tickling? Oh, what do I have to? You know, I've heard that they don't even talk about that. They just meet at bars and go home.

22:16

♂

22:24

You mean they're drunk? Is that legal? Wait. What we're discussing here is a new phenomenon called vanilla set.

22:31

That at this time, we'd like to introduce Mr. And Mrs. Bonilla, USA, Mr. Ken, vanilla and Mrs. Barbie.

22:40

Ken, we're gonna start with you. What is the analysis that?

22:44

Well, you have to do it with the light ball. Captain is always the under back. Preferably with eyes closed? And never on Sundays or religious holidays and never before sundown. And always in the bedroom in the bed.

22:58

Can how many different positions are there?

23:02

What? Okay, Barbie? Is there any type of a dress code?

23:08

Never had heels without pantyhose and matching shoes in first?

23:13

Oh, okay. Yeah. And I guess who would you? How would you figure out who is passive and who's aggressive?

23:19

I'm never aggressive.

23:23

Well, with that, I guess we'll move on to Ken. Where do you go to meet people? Well, grocery

Well, with that, I guess we'll move on to next. Where do you go to meet people? Well, grocery stores and far and your local turns. Okay, that, I guess a nice place to meet people. And is this really considered a lifestyle? Well, yes,

23:45

I do have my Mercedes and my polo. And I have my Gucci and my Carphone. What else is there?

23:52

Obviously that deeper you have this going on? Now?

23:56

Barbie, could you define for us,

23:58

please? fourplex we don't talk about Barclays when I say

24:04

I'm okay. Is it important for you know, for you to know the name of your partner?

24:12

No, no. posturing. You know, that, you know,

24:19

I'm noticing that both of you seem a little apprehensive. Does this subject make you nervous at all? Well, I guess I'm gonna take that as a yes. And move on to my next question. Barbie, I know that. There's a lot of people out there who are curious about this. Are there any books like SM one a one or maybe an organization where they can go to get safe vanilla information?

24:47

Yes, any of our churches. Oh, okay. And if they see an issue, yeah, we always work emails. And we always work when under and we never run with Starbucks. And we always have a care quarter and our local are great. Can Do you talk during?

25:00

25:03

Well, only if I have to, or if the phone rings and it's my mom.

25:08

And who supplies the protection?

25:11

Well, it's absent from what? I always do have my gun.

25:16

Okay, Mr. Mrs. Fanelli USA. As we close this evening, I'm sure master John and I and all of our listeners really wants to know, do you share? Or do you switch clauses?

25:33

Again, no offense was intended, it was all in fun. Thank you again, Mr. And Mrs. Vanilla USA cannon Barbie, we appreciate it greatly. And we promise we'll get to your copies. safely, of course. Just to give you a little bit of note, the two people doing that with us are involved in the SM scene and have experienced some of these questions also. So we just thought it would be fun just to reverse the roles a little. John, now that you've heard it now that we finally heard it on the air, what what's your take on it? Well, it made me realize how ridiculous some of the questions that were asked are. Oh, yeah. And it would only take a little bit of common sense to answer him yourself.

S Stacy Bolding 26:19

26:31

Right. Right. Jim did anything. What is your idea on it? It means

J Jimmy Carper 26:39

when you when you reverse things like that it does tend to show how ridiculous it is. Yeah.

26:46

Yeah. And again, we don't mind answering the questions. It is part of part of our lifestyle.

J Jimmy Carper 26:54

Even even doing gaibanella sex. But yeah, I do mostly, it reminds me that we don't talk. I mean, we people just meet up and go off and do something. And we don't talk about it. We have no idea what our our partners, likes or dislikes are. We just hope for the best. Oh, yeah. And we found out that oh, we're I'm disappointed so many times. Oh, yeah. Why? Because you didn't plan. Plan. I didn't I didn't talk to this person. I didn't find out about this person. And and so many times, you end up afterwards thinking, Oh, I can't believe I did. What I did with this person. This loser.

27:44

Tried to do it all through telepathy. Yeah.

J Jimmy Carper 27:48

Exactly. Exactly.

27:50

Um, if you're going to ask people about their lifestyle, do a little bit of review on it. Just get some background information. So you can talk halfway intelligent.

S Stacy Bolding 28:04

I would think that would probably be the only drawback to some of the questions that were asked is that people actually have no interest. Right? And it's, it's kind of like they're doing their civic duty.

28:18

S Stacy Bolding 28:20

I wouldn't even go as far as that. It's almost like making fun of something without actually being facetious in a wav.

28:28

okay? That they don't understand. Okay, something they've never tried, folks, get out there and try it. I recommend it.

J Jimmy Carper 28:37

And a lot of it is our upbringing. We aren't we are not taught to talk about sex at all right. Right. And even more so from a woman's point of view. Lady like, it is yeah, very unladylike, and you just don't talk about those things. And how the hell are you supposed to know?

28:43

J Jimmy Carper 28:57

28:58

Right? Right. Telepathy? Yeah,

J Jimmy Carper 29:04

it's when you love each other. Everything will work out. Right. Oh, well, I don't know if you noticed in the little skit that we did. We tried not we didn't want to make this gay. We wanted to kind of generalize. Yeah,

S Stacy Bolding 29:09

J Jimmy Carper 29:17

but but you can Yeah, but you can apply it to gay.

S Stacy Bolding 29:20

Oh, and it would apply to everyone

J Jimmy Carper 29:23

right now. Yeah.

29:24

What you got to remember also and this is from my opinion, with the SM fetish King. Lifestyle leather lifestyle has done for me is number one. It's opened me up more to having men friends. Number two, it's also got my hackles down about straight people. And it's just basically opened me up to look at people as people, not as gay men, not as anything other than the fact that They are a person. And I think the lifestyle does that. Because it puts people in clearly defined roles at those times that are appropriate. And that's all you see. You see top and bottom master and slave mistress ins like, that's it. And I think that carries over to outside a scene. Don't you agree?

S Stacy Bolding 30:24

Oh, yeah. So Yes. Excuse me again. I believe that it got rid of a lot of my inhibitions. When I got involved in the weather community, it introduced me to a variety of different people. And I've liked you it said, I learned to look past the obvious. What's inside. I've never been really inhibited. So you can imagine what it did to me.

30:56

And I know a lot of gentleman out there not necessarily your lover, but other guys out there that are enjoying the results of this. And he's turning red. Certainly, yes. Yeah. Amazing. Yeah, it's fun. Um, but again, this is not meant offensive. This isn't fun. And we really did it in jest.

J Jimmy Carper 31:20

And when you when you turn things around that way, it does open open people's eyes.

31:23

Yeah. It actually scared me. And I thought, Oh, my God, was I that stupid? Because, you know, on some of these questions, we had those type of answers like telepathy, things like that. And we rehearsed this and read it and it didn't sink in, like John said, till we just now heard it that, God, we were so unaware. And if people will just take the time, and not go home drunk, and try and have sex, and not go home under the influence of illegal substances, and try and have sex, get a phone number, talk to him on the phone, meet him for lunch, get to know the people, then maybe things will turn out a little better. It's called dating. Yeah, a little closer to the fairy tale. And not only will you find if you're sexually compatible, but if you're compatible, as soon as mates. You know, if you have anything in common, if you like,

J Jimmy Carper 32:16

S Stacy Bolding 32:24

and you talk afterwards, yeah.

J Jimmy Carper 32:28

Nobody, you know, so many people are giving up smoking. So you know, you don't do that after sex.

⌚ 32:36

Coffee sales have skyrocketed. I actually have to talk to people. Gosh, how scary. But the important thing is, if you are really interested in learning anything about the SM community, it is important that you go where these people go and witness it be there to see what they're doing. And it's not it's not a decision you are going to make in one day, right?

J Jimmy Carper 32:39

S Stacy Bolding 32:43

J Jimmy Carper 33:00

Oh, no, no, right. And here lately in the 90s, especially if you want to learn about the SM community. There's lots of written word out there. Yeah. I mean, from from, from fantasy, to, to sex, to how to shoes. To newspapers.

⌚ 33:21

Yeah. to actual books written on the subject zines

J Jimmy Carper 33:25

magazine. Right. It's out there. Oh, yeah.

33:29

And don't be afraid to ask people. Just one word of warning. Don't ask the person wearing the collar. Okay, talk to the person on the other end.

S Stacy Bolding 33:40

Well, I think I think a lot of people have the idea that it isn't that s&m is sexual. It's sex in general. And most s&m Play does not end and said, No, it doesn't.

33:53

No, it doesn't have talked

J Jimmy Carper 33:55

about this last time. You were right. Right. It can that can. And for certain people. It is great for playing. But it doesn't always have to end in sex. You were telling me about a scene you did with a woman. And that's a close friend of both of ours Margo Margo, in California.

33:56

S Stacy Bolding 34:14

No, this was at the venture and at the venture in here. And I did a demonstration with her with electricity.

34:20

Right now. Let me clarify this. Margo is bisexual. She has a male top right now. And this was all with the consent and your lover's consent. So this was the consent of all four parties involved. Not just the two actually doing anything but their lovers and husbands as well. Oh, so you mean there's actual consent here. type of activity. It's not like he got running off. And, of course one thing to remember here is is Margo is a bottom tonight Yeah, so I wouldn't play with her on without his consent. Right. And, of course, he has he played he has played with her before. So he knows basically what her limits are. He feels me he felt filled me in on those on what her safe signals were when to stop when to slow down. And we made that very obvious in the demonstration is also important to to realize that I am a gay man. And there is no there was no sexual involvement between us. Now, I'm not saying I didn't have a great sexual fantasy while I was performing this, but it wasn't sex. But I'm sure Margo and Mac went home and had a great time. As did you, I'm sure. Oh, yeah.

J Jimmy Carper 34:43

S Stacy Bolding 34:50

35:46

Oh, yeah. I've played with gay men. And I think I've played with straight men, I think. Yeah. But again, it didn't end insects. It ended at the end of the scene when my limits got far enough. And that was the end of the scene as far as the sexual contact wasn't. I gave him a hug and thank them profusely and went home and enjoyed my partner at the time. So it doesn't always end in sex. And you don't rush home and tie somebody down. No, no, no, you have to be careful how you do it. You have to learn how to tie things, how to tie appendages, so they don't cut off circulation and things like that. So realize there's a lot of safety issues. That's why we live by the credo safe, sane and consensual. Oh, yeah. Because you have to realize that there are different levels. Everybody has an edge. Right. Well, yeah. And most of the tops that I know, respect that, right.

S Stacy Bolding 36:49

J Jimmy Carper 37:00

And I imagine that word gets around those tops that don't respect limits.

S Stacy Bolding 37:07

Oh, yes. Oh, yes. And if it's done in public, they're almost blackballed.

37:13

Yeah. But where it goes round about the good tops and bottoms as well. Sure. Yep. The safe words go for both parties as far as I've been introduced into the scene. And I'm not an expert, nor will I ever be, I hope. Hope I'm always learning. But safe words are for both parties.

Because I have heard of situations where the bottom was fine. But the top got to a point where she couldn't handle it. She didn't like it. So she coded. Wow, yeah. So you know, I was like, why not? We sometimes forget that. That there's a fantasy here for the top two.

J Jimmy Carper 37:50

s

Stacy Bolding 37:54

Yeah, so yes. And stopping and having that little pause to either relax or let the let the bottom kind of toned down a little bit is exciting within itself. Let's let's not take them to that edge the first time let's work

o

38:13

it up a little bit. Be a little sadistic. Oh, yeah.

s

Stacy Bolding 38:17

You want more I think I might stop for a while.

o

38:22

Let's just bring out John's true nature at this

s

Stacy Bolding 38:30

was one of my fantasies is to have a bottom blindfolded and have someone like Jan in the back dragging her with me and these people not actually knowing whether they're gonna be hit with a bullwhip and using soft things like well, my metal flogger.

o

38:49

Yeah, excuse me, I'm crawling back up from fainting.

j

Jimmy Carper 38:53

And you just never know when and if it's going to happen. Right. Right. That's anticipation.

o

39:01

Yeah. And it goes along the lines of sensory deprivation as well. And that's when the trust comes in. You bet. Yeah.

s

Stacy Bolding 39:08

And that's why it's so that's why it's so important to know the person you're going to be playing with, and I think it's important Thank you wait and play with someone else.

J Jimmy Carper 39:19

I mean, how can you do this with someone you don't know? And I, it would almost seem impossible.

S Stacy Bolding 39:29

It shouldn't be impossible. The sad thing is is there are people who do it yeah. And then and they get hurt

J Jimmy Carper 39:38

and interesting phenomena I've seen is advertisements in publications national publications for s&m for pay pay for play. Yeah,

39:55

S Stacy Bolding 39:57

play, which I don't know if Sound? I don't think you should have to pay for it.

J Jimmy Carper 40:02

Well, yeah, I understand. Yeah. But the other side of it is how can you get to know somebody in a pay for play? situation situation?

40:15

I've never been there. I couldn't tell you I can only estimate that hopefully the people doing the pay for play on both sides of the issue, are doing serious discussions. before, during and after.

J Jimmy Carper 40:30

But I mean, you can't, you can't, you don't have time to build the trust with? Well, in most of those situations, when they are when they're advertising for a dominatrix, or a top.

S

Stacy Bolding 40:35

J

Jimmy Carper 40:41

Yeah, it was that they do the ad I saw was a top advertising

S

Stacy Bolding 40:45

well, that I believe they do go through some type of an interview where they meet, okay, and they talk about it. And it doesn't necessarily happen that time. Because in most situations where you're where you're going to get a DOM, a dominant person that is putting ads out to find a submissive, they're, they're going to want a contract. They want they are going to want to know what your limits are. Because if it doesn't fulfill their sexual fantasy, why even bother? Well, yeah. Because there are people who have different levels. And I'm sure they go through through lots of screening as far as the intake mail that they get, and they weed out. The people who aren't Intuit as much as they are, are the people who have edges that they don't want to go to listen to find contract, John, go hear

∅

J

Jimmy Carper 41:38

the word contract. And I don't know what that man Well,

S

Stacy Bolding 41:42

I guess it would be basically like any contract that you would, that you would sign an agreement. Most people that I know that have done contracts, they usually go through a anywhere from six months to a year. And you basically outline what your limits are, what you're going to allow someone to do to you how far you're going to want to go in a sane and, and the top does the same thing tells them what they expect.

So both people sign the contract, it's not just one person defining this or that. It is, it takes what you and I are used to talking to our partners about and puts it in black and white, which is good, especially for a beginning relationship. Or for the pay for play situation. It is really a good idea. A lot of professionals out there use the contract. I've even heard stories about play parties, where the dungeon master or the person that controls the security at the play parties did not see an instance happen. And another talk did will pull the bottom aside immediately put them under their care or put them under contract to protect the person, which is another point of the SM community that I feel great about is my safety. I've been in many situations where I have seen my brothers and sisters almost come out of nowhere to help. ward off the wrong touching the verbal abuse that things like that. Oh, yeah. So it's, it's also safety?

s

Stacy Bolding 43:41

Well, again, we're trying to make people you know, more give them the idea, or make them understand that this is not about hurting people. Right. And in order to get that across a lot of the leaders of our leather community watch out for things like that to make sure they don't happen. Nobody wants to hurt anybody. Permanently. To to but Yes, and thank God for those people who are standing there watching to make sure that the new people who are getting involved in this are not being hurt, right? Right. Even Even old people are not getting hurt. You've got to realize that both parties involved in this are human, and humans will make mistakes. And the mistakes are fixed are talked about are corrected. And to me it's more of a community than the gay and lesbian community because it is so divided on the sexual line in the SM community. It's just that out. We're all one community and I wish we could see more of that out in the mainstream gaze. What you've heard John and I talk a lot about is the what I refer to as the heavy SM, because that's what we enjoy. Excuse me. The electricity, the fireplace, the temporary piercings, the floggings the weapons, you know that could that can that's can seem kind of scary to another person, right?

J

Jimmy Carper 45:23

o

45:28

Like, there is the light stuff, which is I usually when people ask me about it I usually asked, okay, have you ever held your partner that down physically and made love to them while they're holding them down? Oh, yeah, yeah. Well, guess what? You've just done an SMC. Oh, yeah. You know, you talked about it.

s

Stacy Bolding 45:50

And I don't think there were that many people out there who can say they've never had any type of rough sex. Right? You're right. It just depends on what your levels are and how far you want to go. As far as the electricity and the fire play, and

o

the temporary you're saying the BloodSport

S

Stacy Bolding 46:11

Nobody forces anybody to do

J

Jimmy Carper 46:13

that's right. Right, right. safe, sane

Ω

46:17

and consensual. Right. And for those people that get involved, without getting information, whether you're a top or a bottom, you're wrong. You're just flat out wrong, and you're gonna hurt yourself or other people. And don't do it around us. And don't do it. Just don't do it. Yeah, just don't do it. Exactly. Just don't do it. Just don't do it. Go get information.

S

Stacy Bolding 46:47

You enjoy it so much more if you had all the information. Oh, yeah.

Ω

46:49

Oh, yeah. tickling your lover. is a form of SM Oh, yes. Wrestling? Again, we're back to the rough sex.

J

Jimmy Carper 47:02

A lot of people that like to wrestle. Yeah, no, yeah, yeah.

S

Stacy Bolding 47:08

Yeah, go to the US deal with wrestling. And in the same case, as no sex is involved. It's just wrestling.

Ω

47:16

Learn something new every day.

J

Jimmy Carper 47:18

—
But what a hell of a foreplay?

47:20

Yeah. Oh, yeah. Let me get a pen. So you gotta realize there's a lighter side to this. There's just the bondage I know of a woman that ties up people. Because it's, she thinks it's pretty. She just ties them up in all these different colored robes with different knots in it. It really does work out to be very pretty one who's good at it. Yeah. And that's 47:51

J Jimmy Carper 47:47

a lighter side of it. Um, what's another sensory deprivation, we were talking about? Blindfold where you cannot see what's coming at you. Or if you just turn your back to somebody. plugging your ears. Okay. You can't hear anything. I know, when a couple of scenes who I've been blindfolded, my hearing is really sharp. Okay, and so is my exterior senses as well. So, yeah, if you defy those senses, that puts another edge to it. And none of this is serious. All of this is light. Just reaching out and grabbing your lover and pulling him or her close to you and kissing him. Kind of defined rough sex. Yeah. Kind of a little bit of you know, it moves on to this. Yes.

S Stacy Bolding 48:45

Yeah. Very aggressive. Yeah. And a lot of fun. Oh, yes.

48:48

Oh, yeah.

S Stacy Bolding 48:51

And, you know, when I was talking about electricity, I like electricity. But you've got to understand that we're talking about static electricity, too. It's not walking up. hooking them up too bad, right?

49:04

We're not gonna stick. Ross on. Yes. Yeah.

J Jimmy Carper 49:09

That's sticking somebody's toenails into a light. So you go. It's very controlled. And of course, I've met with everyone that I've played with electricity with we've met beforehand. I've showed them the ultraviolet one that I use. I let them play with it on themselves, get the feeling of what it feels like. You'd be surprised what a little bit of electricity feels like on certain parts of your body. I had one guy tell me his nipple stayed hard for two weeks I don't know what it was wasn't the one you married right? Oh, no, no. Okay.

S Stacy Bolding 49:11

∅ 49:49

S Stacy Bolding 49:53

But he likes it just as my bad.

∅ 49:55

I bet and you you have a gift for that. area. You have you Well, you've more or less what's the word? experimented more heavily than most people in that area? It's one of your what's the word I'm looking for?

S Stacy Bolding 50:21

I am not going to say it's my specialty. Okay, that was it only because I'm still learning about it. But it's one of my favorite types of play. Okay. And there's so many other different types of electrical toys that you can play with. It just depends on how far into it you want to go. And ultraviolet one what most people have to realize it's used for the exterior part of your body. Yeah, I mean, they're made out of glass. You don't want to stick anything glass in your body. No.

J Jimmy Carper 50:49

I've seen those. Yeah. Oh, they're a lot of fun.

∅ 50:53

Could we equate could people equate this to those big balls that you see out in the gag shops that you run joke that you run your hands over and your hair sticks up? Yeah your hair sticks that you can joke that you can your hands over and your hair sticks up. Yeah, your hair sticks up or a little tingles in your hand.

S

Stacy Bolding 51:08

I've seen so many people who have these things in their living room right on top of you that their TV or there. And it's just a big ball that has another little ball inside of it that shoots electricity out towards the end when you touch it, it doesn't actually shock you. When you're using ultraviolet one. You're just taking that second casing of glass off. Oh, okay. Okay. And it has, you know, a dial on it. Depending on how severe you want it. I've had people who can't take much. And then I've had people who I probably need to get a different wand on.

J

Jimmy Carper 51:41

Wow, I want to I need to jump in there and tell you that you're listening to after hours, queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and KEOS College Station, Bryan. And if you've tuned in for musical chairs, you've got an hour to go. It's not three o'clock it 20203 In the morning. This is the official time change. And it is now two o'clock. So we have another hour and we have another hour to go and in that hour. You've got an interview.

Yes. Yeah. We did an interview with Houston's first only commercial dungeon. We were talking about the pay for play. Oh, yeah, this is something I heard about through a friend of a friend type thing that said, Oh, God, you gotta go down. Look, this is a commercial dungeon. And you know me? Oh, yeah, I was on the phone the next day going, Hey. Can we use it? When are you open the whole bit. I've talked to the owner and the manager and arranged an interview with a couple of the ladies and John and I went down there and did the interview. And this is the interview. The club is called interludes, and I don't have my notes on me. Okay, but I'm sure you can get the phone number from information. But I also we also give it out a couple of times in the interview. Um, and afterwards, I think John and I will go into a little discussion because we even went so far. Let me preface this by saying this is predominantly a straight dungeon, which doesn't make it bad. No. Their first interview was on Stevens and Pruitt, which is great. It gave them great exposure. When we got there, we handed them the questions. And John and I specifically told them number one, we're gay. Number two, we live this lifestyle. Number three, the questions are a little different than you're used to. Do you want to go over them before we do the taping. They should sure they read over and we had about a little bitty discussion on it. And then we did the interview. And it worked out a little different than we thought.

S

Stacy Bolding 54:05

I think we were both very surprised at the outcome of the interview. Before we actually talk about this interview. Yeah, I think it's I think it's important that we listen to it, because most of the discussion that we want to have is on some of the questions that were asked and some of the answers that we got. I think it'll be really interesting. Yeah. Are you ready for ready? Yes. Okay, let's go

J

Jimmy Carper 54:27
