

- The spirit of Harvey Milk is very much with us in that fight. Challenging us to put aside our illusions that we have something to lose by standing up for our freedom, and that our future can be safe until we are strong. And teach the world the beauty, and the strength, and the power that he was prepared to die for, that we see in one another. Thank you very much.

[APPLAUSE]

- Well, I don't know what will happen now. We've got some difficult days ahead, but it really doesn't matter with me now, because I've been to the mountaintop.

[CHEERING]

I don't mind.

[CHEERING]

Like anybody, I would like to live a long life. Longevity has its place, but I'm not concerned about that now. I just want to do God's will, and he's allowed me to go up to the mountain. And I've looked over, and I've seen the promised land. I may not get there with you, but I want you to know tonight that we as a people will get to the promised land.

[CHEERING]

So I'm happy tonight. I'm not worried about anything, I'm not fearing any man. Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord.

[CHEERING]

When we allow freedom ring-- when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children; Black men and white men, Jews and gentiles, protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old negro spiritual. Free at last, free at last. Thank God almighty, we are free at last.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

- I'm over this.

- Yeah.

- I'm ready to go home.

- It's pretty close, and we got about eight, nine, 10 minutes. I can't really see that clock.

- Nine minutes.

- And then the Blues Broads will be here at four. Kathleen and Terry are both here tonight, with blues for you. The little blue corner coming your way at 4:00 AM.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

- And then what? Nothing, I guess. Same old stuff.
- Well, whatever the Sunday lineup is, I'm sleeping. I don't know--
- No, no, no, no. I mean for next week, and all that kind of stuff.
- Next week we've got Joe coming in, the manager of Midtowne Spa.
- Oh yeah, Midtowne. To talk about Stone Soup, and other things. Maybe he'll talk about sex.
- Yeah, what the spas are doing these days.
- Nothing. Not much of anything. Anyway, other than that, somebody said today was World AIDS Day or something. Is that true?
Do you know anything about that?
- The first. This is a Day Without Art.
- So something's going on downtown?
- I really don't know.
- Yeah.
- Did you see something in there?
- No, I heard something, and-- or somebody said something on KTRH.
- Oh.
- Of course, I wouldn't know. We don't get any press releases to tell you what's going on.
- No.
- Which is fine. I can tell you when all the bars are going to have their specials.
- Yeah, I know.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

- I remember seeing it somewhere, but I don't remember where. It's certainly not in this paper. No-- no, I don't see it in here-- here it is.
- Oh, you found it.
- Also, in observance of World AIDS Day Without Art, the Alley Theater will sponsor Voices For Life-- a reading for World AIDS Day-- a performance of prose and poetry, written in response to the AIDS crisis, run by members of the Alley Company. The reading will take place in The Alley stage arena at 5:00 PM. Admission is free, but they're asking for a donation. Let's see, all proceeds donated will go to a fund for Stone Soup.

- Ah, good.

- And PWAs are admitted free. So that's a Day Without Art, at the Alley Theater, this afternoon at 5 o' clock. It's free, and it says there's a $5 donation ask which would go to Stone Soup. Anyway, what else? That's about it.

- That's about it.

- OK, it's time to go home, and do all those things we do until next Saturday, when we'll come back and start screaming again. Sort of. Maybe. I don't know.

This is "Exchange". I promised I'd play this earlier for somebody, and I forgot. I got sidetracked.

- You used to play this on Tranquility Base a lot.

- Yeah, thank god that's over.

- Aw, it was a fun show.

- Anyway, I guess Thanksgiving is over, and we've got Christmas to deal with.

- Yep.

- Anything else?

- Nah.

- I guess that's it. Maybe. I don't know.

- Ah, there's that music.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

- Yeah, to find out what's going on in the community, call the Gay and Lesbian Switchboard at 529-3211, most days from 4:00 PM till midnight.

- Yep.

- And we'll see you next time.

- You bet. I love you, babies.
