Come Come over here. Jewel wants to be a lesbian and venger adventure. Yes.

i 00:09
Lesbian Avenger. I know how date me you call

D Diane Williams 00:16
you are now on your own. Okay. Michael Crawford guest DJ guest for the evening thank you Sure.

M Michael Crawford 00:25
Thank you. I'd really like to help Joe become a Lesbian Avengers I want to be I mean as you can see, I'm reading what the June issue of the news magazine yes with a lovely lesbian editor of Essence magazine and the cover is gorgeous on page on page 42 There is an article coming to our own Town coming to your own town soon the Lesbian Avengers now here I happen to have have have gotten the like the the Lesbian Avenger recruitment flyer poster thing when I was in Washington and what it said was call a meeting very simple Pride week you get get a bunch of leaflets saying you know, looking for fabulous funky babes to do direct action around lesbian visibility. I'm sorry, direct visibility, leaflet, whatever. Have you have your meeting, sit down, plan your actions, contact the media. Go act up, yell scream, jump, whatever fire. Exactly. Can Can we talk about the eating fire? Have we talked about that before? We have not talked about that? Good. Tell us tell us about eating fire Michael.

Diane Williams 01:23

M

Michael Crawford 01:27

Okay. Well, actually women did it. I mean, let me say that. Alright. First, I'd like to say that I am convinced that both queer activism and AIDS activism are in kind of a rut right now. But I think it's groups like lesbian evangelists groups that are led by dykes and bisexual women that's going to lead us out of it. And one of the things that one of the things that like got me to this point where I'm just like, totally fascinated with Dykes to the point where I actually want to be one was the lesbian evangelist eating fire in New York. Yeah. I mean, that was so cool. Yeah, they had to have this action where it was around. They built sort of a memorial to a couple of people who were murdered in Oregon. gay bashed, right? Right. It was a man and a woman, a black woman, a white man. And they built a monument to these people and they had candles which they kept going for four days and you know, four day vigil and all that. And at the end, they was stomping through the city with these torches God love that stomping through the city with torches, and they ate the fire. They said we will not let the fire consume us. We will consume it and it will make us stronger. Like yes, yes. Yeah, yes. Yeah. How powerful. Yeah, so and they were in Washington, the Dyke March in particular. Oh, wow. What am March Dyke March. anybody? Anybody here go? Missed it. I did go to the party. Dyke March dive March. 20,000 dykes, a lot of them. Make it Yeah.

D

Diane Williams 02:57

Hanging off statues hanging off balconies. It was great. Now if you want to show us give us no, thank you. Not true.

J

Jewel Gray 03:06

Have you seen Diane speeches before?

03:10

Have I seen Diane's beaches but no speech limits? You know? Yes. I don't think you have. No, I don't think I have getting a pretty good shot of her Peaches. Peaches. I thought that was that sexist talk word. You know, that's cool.

J

Jewel Gray 03:28

03:31

I hate that. Well, we start well, we're talking. And we're talking about, we're talking about words that that feet some people find offensive tonight. It's all within the same offensive.

Michael Crawford 03:44

I said, I'd like to say I don't find that word pussy offensive.

Diane Williams 03:48

Thank you. Thank you. I appreciate that. Oh, I have one. Yeah. All right. What about other body part terminology to deal with? Well, I'm looking at the producer now to deal with male genitalia. Michael,

Michael Crawford 04:02

I'm not interested in male Tim tells you at this point in time. I did want to say one more final thing about Lesbian Avengers because I totally love them. The Lesbian Avenger chapter in Austin did probably the best thing I saw any queers in the state of Texas do around the sodomy law. And I think that we in Texas, we in Houston should be extremely embarrassed that we did not do a damn thing. When when the sodomy that I'm in the sodomy law was upheld. But the Lesbian Avengers, including a couple of guys, I mean, I couldn't figure out where the guys came from. But, you know, yeah, they were. They went into the house of representatives on the final day of, you know, very lesbo Yeah. On the final day of the session, unfurled banners is screaming, legalized lesbian sex and homophobia. steak Houston

Diane Williams 04:49

WAC was there with him that day. Okay.

Michael Crawford 04:53

Diane Williams 05:24

There is already a Lesbian Avenger chapter in Houston working stuff. I'm itching now. Michonne my sunburn itches. Stop it. Lesbian vendors in Houston. Janice has a phone number and Wendy have a phone number and it's a voicemail number starting with 867 and I do not remember the other four digits, but they're trying to get together a Lesbian Avenger chapter. If you are interested in getting together Lesbian Avenger chapter. Once call WAC, give, give the WAC line number. Do you know Janice's number?

Michael Crawford 05:54

Yeah, right. Clueless. Anybody? Let's see. But I think she was her number. I think she was I mean there were there were some WAC women at the act of demonstration today.

Diane Williams 06:04

Yeah, well, they made an announcement at the meeting on Wednesday. WAC is Woman Actions Coalition, WAC line is 8679581 and they'll get the information to you I mean, it may take a day or two but they'll they'll find out the information and or who knows the information and they'll get it for you. Do I get a cake if I join this group and I want the cake in a trash can. That's what I want trashcan lids hot and happening stuff so they're very visual then these literary visuals lesbian superheroes that's that's their deal. Superhero. Cape. trashcan lid shield talkable a Kryptonite pocketful of kryptonite and a pocket full of bombs have a little like bomb love. Bomb that's a little insignia. Yeah.

Jewel Gray 06:49

I want to go out and remember the postcard did I show you the postcard the other day of a billboard? That's been my lesbians said it's a legs commercial with a woman's set of legs coming out of a giant egg and some lesbian come out let you know smooth leg comes out kicking or something came out coming out kicking or something like that. And then it has lesbian signs. That's the kind of action I want to do want to go around and do they saw the billboard I never saw you before and

Michael Crawford 07:16

But what like on page number three, there's an ad for Calvin Klein, who's close. I don't buy because he's homophobic and racist. But it features supermodel Kristen McMenamy, who is my favorite supermodel of the day of the month. And she's tough. Look at that. That's why likers get tough look, and none of that. None of that wave. You know. blow them away. Yeah,

J Jewel Gray 08:31

M Michael Crawford 16:35

It's that that that wonderful alternative news, alternative music magazine public news. Okay, and we all know that public news has its very own clear, subtle effects. Well, I'm gonna say that but clear, not queer, personal section. And one of the little personals that I found particularly interesting this week, was one that goes like this. Single white male 36 A dominant preop transsexual to transform me into a transvestite whore. Gay but females with tattoos or pierced can use me as their punk slave pierced who also need someone to pierce my nipples. All letters answered same day. If that sounds like something you'd be interested in doing, I suggest you run out and get a copy of public news really quickly and answer this ad.

Diane Williams 17:24

Okay. I'll be Excuse me. Gotta go. I don't know. Sounds a little odd to me. I'm sure many people are rushing to their phone even as we speak but for me personally. Sounds a little awkward.

M

Michael Crawford 17:39

What here's what the nipple piercing part.

D

Diane Williams 17:42

No, no, that doesn't sound that's a matter of fact,

M

Michael Crawford 17:47

but if you want someone to pierce his nipples, but he says he's pierced

D

Diane Williams 17:52

No I think he says I think he's looking for somebody who's pierced and he's not saying what exactly wow

M

Michael Crawford 17:57

okay, okay, okay if your appears but Dyk you can use somewhere your punk flav and he's looking for someone to pierce his nipples. Okay.

D

Diane Williams 18:07

Clarification clarification

M

Michael Crawford 18:09

well actually there's gonna be dial there is gonna be nipple piercing somewhere as part of the side so for this rape thing that's happening tell me about rave Oh rave is just a big party with cool techno music unlike that awful disco crap that it's constantly inflicted on us so you go

What have you usually happens you go and you have baggy clothes and floppy hats and people take ecstasy which is a mood enhancing drug

D

Diane Williams 18:36

drugs drugs not on my show going on on your show but on your show. Taking drugs

M

Michael Crawford 18:43

no, we don't do ecstasy. But people take it and it's it makes you feel good and happy and affectionate and all of that and you use like you take like the Vicks Vapor Rub and put it under your lip to enhance the high and what is how does Michael Crawford know all of this? Yes. Books and dance all night and you really affection and and you know you're affectionate supposedly you love everybody while you're on this drug.

19:12

It's true. I've heard

D

Diane Williams 19:14

your spine and cleared and your your gum. God my gums are not having any congestion just thinking about him. Okay, Michael, I got a question. How'd you find out about the rape party? Where is it and how do people that want to go there get there?

M

Michael Crawford 19:30

Well, I'll go get the information I need to do I'm unprepared at this major football

19:35

ah old fashioned

Diane Williams 19:41

mistake beliefs. What do you have in your hand girlfriend you have notes for next person. Your little while? Everyone that's frightens me, terribly. Friends me. Why are you here? Tell me why you're here. And I'm really happy to hear that. How long have we known each other a long time, short time What? A year maybe no longer than a year because I've been kind of chilling for a year.

20:02

D

Diane Williams 20:06

Yeah, that's true. I did my little chill thing. I'm over it now. Well, I'm on now. As soon as I get another job inside the loop, or at least close to, you know, I wouldn't I'm looking for a job. I was gonna ask you, I think you're really wonderful person that I really respect you a lot. And I'm not thank you the checks in the mail. But I mean that because, like, I was gonna be realist, I would take my foot out of my mouth now. Because you're an average person and you have a real life and yet you're really special and you're really spectacular at the same time. So you have like a job and a career and that would be tell us what it is because I'm gonna go on is I'm I'm right. What is your profession?

20:51

My profession? I'm in the engineering profession, right? I'm right now I'm doing structural steel detailing that deal bridges, petrochemical plants. Now,

D

Diane Williams 20:59

did he do some like stage design?

21:02

For Genesis? Cool? Yes. And I did not get to go. Thank you very much. No, not the dyke. It means though, are 21:11

M

Michael Crawford 23:09

brief consultation. Sarah my lovely co host Thank you did point out that Latour is going to be there Live in Concert let tour remember they did that song people are still having sex with active got pissed off over because

Diane Williams 23:25

because it it made it seem trivialized sex. It

 Michael Crawford 23:28
will trivialize aids so you know you don't do that when ACT UP is around I think Michael

 Diane Williams 23:35
we don't play that big enough backed up I want to start talking about ACT UP stuff but before I talk about ACT UP stuff I want to yes Scott that would be you

 Michael Crawford 23:45

 24:13

 Diane Williams 24:15
Okay, that's good. He was alive. He didn't die.

 24:18
No, by the way it is two for one month at the SPCA that's two cats. The price of one additional cat month So protect yourself. I'll be running over there to proceed. They're telling you the P word and everything. Okay. This is what I'm doing. I'm doing it now. So shut up. And they did oh my god, that's never worked. Okay, I'm sorry. That was my boy aid me. Okay. Looking at your cleavage. This would be shut out. Free when she paid you. Two for one. On my segment number four, on the day this program is distributed. Roberta Acton Berg. I know I'm reading all of it. Roberta Attenborough is confirmed by the US Senate to be Assistant Secretary for fair housing in the Department of Housing and Urban Development. The highest ranking queer nominated to government office by President Bill and the first openly gay or lesbian nominee to face required Senate confirmation, but not before highly acrimonious debate, led by homophobe Jesse Helms, and a couple other people who and some really nasty folks, some good folks said some good things you'll hear all about it because we're gonna play it for you on this way out gay and lesbian, international news and entertainment magazine here on KPFT.

 Diane Williams 24:26

25:49

Nine eyes have seen the glory out of queers. Oh, my folks have trampled on our rights they've done so out of fear. We have loosed arising anger.

26:01

Now it's plainly clear that gays are marching on May 24. As this program is being distributed, the United States Senate is expected to vote on the nomination of Roberta Oxenberg for the job of Assistant Secretary of Housing and Urban Development Act and berg is the first open lesbian named for a major job by President Clinton requiring Senate confirmation. Senate conservatives led by Jesse Helms have threatened to block confirmation. With excerpts from the Senate floor debate featuring senators Jesse Helms, Banking Committee Chair Donald regal of Michigan and Carol Moseley Brown of Illinois. Mark Beavis has this report.

26:08

26:42

It was easy in the Senate Banking Committee last month, Roberta Acton Berg breeze through with a vote of 14 to four, the issue of her sexuality came up only briefly, but conservative Republican Jesse Helms of North Carolina is not a member of that committee, and so did not have a say during the confirmation hearings. He has, however, made his feelings about the nominee known and he is expected to continue his efforts on the Senate floor.

27:06

Joe recognizes senator from North Carolina,

we are crossing the threshold into the first time in the history of America that a homosexual or lesbian has been nominated by a President of the United States for a top job in the United States government. My opposition is not merely because she's a lesbian. It is because she has been a militant activist demanding the society accept as normal, as normal, a lifestyle that most of the world's religions consider MRO and which the average American voter instinctively finds repulsive. I call it gay bashing if you want to. I don't call it that. I call her standing up for America's traditional family bank.

Senator from Michigan, Mr. President, that before the senator leaves, may I just pose a question to him. There was a story in the Washington Times on May 6, and it attributes a quote to you and I just want to know whether it's an accurate quote or not. Here's how the paragraph directly from the paper reads, Mr. Helme said he would try to block the nomination when the full Senate brings it up, quote, because she's a damn lesbian. I'm not going to put a lesbian in a position like that, if you want to call me a bigot fine, end of quote. And my question to you, is that an accurate that is largely Correct. I'm not sure about the dam. But everything else I know, is accurate. And I'm surprised that the distinguished chairmen are welcome this nominee without a word of wonderment about her career or about her lifestyle or anything else. As a matter of fact, I was there. I thought you had the Queen of England. Before you.

29:00

I'd like just a simple yes or no. Mr. President, 29:03

I will go ahead and answer it again. And again, and again. I don't know what the Senator is trying to prove. It's accurate, as I recall, except for the use of the word Damn.

29:15

Very good, very well, I

29:16

may have said that Senator and make what you will have that.

29:20

Frankly, I find it a very disturbing statement. Now you can study the documents of this country, the Bill of Rights, the Constitution, all of our founding documents. And we do not make differentiations on the basis that I think is being suggested here today, as to who can serve and who can't serve and who is a full citizen and who is not a full citizen. If you're a citizen of this country, you have an obligation to serve. And if you're qualified and you step forward, you ought to be judged on the basis of your qualification. Not skin color. Not ethnic background, not sexual orientation. I don't like the quote in the Washington Times. I think it's just tasteful. I think it reflects poorly on the United States Senate. That's not the standard we ought to use around here. So better country than that. I'm very fortunate. We all are to now have three new members of this committee who are women senators. I've served in the Senate when we didn't have any women. I think we're a better Senate when we really represent the whole country, and where everybody has a fair chance and an equal chance to participate. Senator Carol Moseley Braun, who was also a member of this committee, has been the first person in effect across the color line, which should not exist in our society but does to come here as an African American woman to the United States Senate. And I feel privileged to be here at a time when that happened. senator from Illinois.

Thank you, Mr. President, I rise in support of the nomination of Roberta Achterberg. I was pleased to be able to vote for her in the banking committee, and I'm proud that I will have an opportunity to cast the vote in favor of confirming her on the floor. Mr. President, Miss Oxenberg. And President Clinton knows that we are a multicultural, pluralistic society. And they know that the American dream of opportunity is for all of us. And not just some of us. We are African American and Polish Americans and Hispanic Americans and Irish American and Asian Americans and Greek Americans. We are female as well as male, we are gay and lesbian as well as straight. One reason for Bill Clinton's victory was that he recognized that we are all Americans. And he therefore campaigned to bring us together rather than to drive us apart. Mr. President, I am frightened this afternoon because I sat on this floor and listened to the debate. And I am frightened to hear the politics of fear and divisiveness and of hatred rear its ugly head on this Senate floor.
