

gcam_ah_19951209_t2_02_edit

📅 Thu, Dec 22, 2022 3:27PM ⌚ 5:00

SUMMARY KEYWORDS

music, melissa etheridge, called, christmas, galena, play, queer, coming, requests, cassette, song, barlow, musical chairs, truck, hours, jan, houston, pick, big dipper, park

00:02

That was dice the halls by Jan Barlow. That's that songs been around for a long time buddy Johnston, who originated this show used to play that one. And coming up for Carinthia and Galena Park. I've got some Melissa Etheridge from her new album, not the one that you're hearing on the radio, but one that I kind of like. And those lines are still open for your requests for queer music at 52657385 to six KPFT but now, this is for Corinthia Oh, yeah, for Corinthian galena Park. That was an unusual kiss, new one by Melissa Etheridge. Now let's get back to some Christmas music. These are these women are not lesbians, but they certainly are feminists. And they have a wonderful Christmas album called We Three Kings, the roaches and they're doing Frosty the Snowman. Oh, yeah, that was the who was that? That was music of the Golden Gate Men's Chorus from our cassette that I picked up in San Francisco called an old fashioned Christmas and two guys in a truck called in and they wanted a Elton John song that I don't happen to have. So I'm gonna have to pick something that I do have. And this is I don't know what kind of song they were asking for because I wasn't familiar with it. But this is one of my favorites of Elton's. Of course, I've got a lot of favorites from serious to funny. This is one of the funnier ones. It's called. Big Dipper. Huh? Yes, Elton John, Big Dipper. That was for two guys in a truck and sugar lion. Hope you enjoyed that. Now Francisco and Pasadena called in asking about, say, you know, you used to play the song on after hours. The satire on Jesse Helms, yes. And it's on that album, dyke the halls by Jan Barlow. I don't, it was only on record, and it's long since out of print, and I have a tape of it. But the song is called Jerry Falwell's coming to town, and I'm going to play it for you now. Ooh, yes, Jerry Falwell is coming to town by request from Francisco and Pasadena, and thanks for requesting that. I forgotten about it and probably wouldn't have played it if you hadn't suggested it. here listening to after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station Bryan, coming up at three o'clock will be the return of musical chairs with Billy Gilbert, and Randy and Elmo, but for right now let's go back to the Gay Men's Chorus of Houston, and cassette that they made in 1992. I believe it was. And it's their version of White Christmas. We're still taking your requests for queer music at 5265738. In the background, you're listening to Carol of the Bells by 04:08

03:47

11 0:00

Richard odd, openly gay electronic music. Prior to that Seattle men's cars did Jingle Bells and we wish you a Merry Christmas and that is certainly what we had after hours wish each and every one of you out there. Stay tuned because the return of the sons of musical chairs is coming your way at three o'clock. So until next week. Get your preparations ready for Christmas or Hanukkah. Or whatever holiday you're celebrating Kwanzaa. And we'll be back next week with surprise guests. We're all mixed up this month.