Okay, we're back at another edition of after hours for what? April 10 1993. My name is Michael Crawford. Yes, I'm black and I'm queer. Today, we have a very exciting show for you tonight. We have some people who are in, you know, waiting in the lobby to come on the air and talk. But there's a couple of things you may want to know about these people. They don't have blond hair. They don't have blue eyes, but they are queer. Yes, they're colored in queer. And since we had after hours, unlike, I don't know, the other gay and lesbian media sources don't have a bias against people of color. We're going to be here to talk about our racism, the queer community and our queers just as racist as everybody else. We're also going to be having, I don't know something, I think it's pretty, pretty exciting. We're going to be reading excerpts from an essay by porn performance artists, Annie sprinkle, she's going to be telling us about her. The first time she had sex with her newly transsexual boyfriend. We're also going to be talking about a phone's app that's going to be going on Newsweek, Newsweek has decided they're not going to cover the March on Washington. 1 million screaming writing queries are going to descend in our nation's capitol. And yes, and Newsweek is not covering the event. Why you may ask? Newsweek is closed on Sundays. Okay. So for those of you who happen to have pens handy, I'll give you the number and we can already begin the call in at Newsweek. The number is area code 212-350-4000. We're also going to be talking about the Pomo Afro homos performances ever tonight and yesterday evening at diverse works, going to be discussing that spur posse. And we're also going to be asking the question, what's your favorite aids movie, among other things we'd have for you and coming up now we're going to have what Jimmy can use Excel

[J] Jimmy Carper 02:20

QMZ, queer music zone. Hi, I'm Jimmy, with this week's edition, on after hours a continuing tradition right here on Kpf. T. Houston. 90.1. FM. Good news, bad news. Let's start with the bad news. Heard a report today another radio station that a certain member of the community Mr. Holly Johnson, yes, lead singer for Frankie Goes to Hollywood is on his deathbed with AIDS right now as we speak. So because of that, and because Frankie Goes to Hollywood, kind of made a real statement to the world. As far as the gay community goes, they were one of the first outrageously openly gay groups that made the big time. We want to play a couple of tunes. I want to play a couple of tunes. First of all, the one you're going to recognize, which is called Of course, relax. And then my personal favorite, the Frankie Goes to Hollywood dip, which is called Oh, I think you'll find out what it's called. Here we go. Yes, how that was for you, Ellen and Jerry. It's and guess what that was by Melissa Etheridge. And you're saying, Well, hey, what's the deal here? This is the cue MC. Tara. She has come out of the closet. It's about time, honey. And we're glad that you did. And that's why we're playing you. So this is the song that was her last hit and I believe is the one that made it possible for her to get that award.

 Eric 04:42

Yes, yes, it is. It is. What's the song that made it possible? First? I'm sorry.

 Jimmy Carper 04:49

Yeah. So joining me is Eric. He didn't know he was going to it's not my time yet. Oh,

 Eric 04:55

 Jimmy Carper 04:59

Ah, but we're very happy to present Melissa Etheridge, even Eric and Michael show. Okay, so long as she's a lesbian Lincoln hanging with her. She is She is indeed. Here we go with ain't it heavy who ain't it heavy? Melissa Etheridge, we're glad to have her as a full fledged member. The QMZ, queer music zone, where we feature only music by gay lesbian or bisexual artists. Nice to have her back now I want to kind of bring it bring the focus closer to Michael and Eric's kind of, you know, point of view here. So we're gonna have to from Husker do? The first one being? I can't believe I forgot it. Yes, from there, flip your wig album. No, it's not flip your wig. It's makes no sense at all. I was walking down the street holding hands with my lover, when suddenly we were attacked after being publicly identified as breeders.

 Eric 05:07

 Jimmy Carper 05:10

06:38

Hetero phobia can kill. Education is the only lasting weapon against bigotry, which is why the National Federation of contributors to overpopulation wanted you to hear and think about this message.

J Jimmy Carper 07:01

who screwed do green eyes? And before that makes no sense at all? Who's gonna do Yes, I got that pronunciation from my friend Eric, who knows about these kinds of things. So this has been QMZ, the queer music zone with Jimmy and we'll be back next week. And now it's time for the rest of after hours. Oh,
