You're listening to KPFT Houston and KEOS College Station Bryan, that's 90.1 and 89.1 respectively. And now for something completely different the following program contains language or images of a frank or sensitive nature which may be considered objectionable by some listener discretion is advised. Oh yes, you've tuned into after hours a continuing tradition on KPFT Houston 90.1 FM. The crew of after hours is ready to bring you news, interviews and music geared for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered people. Hear it after hours, we may be diverse, but we have one thing in common. We are all out of the closet and urge everyone to come out of their classes. That means standing up for yourself, taking responsibility for your own life and being proud of who you are. Realistically, we know not everyone can do that because of a job or frame of mind. That's okay. We're here for you too. So sit back, relax, and enjoy this week's edition of right after our okay sure and by special request a blast from the past the old after hours opening here we go. The crew of after hours is ready to bring you news interviews and music here for gay and lesbian people. Just as Gloria Gaynor says in this song, it's time to open up your closets. We at after hours urge everyone to come out of their closets. By our definition that means standing up for yourself and taking responsibility for your own life. But if you feel that you can't come out right now because of your age, your job or whatever reason. That's okay, we're here for you too. So sit back relax, and enjoy this week's edition of after hours Hello Houston and welcome to after hours queer radio with attitude. This is Jimmy Carper and with me tonight is this is Michelle from BiNet.

M

Michelle 03:42

J

Jimmy Carper 03:44

Hey BiNet.

M

Michelle 03:46

So bisexual network of Houston.

J

Jimmy Carper 03:49

Okay. And what's up with buying that?

M

Michelle 03:53

We're just we're just really excited because the parades tomorrow, the big the big gay pride parade. We have a float for the first time and hey, yeah,

J

Jimmy Carper 04:00

bisexuals are going to be marching in the Pride Parade.

M

Michelle 04:04

That's right, because I feel like it's important for everyone who's queer to be part of the Pride Parade and show our strength

♀

04:09

you bet.

J

Jimmy Carper 04:10

This is the special after hours pride show tonight. And speaking of someone I mean, we're doing stuff from the past and I've got later on in the show. We've got the history of the Stonewall riots that we're going to present it's a it's a half hour tape about why we do what we do this week. And why we we marched down Westheimer but right now someone is on the line. See, yes, someone is on the line.

♀

04:44

Hello. Hello.

J

Jimmy Carper 04:47

Sounds like turn a shirt on to me.

04:49

Yes, it is. How is everybody doing?

04:51

Oh,

04:52

fine. All right.

04:55

Well, first of all, I'm calling to say Happy gay pride to each and every listener out there. and let everybody know that we won't be with you all diverse house and I would not be with everybody to celebrate Greg's gay pride.

05:07

Yeah, what's the deal? Well,

05:09

I just got in town, we're back in the studio, we're gonna sign a new deal. We're getting a new management company called diverse management. And they're assigning this to a new deal. And I've got to finish out with the six songs in our CD, get off and dance. Okay, so we're trying to finish our projects and make sure that everything is up to standards so that our public enjoy everything that I write insane. Yeah,

Jimmy Carper 05:35

I know. Well, we you know, we've missed the turn a and diverse house and all your good stuff. Okay. When I go in, and you know, when we don't, we don't get to hear from you much anymore. Or we're not going to we're, I think what's what's happening now is we're growing. I'm growing as a songwriter. Now. The more that I write, the more that I've gotten in the studio, I learned more and more about the music business and more about what the children are you know what the and more about the music business and more about what the church are, you know, what the kids are looking for? And what their dance into? Oh, yeah. And it's great to know that I'm able to bring back some of the things that are lacking in a lot of the Music Day, which is a lot of harmony, a lot of good lyrics. And finally, is it really make a lot of sense? I'm not, you know, just out to make money. Who am I to also give back to my brothers and sisters out there?

J

Jimmy Carper 06:19

You have always done that. Yeah. No, through all your income, income, incantations something like that? Yeah. When I mean, you know, when you're doing Tina Turner, you are always giving to the community.

06:30

Yeah. Well, you have to, you know, you always have to give a little something back, because we have to remember that being on this earth, we're on at least, everybody has a job here. And those that are gifted, were given the opportunity to share that gift with the world. This is not you know, this is it, we didn't each take an opportunity to build this planet in seven days, one person did it. And he's given us the ability to share just what we have with everybody. So we just have to do what we've been asked to do. And you know, and remember that there's only one thing that God has always asked us to do. And that's just love our neighbor as ourselves. But it's really all we can do. I do got some shout outs. So I'd like to say hello. Yeah, do it. Oh, yeah. Well, I'd like to invite everybody coming up real soon because this is Gay Pride weekend. I'd like to remind them that here is a new club opening up on the island. Oh, that is dedicated to our opening act, or should I say the assets before me gay pride given to them the club has called Switch. Oh, hey, cool. And they're having a grand opening celebration. It's gonna cater to the gay and lesbian community in Galveston, and I am involved in concert during the grand opening.

J

Jimmy Carper 07:38

Wow, when's this gonna happen on July the first July the first. You heard it, Houston.

o

07:45

And I'd like to say hello to all of the sponsors, crack Henderson. I'd like to say give a shout out to the former Borba owners Jeanne de Mello and Edwin Dean because they have now had a successful night last night, I got a chance to go out and I came to town I went out last night to see him the family at power tools. Oh, yeah. And they had club bucket. It was a great turnout. Everybody had a good time. So I mean, things look like it's looking up in Houston, you said is the dancing is still as popular as ever.

J

Jimmy Carper 08:17

Great. That is wonderful. And I'm really excited about the new club, especially in Galveston. Oh, yeah. There's always something happen. You know, you got to you have to keep yourself. You know, I disappear for months at a time. No. And it's only because I'm busy working. Because if you over expose yourself, people get tired of seeing you, you know,

08:22

J Jimmy Carper 08:35

well, Treme, we never get tired of seeing you.

08:39

Thank you, the girl say hello, Brenda. Great. They all say hello to everybody. We hope that hopefully, our new thing goes something's missing does very well. We hope everybody enjoys it.

J Jimmy Carper 08:51

Well, I can't wait to get a copy of it and play it on after after yet. And we also have another composer coming up for you. No, no good. You got another corrosive that we put together. I wrote another commercial. And it's called give back and keep it up. And yes, you're

08:55

M Michelle 09:09

looking forward to hearing Oh, yes, it's a looping

09:11

song to give every year you know, you try to give a little something to community public service message you know, and something just to give back and let people know that we you know, we care too.

J Jimmy Carper 09:21

We still get we still get requests for peace and love from diverse. How's the last one that you did?

09:28

Oh, thank you. Thank you. Thank you. God has blessed us. God is we have been blessed tremendously. Oh, I'd also like to say thank you to evolve craft my attorney. Okay. He's a great person he has. He's got two great minds out there in Montrose. Oh, yes. But one thing I'd like to impress upon everyone out here it says we all the listeners, each and every one of y'all must remember that no matter what barriers are put up. Everybody must learn to love one another regardless of what color they are. And let's say we cannot keep forgetting people, because we don't want to accept them. And the community has to stop separating itself, especially our transgender community. Oh, yeah. Because I mean, I've heard some disturbing things that the the fits. Most of the organizations now in the community are separating. Now. They're all their own meetings, the female impersonators, the entertainers, they're always being laughed, and never kept. I know, it seems like that. But you know, what spectrum last weekend, all of the transgender agenda passed overwhelmingly, you know, unanimously, in the town meeting that that was held, and so that, that, you know, that I really look up to that, because that, that tells me what the community really thinks,

J Jimmy Carper 10:27

10:51

Well, I feel I'm kind of I don't want to get too political right now. Good. But I think one of the things that I did find out about Spectrum was, I was kind of offended that none of the acts that they had, in their show, showcase the at all aspects of the gay community. Yeah, I was reading an article in Twitter where Alan bourgeois said that he wanted every aspect of the community what one thing he seemed to forget was I, I was listening, I was looking at the list of entertainers that he had that you know, just donated their time. And none of those entertainers are any of the entertainers that we listen to when we go to the dance club. And I felt like we were kind of being left out. Because I mean, when we go to heaven, or we go to, to riches, I don't get a chance to hear Romanowski and Philip, I don't get a chance to hear, deviate, you know, there, we sometimes forget our own. And we need to remember that there are acts out there and there are gay and lesbian people out there that have great talent, and we keep on overlooking them, and never given them their credit, or given them a chance to shine. You know, then we're gonna we're gonna lose a lot of entertainers because they're gonna go on, they're gonna move on, and then we're gonna be lost. Yeah, yeah. I feel very sometimes I feel like you know, sometimes that a lot of the entertainers in our community don't get enough credit. But I've also learned that sometimes God does that for a reason, because he didn't want us to outshine ourselves.

J Jimmy Carper 12:16

Thank you, maybe right there. And lots of times you think that the expert is always the person who's from out of town, you, you may not realize that the people who were right here in your own community are just as good or better. Oh, the people you can get from out of town.

12:32

I totally agree. I mean, it's been what I've been showbusiness now, from forming Houston, over 10 years, and I've been, I've been recording and singing for 15 years. And Houston is my home, it's my home base. I've always felt like I had to make it amongst most of my peers. I felt like I couldn't go on to another city or another state without making first in Houston. And it's very difficult to make it around your peers. The old thing is, if you can't make it fair, then you can't make it anywhere. But that's not necessarily true. You know, but eventually, in time, hopefully, I wish more acts will come through, you know, hopefully, from what I've done in the past and hoping what I'm going to do in the future, I will enable a lot of young talent to come forward and showcase their talents just as well, you know, because I mean, it took a lot of courage for me to, you know, get on the radio and, and do the Gay Pride shows that I did. And I mean, I'm probably one of the first thing that I personally had to do what I've done. Thank you. All right. And I hope that you know, when I'm getting gone,

J Jimmy Carper 13:32

please, girl.

13:36

No, not yet. But hopefully, when I'm getting on, that legacy will carry on, somebody else will come in and say, you know, I want to kick off you know, where, because we have to remember that everything that you see, today is a result of things that were in the planning from yesterday. And I just thank God for giving me my ability. And I really think Sylvester really for being the person that I looked up to because if it wasn't for him, you know, I can give a little credit to RuPaul for bringing these back. But I think most of the credit just the vessel because if it wasn't for me ever, ever, ever seen him and the weather girls, God knows where I would be today honey without a pen, and thanks to Stonewall. Oh, thank God heard appropriate lashes and a pair of heels.

J Jimmy Carper 14:19

That note, we wish you luck in your new club and Galveston. Thank you. It's July 1 and Galveston and where's it located? Do you know it's on? If I remember correctly, I think it's on 25th. Okay, and it's called through wit. And I hope to see everybody there and hopefully when I come back in as I do that concert of course I'm going to be going on a small little tour maybe like four cities, and I'm going to be coming back and I'm definitely going to have something very special for your listeners and everybody kpsc Well we look forward to

14:28

J Jimmy Carper 14:51

we look forward to having you on the show in live live in person.

∅ 14:56

Oh you have to live in Colorado a little bit with my new hair color. Oh, well,

J Jimmy Carper 15:02

did you go blonde girl?

∅ 15:03

Yes, I do. How did you know?

J Jimmy Carper 15:07

You know, it just it just that just seemed right. Yes, I'm trying my new lip I was. So I was so excited about watching Janet Jackson and Michael Jackson with their new video stream that I decided to try something very bizarre. So I decided to go platinum blonde.

∅ 15:11

J Jimmy Carper 15:26

I can't wait to see

∅ 15:26

and I have long long blades. And I've been just giving you the new this new. I'm just gonna I'm gonna have a little freedom in my life right now. And it's just exciting to know that I can do you know, I love change is good. And I'd like to be a question mark. I've always thought that, you know, if you're too simple, people don't like simplicity anymore. They want to see people take chances. So I'm taking the chance now being just allowed. I guess you can call me a big spotlight. But the color won't last long because I'm gonna mix it another color with it. I'm gonna have like three different colors in my hand. It's gonna be all braided and stuff. So it's gonna be something very different that people really usually don't see every day.

J Jimmy Carper 16:06

.....

But it's fun. Okay,

16:08

well, we'll see you. God bless you and each and every one of you. Thank you. Bye. Thank you. Bye bye.

M Michelle 16:15

out at the you know, in town this week is the convention of the national radio talk show. Hey, yo, yeah, they have occupied the Astro Sheridan. And the visitor and convention Bureau listed me among local freaks to be interviewed. And so I got an invitation to go out and interview this wonderful woman from San Antonio who does a show out of Washington. Her name is Blunkett that column little white column. Wow. She's she's just full of energy. She's She's really a wonderful host to be with. I got there for she and another talk show host arguing over the G. Gordon Liddy. Which is the story out there. Yeah. And so they argued for till the first break. And then I took came in as a guest. And she and I talked about cops and courts and jails and prisons and probation and parole and all that stuff. We only had 45 minutes, so I didn't get all the rest of them. But we were talking about the Supreme Court case, because she was fascinated about that and much of this business about it's just the illegal. You just cannot be arrested for what you say to a police officer. Okay. And she said, Oh, well, that's wonderful Janjaweed wizard January, my pager goes. You got it on the stand instead of Killem. Because I'm on radio, right. I'll put it on stone. Yeah, please. Yeah. I may have to get arrested tonight. And so we got to the next break and run the telephone and return that call. And I said, I'm on national radio, and I'll be back with you in just a minute. So I went back then and came back after the show. And a friend of mine, Andy, who's owned several adult video stores, said the cops are at the 59 store. And they've already arrested my clerk and they're arresting customers. And so I got my car and drove from the Astro complex. All the way up 59 to somewhere between Kidwell and Parker Street.
