Harvey Milk 00:01

Most importantly, every gay person must come out you must tell your immediate family, you must tell your relatives, you must tell your friends if indeed they are your friends. You must tell your neighbors you must tell the people you work with. You must tell the people to the stories you shopping once they realize that we are indeed their children, and we are indeed everywhere, every myth, every lie, every innuendo will be destroyed once and once you go, you will feel so much better.

 Bruce Reeves 07:59

 Bruce Reeves 08:03

I don't want to hear

 Buddy Johnston 08:06

anyway, who else isn't there with you, Bruce?

 Bruce Reeves 08:08

That's a good question, Scott. Scott.

 08:26

 Buddy Johnston 08:28

 08:31

one of those one of those little holes in the wall places I'm sure.

B

Buddy Johnston 08:34

Anyway, Mike's here are one of our new engineers and Robert and Lloyd are here. They're supposed to be here for gay fathers. But we told them we weren't gonna send them about gay daddies except Hi. Say hi. Hi. Okay, that's good enough.

♂

08:51

It was a remedial action. Somebody

B

Buddy Johnston 08:53

call him say that he was 14 years old and afraid. You know what I'm saying? I got a letter I want to read to you.

08:59

Oh, wait before you read the letter. We got a call earlier somebody took a call and the person calling up said you know something about why do you want to be a faggot or whatever? Well, I took the call where they call back and apologized. They did call back and back and apologized.

B

Buddy Johnston 09:12

So listen to this. Dare excuse me, your meter here. Okay. Dear brothers and sisters. I am 15 going on 16 And of course gay. I live in a small town. When I started knowing about my homosexuality. I wanted to learn more about me and people like me. I have read and I'm still reading magazines, newspaper clippings, and watching television programs that deal with or talk about us underlined. After learning some more about myself. I began I began feeling proud and was outraged with the way some people started treating us. I was introduced to your program by chance I always listen to the radio and I would certainly turn the dial. And I would constantly turn the dial, hoping to find a gay radio station. I wish the program would come on every day of the week. I listened to your program every Sunday with my earphones on. So nobody will hear me. I listen to your program and plan to listen to the one coming up. The reason the main reason that I'm writing to you is well, I'm still in the closet. Although many people at school and at home suspect that I'm gay. I get the regular teases, and name callings from people, but I just ignore them. One thing is for certain, I will not be macho, or get a girlfriend. Oh sure. I have lots of girlfriends but not the way the kids at school think. I am frightened to come out to people, parents, etc. Although one day, I am going to I'm at the point now. When I feel it's time for me to come out. And if I could just know there was somebody out there that cares and understands it could ease the pain of feeling so isolated. If you have some suggestions, or organizations I could contact please let me know. I have written to a place but got no answer. And I know I can trust you to take this into consideration. Thanks for your time. I love to listen. Perhaps you can read this on your program. That would be even better.

Sincerely, a gay fan. PS please answer it's our little secret Well, Alan 12:11

Well he certainly wrote to the right people. Boy how they can we turn this person on to all I assume it's a he maybe she you know. We can turn this person on to some organizations.

Buddy Johnston 12:23

We're going to tell you something, maybe what have you done to deserve being treated like crap? Nothing. And we're going to tell you how to straighten it out in just a minute. Happy birthday to Roger. And Randy. They're listening this morning. Thanks, guys.

12:43

You I'm doing fine, buddy. Yes, you're on there. What's up? What's up this morning? Not much. Who's this? Who is this? Mike? Oh, hi, Mike. How are you? Somebody said pick up line two. I'm on line two. Yeah. You're on the line. I finished my essay. Oh, yeah. Go? I don't know. I haven't got it back yet.

13:08

Yeah, you're gonna keep us in suspense. Pardon? You're gonna keep us in suspense.

Buddy Johnston 13:15

The note says you wanted to say hello to friends or something?

13:18

Yes. I want to say hi to Chris and John. Northeastern. Are they listening this morning? They better be Are they are they like you know have a lot of body here they don't paint intensity on my keys go into St. Francis.

13:24

Buddy Johnston 13:30

13:32

I'm on shore diets.

Buddy Johnston 13:34

Don't answer anything. Mike, do they have a lot of buddy here and, buddy. Now now just because I'm leaving doesn't mean you can all give.

13:38

Buddy Johnston 13:42

Roger. Roger.

13:46

No, Alan, Alan. Alan is going to San Francisco. If

Buddy Johnston 13:49

Roger goes to San Fran. Nobody's gonna take care of our checkbook.

13:53

Boy you talking about?

13:55

Check out Polk Street in Castle Street.

13:57

I'm going to be living there maybe live in.

Buddy Johnston 14:02

Listen. Thanks for calling guy. Thank you. Keep listening. Bye. So what's on what's going on in here? Everybody's just sitting around looking.

14:10

They're all staring at us. I feel like I feel like me to come talk. So I'm here talking. Now. What else you want to hear?

14:13

Buddy Johnston 14:17

Listen at this. The front page of the Houston Post Saturday says didn't musicians walk out after Second Baptist bars player with a callback that they may get the number two Second Baptist Church we can get it we can find it says Second Baptist church decided to borrow musicians suffering from AIDS from performing in a Palm Sunday Requiem service has sparked a walkout by two thirds of the church orchestra. Oh my god for real Christians. Hallelujah. You might

14:45

Bruce Reeves 14:50

find someone in the bowling alley.

Buddy Johnston 14:52

Well, someone out there if Reverend Ed Young is out there. He's more than welcome to call up he can come on down here and the bad we are

15:00

Oh yeah tell everything I found thing I found about the article was that the pastor was out of town and unavailable for comment, honey tomorrow or today actually is Palm Sunday. What's the pastor doing out of town on Palm Sunday? This is big, big day. Big time.

15:12

Buddy Johnston 15:14

I don't know Jimmy Swaggart. Oh, I said I wouldn't say that he's written a new Jimmy Swaggart has written a new brochure for the church. It's called, should clergy do more than lay people so maybe we can get copies of that. Church? Well, I like that brother young likes to get up and dance around on Sunday morning. So did a lot of other people down on the Pacific Street.

15:38

They're already in heaven. Hallelujah. So he's still working on it.

Buddy Johnston 15:44

And we've got Westheimer Arts Festival today.

15:49

Too much fun for words. And then I was gonna run for I am I'm so disappointed because you know, when I got my my body pierced here. I was looking so looking forward to wandering around with neato final stuff hanging off of it at the Art Festival, and freaking people out and now he's kidneys not gonna be here.

B Bruce Reeves 16:11

Wanna die? Cut church tomorrow and go anyway?

16:14

Yeah, no, I cannot I cannot I have to be in church. They cannot live without me. They just gonna do from now on my replaced. I'm training my replacement. Oh, excuse me.

B Bruce Reeves 16:24

Buddy Johnston 16:25

Also. Don't ask him that. Coming up Sunday, we've got a it takes two lesbians to make one of me.

16:32

16:34

Hush. I wouldn't say that. If I were you. Hey, I'm leaving town. I can say it.

16:40

Coming up Sunday. But he's gotta go

B Bruce Reeves 16:44

all the women at tonight anyway. Terry, Sarah, you get a car? No, baby. Nobody called now.

16:46

B Buddy Johnston 16:50

She had a car accident. Well, I didn't talk to you. And I guess this is true. Come to think of it, you haven't been able to reach? Sorry, your phone's disconnected. Anyway, coming up Sunday today, right? Today names project meeting

B Bruce Reeves 17:05

5pm Dignity center, 32, seven. Banner at Elgin.

B Buddy Johnston 17:11

And right now we can tell you with the names project that the quilt will be here on Mother's Day. May the eighth and ninth is that right? Seventh and eighth, seventh and eighth, eighth and ninth.

B Bruce Reeves 17:22

And one of two places. It'll be determined early this week. It'll be here on Mother's Day weekend. And we still don't know where yet. Right now we want to see it in the Georgia brown Convention Center. A lot of people want to see it in the Albert Thomas Convention Center. I personally just want to see it in Houston. I don't care where it is, as long as it comes to the city. And we get represented on the 20 city tour. So if you want to be involved in that and what's going on, come on down to the dignity center. And where's that at verse

B Buddy Johnston 17:26

 Bruce Reeves 17:52

3217, algen Anna, and also Fannin at Elgin

 Buddy Johnston 17:59

just follow the parade. There'll be hundreds of 1000s of gay people down there today.

 18:03

But you know, in a city as large as Houston if we can't pull this off easily, it's criminal because Houston gay population is much larger than San Francisco's. Unfortunately. So the closets here, you know, they're much larger than San Francisco's they hold a lot more people major chasms. Thank you gave of winds. Yes. Well, I don't know what to call me.

 Buddy Johnston 18:24

I don't know what we can do to convince your kids that it's going to be great once you get out of the closet and come out and join us really, except to keep telling me on 18:32

 18:31

my radio show.

 Buddy Johnston 18:37

That's what Matt just said. Right, Matt? Yeah. Something about the kid that he called.

 18:42

Yeah, I used to be in the closet. And once I finally came out of it, my mother threw a fit and threw me out of the house and I nearly starved but I made it I kept hanging on and I didn't go back in the closet and I didn't get myself a girlfriend and now I live in Houston. I have an apartment and olds and a Volvo a husband and a house boy I'm doing.

19:04

Yeah.

B Buddy Johnston 19:06

All on all on $2.80 an hour. He has the bloom of us, please.

19:13

A youth youth and vigor still can't beat out age and meanness That's right.

B Buddy Johnston 19:17

Anyway, it's great to be out. Sure, give us a call at five to six 4000 And we'll talk about coming out and all that good stuff.

19:27

I called my uncle this evening to tell him I was I was moving to San Francisco and gonna pass by and he said, You know, I said hi, this is Alan. He said, Oh, Hi Alan, what's going on and said, Well, I'm moving to San Francisco. He said, Oh, you're you're at probably wants to talk to you about this. He turned around I heard him say Patti Allen's move to San Francisco. Come talk to the boy Oh my god. She was real cool, though. She's real. She's real thrilled for me. Yes, but But the the woman the sweet woman at work who isn't My boss. When I told her I was moving to San Francisco, you could see the little wheels turning in her head, click, click, click clunk. And she came to the conclusion, thud. Oh my God, he's homosexual. You could see it written on her face. And she said, Well, best of luck to you. And don't forget, you have to write a letter if you want your profit sharing money.

B Bruce Reeves 20:24

It's really, really amazing when when people come out, and it's really amazing to me to watch all those people out in the real world that haven't come out yet, but probably should, like, Look, guys this afternoon walking by the t shirt booth. And he was his wife was really interested in the T shirts. And she just seemed real enthralled and, and he was standing there, not sure what was going on. And then he saw the sign. And it said, Lesbian Gay Pride Week official T shirts. And it was like his face changed. And he got this real, ugly, sour expression on his face. But as he walked away, he kept looking back and saying things that I couldn't read his lips. But he just looked so interesting and excited. And maybe that's not the right word. But he didn't know why he was so interested. That's

21:13

B

Bruce Reeves 21:16

why

B

Buddy Johnston 21:18

he knew I was interested in I just didn't know what to do about it. I do. That's like this guy I work with at the police department, he, he thinks it's terrible that we do this show, but he wants to be the biggest queen in town. And he tells me we're bad. And we shouldn't do this. And we shouldn't do that. And what he doesn't understand is they all know that he's gay. So he's not hiding it from anybody but himself. And one of these days, people like that they're gonna come in, they're gonna say, Look, we know you're queer. And we're gonna we've got legislation now to lock up all these people with AIDS, and we're gonna go out and start rounding up the gays. So if you give us a list of 25, your favorite queers will walk them up, and we'll spare you will, they'll pick up the 25. And then he'll be number 26. Thank you. And it happened and it had

B

Bruce Reeves 22:04

it happen. Will you be when they come?

B

Buddy Johnston 22:07

Where will you be when they come? That's right. We hope that you're down on the streets of West Homer, right. And all these poor people in their Texas sized closets and the poor man who had to walk on by the t shirt booth today. And all these other people that we run into, that we know are in the closet, your policemen friend at work. You know, they've got a wonderful opportunity coming up here in the next few months, to come out of the closets to tear down the doors and tear down the walls of those closets. And that's what our Lesbian Gay Pride week coming up. And there's so much in the works right now going into the plans for that entire week. And there are committees to join just to be part of it. And you can be in the limelight right out in the forefront. Or you can kind of even hang back in the shadows just a bit, but still be such a part of a major major celebration here in Houston. And when it all comes about, you have something to be so proud of and our theme this year being rightfully proud. It's just so proper it is so now it's and it's also available for all of us if we just take one little step that's the keyword availability, it is available, you can go down to be a part of the names project meeting this afternoon at the dignity center and you can be a part of the gay lesbian Pride Parade this year. Lesbian Gay, Lesbian Gay Pride parade this year, you can be part of the the lot what else is happening? There's a lot happening and they can buy a t shirt.

22:11

B

Buddy Johnston 23:20

B

Bruce Reeves 23:37

B

Buddy Johnston 23:39

They can buy a t shirt. That's right. We'll talk about that later. But you can talk about the the what is the thing that Ray's got going with the conference. I can't think of the name of it, not the conference, the Congress.

♀

23:54

First ever Lesbian,

B

Buddy Johnston 23:55

Gay, Lesbian Gay Congress is going to be in Houston this year at George R Brown. And then this program, we're going to be pushing for a celebration of Harvey Milk's of life down in front of City Hall on Sunday, November the 27th. That'll be the 10th anniversary of Harvey's death. And then immediately following Gay Pride Week, this year, we're going to be having the kickoff for next year's parade, which can be the 20th anniversary of the Stonewall. So there's a lot going on, you can be a part of it. Give us a call at 526 4000 or give us a call at the Gay Lesbian switchboard at 529 3100. Just call somebody and come out come out. We're queer, clear, wherever you are.

D

Deborah Bell 24:34

Hi, I'm Deborah bell.

B

Bruce Reeves 24:36

And I'm Bruce Reeves. I'm a dyke and I'm a faggot.

D

Deborah Bell 24:40

And we're the co chairs of Lesbian Gay Pride Week. 1988. Pride Week is June 17 to the 26th this year, and we would like to encourage everyone to come out and be rightfully proud.

 B Bruce Reeves 24:53

That's right. The parade is Sunday, June 26 3pm. And we'll run from Westheimer at Woodhead to monitor pros immediately following the parade will be gay fest across the street from Kroger's. We need everyone to come out and be a part of the festivities.

 D Deborah Bell 25:09

Pride Week is much more than a group of individuals parading down the street plan by an elitist theme.

 B Bruce Reeves 25:16

It is an opportunity to get involved and show the world that we are a happy loving people that we are united in our fight for civil rights.

 D Deborah Bell 25:24

We are thankfully unique and rightfully proud to be a gay and lesbian people.

 B Bruce Reeves 25:30

For more information on Lesbian Gay Pride Week,

 D Deborah Bell 25:33

call 961 2905 come out of your closets come out into the streets and show the world you are rightfully proud in 1988. We did it.

 25:53

phrases of pride, written and read by Joe watts. A cry to unite is in the air, fear death and dying, even despair. But hopefully determined we will survive by keeping the flames of our faith alive. A cry to unite is in the air, singing praises of pride. A cry to unite is in the air. A time to celebrate, to love to care. Forever United We must stand or divided. We will surely fall. Listen to the cry, rise up stand tall. A cry to unite is in the air, singing praises of pride. A cry to unite is in the air bonding of souls and hearts everywhere. Our dream to unite must come true. The courage to face the world as you cried to unite is in the air of singing praises of pride everywhere.

27:18 was a wonderful moment, when they started to unveil that quote, there was absolute total silence. And the names were read one at a time. Hundreds of names and people began to cry and total strangers were hugging each other. It was the only way we knew to show our love. And it was wonderful get the number to the gay and lesbian switchboard wrong five to 930 to 11. I gave you the number to the community service center of the Montrose police substation down at Westheimer. That's about to 931 11 Don't call them I don't know. Unless you're being robbed. Anyway. The names project meetings this afternoon at five o'clock five o'clock at bearing now at dignity Center.

Buddy Johnston 27:45

Bruce Reeves 28:11

3217 Fannin at

28:15

Elgin.

Bruce Reeves 28:18

Now are you awake? Are we?

Buddy Johnston 28:20

I'm not awake. I'm ready for something. I'm ready for the news. Brian Keith has got the news coming up at three. And I don't know what else we're doing. Are we what are we doing? I don't know. I'm wide awake answering the phones Rogers answering the phones.

28:36

We're waiting to see if Stacy calls in he's a young gay personnel number Rogers answering the phones. Yeah,

Buddy Johnston 28:41

he sent me some message. He's a busy bee out there. But the name is project we still need volunteers for the actual unrolling and folding of the quilt right for everything. There, there's probably only going to be actually 100 people that are actually involved in unfolding in the readings of names. But we need volunteers to do there's all kinds of work that has to be done. We need coordinators to work during the weekend on on the quilt itself to actually channel people in the right directions and keep them moving and, and to help get emotional counseling or whatever out onto the quilt that that's needed. We need people to work in the information booths, we need people to help break down we need people to help set up on Friday. There's just a lot of things that are going to be happening that we can and it's going to take a lot of manpower.

B

Bruce Reeves 28:50

B

Buddy Johnston 29:36

And right now all we can tell you is that it's going to be here in Houston on Mother's Day weekend where we don't know yet we're working on that the city would love to say you can have the Georgia brown Convention Center for nothing but the city has a 20 some odd million dollar deficit right now and they can't do that. The people that want to do it that want to help us it would be a political nightmare for them if they did, because we didn't support them when they made the A referendum back in January two years ago, we didn't stand up and vote for ourselves. So you know, you really can expect them to do more than they're doing. There are good people down there at city hall that are working for us and trying to do everything they can for us. So the name is project, it's coming soon, to a location near you. I don't know. I said the other night at the meeting. And I think Bruce said the same thing after he had talked about the problems we were having, trying to find a site that if we couldn't find any place to put it at Houston, we could take it down to Galveston and throw it around the people that I know that their names are part of that quilt that gave their lives to be a part of that quilt. If I told her we were going to take it to Galveston, they might think that was a good idea. Now I'm talking about the people that I know I can't speak for everybody that's represented on that quilt.

B

Bruce Reeves 30:44

Yes. And we all know that people that you know, but you do. But you know, they're out there, there are a lot of a lot of ways that that people can help get involved with the quote, right now our biggest need over and above volunteers even is is financial. To get the George R Brown, we need $10,000. And, you know, that's that's our first and major goal at this point is to get that money raise so that we can definitely get the George R Brown. We are hoping that we can contract this week. And we don't necessarily need all $10,000 We hope to contract although that is a possibility.
