SUMMARY KEYWORDS

00:02

Okay, that was naughty by nature with hip hop array from the album 90 Naughty the third one to follow up before that was the interview with Michael and Andreea. From diverse work. Stop, I don't make me look stupid over the air. Follow up to the interview with Michael and I Andreea. Basically, we just wanted to encourage people to go out to the verse works and you know partake of the art partake of the scene, because that's really the only place you're going to find really cool, cool boyfriends and girlfriends. Because you can pretty much be sure that anybody goes through, it's going to be well dressed, and moderately cute and intelligent and all those things are important. Next up, Eric wanted to plug art exhibit.

00:46

Currently at the Menil Collection on Sewell Ross, there's a showing of John, I'm not sure about the pronunciation of this artist, his name, but I believe it's John Michel biskit. And you know, he was a gay artist and he died of AIDS, not really a drug related death. But it's one of the most excellent shows I've seen in Houston ever. And it's the most comprehensive collection of his work. It's really outstanding. Very, very cool and happening. Okay, where is it? How long is it going to be that dim

01:24

01:26

and new, and it's, at least through this month? And it's really cool, outstanding work.

01:34

Yeah. We should also say he hung out with Keith Haring.

01:36

That's right. He was Keith Haring. That's true. Okay. Okay. And he also hung out with Warhol.

01:43

And according to the Keith Haring biography that I just read, he slept with Keith Haring, Kenny Scharf, and John sex. Wow. So everybody should go out and see that because it's really cool. It's really hot. It's really happening. And he was black and he was queer.

01:59

And also there's one of one of the collectors is Dennis Hopper.

02:04

And are we sure that David Miller doesn't have a piece of this in the show? Yes. Okay. Okay, that was Americans living in a war zone by Jamila Shabazz, who I don't know, I guess most of you would know is Malcolm X's door, and it's a 12 inch single. Let's see what's up. Next, we're going to be reading from these really cool zooms that Jimmy found and the thing about most both of them is that they have lots of naked boys in them, which is, I guess, one good reason to like them. But the first one is called out punk. And it has to really butcher looking grunge guys on the front, though they could definitely do with a fashion makeover. And I'm going to be reading this little excerpt entitled, Why are there so many careers in punk rock? Well, blank, I don't know that there are times a lot more than I will tell you, and so many more than I just don't know about. So big deal. You're thinking What does someone's private sexuality mean to anyone else? It means a blank of a whole blank of a lot. Okay. There are a few of us on the front lines who take the heat for everyone without role models for us to follow. And to be empowered. Such a great word. Yes. Dammit. It is empowering to know that someone you respect admire is queer to it makes you feel that much less alone. The possibilities for a better world that much more plausible. I'm just going to ramble on without much order. No doubt, I'll forget a few on the way. It's a common known fact that Darby crash of the germs was clear, and that it probably had to do a lot with the suicide. If he was out and learn to deal with it. He would have inspired lots of punk queers later. Like Barry Floyd of the blanks. Now, Sister double happiness or biscuit of the big boys, or perhaps all three members of Husker do. Gary grant, Bob Moog and the other guy. I hope I'm right on missed. And Karen and out lesbian in the Arizona hardcore band conflict. I'm in no way complete. I have a personal list that just keeps growing and growing. Every conversation on every conversation on this topic just brings up more and more. I could never name anyone who wasn't already completely out and confident in themselves. But there are so many right now we're just beginning to come to terms with their sexuality, that we have only witnessed the very tip of the iceberg. In about a year there'll be an explosion in five years, the punk rock scene will become the underground queer youth support network. The climate is ready the seeds have been sown and all factors indicate that something very big is on the horizon. Bet on it. So what if bands like mall Crux and nip drivers have yet to make public statements about their members sexuality? We only seem that they were anyway. And meanwhile, bands like The warlock Panthers can and continue to make homophobic statements while being ultimate hypocrites themselves. Yeah, we know about you. But right now the blank is happening. We got all queer bands like tribe, a PME Panzer Division and the Lucy stoners. I didn't know they were queer Jesus. We got multicolored bands like Blatz RIP, RIP, good grief, the lunatics and so many more who will have to speak up for themselves? I'm just asking everyone who is queer and involved in some aspect related to the punk scene to write me a postcard if you dare. And let me know you're out there. I will periodically publish lists of names and what they're involved in to show how many of us they really are. Because dude, I'm sick of being the token queer and the sore thumb puck in the gay world. We can change things and it's not at all impossible. And he listed a couple of bands who are with queer members including MDC means dead cops, the apostles pollution crisis, the parasites, the Eastie, girls, Joan Jett, mud women and Brett mobiel. And he kinda like leaves off with some possibly queer people, including the city's consolidated clit boys and downcast. Let's see, oh, God, cool picture cool picture of a guy with who looks kinda like a skinhead blanking on another guy while who's sitting naked in a chair. But if you'd like to get a copy of our POC, the address is PO Box 170501 San Francisco, California. 94117. USA, of course. And it's what one buck postage paid worldwide.

06:39

Yeah. And it's pretty cool because it comes in just you know, a print plain brown envelope and it says out punk, which is like, if you're living at home, it doesn't really say anything to your parents.

06:50

That's how the advocate comes.

06:52

So what are you reading? Eric?

06:55

I'm reading from Monster magazine, which is out of San Francisco that could actually actually it's 07:04

out of Canada. It's slow, Bruce thing.

07:09

Like this box? The inbox inbox?

07:10

07:12

Well, no, actually he was involved with JDS

07:15

and whatever, who cares Canada. So anyway, I guess I'll read this snippet from queensville Zaros you guys. I don't care. The prince stood stiffly behind the tripod, fiddling with his mouth. The model, a self proclaimed gigolo he had met at a sleazy gay speakeasy the previous week, lay sprawled on the bed, his legs spread or naturally wide. The previous of Prince examine his Thank you, Prince examine his subject through the viewfinder. Mid to late 30s About six foot three sprinkle of pock marks on his still boyish face, grown out crew cut tight body profoundly large basket. That was the first thing he had noticed about Big John, that and the fact that he had been bragging loudly about his endowment, and the fact that as a teenager he had joined the US Marines in time to kill a few groups on one of the last tours of duty in Vietnam. The prince a bit too concerned with attaining his Diane Arbus credentials early on, struck up a conversation with Big John, a meeting unparalleled since the infamous re enter encounter of Truman Capote. And Chuck Connors after a pitcher of martinis he was on the big goons knee like a few Howdy Doody, having long since convinced him of the urgency of having his gift immortalized on film. So Big John, tell me more about that's Canadian about the print squinted through the viewfinder forgetting momentarily of the potential for wrinkles. More about how did you phrase it? The Nam? Didn't you say you spotted Mohawks over there and pre punk days? I don't want to talk let's get down to business. 100 bucks. Do we have to talk about money? No. It'll spoil the mood. 100 bucks before you start snapping unless you want something else snapped. You wouldn't want to take it out and trade would you? Very funny mama's boy. 100 bucks 120 If you want to touch it, would you accept a personal check? Sure. But remember, I know where you live, right? The prince meekly produced a pen and poised it to write. Just make it out to Dorian Gray escort service. Dorian Gray the prince wrote with a sweeping hand. Oscar Wilde would be proud. Maybe he'd like to take pictures of me to all ask him next time I see him 120 Was it $10 An inch the print sunk to knees, his spine rigid. My fluffer has the day off. If you want to go down on me, it'll cost you another 30 I'll pay it in cash. What about the pictures? I'm just getting your camera ready kitty, and please be gentle. My back is extremely delicate today. Whenever you say Princey period then by blabbed from an I'm sorry, by blab a novel in progress called queensville.

10:28

At work and they send off for Monstar Jesus Christ,

10:31

he can prepare for 10:33

good side covers Canada, somewhere attended

10:36

Canada. Here it is. PO Box 386 station B, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, M five, T, two WT to know TW two that's the T.

10:58

That Yeah. Okay, I want to play one more Diggable planets song and it's going to actually lead us into our next topic. The song is de la femme fatale. And is that play which is the theme song to New York is red hot, okay. And it whoscored You okay? I'm stupid. I'm just really I'm really obsessed with reproductive rights at the moment because Operation Rescue and rescue America and all those evil anti choice groups are going to be in Houston next month, they're going to be having a national conference on from April 14 to the 18th. And it's imperative that we all get our queer little butts out and defend the clinics and basically tell those anti choice neo Nazi Baptists, homophobes where to go because, you know, frankly, it's a woman's body she should be able to do with with it, whatever the hell she wants to do.

11:12

11:17

12:02

Okay, that was per Sizzix. New York is red hot. The soundtrack from the group that Diggable planets was one G. region a new refutation of time and space.

12:20

All right, I guess it looks like we're into the Diggable planets thing is how butterfly is such a stud. Habit, an announcement I want to announce is really cool new political group I it's called Youth mobilization league. And basically, I have this really cool festival solar yellow flyer, which has this cool picture of what looks to be like a revolution. soldiers and citizens on a tank going look like a meaning business, waving machine guns in the air and so on and so forth. People running alongside clenched fists in the air. And there's a really cool quote. And the quote goes like this. And in my opinion, the young generation of whites, blacks, brown, whatever else there is, your living at a time of extremism, a time of revolution, a time when there's got to be a change. People in power have misused it. And now there has to be a change and a better world has to be built. I for one will join in with anyone, I don't care what color you are, as long as you want to change this miserable condition that exists on this earth. And that quote was from Malcolm X, from the Oxford Union Society debates on December 3 1964. And basically, youth mobilization league is this cool, progressive political organization for young people. The next meeting is going to be Sunday, March 28, at 3pm at Bell park across from Paradox on Montrose. And should I don't know if the unfortunate accident occur and it does rain. It's going to be meeting at the terrace on Montrose. The number for us mobilization league is 5212423. And I do know that this group is queer friendly, because yes, I am their media and outreach coordinator. So if you all come out, you'd make me look really good.

14:00

Shameless plug.

14:02

What Jesus says shamelessly plugged yourself all over the place by the time I get something. Yeah. You had something to say? You're so way, but I would like to say what really, really disturbs me at this point about the whole Club's theme because you know, each time we do a show, we have to dis the club scene. Is this whole thing with country music? I have no idea what the hell is up, but it seems like every bar in the city is going country on at least one night. Now. I mean, I guess it's okay to have, you know, gay country to Western bars. But the problem is, they're going backwards instead of forwards. I mean, like there's one particular bar went back to the whole Disco Inferno trash disco thing, you know, music from basically 15 years ago when we weren't even born. And instead of going forward into like having a totally cool grand tonight or Hip, hop night or techno night or you know, industrial not or anything and I think that's pretty lame and what the only bar that we set was really cool was the boy Bah, which is when where, why Thursday night at Red Square. And why because you can always get picked up there.

15:11

15:17

Okay, and if you're looking to be picked up by some really cute young fashionably dressing boy and remember, you're not going home with anyone who is not well dressed and they don't really card and you can drink all you want. Okay, cheap, cheap, cheap, very cheap dollar 50. Okay, so that's bar bar are Thursdays and no, they didn't play us with that unsolicited plug. I'm thumbing through the twit, as I you know, stumble for things to say. And what really shocked me about this particular issue is that all the news has been pushed to the back of the publication. And there's a good reason for it. I was shocked to this is the second week it's happened but they've had a change in the way they may put the thing together. You'll notice that there are different articles in the front kind of feature articles and things. Yeah, and the news is in the back the this the twit is printed in three different sections the third section being the last section printed so they're doing that way so that they can get more light breaking news into it might break in half. Well, okay, you just did that so it I wouldn't be able to just tweak didn't you that well, you know that I was dishing to Brian? Brian caver when I saw it. I thought it was real tacky. And then he told me why they were doing it that way. Okay, make sense? If they actually put in like breaking news, okay, and one of the things I find offensive about twit this week. On page 98. They have this little quote from Marky Mark from his book Marky Mark. Remember the really bad photo book that no one should buy? Because the photos are so bad. If he had any good sense he would get Herbert's to do his next book.

15:24

15:29

15:52

16:23

16:29

16:44

17:01

Can I just say that Mark Mark is only on the cover of playgirl don't buy the magazine. Good. Don't buy the magazine, but he's not in it. And 17:11

I'm trying to speak Thank you, thank you, God. Well, basically there's like this this this quote from Marky Mark that they are presenting as being like pro queer or at least not anti queer. And I have a major problem with them, including a quote from Marky Mark who in this very same book referred to women as bitches. I'm sorry, I don't care how cute he is or how good he looks in his Calvin's any boy who refers to women's as bitches is not a guy I would want to pull out and he did side with shampoo. Shabba ranks Yeah, and saying that queers should be what what was the Crucified or crucified? Yeah, crucified. But I mean, and just that we don't totally disagree, although we can if you want. He has agreed to do a series of PSAs denouncing hatred and bigotry and violence against people because of their differences. God, I guess we should be thankful for that some. Oh, free publicity for him. What do you mean?

18:01

18:03

Well, seeing is how his career as a musician is over. And the only thing he has is his modeling career. He needs all the help he can get. Any other hot new male models on the scene that we can dish? Yes, Lee is in vogue this month. Is he wearing anything cool. He's wearing underwear. What kind? I think like for the loom, the standards. Okay, very good, very grunge. Although Grunge is on its way out and you'll find out on our next show why they tuned any cool Kristen McMenemy sightings.

18:15

18:26

18:39

No, but there has been this flux of Nadia Ehrman with another blonde woman like the cover bizarre and then the new Banana Republic ad. It's very unsettling for me, you know, she's my favorite supermodel.

18:55

Well, I like her at all. But I they are including her with that whole gammon wave looking thing. I mean, which is basically just a she's on the cusp of like supermodels from the beginning of the 90s into this new wave thing so well, they're still trying to push her. Well, it hasn't I made it here.

19:04

19:14

I have no problem with her. I just have a problem with that wave thing. I'm sorry, but there was a bunch of bony white girls with bony butts.

19:21

Oh, sure. You can say that. That does absolutely nothing for me. I'm sorry. What a woman do anything for you anyway. Well, knowing knowing Naomi Campbell could well I probably want to do something to her. Linda Evangelii Stonewood I'm not saying that I'm going heterosexual or denying my queer roots. I'm just saying that you know, give me market check and Berg any day who isn't featured featured in Details Magazine this month.

19:29

19:41

19:48

Okay, so what? I guess we'll play John Coltrane since it seems to be what the Diggable planets favorite jazz musician does, right. Very New York.

19:55
