SPEAKERS

Jason

00:01

Like their album I'll be home over Christmas.

00:07

Been there done that?

00:11

And they're done that for all my life

00:14

hasn't really been all your life.

00:17

We need you come out.

Jason 00:18

When do I come out? I came out at 15 and then again at 16 and again to 17 and give it right and you just keep coming out times to eight and you just keep coming out times to my mother before she finally accepted it really? Now she actually can take an interest in my love life and,

00:23

J Jason 00:27

00:34

and appreciate and respect your choices. Goodbye from 00:40

passion I don't know many parents who do that even with strike children.

J Jason 00:43

I know. It's It's almost kind of unnerving to have my mother like wanting to know about who I'm dating and stuff. Oh, maybe see him he's like, Well, he's cute, but my mom like she she doesn't trust any of my friendships. She's like, Are you guys having sex? With everyone I bring home she's like, so is that what you guys do up in your room? And I'm like, so did you want to have like a lot of slumber parties or all that is that I think that must be something that's like isolated to the gay community is every like guy I bring over mom like so. Is that your boyfriend?

00:54

01:06

J Jason 01:10

01:21

And they like yeah, like 01:24

that's funny. Oh, people

J

Jason 01:26

are like requesting stuff here. Yeah. Do you have either one of these songs? Yeah,

o

01:30

you do.

J

Jason 01:34

This, Kenneth Starr is coming to town. Well, that one that you want that when you don't? Have you ever heard the one about that? I really don't want

o

01:43

that Dusty Springfield song. You look

J

Jason 01:47

at me like I know what you're talking about.

o

01:48

Da Vinci? No.

J

Jason 01:52

Have you ever? What music do I bring in? What music do I bring in every time I come in here? Gateway club music. Not just gay boy club music.

o

02:02

It's open club

o

02:03

to have club diversity club music Exactly. called Son of a preacher man. And I have to I have a version of it. That's a male

02:07

02:11

Joan Osborne does a really awesome really. Oh my god, it's it's on her live album. And it's really good cover that song. She has such a sexy voice.

02:24

Women are sexy. People are sexy, every single person sexy in their own right, in their own way.

02:33

When themselves especially like I always knew I liked women, too. When I was a little kid, I think everyone realizes when they're a little kid, if everyone looks back, don't realize like their first experiences were more likely with same sex because that's what they naturally felt. But then society had to brainwash us all and say, Hey, for me, I'm like, both. I just can't decide. No, but I'm lucky enough though. I have the best husband the world. You know, we've been married for almost eight years. And he respects the kind of lifestyle that I need. Not to say I'm a big slug, because I'm not I don't mean it like that. But he understands that if I were if I see a beautiful woman, I'm just like, Damn, she's beautiful. You know? I would take her home.

02:52

03:17

No, you don't like the word slot?

03:19

No, because I don't think that just because someone who likes sex should be called the slot.

03:23

But it's a double standard because women are will always be thought of that way and men it's okay. Well, you have to some of you gay men are we call each other sluts. Okay. Gay men call each other.

03:32

03:35

That's not necessarily a put down.

03:37

No, it's not. She I don't mind being a slut. I wish I could be you know, aspire to be as I do, you know, but, um, this pussycat. But no, I always knew I liked women though. I always liked women. I used to draw women first. I always used to draw women when I was like four and five will have like big boobs and like red lips and back then like feathered hair and stuff. But they never had necks. They never had. I just didn't know how to draw next, I guess.

04:09

Oh my god next.

04:12

Yes, you're absolutely right. But at four years old, I don't think it really occurred. Now.

04:18

Feathers day, right?

04:19

Was that what feathers do feathers? Oh, yeah, the feathers here? Remember the whole feathered hair thing that oh my god, I had feathers.

04:24

04:25

04:26

Like did you? Well, I never had bangs, but I used to pretend that I like have feathers. I'd like get my hair all wet. Doing make believe feathers. You know, what's unfortunate is the fact that some women still feel that that's in style. And I just want

04:36

04:42

I think if you can work it well.

04:45

I don't I don't. Billy Ray Cyrus. I think I'll better just ended that haircut. Yeah,

04:51

I think he did cut it off to me.

04:52

i Well, yeah. It enticed all these women to try and mock it and it's just it's sad. It's really sad.

05:00

My bad hair will burn.

05:03

The hockey game is just gotta go.

05:06

But if you really like it, well, then you work it. Right. Right, you can work it well. Right, exactly. I think that's what it's all about.

05:15

Because we all know life has a stage. That's 05:18

05:16

right. So much trauma. Everyone has a part.

J Jason 05:22

I'm just still trying to figure out what my part is exactly.

05:25

You have a great part. You're helping many, many, many, many, many, many people dealing with their issues, and having a place to go and somebody to talk to.

05:37

Can you imagine how boring life would be if we didn't have our issues? We just if we were all perfect. That'd be so no damn if we were perfect. I wish I wish I was perfect. Yeah, I strive 05:52

05:44

as as the older person here,

05:54

the much not

05:56

older don't give us that much older person.

05:58

05:58

I'd like to bring you the bad news that for most of us. We don't. We never know what we want to be when we grow up.

06:10

I never want to grow up. Period. I grow up. I don't think I'll ever grow up.

06:17

I'm a Disney kid at heart. It's like, like everyone laughs at me. So I want to go see and sink because as people from the Mickey Mouse Club. Anyways.

06:26

That's pretty good.

06:28

I'm such a child at heart. Anything that has to do with my childhood. I want to cling to it. And so I suffer through and synth concerts.

06:35

Well, I think people freak out on me because like, my husband, I will go to McDonald's and like I want to sit in Playland. And watch the kids and like, I mean, I'm not like, you know, I'm not like a pedophile or anything, but I love children. They're so beautiful. And I wish I could go in there and play with them too. But you know, they would think I'm really strange. If I jumped in the balls

06:53

I got a chance to jump in the boat. You know what the balls are filled with bacteria. So you know what? It's your kid down the balls and snakes I heard snakes. Snakes I heard a story that there someone got bit by snake and those things. Oh. yeah. I believe that that's pretty bad.

06:55

07:00

07:08

That's actually meant snakes were written were full of bacteria. Therefore some pretty good lead to so yeah, be careful with the snakes and the balls and McDonald's play.

J Jason 07:22

We've got some going to be for an on air call tonight. Roy is going to introduce him.

07:28

Yeah, I'd like to introduce our hatching hatchlings here to Quincy, who's been a longtime listener, and he was one of our original teenage listeners. He is now in Notre Dame University. And he's home on Christmas vacation on Christmas leaving he'd like to speak to some of y'all.

07:50

Okay, wonderful. Hi, Quincy.

07:55

Are you there? Hello. Hi. Hi. Oh, nothing much going on. being bored at home.

08:03

What party historian? Elite?

08:06

Elite. Wow. That's pretty cool. You've been such a loyal listener.

08:11

Since I was 17. See? I'm 20 Wow.

08:16

How's college going?

08:17

Well, I hate Notre Dame. Willie. Went there. He likes it. I really hope there aren't too many Fighting Irish fans out there.

J Jason 08:22

08:27

Yeah, sorry if they are but it's it's tough being not only gay but black and Protestant as well. So wow, we just go out there and show him how to do it right.

08:34

08:39

Oh, I try him. I'm a freak on campus. That's because I'm a theater major. So

08:44

So you're the one who's gonna be making multi millions, you know, in Hollywood while they're what? Fighting?

08:51

Right their engineering business?

08:54

That does choreographers.

J Jason 08:57

Right? Who wants to be in business or anything? Not that that's my major business.

09:02

I love business. I can't do the number. No, just the acting. Yeah, definitely. Oh, that's okay.

That'll get you that'll get you somewhere to you know, oh, I hope so. Oh, well. You got in the air right.

09:16

There you go. See? That's a start. Agents are listening. I'm looking for one okay. Are you agents out there Quincy needs an agent. I need an agent. We all need agents, agents. Agents if anybody no agent anybody's got a million dollar contract is lying around.

09:21

Jason 09:27

09:33

Yeah, to assign one to you know if they got a couple of extra in their pants. I mean, in their purse, or portfolio. Where's my mind? I'm sorry. Okay, so what part of like, theater Do you want to go into?

Jason 09:45

09:54

actually want to be on Broadway? Broadway? Yeah. I figure I should do Something with my coffee is a dance.

10:02

Are you into musicals? Yes, actually, 10:04

we're doing Godspell right now.

10:08

Have you done bye bye, birdie.

10:08

Yes, I was in the villa outdoor theater version of that a couple of years ago.

10:14

That is such a good one. Were you Conrad Birdie. No, I was just one of the teenagers to drive teenagers teenager. They have there are no did you ask me?

10:16

Jason 10:24

I am a queen. Okay. I do know my musical.

10:27

So did you got to feel last night? Did you got to feel last night? No, I didn't get where are you? I was at home. Little brother had the car.

10:33

10:39

We wouldn't come back. We wouldn't pick you up.

10:42

I didn't know that. And then that could be used as excuses.

10:45

Y'all know how long that neck of the woods sounds? Yeah, we love foreign. I love it. I love it. Because it actually like makes me feel semi normal. Sometimes being normal is okay. But as long as you're balanced, you know, too much of one is not good. You have to be balanced in life. And when I'm out there, it reminds me that I'm just like a normal human being. I'm normal, you know, go to the grocery store and just blend in. It's okay.

10:47

J Jason 11:07

You know, it's really fun to come to look at all the other people in the grocery store and wonder what they do on their Friday night.

11:12

Exactly. I'm like, in the bread aisle. When you need it, how long it'd be in town for until the 10th of January. I really okay, well, then you have to make it out to our Christmas party into like New Year's and stuff. And when is that again? It was every Friday, honey, we party every Friday at feel at riches. Do you ever go to riches? Yeah. Okay, well, we do it every Friday night there. And this next coming week is going to be Christmas. So when you're done with the family, you got to come out and have some fun and show us what you got on stage and practice for us. And excuse me, and then like the New Year's party is going to be like a big fetish future fetish carnival theme party. So. So definitely give you something to do while you're here.

11:52

Okay, cool. That's fine. That's fine with me. And just to let everyone know that even though I go to conservative, horrible Catholic college, there, you can always, always find a wonderful support group on campus. That is wonderful. Yes, there's one we have outreach attendees on our campus. Really? Yeah, that's wonderful. I think there should be support from the whole world.

12:11

12:16

Did you ever know hatch Quincy?

12:19

No, I didn't, I didn't really know anything about it. You know, 12:23

you can still go you're only 20 Because the ages are 14 to

J

Jason 12:27

21st day of your 14 year to the last day of your 20th year. So the day before your 21st birthday is the last day you can go, how come it's only 21.

♂

12:35

♂

12:37

Because it's a youth group. There's 20 something

J

Jason 12:41

little legal technicality really can't cross too much into ages and stuff.

♂

12:46

Well, if you had crossed state lines, and then once you become 23, you become a facilitator, which

J

Jason 12:49

♂

12:53

I might do, I'd love to do something like that.

12:57

But Quincy, if you're still in town, you should try and swing by hat sometime. Call a hash line and get some more information about it. And maybe you'll find some support here.

♂

13:06

What does that stand for? Exactly?

J

Jason 13:08

Houston area teenage coalition of homosexuals.

♀

13:12

Who came up with that?

♀

13:15 years ago?

♀

13:18

That's cool. That's cool. I'm not sure it's very like symbolic, right?

J

Jason 13:22

Yeah, hatch. Actually, it all started with Trish Kolodny who's now Trish. Morgan is a straight woman who saw the need for a gay youth support group. And she got it started and it started going really well. And then support kind of died off and she got involved again and revived it and it's been going pretty fast. She straightens that we have several straight facilitators. Peggy is one of our Sunday night. Regular facilitators actually she runs a Sunday night program doesn't she? She's got a gay son. But we all kind of look at her as our mother figure. That's cool. So yeah, we've got a lot of straight and gay support. That's how it should be.

♀

14:15

It really helps you relate to like people and not have a prejudice towards men, right?

14:20

Because I think that's our biggest problem in this society and world in this world in general. Is that whole prejudice I think everybody should just can't we all just get along. Everyone should really just respect each other no matter what. That's my opinion. You know, everyone should be supportive. Just like when they well no, I don't know if y'all saw that Montrose television. I don't have Warner cable so I never got to see it. But they came to feel on our anniversary and they are asking me you know, just ask me stuff and I didn't get to see it. I was horrible on it. But what I meant to say was that yes, we definitely I believe, like when we did feel we wanted a night that it wasn't labeled gay it wasn't labeled straight. It was just labeled, like total diversity and a total unity. I mean, without sounding like, like, it's just words. I mean, we really the whole idea behind it was actually to bring peace and love and unity and respect. I mean those four things together that brings people together and it just makes people real. And you know, it really does work. I mean, because I've just got your, I've got this really bad gaydar. Okay, I cannot pick out a gay person, like gay man to save my life. And everybody there is really cool. I mean, even when you hit on a straight person, they don't take offense to it and straight people hit on me and yet it's just all about having a good time. Right?

J

Jason 15:22

♂

15:45

It's about complete unity. Really diversity? Yes, really?

J

Jason 15:51

Okay, we need to play our card real quick. So okay, maybe not. It hasn't rewound for some reason.

♂

16:06

Commercial Free and listener sponsored Houston's 90.1 KPFT the sound of Texas at Pacifica network station. KPFT Houston que yo s College Station.

J

Jason 16:17

Okay. Just had to get that business to help. You have to do it on top of the hour and middle of our little Yeah, we're running a little.

♂

16:30

So we like being behind right.

♂

16:37

Anyway, is our listener still there? Oh, my God. Okay, Quincy. Hello, hello. That's right. Yes, you are wonderful for being so loyal to the show. You know, there is no problem. I love it. That's super cool. But I would definitely definitely get out to a meeting and get out on a Friday night and you guys will probably be sick of sick me by the time I know, we'll never be sick or you never that's absolutely. Never, never, never, never.

♂

17:06

17:12

That's the great thing about hatch. There's always new people coming in, you're getting to meet more people on getting introduced to different things every time you go there. And it's real experience and everyone should try gay, straight, whatever.

Jason 17:24

And that number out for anybody who wants to find out about hatch is 713-942-7002. And it's a voicemail line.

17:35

And will be answered properly by Courtney. He's getting a really good hang of that. But it's been nice talking to you Quincy, and we're glad you called in.

Jason 17:43

17:46

Well, thank you for listening. Thank you for having me and listening to me and I will definitely see you guys.

17:52

Take care I eat tonight. Good morning.

17:56

Bye bye. Take care. Bye. Okay, that was cool.

18:01

That was cool. And he didn't even interrupt me like Hello. I am on the phone y'all. Hello.

 18:07
I'm still here.

18:10 Thank you, Quincy. That was cool.

J Jason 18:14
We've got a request. This request is for George and plantersville. And he wanted to hear son of a preacher man. And we've got a version by Jeff crasner.

 18:30 To me, yes, he was a winner of glamour award last year. That's the gay and lesbian American Music Association.

18:39 He got a Grammy. Yeah, all these goodies. And he has this great version of Senator preacher, man.

18:46
So we're gonna go right into it 18:54

see the Post piece?

18:56
Yeah, let's do that. Now.

 18:58
What are we doing? I have three more CDs to give away.

19:01

Oh, well, I guess we just thought I'd give those away. Huh? Yeah.

19:06

How are we gonna do that? I think people should call 5265738 and we'll take callers number three, four and 55265738526 KPFT. You're listening to after hours? Queer radio with attitude right here on KPFT Houston, and ke o s College Station. This is the hatch segment. And there's caller number one. Hi, Hi.

19:42

How's everyone's day Ben?

19:44

Is David Washington filter still here? I love you David out there. Wherever you are. That's my attorney. By the way. He takes care of this pussycat and the whole crew. I wonder if he's here.

20:00

Sitting right now sitting right out here. Okay.

20:04

Taking notes taking. That's funny.

20:09

So anyway, one more and one more plug two for Sunday Mass. You know if you guys have enough energy left over, come on over. It's Sunday mass that is also 18 up. So fusion and solar during the seasons are doing it. Yes, I'm not. Yeah, they're doing it and they're the whole concept is pretty much I guess DJs big guest DJs. So you guys need to call in and check and see who's playing but Christo and DJ fusion, the residents of fuel are also the residents of Sunday Mass and it is 18 up. So y'all can come check that out too. As a good time. Yeah.

20:42

20:45

I just wish I had more energy sometimes. I wish I had more of me to spread.

J

Jason 20:51

Wouldn't be nice if there was just some way to just bottle it up and save it for later. bottle

👤

20:57

it up and sell it I wouldn't want to see mine in the bargain bin

21:08

What was your guys's like? What was your first like experience? But coming towards like coming into the gay community? Like how did you first really get involved with it? Was it through clubs? Was it through groups? hobby shops? Hmm.

Well, let's see. Clubs and friends. Yeah, well, my parents used to take us to the discos when we were children. So I've been in the club scene for a long time discount. I mean, when I was like five years old, my mother and my father were like disco kings and queens, taken us took me and my sister to the discos and like doing the hustle and all that stuff. So I've been in the club scene since I was a child. I loved it. I've always loved it. So it is in my soul. And as far as like the gay community. Like I said, I always knew that I loved both. I mean, I've always been very open minded. And we my husband and I met actually at the bottom in San Antonio, which is kind of like an equivalent to riches here at a gay bar. And here's a good lesson for all you people that are listening. Never hold a grudge. That is a big, big, big lesson always we have to learn how to forgive. Not just this time of year but forever because my worst enemy in high school, that I beat it up and I beat her up and everything got suspended part one week after we like made truce after we graduated. She introduced me to my husband, then interesting. So if I would have held that grudge, then I would have never met my husband but we met at a gay bar.

J

Jason 22:40

That's one thing I need to learn because I'm really bad about holding grudges.

22:43

Well, I am too but once you learn to let it go, it's just so it's just so much of a relief. Such a typical Taurus. I am stubborn. My mother's 22:54

J

Jason 22:50

a Taurus. My mother's a Taurus. Yeah.

22:58

We've been together. Yeah, I see the two co hosts agreed on something similar, he said she said I started already coffee cause in taking those calls. We had a problem with the phone and they were disconnected. So we didn't those folks to call back.

23:06

23:10

23:18

Please, go back. Go back quickly. Because if you don't, I'm going to take them. Yeah, but that's important. I think that's very important. Even for me, I mean, we're just human beings. You know, it's hard to let it go. But we're all people we're all human beings. We all have our hang ups but I've actually said getting over it just get over it rise above it all. Learn to sometimes it's so much more fun to hold a grudge. No, it is it deep down. No, it isn't. Because it's that whole awkwardness you've got to evolve. Thank you.

23:23

23:52

makes life fun at times. No drama,

23:54

yes, but grudges No. Hatred and hatred. No. That's what our company is about, by the way. So a lot of people ask me what is evolve. So I'm going to tell you all evolve, is evolve means to develop into something better than what you started out, as, you know, to just keep evolving, being better keep developing, keep growing, you know, just move on to a more positive place rising above all the negativity, you know, just expressing yourself through your music and your style, and your dance and your sexuality and your spirituality. I mean, just, you know, and I believe that I mean, that's part of our mottos individually and collectively. You know, we'll be the teachers of this world. What if it's real? Yeah.

J

Jason 24:51

Well, we're running towards the end of the segment. You've been listening by the hashtag. Yes.

24:57

Thank you for having us. Thank you. Every day very much for having us. Yeah. And again,

J

Jason 25:02

be sure to come out to Sunday Mass. Yes. Sunday Mass and fuel every Friday night. All the superheroes are there. That means all y'all,

♂

25:09

J

Jason 25:14

and we've got the Christmas party. Yes. fetish party party. And then immediately after that, the space funk party for all you space cadets out there. So, but thank you for having us. We had a blast.

♂

25:17

♂

25:27

We're glad you could make it.

♂

25:28

Thank you. Thank you. Yes. I won't like the mic, because you know. I did that on break.

J

Jason 25:41

And you've been listening to the hatch segment of after hours. If you have any questions about hatch would like to become a member calls 713-942-7002. Again that number is 713-942-

Hatch would like to become a member. Call 712-312-7002. Again, that number is 712-312-7002. That's a voicemail line. And all calls are returned confidentially and as quickly as possible.

26:08

I'm kind of I think this is gonna be fun in the next few months. With Jason and Kansas working. I'm thinking of how do we do this? A club boy and a punk girl.

26:24

It'll be interesting. I was just about to say that. Things will work out.

26:29

And we're both stubborn tours. Tours.

26:33

Jimmy's gonna have fun with us. And now it's my mike

26:45

You want to introduce what's up? Man? I always forget them.

26:55

Know that. Coming up at the top of the hour is Big Daddy j with the Red Eye special. It's the beginning of our fabulous Sunday. So you want to stay tuned for that. Now. There's someone else in the room that have you introduced?

Jason 27:15

Oh, that's right, we she's gonna be dragged on the air tonight. She didn't really want to be. She's gonna be dragged on the air. We have our paid director of hat. The new fairly new position. I'm gonna talk a little bit about that. In the last couple of minutes we have.

27:43

Hi, my name is Carol Patru. See? Ya. I'm the new program director for Hatch. I'm having a great time. Best job I've ever had in my life. And I don't know, any questions anything?

28:00

What is what does your job entail?

28:03

Well, basically, pretty much. Hatch has been a solely volunteer run organization for 11 year, right. And my priorities are kind of to just kind of keep things go running smoothly. It's been fantastic. I mean, I, I've worked in a lot of small community based nonprofits. And it's very, very unusual to have you know, an 11 year long organization that runs as incredibly well as Hatch has, without anyone sorted to oversee things. And so that's my first priority is to just sort of develop a system so that things continue to run smoothly and, and so that we can build the organization into something gigantic.

J Jason 28:55

Yeah. And you're gonna we're gonna have to drag you up, like, keep you up early. Mornings more often.

29:00

Yes. Jason, how long have you been here?

J Jason 29:04

At the station or at that station?

29:05

Coming on to

J Jason 29:07

yours, I think yeah. And not seem like that.

29:10

Well, you know, in that time, it's kind of like we've had one facilitator, facilitator and

J Jason 29:18

one facilitator Come on And, John, I don't remember sometimes it sometimes we felt like we were kind of out here on the limb, as far as hatch is concerned, and I'm glad to have more participation with with the facilitators.

29:21

29:33

Well, that's one of the things with the whole organization there have been because it's been volunteer, it'd be like one person who would be kind of coordinating things one night of the week and another be coordinating things for the other night. And then there's the board and then there's different program people there's a radio station website and these different things that all had individuals spending a lot of time and effort in I'm free time to make these things happen. But one of the things that is really starting to improve things is that I'm kind of have my finger and everything. Good is one stop shopping. Yeah. Well, that's the whole idea. Right. So it's, it's been, it's been nice to pull it all together, you know, so I'll be back. Oh, good.

30:22

You got it. You know, it's nice to know that. Sometimes we get the feeling that, gee, do they know we're, we're doing this here. But I know what it's like being with a switchboard and know what it's like with an all volunteer organization. You just, some people are very dynamic and others are not. And it's very hard to say, Okay, you're, you're volunteering here, but I want you to do this, this and this.

30:51

So yeah, so I mean, are you new to Houston? fairly new. I moved here in June, it was 103. The day I got here, for more. Madison, Wisconsin. Whoa, yes. Yeah, there's some Madison, Wisconsin is a pretty progressive town.

31:01

31:09

very progressive town. But progressive towns can also be like, quite full of themselves. Where, oh, we're progressive. So we have no problems. You know, and it's very hard to get attention for issues and kind of make waves everybody just kind of oh, well, we all have our say here. So the naked bicyclers come out, you're laying down State Street and nobody pays any attention and the commenters people's like, geez of hunters to the tops of their cars and drive around during the opening of hunting season. And it becomes like these routine kind of protests that nobody really, they say, okay, there they are again, you know, so. So that can be the downside, but the upside is, yeah, there are there are some real great people. But it's a lot smaller than this. Oh, yeah.

32:06

Yeah. Well, as soon as you get your store heat, I think you're gonna love the city.

32:12

I love the heat. I I'm totally nuts about the heat. I used to live in Canada and I grew up in the Midwest, and so I am so happy to be where there's not going to be any snow.

32:25

Weather there won't be there won't be any here. You've been listening to after hours on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station.

32:36

And I want to thank Carol for coming out here at this early late hour and feel is really good. You guys to show your support and we appreciate it. Yeah.

Jason 32:45

All right. See y'all on the first Saturday of the month.

32:49

Jason and canvas with that 32:53

and the music segment ought to be interesting this time Yeah.

33:32

I really don't want to count those people who went before us. There have been a substantial number of lesbians and gays who have been willing to walk into the hostile environment of a senatorial district convention in the Democratic Party and say we're here. We're queer. Get used to it, because we ain't going away. We are getting we are getting elected. We're getting elected from our precincts. We're getting elected from the 34th priests
