Let's see what happens for the next two hours because this is after hours on KPFT. strikes out Whitney Houston, she's coming to Houston in shimmery. Sure. Whitney Houston coming to Houston. She's coming to Houston. Well, the show's called after hours. We got a lot planned for you for the next two hours at 230. Every week we're going to do a thing called before stonewalled. You know what that means, Mary? Yeah. That means we're going to play something. Well, that you would have heard before Stonewall, we've got a song tonight from 1936. That's going to be kind of fun. At three o'clock. We've got news coming from the gay community sports coming from the gay community. Yes, there is sports in Montrose and our resident sports directors kind of begin to tell you all about that. You got a community bulletin board all the community churches and gay churches in the Montrose area going to be represented on that. What else is going to happen at 230? We already said 230, didn't we? Yeah, my poor little hearts. Just go on pitter patter pitter patter pitter patter. At 330. There we go. 330. At 330. We're going to have a segment called Star scope, or Astro scope. I think our resident psychic is going to come in and tell you all about what's happening. In the meantime, we're going to be talking about the March on Washington and plains music for you. We hope you enjoy that. And I've been thinking about what to say all day and there's only one I only one thing I can say Mary. Do you remember when you were a little kid and used to play that game? Come out, come out wherever you are. That's what we want to say to the gay community this morning. You've got something to be proud of. We're good people were decent people. Were people that have right next door and we're kind of talking about the March on Washington coming up October the 11th 12th. And let's get back to some music. I'm getting excited about the march come out, come out wherever you are, right, Mary? Right. We're going to Washington and we get something to see to Washington right? A lot of a lot of the little vocal or not vocals. What are these things called that we're playing somebody quick. Love these little bits and pieces of blurb. Somebody called them blip. verts lip lip verts.

These adverts were taken from the 1979 march on Washington, and we're getting ready for the 1987 march on Washington. It's gonna be a whole lot going on in Washington. I talked to some folks with Pacifica radio out in California KPFT as a very big part of and they are telling us that we might get a lot of the rally fed down to a Sunday. So if that happens, hopefully we'll get some of that on the air to you, if not live here at KPFT. We'll be bringing it to you on after hours and I'm sure on some of the other programs including Wildenstein, which is broadcast here every Tuesday evening from nine until 10. While in Stein's the oldest running gay men's program I believe in the country breakthrough with Tolkien Anders have pokey. Sherry wolf comes on KPFT Friday mornings at eight in the morning until 11 and then a woman's place with Clara Kern is broadcast on KPFT here every Tuesday evening from 8am until nine just before the Wildenstein show so there's a lot going on in the gay community and we're going to tell you about it every week here on after hours Mary's with us this morning with the March on Washington new staff is all back in there so stay tuned

Hi, this is Marty from the club body Center. We're all working out to the beat of after hours on KPFT Houston 90.1 FM

Buddy Johnston 08:33
could never get a program without playing Cyndi Lauper right Mary and Girls Just Want to Have Fun. Our before Stonewall segments coming up in just a second. Stay tuned to that or stay tuned for that. Just stay tuned that's all they really want want want one is that all they really want Mary. It's time for before Stonewall. And the reason we call it before Stonewall is that. Back in the golden days when our brothers and sisters in the gay community were out sneaking around hiding from the police and from their mamas and daddies sometimes from each other. They laughed about songs that really weren't naughty. They sounded kinda nice. Ain't got a segment like that right now. It's a song called get them from the peanut man. Thank you, Sal and Mary. Let's find out you want to this is before Stonewall the name of the song is get them from the peanut and man sung by a lady by the name of Georgia White from 19 and 36. My time was way before my time George has not singing you have to push the right buttons she has I never could sing that. I can always do that. I can tell. We can tell. Thanks a lot. And Mary. Here. I thought we were going to be friends. Brian, are you with us? I'm here. Brian's with us. Join us in the studio now. We're gonna be talking about the March the opening day, isn't it? National national lobby day, October 9.

11:18

Brian Keever 11:21

That's where we get to visit all of our wonderful people we've elected to office.

Buddy Johnston 11:27

Are you gonna see Nancy and Ron were up there. She will wave to Tom. There's a very large group of gay people, men and women, lesbians, everybody, everybody on the Texas Gulf Coast. And we have something to say. That's right. And let me guess what that is.

Brian Keever 11:45

11:49

So not too, of language on the air. I don't think

Brian Keever 11:53

I've already told you everybody that needs to know. We can play the peanut man.

Buddy Johnston 11:57

So what's going to be happening on national Lobby Day, Mary?

12:04

Let's say we're asking people to come and visit their house and the senate and preferably make appointments ahead of time with the Senators and House of Representatives to let them know that we're here in every job aspect, you know, from nursing to bartenders to teachers, teachers, police officers, police officers everywhere who don't say that too loud in Houston.

Brian Keever 12:38

There's a few good ones in there, too.

B

Buddy Johnston 12:39

There's a few. There are gay people everywhere. You know, we were very fortunate to be blessed with this program, because you are very important to us. You're very important to the gate, a very important part of the gate community. And Wayne Bradley, excuse me, the program director came to me one morning and said, What do we want to do? I said, Well, we want to talk to our people. And we know they're out there and we want them to know that we care about them. So we want to tell you this morning that there are people out there that care about you. You can get the gay switchboard at five to 930 to 11. And I heard a woman tell me a story about the gay switchboard. I won't mention any names, but she said that her first contact with the gay and lesbian community in Houston was calling the gay switchboard. And when they said, Good evening gay and lesbian switchboard, may I help you. She just cried for 45 minutes and hung up. Later on, she called back and they gave her information on where she could go. And I don't know what she's doing now. I hope she's out there listening somewhere.

👤

13:50

I bet she is.

B

Buddy Johnston 13:51

I know she.

B

Brian Keever 13:53

She's living with a lover and having a wonderful time.

B

Buddy Johnston 13:55

I'm trying to put Mary on the spot. That was me, hey, we're just real lucky because I was born in a small town in Arkansas had 303 people in it. And when you're getting in a small town and you come out there's not there's not any way to come out to. There are no copies of the Montrose voice or this week in Texas of the Texas forum to pick up. There are no gay and lesbian switchboard lines to call. There are no gay churches to go to there's no gay radio to listen to and find out what's going on in the community. So we're very, very lucky. And we want to thank Duane Bradley, the program director at KPFT radio for taking a chance on us and Jean Palmquist, our station manager and the whole KPFT family. Everybody's here everybody that is here. It's a wonderful group of folks. This is listener sponsored radio. We're in a marathon right now we're going to be taking a break from Marathon this weekend. Marathon is where we go out and ask for money from the listeners that support the pro ramming that they hear hear on KPFT. And it's unlike radio. Get away from the March for just a second. It's unlike commercial radio, because when you listen to a commercial radio station, you don't hear what the DJ wants to say. You don't hear what the station manager wants to say you hear what the sponsors want to say. While our sponsors here at KPFT, are you. And we're glad that you're out there. And we want to know what you want to say. We want to know what you want to hear. We want to know what you think about the program. You can write the after hours program, after hours care, care of KPFT radio 419 love it here in Houston. It's 77006. Deep in the heart of Montrose, almost saying that, but we're not going to do that, please. It's seven, eight minutes before three o'clock. We're going to have a little more music. Our news crew is scampering around that's not the right word or scammers.

Buddy Johnston 16:00

I shouldn't say that. I can't say that. But what fairies do when we get ready to we're getting ready to do something. I don't know what we're doing. But how about putting on some good music? Some good music? Yeah, I see what we got here it's three o'clock. Three 3am. Mary, what are you doing up so early? I don't know. It's after hours. KPFT we're talking about the march. Every week at 3am on KPFT. We're going to do something called the news. We're gonna be bringing you the what is it? The gain is are we gay? I don't know. Okay, I don't know. Now we're gonna be bringing you the news. Our news man in there. Brian is ready to go. Followed by a sports report from our sports reporter Mark Smith. And then how he's going to be doing a church report and a community bulletin board report. So without further ado, let me punch this button and see if we can get Brian on. You can't do anything in the gay community without a big production. So here's our big news production intro.

Brian Keever 18:06
