S Scott Lewis 02:50

Was it say think always on my mind and you open it up and this bigger throbbing penis pops out at you? You have to love that course. I'd love it a lot more if it was his bigger throbbing penis. That's why I just have to go on the road.

J Jimmy Carper 03:02

Okay, gang. You know what you're in for for the next hour or so? Bar trash. Scott Lewis.

S Scott Lewis 03:12

Here we are. Somebody left me some orange juice, which was very, very that was very nice, because I need my vitamins. Oh, and here's the cassette I can record over all sorts of juggling here. I don't know. crystal waters. No coastal waters.

J Jimmy Carper 03:28

No, no, that's very that's very different from me the weather.

S Scott Lewis 03:33

About the our listeners don't care about the weather. They're like popping in hit X right now. So not gonna know what the weather is in half an hour. Which reminds me speaking of ecstasy, I just came back from Hotlanta. And let me tell you, I thought there was no ecstasy left in the world. There was any good that she she LaRue. She had all the good drugs.

J Jimmy Carper 03:56

What is he trying to tell us folks?

S Scott Lewis 03:58

I tell you what I went to Atlanta. Have you ever been to Atlanta?

J Jimmy Carper 04:03

Before I was there before it was hot.

S Scott Lewis 04:06

You were there before it was incorporated as a city. Oh, I tell you what, they have this big circuit party there every year called Hotlanta. Up. And it's where all the Queens come from all over the country. And basically, it's just a reason to spend a lot of money, do a lot of drugs have a lot of sex and never have to see any of those people again. And I loved it. I'm going back next year. I ran into she Sheila Rube-. You have the big porno directors,

J Jimmy Carper 04:33

Right? That's right. Drag queen who does a lot of porno stuff.

S Scott Lewis 04:38

Well, let me tell you she had one of them live sex parties live sex show?

J Jimmy Carper 04:41

Yes. Whoo.

S Scott Lewis 04:43

Let me tell you. What can you tell me they get in? It was incredible. was quite festive. I say the Sheraton Hotel was completely turned into a gay bar. It was fabulous.

J Jimmy Carper 04:55

Is it a gay bar?

S Scott Lewis 04:58

So what's going on with you you call me earlier instead, I'm washing my hair and I said, well leave it in the sink and get to the damn phone

J Jimmy Carper 05:09

Shall we tell them how I found you this evening?

S Scott Lewis 05:14

Let me tell you, I gotta-.

J Jimmy Carper 05:16

Pick this, this queen up. Right? So I'm knocking on the door and I'm thinking, you know, I'm getting their response. The neighbors are gonna start complaining. So I tried the door handle, it's open. I walk in, I always leave my door. Scott Scott Scott, go down the hall. Scott. Turn on the bedroom like Scott. He's in bed. 11:15 Wow. TV blaring-.

S Scott Lewis 05:47

All right, god dammit. Somebody took that orange juice. Not only did they take that orange juice, they took that cassette. I was gonna record over. Rude. Lord rang about a clown just drove up and I don't think she's even in drag. So we're all in for an act.

J Jimmy Carper 06:02

Well, that's pretty rude.

S Scott Lewis 06:03

We're pretty experienced. She's being arrested. She's dancing up and down the street. Somebody called 911.

J Jimmy Carper 06:12

She wants to talk about the Republican convention. No, I actually I didn't watch any of the Republican convention. I watched Comedy Central. Difference. The Bill Meyer?

S Scott Lewis 06:30

Ah, yes. I love that show. It was great. What's that politically incorrect? Yeah, I love that show.

J Jimmy Carper 06:36

They were dishing everybody they had Falwell on and they were dishing him. Just great Ollie north. I mean, they were they were screaming or the man who lied to Congress and got a big laugh. In his face, right in his face. I loved it.

S Scott Lewis 06:52

That's what I love about that show. So what's going on with you?

J Jimmy Carper 06:56

J Jimmy Carper 06:56
Well, are you gonna have a guest tonight? Or-

S Scott Lewis 07:01
Kevin Mays coming in calling? You know, the gay comic?

J Jimmy Carper 07:04
Yes. In fact, the Comedy Jam was going on this week, isn't it? Monday and Tuesday. That's right over the last stop. And we don't short sell out. So I mean, if you don't have tickets, you better hurry up.

S Scott Lewis 07:16
Yeah. What's it 5242333? Something like that. Yeah. It's just all gay comedy. And it's fabulous. They're very funny. Very funny. And oh, yeah.

J Jimmy Carper 07:27
And when did you know I knew Kevin when he worked at tenneco. Oh, did you? Yeah, in fact, I think he was still a teenager at the time. Oh, I know his real last name. How do you like-

S Scott Lewis 07:39
You knew God when he was a teenager. Well, um, but yeah, I've been to it several times. And it's just neat and fun to go to a night of just all gay comedy and so what is it what is Rainbow cloud do and she's just sitting she's like, she's like open to lunch card or something?

J Jimmy Carper 07:57
I don't know. Maybe she's gonna sell goodies off the side of the street to other people are down to the love it in or something?

S Scott Lewis 08:02
I don't know. Honey. Everybody's had her goodies. Well, ain't good. No more. She Rinette damn sequined hat.

J Jimmy Carper 08:11
Well, we've got Glenn Holt in the next room here.

G Glen Holt 08:15
Hey, Glenn. Hello. There he is. There I am.

J Jimmy Carper 08:20
Now Glen Holt is president of Q patrol.

S Scott Lewis 08:22
Glenn is always a pleasure to have in the studio is always a pleasure. You know, you always have to you we always have to.

G Glen Holt 08:30
Especially when I dress this way.

J Jimmy Carper 08:32
Yes, I know. It's when he dresses so succinctly.

S Scott Lewis 08:38
We always have to clean out the old studio when Glenn comes to have an extra room for his penis

G Glen Holt 08:48
You can only say that sort of stuff after-.

S Scott Lewis 08:50
But let me tell you I clean that room out and I know just where to stick out-.

J Jimmy Carper 08:56
But you do. So Glen,

G Glen Holt 09:01
Before we get started on cute patrol, yes-.

S Scott Lewis 09:04
This we're still on your penis clan? Yes. Are we want to be-.

G Glen Holt 09:09
This little bit just hot off the wire. What is it? For a while Saturday, the official website of the US Justice Department featured swastikas white pictures of a naked actress and lots of criticism of the Communications Decency Act. computer hackers had infiltrated the department's home page. Government technicians of course turned it off after the sabotage was discovered. But before that people clicking onto the site found that the title The United States Department of Justice, was now written over a background of gray swastikas included were color pictures of George Washington, and Adolf Hitler identified as the Attorney General, and a topless Jennifer Aniston and star of the TV series Friends. I wonder where they got the color picture of George Washington but anyway But most of the site, Ted Turner, most of the site was criticism of the communication Decency Act, which makes it a felony, of course, to transmit sexually explicit material in ways that children might see it. A federal appeals court has declared that law by the way to be unconstitutional.

J Jimmy Carper 10:20
That's, that's good to hear.

G Glen Holt 10:21
So if you're out having your constitutional you'll find that that law is not there.

J Jimmy Carper 10:27
And remember, they may take you to jail. But if if you're walking down your sidewalk and a policeman asked you for your ID, you don't have to give it to them. That's right. Courtesy of Ray Hill.

S Scott Lewis 10:39
Walking through KPFT and the host ashy for your penis. You do have to give it a roll well, it's got-.

G Glen Holt 10:52

 Glen Holt 10:52
I've I've had that cold the flu anything that's going around? I don't think you'd want my penis right now.

 Jimmy Carper 10:58
Why does that have a cold too?

 Glen Holt 11:01
Nobody couldn't have. What's going on?

 Scott Lewis 11:06
Penis got a cold one tiny. Little clinic.

 Jimmy Carper 11:10
Yeah, little little penicillin. Help that I-.

 Glen Holt 11:14
Know a very long Q. Oh. Ask anybody who's been there.

 Jimmy Carper 11:20
I see that again. in some quarters. That could be very.

 Glen Holt 11:24
Oh, no, that's an entirely new definitely. And we won't even go there.

 Jimmy Carper 11:28
Okay. Now Q patrol was branching out.

 Glen Holt 11:32
Yes, we are trying to branch out. No, yes. We thought that it might be a little bit more interesting. For our volunteers. First of all, Q patrol is yes, Q patrol is a nonprofit 501 C three Corporation, which operates citizens watched patrols in the Montrose area under the Houston Police Department citizens on patrol program. We are not the guardian angels got amateur cops now. And we're not amateur security guards. We're just ordinary folks don't even have to be Butch.

J Jimmy Carper 12:04
I'm a member.

G Glen Holt 12:05
There you go see Jamaica is a drag. And we ride around in cars and we walk around on foot. Yeah. And we keep in touch with each other via secure two way radio communications. If we see anything that looks like it doesn't belong. After waving our fingers at it, we make notes and and generally make it known that we're out there in the area right with our with our big Q may not big obvious Q mainly to prevent gay bashing? That's right. Yes. And so we are out there, we are a visible deterrent to prevent gay bashing. And if things get really really bad, we can call 911 The police are supposed to know who we are. And if they get a little bit bad, then we can send out one of our pink nasty grams. Ah, yes, we run down the owner of the vehicle involved. Minute who that is and where they live. And send them a little greeting card in the mail in bright pink.

J Jimmy Carper 13:02
Now, you may ask why is that so effective? The answer being is that many many times it is Jr. who was out in daddy's car. That's right, doing all kinds of things in Montrose.

G Glen Holt 13:16
Daddy was told that Jr. had gone to the library or to the movies, right? And when he gets a pink, bright pink card in the mail, that the postman and God and everybody can see is from a queer organization that has got his name written all over it. And it says the that his vehicle was seen in the Montrose throwing eggs. That's how the vehicle throws eggs. I don't know the occupants. Right. Then yeah, we don't have any problem with that anymore.

J Jimmy Carper 13:44
Right. Very effective. But but people people here in the Montrose are interested in and other things like riding bicycles. And skating was right-.

G Glen Holt 13:55
We've we've had requests from from people, nine over the years. excu patrol is now in its fifth year of operation to do other things. And so we now have some people involved who have the expertise to try getting into those other sorts of things. Namely, the skate patrol, we have a lady involved with Q patrol now who is an experienced street skater. And we sort of pegged her with the responsibility of heading up the skate patrol. So if you have inline skates, and if you'd like to get out on the streets and skate, which is a lot different than skating in a rink, understand if you have experience skating on the street, if you'd like to be out there skating on the streets anyway, then hey, why not pop on a Q patrol t shirt and join us and, and put some purpose behind those wheels. And so, the skate patrols.

J Jimmy Carper 14:54

There's something good for your community. You're having fun, right?

G Glen Holt 14:56

And and, and having having a good time and getting Your exercise and all that sort of stuff. So we'll do all the same kind of stuff, skate patrols, we'll have radios. And we'll do all the same kind of visible presence and taking notes kind of stuff that we always do. And we will keep the the neighborhood that much safer thereby.

J Jimmy Carper 15:18

So how are you planning on expanding this?

G Glen Holt 15:22

Well question that Glen expands. Since the skate patrols can cover a lot of ground very quickly. We've thought about increasing the territory that we cover, just to make it more interesting. Sure, for people and also, I think the foot patrols would enjoy walking through not the same old streets all over again all the time. Because when you're on foot, if if you stay within the sort of core area, you can see the same street several times over and a night. Sure. Same queens. Yeah, that's right. And night after night, you know. So we're going to give our foot patrols the option of walking over a wider area, especially since we're now going to have the skaters out there who can quickly get to them to back them up in case there's any kind of trouble. Exactly. So that's what we're thinking of doing. And if you are interested in joining Q patrol, the number to call is five. What is it? 5552852? You know, I got confused because they're bringing in the new area codes are effective as of yesterday. They're starting to crack down on that. I've heard that nasty Well, yeah, so that really the number now is 713528 safe.

J Jimmy Carper 16:43

Do you have to do the seven ones?

G Glen Holt 16:45

You know, because if you're outside of the loop, I think it is. Yeah, and you just dial five to eight, you're gonna end up off in bfhi somewhere.

J Jimmy Carper 16:53
Oh, that really?

S Scott Lewis 16:54
You know, if y'all need to patrol a wider area. Y'all can take on my ass.

G Glen Holt 16:59
I was just about to mention your as actually being wired and you volunteered it you took us there.

S Scott Lewis 17:06
You can use your inline skate. You know, if you get lost, there's a metro bus stop in there.

G Glen Holt 17:11
I'm sure there is.

S Scott Lewis 17:12
I'm sure there is. Catch one out.

G Glen Holt 17:16
I'm glad that I had the opportunity to talk with Kevin May and and. And who else given me got Canada Canada? Yeah. I can think of Scott Lewis and I thought that's not right.

J Jimmy Carper 17:27
No, no, Scotland. Not Kevin Mays lover? No, no, no.

G Glen Holt 17:32
Yes, I talked with them. And I'm very thankful. I talked with them. When did you talk with them? Well, actually, I think it was Monday or Tuesday of last week. And then I had the interview all lesbian and gay voices.

J Jimmy Carper 17:43
Yes. Yes. Yes. I taped it. I haven't heard it yet. Okay.

G Glen Holt 17:47
Yeah. Because you tend to sleep through those sorts of things being the vampire that you are, right, yes. Or-.

S Scott Lewis 17:52
Being that he's 164 years old. And he's only awake three hours a day is why sleeps through everything.

G Glen Holt 17:57
And so you're planning on having Scott, or Kevin, Kevin, Kevin just got out of town. So Kevin is going to be on via the old Twilio phone.

S Scott Lewis 18:07
Calling in shortly. Yeah, that'd be great. They're great, guys. They're a lot of fun. And it's a kind of a neat story, how the gay Comedy Jam got started. And they, they wanted to they were both comics on the road and go in different directions and didn't get to spend much time together. And they wanted a way that they could spend more time together. And so they created this gay comedy tour, so that they could be together all the time. And it's been hugely successful. They sold RuPaul in Las Vegas. Incredible. Of course, they're more talented and recall.

J Jimmy Carper 18:36
And well, that goes without saying,

G Glen Holt 18:38
I know that we're talented. I know that they're going to mention it. But just to give them the plug anyway, they're going to be at the last stop this coming Monday and Tuesday, right? And the reason why they're going to be there is because they're going to record those sessions so they can release a CD.

J Jimmy Carper 18:54

Oh, cool. I didn't I didn't realize that. Yeah.

G

Glen Holt 18:57

So one of the things that I asked them about was, do they do the kind of stick, you know, where you say, you know, your, your queer whim? And he said, Well, no, they thought about that. But then they realized that somebody else had already taken that. Even though he they they say he didn't, doesn't do it as well as they could. So he said if if a guy named Jeff ever gets out of that business, yeah. They'll take it up, but not until then. That was a lot of fun to talk. I got a free diet coke out of it. So

J

Jimmy Carper 19:33

Oh, cool. Let's go to a piece of music. Scott brought a music from the motion picture stone wall. Oh, yeah. And, gosh, you know, I'm looking at some of this and that brings back memories.

G

Glen Holt 19:49

Of yeah, when you were 55 years old.

J

Jimmy Carper 19:50

Hey.

S

Scott Lewis 19:53

The year he retired.

J

Jimmy Carper 19:54

they have a lot of Shangri La music which Chang the Shangri LA's were in direct competition with the supreme Names get that one. I guess. The Supreme didn't give their okay to use their music so we got the Shangri La song in the movie. Alright? Hey, it's good music too. But that's not what I'm gonna play.

G

Glen Holt 20:11

And you also have a cassette with a picture of two gorgeous naked men on it.

J

Jimmy Carper 20:15

Yes, yes. I don't know what that is. Scott brought that in. Don't finally. Get away. So this is the Yes, yes. I don't know what that is. Scott brought that in. Pop to finally. Get away. So this is the ad lib.

G Glen Holt 20:24

And had to go powder is asking.

J Jimmy Carper 20:26

Oh, well, we won't see him the rest of the night. This is the ad libs doing boy from New York City. We have the adlibs boy from New York City that's very close to the original. And, you know, Manhattan transfer did that, too.

S Scott Lewis 20:49

Yeah, they did. Real confused of at that whole poopoo Kitty is this. Is this like a litter box?

J Jimmy Carper 20:56

Ooh, Kitty talked about the boy from New York.

S Scott Lewis 20:59

Who sounds like poopoo it 60s music was born in the 60s. Unlike you who've lived through 260s the 18 and 19. God loves you.

J Jimmy Carper 21:13

I know it. Well, so what's up, dude?

S Scott Lewis 21:18

Not a whole lot. We went What have I done this week? I went and saw Celine Dion on Thursday. Oh, how was that the woodlands?

J Jimmy Carper 21:26

No kidding.

S Scott Lewis 21:28

She's great. Her voice is like really, really good live, you know, really strong, great voice but the music is a snoozer. It was just like, I couldn't listen to the CD. I mean, she even did it in order for the CD, I mean, yes. It was pretty bad. But it was really good because I was there with my baby and just lay down babies. Like my Michael gayness, and we were just laid up there just cuddling in loving life and all that kind of stuff. So it couldn't have been I was with the perfect man. So it couldn't have been any better. Oh, okay. So what do we do now? How do we push my button?

J Jimmy Carper 22:10

You have to put headphones on? Oh, get over it.

S Scott Lewis 22:16

I tell you what. We have lots to do today. It's a busy, busy day. And we'll get to my prison fan mail soon. Push to Kevin, are you there?

K Kevin May 22:29

Yes. Hey, I'm having me on the phone. Oh, Jim. Hello, Scott.

S Scott Lewis 22:34

How are you?

K Kevin May 22:35

Just fabulous.

S Scott Lewis 22:37

So what are you doing this evening just sitting at home? Just-.

K Kevin May 22:40

Yes, I'm doing the domestic thing at home. You know, Scott is out of town on tour with Paul Rodriguez. So I have been listening to the program, of course. Fortunately, I had not a FCC agent.

J Jimmy Carper 23:02

Very fortunate.

K

Kevin May 23:03

But I did hear you talk about Atlanta. You know, we were just an Atlanta. Oh, how was it? Yeah, it was fabulous. We did a big show just the night before the closing ceremonies. And we were really in hopes that Carl Lewis would come to the show now. I'm not. I'm not saying that Carl Lewis is gay. I will bag but he didn't show up and I marry you know what I thought was so funny. You know, there was a big controversy about him whether or not he was going to run the relay race, right? They didn't know until moments before that he wasn't and he said that's good, because he didn't have the right shoes. And I'm just like, isn't that just like a queen? Oh my god. So ridiculous. We had a great time. It was fabulous. It was Atlanta is beautiful. It really is. And you know what I think they've gotten. They've given them a hard time for the Olympics. I mean, not just because of the bombing, but they really did a fine job. And oh, yeah, I think we should really owe a lot to our southern sister city and the people are just genuinely nice. And it was very pleasant, but so to speak, maybe someday we'll get them here in Houston.

J

Jimmy Carper 24:13

You know, I haven't been to Atlanta in a long time but my recollection of it was like filming have gone with the wind. Hey, it was like Houston with trees and and a much lower humidity.

S

Scott Lewis 24:25

Yeah, and clean and pretty.

K

Kevin May 24:27

Yeah, definitely. Even had I thought this is really interesting. They had, you know, the pins are big thing with the Olympics, and everybody has a pin. They had a gay pin for the day. Yes, yes. I got one, of course. But other than that, I have been watching the Republican Convention all week, which has been my favorite Comedy Central version. It was just wonderful. Well, you know what, folks, I gotta tell you, I just can't trust Bob Dole. I don't think you can trust a man that cannot use his right hand. Do we ever see that hand?

J

Jimmy Carper 25:03

Jack Kemp said he was going to be dums right hand yet? What

K

Kevin May 25:06

Is he doing with that hand to be planted themselves? My theory is is that when he says he's going to reduce taxes by 15%? He has his fingers crossed on that. I don't know. And poor Elizabeth, can we talk about her for a minute? You know, she says the Bob Dole is the most honest man that she knows. Well, that's not much considering the rest of the men that she knows are in prison. I want to see that daughter Robin. Oh, horsewoman they call her Oh, my God related to Princess Anne. Oh, Republicans don't have good gene. It's just trouble. It's like, this is the only person that I would have trusted William Kennedy Smith the babysitter for the day.

J Jimmy Carper 25:49

She does. She does have her hair done at the same place as Helen Huey, doesn't she?

K Kevin May 25:53

I think so. I've got three words. I got I've got just three words for Robin. Mane and tail shampoo. Oh, my God. Those weren't braces she was wearing as a child. Those were a month or so you know, interesting political things happening? I don't know. God, but what a week, it has been a week from hell. So obviously a Democrat, obviously, so Well, not that I have ever affiliated myself with a particular party, but probably more Democrat and Republican. I did vote for Ronald Reagan. And we all do make mistakes. say about that. And he spent four years he couldn't say the word at the changing. Well, that's just a jam. You know, Nancy's speech was very touching. And it is a shame that the man has Alzheimer's, but I think we're overshadowing the damage that he did. By something that is affected him now and right. But unfortunately, that's in the past and we had to move forward. Right?

J Jimmy Carper 26:58

Well, I certainly hope so.

G Glen Holt 27:01

The Democratic Convention, I-.

K Kevin May 27:02

I heard Glenn earlier. Tell him that I said hello. We had a wonderful time with the interview with him. He's here. He's still here. Very, very nice. It was very nice to talk to him. And he laughed. So that went good, isn't he? Uh huh. Yeah. Well, you know, he showed up for our little interview and a pair of like, spandex biker show.

J Jimmy Carper 27:19

Oh, I love when he wears. Yeah, it's so hard to concentrate on the actual interview.

G Glen Holt 27:25

Do you expect anything less?

K Kevin May 27:26

Exactly. Well, what I wanted to know, though, now Glenn was talking about the new skate or patrol. The I think we should have a fashion patrol. Well, we do. We do. And I would definitely sign up for that. No, see, we you know, apparently, when some people get up in the morning, fashion is not the first thing that they think about, then it-.

G Glen Holt 27:46

Should be said that, Kevin, Kevin.

K Kevin May 27:49

You might want to mention that to him, and we can get a fashion patrol together. I don't know.

G Glen Holt 27:54

Kevin, can you hear me now? Hi, Glen. Yeah, I've been talking to you and you can't even hear me.

J Jimmy Carper 27:59

Didn't have the right button push. Sorry.

G Glen Holt 28:01

And you're so good at pushing buttons. We do have a fashion patrol. Yes. You know, being out on foot on Q patrol. We've often seen these horrendous outfits and we say well, you know, the fashion police needs to do and then we finally decided well, hey, let's do it. Yes. Right. So we have on and actually have had for a couple of years we have these fashion citations with a horrible looking little drag queen thing that I drew chest hair and everything.

S Scott Lewis 28:28

Good TV, Janet. Yeah.

K Kevin May 28:30

So glad that somebody has finally done well, we just got back not long ago from Mississippi. And-.

GGlen Holt 28:38

Actually, though, we took the we've taken the fashion police a step further now because Dan, who is our board member in charge of fundraising has actually started I think he was out at the garden party. In fact, a wonderful place to do it. Giving first and citation Yeah, going a step further. He's calling himself the fashion police and it's all a fundraiser. Control. It's good. It's only bad taste.

KKevin May 29:02

Well, I have never seen so many poorly dressed people in Mississippi that I have seen in my life to the gay bar and oh, let me tell you, Jim, you the you have not seen white trash until you think a white trash the worse you know, and I'm sorry Possum is not the other way. May God get me back home. You know.

JJimmy Carper 29:27

Are they still stuck in the 70s?

KKevin May 29:30

Oh, I think they're even further back than that. Yeah, I think they are. But I did meet a few very nice people. And of course we tour all over the country and I don't want to trash one particular area because we love all of the areas. But of course Houston is our favorite because Houston is our home. Yeah, and as Glenn mentioned earlier Monday and Tuesday night we'll be at the last stop with the gay Comedy Jam a recording our first CD really rad we're excited, very excited about and although it hasn't been finalized. As yet, we are really working for the CD to be called live from Houston, Texas. It's the gay Comedy Jam. So it's a good. It's a good plug for the city, I think. And so many places that we go people ask us where we're from, we say Houston, and they're like, why do you live there? You know, they don't realize the extent of the gay and lesbian community. Oh, yeah. And the fourth largest city, you know, and I-.

GGlen Holt 30:23

Trust that as soon as those CDs start rolling off the presses that there'll be a couple of them show up here at the radio.

KKevin May 30:29

Absolutely. Absolutely. You know it. But it is a great night of comedy. It's with myself. And of course, God can be my partner in life, who I love dearly with all my hearts. We are. And we have a new opening act, Frank Lockwood, who is a local doctor. And this is an interesting story a couple of years ago, when we first did like our first gay Comedy Jam, Frank approached us after the show, like many people always do and say, how do you become a comedian? And we said, well, you know, it's a simple thing, but you just have to do it. So two years later, this was last month, when they had the funniest person in Houston contests have laughed off, Frank entered the contest and won the preliminary round and went to the finals. He didn't win in the finals. But he told us we didn't know who he was at first. And then he told us this afterwards that he approached us a couple years ago, we thought it was very funny. And this was even before that, we knew that and asked him if he would open for us. So he's a real medical doctor here in Houston. He's gay, he's out. And don't like to brag, but we're just getting so successful. We have our own medical doctor traveling with how the gay Comedy Jam got started. Well, the gay comedy exam started our first show was February of 94. At the last stop, and we were both comedians on the road, I had just recently left my corporate job, which Jim mentioned earlier, oh, yeah, for a major oil and gas company whose name I won't mention, but it sounds like Conoco was, hey, we were just, I was trying to establish my career. And Scott had already really established his career, he'd already been doing comedy for two or three years. But we were traveling apart, you know, we never worked together and just the regular comedy circuit, we thought, Geez, I wish there was some way we could spend some time together. And we thought, Well, what about doing like an all gay comedy show? I wonder if that would work. You know, and even in, in hindsight of not really trusting our own judgment, we thought, jeez, that probably wouldn't work, you know. But we finally thought, well, let's give it a try. And so we did that. That first show here in Houston, of course, sold out weeks before it was even scheduled, we had to add another second show that had sold out and we thought, well, maybe this is something that people want to see, you know, and we, our manager started working with it on the road. And you know, since then we've been to over 100 cities, and we're keeps on growing over 100 cities. Yeah. Oh, definitely. We can't complain. Hi, I want to go on the road with them. Yeah, well, it's not as glamorous as you might think, you know, it has its ups and downs. But it's like everything else. So we have a great time. You know, we're so I'm so lucky. I don't mean to sound like Suzy homemaker. But now I've got somebody who loves me very much able to spend time with him, although we do get on each other's nerves occasionally, but and it's just a wonderful thing. It really is. And, of course, Scott, as you know, recently, I publicly announced the fact that I was HIV positive, and had full blown AIDS. And that was a big decision for me to make, it was something that I struggled with a long time, just the public, you know, what the public would really interpret that as not so much in the gay and lesbian community, but in mainstream.

J Jimmy Carper 33:43
It's a tough thing to do.

S Scott Lewis 33:45
It's, you know, a second coming out.

K Kevin May 33:47
Yeah, it really is. It really is. And I I can't your listeners who who are either gay or lesbian, or might be HIV positive to, there's so much truth in the analogy that the truth will set you free. I cannot say enough for that. I mean, there to be out as a gay man to be proud of who I am. And also, not, not the fact that I'm proud that I have HIV, but I'm proud that I can say that I have HIV is incredibly liberating.

J Jimmy Carper 34:16

Not only that, to show the face of HIV, right, what HIV looks like folk, right? You know, wherever you go, right? That's very, very important.

K Kevin May 34:24

Well, the interesting thing is, is that although I was nervous about it, the mainstream community picked up on it even bigger than the gay and lesbian community on it, which was really amazing to me. I mean, we, in fact, if you can believe this, we did a show in Lubbock, Texas, where Scott is from, this is a very Southern Baptist. Well imagine Western, you know, Texas town, and the Texas Tech newspaper did a big story on me being HIV positive and being a comic. So I really think that a lot of times we don't give The mainstream enough credit that they really are coming around. And I think the education that we're providing to them is really helping. And that's what my number one goal was was to educate, help educate people and show that people who have HIV aren't just dying, right. Today we're living with it's a disease that becoming more and more managing man manageable. through proper therapy programs. Of course, granted, don't get me wrong, I take like 18 pills a day. There's like, no room in my makeup bag anymore. But you know, no, honey.

J Jimmy Carper 35:31

I know I'm up to 32 pills.

K Kevin May 35:33

That Well, I will tell you this, though, one of the good things about HIV is your doctor will give you anything you want. Oh, yeah. Okay. Gives you the best drugs. And I'm not sure if he's supposed to be selling them to me out of the trunk of his car. You know, that's an issue that he'll have to take up with him self? I don't know.

J Jimmy Carper 35:52

But but what's your doctor's name?

K Kevin May 35:56

I cannot divulge that information again. But you know, people are very generous and very gracious, they're always concerned about my health. And my health is good, although the fact that I only have two T cells, which I've named Thelma and Louise 102 bitches that won't give up. But anyway, the point is, that it's just something that we're dealing with. And it's very difficult that people usually don't associate HIV with humor. And I think there is a a a tasteful way to do it, and a not so tasteful way to do it. And I hope that I'm taking the tasteful approach to that. So far, I haven't had any problems with it. But because that's my biggest fear, my biggest fear is somebody is going to come up to me after a show. And I think that's so horrible. You know, and I've always been the type of comedian that if you're Jewish, that gives you the right to do Jewish, Catholic, that gives you the right to Catholic Schoeps. If you're HIV positive, that gives you the right and Bill, I have the right. And I hope people can see that I'm not making fun of HIV, per se, it's just how it affects my life.

G

Glen Holt 37:00

As long as you do it tastefully

J

Jimmy Carper 37:01

sure very, very important factor in this disease is keeping your sense of humor, and keeping keeping a positive outlook. And that's a great way to do it. And there is a lot of funny stuff that happens

K

Kevin May 37:14

There is there really is like a Scott and I were talking about this the other day and I said sweetheart, if I do get sick and something should happen to me, I don't want to say when but if I don't want to be made into a quilt, I mean, I respect I respect the whole eight quilt thing. I think it's a wonderful thing. But I'm more of a throw pillow kind of elicit I haven't see I have a sick mind. I'm thinking a quilt how do they dry clean that? No Hello pilgrims recharge by the acre. And can you get those grants as they drag it all over the country? I know and some people and I said to I don't want one of these really cutesy memorial services where everybody releases a helium balloon and says a poem. You know, I don't want to turn off flame because that's been been done before. You know, I think I'm more of a just put a smoldering eternal cigarette in an ashtray. I'm really more of that kind of person get out. So besides what you have enough helium in your heels to begin with.

G

K

Kevin May 38:14

That's exactly right. That's exactly right. But so there is there is a lot of funny things that happened to people with with HIV. And it's like, you know, people always to how did you tell your family, you know, and that was the toughest thing that I ever had to do. And not to get too serious in the program, because we're supposed to be laughing, it's comedy, but to tell my mother, the person that gave me life and this world that my life might be taken away was the hardest thing I ever had to do. And anybody that's ever had to do that, or anybody who will have to do it will know what I'm talking about. But more importantly, you know, Hallmark does not make a car notification, they just don't do it, you know. So it is a big issue. And there's a lot of health issues involved. Of course, my biggest problem right now is CMV, which as many of you might know, is the virus that affects generally your eye. So I had to take a daily IV for that. But interestingly, I was reading they have a support group. Now for people with CMV. And many people do lose their eyesight because of it. And I thought, Man, how you know, how embarrassing would that be to be at the support group and you're going Oh, my God, I think date I've seen a dog is cruising. Okay. Not sure about that. But but you know, I recently read that they've actually identified the very first person who had the HIV virus in the United States, notably that they call him patient zero. Yeah. And, you know, I'm just thinking, what kind of bad day do you have to be having to find this out? You know, hello, Mr. Jones. I'm your nurse. I've got some good news. I got some bad. Good news is you're still Live The bad news is your virus has affected 18 million people and is still counting. Now how about some jello? So what I thought was so interesting about this actually, that it's not really the first patient zero, there's another kind of patient zero. And that's the first person who ever bought a Michael Bolton CD. It's a little it's a little girl in Wisconsin that I'm sorry, they had to euthanize that. I hope anyway.

J Jimmy Carper 40:32

But, you know, they're the rare thing though, is the album's he made before he started doing covers. He's been around since the 70s.

K Kevin May 40:43

Oh, sure. Oh, sure. Why I Don't Know your style. It's kind of a it's kind of a call set between him and John Tesh? I don't know.

J Jimmy Carper 40:51

I know which of the two John Tesh is the creator of non music.

K Kevin May 40:57

Exactly. I think he should have respected as Entertainment Tonight. Yeah, that's all I'm saying. But you know, we'll right before we went to Atlanta, I had read where they hired Kathie Lee Gifford to sing the national anthem at the closing ceremonies. And I thought, man, great. This gives us just enough time for the assassination attempt. And I was going with the grassy knoll theory parently that have already been done. So I don't know. But for Kathie Lee, she, she really has been given a hard time about the whole child labor scandal. And I'm just thinking, you know, come on Kathie Lee, that silk blouse cost 99 cents? Do you really think that a union person made it.

S Scott Lewis 41:42

So you can see what you're in for this? Monday and Tuesday night. laughs stuff on West gray. It is. It's a it's just really fun. Fun Night, I have been several times. And I will probably pop in this week to see you better. And it's just a lot a lot of fun. So if you don't have tickets already, you

No kidding. But congratulations. Thank you. Besides that I knew her when you knew her when that's right. I remember your first couple of gigs. There. You really Yeah. Well, you were almost right. You said you thought that I was a teenager and we work together almost. I was actually 17 When I started working there. So I was almost a little bit older than Yeah. And of course, you know, Jimmy's thinking, jeez, that's ions ago, but that wasn't

Jimmy Carper 43:05
