SUMMARY KEYWORDS

person, people, transgendered, letter, relationship, transsexual, talking, female, gay, lesbian, money, lady, thought, connie, male, heard, peter, story, point, joke

00:01

This is based on a true story that occurred out in California. Now, if you're not familiar with Ronnie Gilbert, she has been around forever and ever and ever. And a lesbian feminist from North like soon swings, God first created water, I think. But this particular piece is based on an actual account called Marie. And when you listen to the words, you may even remember this story. So without further ado, this is Ronnie Gilbert.

00:41

Ooh, that was terrific.

00:43

The words to that song are just as good as they can be. I'm telling you, that that is based on an actual account. There's one part of the song that I just really love, where she they go to the judge, and the judge says, Well, this tickets for a couple. And as far as I can tell, a couple is two people and we don't check ID there you go. Nothing. Yeah.

01:05

Yeah, I like that. It reminds me of Aaron Frick. Taking his lover to the prom. Yes.

01:10

You know, I don't know if I've told this story. One, maybe I don't think I've told the story recently. Anyway, when I went back to my high school reunion, I was still a male. And I had a a, a male lover, of course. And so I went, first of all, when I got the invitation, go to the prom. Nobody was high school reunion. I thought, well, maybe I'll go. And my lover said to me, Well, of course I'm going with you. Right? Oops. I said, Ah, this is Small Town, Connecticut. I don't think so. He said, Well, we're a couple are not. Oh, I hate it when people do that. Yeah. Okay, fine. So we went. And as we got when we got there, they were introducing people, Mr. And Mrs.

So and So Mr. And Mrs. So and so. And then they got to us. And what did they say looked at Mark and like, what do I do now? And Mark says, Well, you tell them it's my near me. And that was Neil dipalma. And his his life partner Mark champion, is it? Okay, so we did it. And when we walked into a room, you could have heard a pin drop.

02:16

I can imagine what year was this?

02:18

This was about 10 years ago. And the interesting part about it was that afterwards, people came over to us and said, you know, you're not the only ones. The only ones being honest about it. Oh, sure. Oh, sure. Interesting. So well, it's time to raise more money. Oh, I know. Now, I want to thank our listeners because they've been doing well. We've had, we've got a couple of pledges in already good. And we haven't been pitching very hard. I mean, you know, we haven't been begging and we don't intend to. Now, we have good listeners on KPFT. Oh, we always beg bleeds.

02:34

02:58

Well, I'm not good at begging.

03:00

I'm a great beggar. What it's not about begging you know what it's about? What is it about? Well, it's about nobody wants the damn bumper sticker or the spring water or whatever. Yeah, we can all go buy T shirts anywhere we want. We probably don't, you know, want something silly and weird on the front anyway. But it bottom line comes down to Hey, so listen, come on, you know, you're sitting out there, you've been listening to this great radio station for forever. We know that you tune in when you're rolling down the road, catch that blues thing on Sunday and catch after hours on Saturday night. You got some stuff on Thursday. Gay voices, you know, you just, it's it's all there. We know you listen to it. So you don't have to come up with the 35 and the 60 and 112. And we'd love it. If you did. I mean, we will give you CDs and T shirts and spring water and briefcases and God knows what all but the bottom line is, if you got 10 bucks sitting around laying loose, that you know is a carton of cigarettes. So you know cough it up, you know, send it in, cough it up. We really need your money. I mean, this has got to keep rolling. And there's no other way to do it. And we all know, God bless Washington, that they're gonna like cut off all the fine arts monies. And this is considered Fine Arts for you people that don't know any different is gonna be Yeah, they're gonna cut off the money. They're not gonna fund Fine Art routine, I mean, every radio arts whatever are all going down the tube and this big money saving venture. So you know, we might be able to make it now you know, it's like all the HIV services you know, there's not gonna be white and white money in a couple years. So we're all gonna be standing out there with our what you call it's in our hands right now. Well, we're looking for it now. So it's time so call in and just you know, give what you can get. And if it's the 60 and the 30 and a 150, and the 90 and the daughter and the mugs and the This isn't that's what great then you get all that great. stuff. And if it's not, then you can do what you can do, you know, because I really think there's a lot of really young people out there that are listening, that don't have that kind of money, but they got five bucks, they're gonna 10 by 15. We also make it we also make it very easy. We have a credit card and a credit card call is easy, Jim, nothing call you.

05:16

05:20

We also have we let a electronic funds transfer. So you know, you can pledge a certain amount, and then we divide it up by 12. And take that amount out of your checking account on a monthly basis. No paperwork to do except the initial signing.

05:36

And we and we do that at 90.1 KPFT in Houston, and 89.1k EOS in College Station right there, we think,

05:46

Oh, believe me, if they're gonna get us, it's gonna be from my language.

05:50

I really do want

05:51

to appeal to the transgender community out there tonight as well. This is one of only we were the first in the country. Yes. Now there's only three were their own were their only three openly transgender radio host in the world. This was for a long time was the only one. I'm very proud of this program. We have spun off a program that is in Australia, that is heard on the Australian broadcast system. Wow, we have spun off a program that is now heard on the BBC after they listen to tapes of this show. We're a small station, but we have had a big influence. And I know that people that are transgendered are always broke. But folks, you spend money for makeup, you go out and you have drinks. You know, you do have some money. And believe me, folks, this is the you know, like I said, this is the we were the first this is the only one in this side of the Mississippi that has a transgender radio host Come on, call up here tonight. You know that you know that you can afford to give up 10 bucks, loosen up should we need the money? We really did not we do we do more? If you mark you can do it. You see, we have what we call the leadership circle. And I would love to have some or someone from after ours be a part of that leadership circle. That's $500 right. But you get like a CD a month you get party invitations, you get tickets, you get newsletters, you get all kinds of stuff.

05:56

06:00

06:51

07:17

That was really cool. We have something to say about what cooks That's right. I mean, that's in leadership sounds like their say about what it would be nice to have someone out there in the leadership circle as a representative of after hours saying yes, this this shows important. It's very and all it takes is a call 526573852 6k PFT and we just love you. Hey, Jimmy. Yes, guess what? What did you hear about the lady that would got caught crossing the border? No. Well, yeah, she kept telling me authority, she said, but I can speak English. I can speak English. I am very good. I belong in the United States. Like a Lady young got the cards young got the papers. Long here. Like I know No, I speak English very well. Um, so the Border Guard says Okay, make a sentence out of these three words. Green, yellow and pink. Oh, the lady says, Okay, I know. I know. My English is very good. She says the phone it goes green, green green. I pink it up and say jello. Oh, I love it. And you know that is dedicated, especially to our friend Jimmy. Yes. Paul Gonzalez. You bet isn't that I just Hi, Paul Green Bean.

07:25

07:43

08:42

In fact, in fact, in addition to Paul, I want to say hi to Wayne and Terry. Indeed, who were also at the wind unit. And you know what else? What? I heard that we were being blocked. One station was being blocked the Friday night prisoner radio and ours was blocked for two weeks. They're just being blocked in the in the at Huntsville. And they weren't getting any reception and it's kind of cleared up now. From what I hear no kidding. Yeah, yeah. Yeah. Yeah. Well, that's really me

08:51

09:14

09:15

more indeed. So anyway. Oh, honey, I just haven't had time to write but believe me, letter will be on the way.

09:22

We're very important situation. Gorgeous entrepreneur love. One of the people who is involved with the Texas prison system. Her name is Michelle Ballanger. A very open transsexual. Oh, and she transitioned while working for the Texas prison system. Wow. Very interesting story. It's your job.

09:43

No. Oh my Yeah. No, it is.

09:47

It is so and what happened? What was very interesting. She went in and told her personnel supervisor about it. And as somehow Amazingly, the fax machines started working on Look at the prison system. And next thing you know, she was outed, Michelle said, Well, gee to complete that game. And so she contacted the Huntsville newspaper and said, Hey, I got a story for you. And so Michelle, Bill and Giroux along with Ray Hill. Hi there, Ray. did some work on her behalf. Not only did she keep the job, but she has since been promoted.

10:00

10:22

Good, good, good. And she's been on Ray Hills show. She was interviewed by Ray Hill several months ago. I guess it wasn't I didn't know that. The person probably had her on. Yeah, yeah. I had been I had been talking with Michelle before. In fact, I'm going to try and get her on the show was interview window. She has a very, very interesting story to tell. In a case going on in I believe it's in Washington, where a transsexual prisoner out there is alleging abuse in the prison system. And I don't know what that story is true or not. That's why, but I talked to Michelle Ballanger. About and she was saying that occurs in the prison system all the time. And yet, she has personally investigated several leads and has yet to find one. It's actually turned out to be that way.

10:31

11:03

Oh, so that's a shame. Yeah. While we are talking about not the prisoners about the prison, yeah, I cleaned out the mailbox today. Now, we have a very large mailbox here. And we keep things in it, like voter registration cards and, and gay and lesbian Yellow Pages and extra tape and stuff like that. And underneath everything, I found the letter that was postmarked December 30.

11:30

Oh, this is February, from 11:35

Jessie and the Luthor unit. Navasota. Hey, and it's addressed to Scott and Kirk. Well, of course, I opened it up and read it.

11:46

Well, that has nothing to do with anything. One of the things we could use it this system, this station is a modernized mail system.

11:52

So Jesse, I hope you're saying we just got it. So Scott and Kirk will get it next week. And we will be talking about you on the air.

12:05

Oh, yes, we will. And we're gonna be talking a lot about this is a hot letter, Peter, and Connie, Lingus show comes up next Honey, let me tell you, oh, oh, baby. Hey, you know, Jimmy, there's one thing we need to talk about what is real briefly speaking of prisons, and this and that, and whatever. Yes. You know, the guys that murdered Paul Broussard are coming up again. Yeah, right. Yes. I saw a letter from Nancy Rodriguez and the gay press. And it's not that I like to see anybody stay in prison. But you know, there are some things that really kind of need to be, you know, 12:47

12:32

12:36

I'd like to see them stay until they lose the keys. And I'll be honest about it. Yeah.

12:51

I mean, it's not a lovely place to be. No, it isn't. But the bottom line is, you know, when you just outright murder somebody just because they're gay, that's just not really too cute. So Nancy is requesting the mom, you know, is requesting that people write about these people. And because their parole is coming up very quickly. And the one thing that she requests is that when you write that you include in your letter that they should request a three year set off for review and that's a quote three year setup for review in quote, so that this just won't happen every single year and we have to deal with these guys that you know, come rolling down into the Montrose and decide to you know, kill somebody just because just because they're gay.

13:43

What angers me is that there was no remorse that oh, oh, no remorse, not only from them, but their their parents and families. That's the thing that really got who went up to Nancy Rodrigues and said, How could you do this to my son with excuse me, lady features beat my son to death with with nails in the board, you know, where they from up north? Hey, now you're 14:06

13:47

13:59

14:03

occupied woodlands?

14:09

Well, you know, I mean, I think it's really interesting because they can buy and sell all of us in this little room probably eight times over more likely, you don't have you know, I could find a lot to do with money to make my time better than to come down to beat the shit out of somebody that had nothing to do with anything. Anyway, what you need to do is you need individual letters must be sent about each prisoner, and one is J at Jamie at square A, which is it be sent to TC v. And they they have big numbers after their names and each one has to be sent a letter if you're interested in in doing that in the outsmart issue in February. There's a little article on page six that gives all the pertinent information about each of the three people Jamie equator and Lena Ramirez and how Have you had to get a that all need to be sent and your stuff needs to go to the TD CT victim service? Attention, Rebecca watts, Post Office Box 13401, Austin 78711. But you need their little TC V numbers and all that jazz. So get it out, smile at the place, call the station, or call the station and get it from big ROI, big ROI. Any one of us will give you whatever the names and letters and stuff you need to know, to keep these guys Mack they're out of trouble thinking about what in the world, how you can get off and just go and beaten the hell out of somebody for no damn reason at all and killing them and making just I mean, they need to think about that for a little longer, I would presume, you know, and like I said, I'm not wanting to keep people in prison. But no, no, it's not a fun place.

15:23

15:25

15:50

15:54

It's not a fun place. But when you just blatantly go out and kill somebody for no damn reason. Oh, maybe that's where you need to be.

16:00

Well, let's let's go to a happier topic here. You have some music.

16:06

And I got another I got another hot little meme. Okay. Did you hear about the lady the winter, not transgender, transgendered folks will appreciate this. The lady that went to her GYN and she said that she has lumps under her breasts. And so the doctor examines or any calls her back and she's an elderly lady and calls her back in a few days and said, Honey, don't worry about those lumps under their breasts in your shoes.

16:36

Oh, help me.

16:39

Clean. On that note, we're going to go to a we were talking about doing fundraising. Yeah.

16:46

Well, we need to do that. Now. All these fun little jokes that you can't get anywhere else in the whole wide world. If you call five to six KPFT you will continue to hear this silly smart and silly little jokes from here to gone and welcome back and whatever. But you know, my Did you hear my ultimate most favorite joke in the whole wide world? I've never done this with y'all transgendered folks. But we did this one and is probably my all time most favorite joke in the whole wide world.

17:09

Wait a minute, is it? Throw? Go ahead.

17:12

You think we're gonna get cut off on this?

17:14

No, no, no, no, no, no,

17:15

I think I told him here before.

17:16

Well, you said cut

17:17

off again. It's that you

17:21

told the joke about the guy who goes to hell after he dies. I did. Okay. Our general manager heard that joke. He loved it. And he called last week to say he was listening to the program and left the punch line as a message to me. So I told that joke again. Not as well as you tell it?

17:44

Well, I was gonna tell it again. If somebody would call in. Is that the joke? You're just gonna tell I was gonna tell. And if somebody would please call in and give us anything. Yeah, at this point of our lifetimes. Any little thing if you could please give us enough to get the plug for these headphones to fit.

18:00

A radio check for like 75 cents.

18:04

With the adapters that you give us 10 bucks and we can redo all the little, little nipple dummies whatever thing. So the right size so we can all hear one another on this show. You don't know what this is like I'm doing radio. Please call him to do that for us. I will tell you this most fabulous joke about this person who dies and goes to hell. Plus, I also have this fabulous little joke about this young little kid and a mommy and daddy. Okay. And a computer nerd joke. I see. And we could do this.

18:36

Okay, and with that we're going to go to the foreman now

18:47

we are having all kinds of fun in the studio.

18:51

Beth Richards just embarrassed me.

18:54

Well, she's probably very cheap. Probably good.

18:56

Embarrassed you. Peter, Connie. Lingus have done some stuff. This was me when I needed it. I know.

19:09

And reship envy envy.

19:11

Just miss them. We did not give up the phone number the last time that we did our we Ty said five to 657 Yeah, we did. 5265738 and big 19:21

19:17

Roy loves to say that as jam KPFT hands right

19:24

in if you did JM you didn't catch the point of that song by the foreman, folks, they're cutting off our funding, please yeah, please come on now in the spirit of good spirit.

19:35

19:41

I don't know Hello, good. Sorry about your mind.

19:47

Well, okay, well getting their stuff together on on Peter and carnies. Last show. They discussed and a newspaper well I loosely refer to it as a newspaper or got one of those smart magazines.

19:49

20:03

Now wait a minute it could have came from the US and Chronicle for all we came from one of those smart magazine.

20:06

20:09

It was the Associated Press.

20:11

Let me read this story. Okay, I've 20:13

got it. Oh,

20:15

I come prepared. I really do. God I guess you do girl. A Virginia woman has filed a $575,000 fraud lawsuit against her spouse after she discovered that her husband is a woman. Margaret made lawsuit against her spouse after she discovered that her husband is a woman. Margaret and Hunter who met her spouse over the internet is seeking damages against Holly and Groves of Bryan Texas, who posed as husband. Thorn was Lee Jamison. Throughout their courtship and marriage, Groves pretended to be a man dying of AIDS to avoid sex. Hunter says in the lawsuit, Groves' breasts were covered with heavy bandages, which she said were needed because of injuries from a car wreck. 124 of Alexandria wants reimbursement for money she spent on food, transportation and telephone calls during the relationship. She also wants an annulment of the marriage. Well, I imagine she does want to know I'm not sure she'll get that. The thing that when I heard this story, my immediate conclusion was, this is a story about a female-to-male with very poor judgment.

21:25

Okay. No doubt.

21:27

Yeah. Now,

21:28

inspire us one more time, we were convincing.

21:30

And now, in the article that Peter brought, it was never it, they played up that it was a woman posing as a man to live off of another woman, female-to-male transsexual is never came into it.

21:48

Well, now if you remember, we had a story here on the air a few months back about a case in Colorado, of a person who was a female-to-male transsexual, who was deceiving their partners and eventually got charged with rape. Wow, we talked about that was a story that now the thing I wanted to point out about this is that first of all, my impression is that this is probably a female-to-male transsexual, not not a lesbian. And I point that out, because if you heard Gary Bowen on the show last month, and if you heard Dede McEller talking about it as well, one of the chip offs here is the fact that the breasts were completely bound with heavy bandages. And Gary Bowen spent quite a bit of time talking about why they go to the trouble of finding the brass.

22:34

You talk in trouble. That ain't comfortable either. You don't do that. Just because you think it might be fun, huh?

22:40

Well, that's right. Now, obviously, this is a person with incredibly poor judgment and no doubt and is an absolute liar. But having said all that, I was a little I guess I was a little bit irked when I heard or what had happened, because, to me shows some inklings about the transgender community that was kind of disappointed, especially after it was right after we'd done the show carry bones. Okay, now, yes. Beth was a little upset. Can Can you explain why?

23:01

23:06

Well, upsets a little strong, but I was confused because Peter and Connie, were talking about this lesbian and what like, what lesbian? We've got a man Okay, so he happened to have been born with female genitals, but he's a man. I mean, it's like Billy Tipton. Billy Tipton was this man. He was a jazz player. He played awesome saxophone. And when he died in the mid 80s. That's when they found out that he was born female and had been living all this time as a man even though anatomically female. His wife didn't know. It had been that many years he had laid claim that he had been injured in the war and just was too embarrassed down there to show anyone including his wife. And you know, so it's, you know, probably pretty poor judgment to go on that way with somebody you care about. Without telling them you know, a bit more about your, your who you are, then then to come in there at the end like that. But still, I mean, it doesn't make somebody a lesbian, because he is a female to male transgendered person.

24:14

Okay, maybe that's a part I didn't hear.

24:15

Yeah. And it's also tells me something about the desperation of this person, no doubt. I mean, this person must have been incredibly lonely. Yes, this is horribly poor judgment. But, I mean, it also said something about to me, Gary Bowen had spent some time talking about the loneliness of female to males and I talked about how I had contacted 20 Female to Male transsexual, none of whom knew one another. So when I saw this, when I saw this story, that was my first thought was, well, this fits right into what I had found out about all 20 of these female to male transsexuals living in the transgendered capital of the country, not knowing one another, living in complete isolation, okay.

24:54

Now, the other thing that I recall from from the The article that Peter and Connie had was that it was it was this female to male transsexual that that we have identified now. Yeah. was more or less living off of this other woman not attempting to find any work or anything like that, isn't that right, Peter? Do you remember that we just, we just sort of had this article from probably one of the things you find that you read as you check out from the grocery line, yeah. And you know, they're gonna sensationalized whatever, and we just kind of an interesting sort of thing that somebody would be, you know, binding the rest and doing all this and that and I used to be well used to be I still a counselor personage, and have some credentials somewhere in my life, being, you know, and I remember one of my I was high school guidance counselor for a while, and I remember one of my guys going to New York and coming back, absolutely horrified, had been there was a young high school senior had saw this absolute gorgeous woman had gone home had carried on something, whatever. And all of a sudden, after it probably couldn't have been hidden, much more longer discovered that that indeed, was not a woman than a man and was just, it took me like, you know, three more months of spring quarter to get this guy back on track again, that he wasn't gay, and he wasn't this and he wasn't I mean, you know, and I just remember that, and I just thought it was, you know, and we, we finally got away he was laughing about it, and kind of, you know, humorous about the whole thing, but it was, so we saw that article and, and Kenny just thought it was kind of a hoot. And people were thinking, you know, why would anybody go to all that trouble to you know, what they just be what the is and let it go with that. Well,

25:23

26:54

I think I can help you here. A little Peter in the problem is, please help Peter. Oh, okay. The problem is that your friend met a woman who happened to have male genitalia. Okay, they can fix that nowadays. Don't you know?

27:07

Oh, they could be?

27:11

Yeah, sure. You bet. Yeah, sure. You bet. And so, you know, we're not talking about a lot of money, though. Yeah. Yeah. But that 27:18

27:15

opens up and 27:20

down $500.

27:22

That opens up another can of worms because I know of transgendered people who do date, and then don't tell their partners until five minutes before they're going to have sex. Hey, guess what?

27:36

bad judgment? Well, that was something I was going to bring up. I received an email letter the other day. On one of the previous shows, I had briefly touched on the topic of transgender dating. And it was a member of the of the Houston community who really took me to task and did not like what I had to say, to which I'm going to say that person, if you didn't like what I said, then you probably ought to turn the radio off, because you're really not likely to say now the whole issue of transgender dating, I want to back up and start with this. First of all, let's, let's let's, let's go on the assumption here for the moment that we're talking about a person who is a male to female transsexual, okay, but just because they're the most numerous, so it's easy to be on the same page about that. They're the most numerous. So we know about we know about, yes, you're right. Okay, now, then, if this person is going to live as the opposite gender, one of the things they have to be able to prove to a therapist is that they can do so successfully. One of the things that therapists most concerned about is can this person have a relationship afterwards, it will do no good to have this person change their sex, and be desperately lonely the rest of their life. So one of the skills they have to acquire while they're in transition, is the ability to get along with the chosen partner or whatever sex. So if you're a female to male, for example, and you know that you are lesbian, then you have to be able to go out and successfully show that you can have some sort of a relationship with that with that kind of a person. If you are female to male and you are going to be and you are going to be so called straight, then you have to be able to go out and date guys, and show that you have the social skills to do it. Now then, all of that well and good. The question becomes, at what point do you have to tell the person what's going on? If you're simply dating a person just to go out and have dinner and maybe the one and only time you're gonna see the person again? I don't think that's deception. On the other point, and if you start getting into a relationship, in other words, if it starts become more than Hi, how are you and let's go have a bite at McDonald's? I think you have an obligation to tell that person well Now there are two because there are people who can pass and people who can't pass.

30:01

30:06

Well I'm not sure this is an issue about passing this issue about honesty

Well, I'm not sure this is an issue about passing this issue about honesty,

30:10

no doubt, as a therapist,

30:14

I've been watching Peters head melt over here.

30:18

It's a meltdown moment, ladies and gentlemen, it's a meltdown moment, Peter went off with Connie now on the boat and this other person come rolling in. When you talk about relationships, and whatever it really, it makes no difference what you have between your thighs here, if you don't, you know, if you, if this therapist wants you to go out and have a relationship, that's got a whole lot to do with a whole bunch of other things over and above anything that's cooking anywhere else agree. And the bottom line is, some of these people, it wouldn't make any difference whether they were male or female or male going to female or female going to male or lesbians or gay, godly knows what it could be there in case some are basically incapable of carrying out a relationship due to loads of baggage or other I mean, that's just part of the whole issue. That's got nothing to do with sexuality. It's got everything to do with their noodle, what's on the other end of there.

31:18

But that's partly the point because the shrinks won't sign your letters for recommendations for surgery until that they're sure that it's not your noodle, that's the problem. Exactly. And so they want you to go through the ability to you have to work through all those other issues first. And that's one of those other issues.

31:33

That being the person that might sign a letter. There's loads of stuff and a lot of work to be done way before Oh, no, that we would ever get it because they couldn't carry on a relationship. Even if it was same, the same or there was a real wise there was a real wise woman that was on the on the mailing list, I first got in touch with the transgender community with and she said, You had better get your shit together before your surgery because honey change in that ain't gonna make a big difference.

31:49

32:05

It's like all these people that pack up and decide that they're gonna go, and I'm gonna move, you know, I can't tell you how many peels I'm gonna go out to LA. And, you know, the bottom line is you're taking you know, down there. Yeah, the question was where you go, you're taking you and if you ain't right here, you ain't gonna be right there either.

32:16

32:19

32:24

But the question becomes, in this this story was a good example. Then what point do you have an obligation to let your partner know that you're not as you seem? That's right.

32:31

Well, I mean, obviously, that has a lot to do with where you are in dealing with relationships and Honesty and trust and this and that, and how really sure you are and where you are and what you're doing and being who you are and what you are. And if this person doesn't like it, then well, and we just have to do that. Which reminds me of this one, this could very easily fit in here, about the lady that was went to the doctor. The doctor says, it feels like when Steven says Listen, Maddie, she's into my system. I'll take all your history and information. I'll come and see you in a while, suddenly goes apart. And yeah, really, you have to do it all twice. And so they do it on this lady comes in. She says, Well, you know, excuse me, dear, but she said, you know, funniest thing. She said, I examined you and found out you were a virgin. But according to the history, you've been married three times, how does this happen? Which, you know, could be one of these little people anyway, and she said, Well, the first time we were very, very young, we ran off and got married. And before we could ever get to the motel, our parents came and captured us and pull us apart and got it and all that it was never anything to happen. And the second time she's married this real old man, very old man. It was purely for convenience and we never did anything and nothing ever happened and I remained a virgin who said the third time she said I'm married to a computer wizard and he always sat on the side of the bed and said we're gonna get this system up and rolling but nothing ever happened. Okay, all you computer wizards out there who may be transgender. That explains it.

34:03

Hey, Peter. You know what I do for a living?

34:08

I don't even want to go there. Oh, Jesus.

34:10

I designed custom chips for computers. They don't get geekier than that. She gets it up like she gets that system up daily doesn't she?

34:18

34:23

D says but I'm hardware in the story was about a software.

34:28

Oh, baby, baby. I Oh, man. Well, tip. Lingus are never gonna go anywhere near this topic.

34:37

Oh, no.

34:38

When you do find out if somebody isn't what they expect. What happens to your brain? It just did five minutes ago, didn't it?

34:46

No. I mean, I'm cool with it. I was rather rather surprised because I thought you just decided to go off.

34:53

Okay, well, I might someday but it's a money issue right now. Oh, really.

34:57

And that is an extremely over here. Are

And that is an extremely over here. Are 35:00

you having crazy?

35:02

Cranial work?

35:02

I'm having a cringy tech

35:06

problem girl. Where does that 35:10

go? I know this is like, we just opened like, Well, no, no. The history universe.

35:17

I'm trying to get back to the honesty issue. And it's true because because Peter was telling me he thought I was Did you think I was genetically female? Or did you think I was transgendered but but had been posted up?

35:31

I think I thought you were either a postdoc or genetic.

35:35

Okay. And so I will thank you.

35:39

Teresa thinks I do.

35:44

Okay, the blush factor just went way up here.

35:48

never comes back. We're gonna send Connie off on a on a river cruise and I'm gonna dater anyways, you found out you weren't right. And Did it surprise you? Would you rather have me told you now then if I was somebody who you'd potentially been wanting to go to bed with? Like, you know, as we were pulling back the sheets, when would you rather know?

35:53

36:10

Honey, it'd be a little different for me, because I when the sheets went back with what it's all about just fine.

36:17

I understand. I understand. But what I'm talking about is the timing. Now. That timing, I would rather know. Now, would you rather know now? Or would you rather know when they walk in the door? The first thing out of my mouth?

36:31

That's hard to tell? A little bit. Yeah.

36:35

I don't recommend that. But what I was concerned about is the person that had 36:38 and we get to know each other. We've been fooling around the station, having a great time. We've had more than fun. If you don't call and send us your money. We we don't give it too much. No, because he wants us that it's a whole ton of money. We'd love it.

36:48

Because if you tell neopple Yeah. nlease do. Because otherwise we won't have a nlace to sit because if you tell people yeah, please don't because otherwise we won't have a place to sit around and talk like this. If you tell people when you first walk in the door, then they have this idea in their head. And they they they put the curtain up.

37:02

That's information overload.

37:04

Yeah, well, my concern is that there's letters that I received, and this person suggested that there was no obligation till the tell their partner ever. On the contrary, and I really disagree.

37:14

Let's face it, my sheets come back sometimes you know, you're going to notice something.

37:19

Yeah. And this person? Well, 37:22

yeah. Because what, what kind of relationship is that? To me? That's dishonesty. There you go. Yeah. I don't care if the other side is gonna say it was my argument on the other side is going to think, well, if if she waited till this long to tell me about that, then what else has she been deceitful about?

37:41

I didn't think it was any different than the cross dressing issue with a person knew they were cross dressing didn't bother to tell the wife until they've been married for 10 years.

37:47

It's no different than heterosexual issues. I spent too many years doing heterosexual marriage counseling, and it's no different lies, lies lies a lie to see just to see just to see you. It I don't care when it has nothing to do with sexuality, it's got to do with honesty and friendship and love. And the person that you love is your best friend, and is your whatever, that's the person who got to know what's cooking. So my art is gonna love you all the way or not.

38:16

So what I would say to the person who sent this letter is this. If you're going to date people, I understand that you have to do it that you want to do it. You don't want to be sitting alone, that's fine. But if you're going to be in a serious relationship with someone, I believe you have an obligation at some point to disclose. And the time is not to wait until you're married. No, the time is not to wait until it actually becomes so serious that you're afraid to back out. The time to disclose is when you first realize that this is becoming more than a casual relationship. Yeah, I think

38:47

I need there's a line that says you can never lose a friend you never had.

38:51

There you go. There you go.

38:53

I had a friend back in New Jersey, Who? Who? Boise? Well, I was in Philly, but she was in Boise. And she she got into this relationship with this guy. She was postdoc at the time. So you know, things could go a long way before the guy had to find out. And they did. And she kept telling him, you know, this is really wonderful. And I really liked being with you. And I really like being you know, the activities that we do clean this up a bit. But don't fall in love with me because there's something in my past that you're just not going to cope with. And she kept telling them over and over and over again. One day he finally says to her look, I've thought about this. Like what maybe you killed somebody you did your time you're out. No, you know, so that I'm okay with that. Or used to be a guy. I mean, I don't know. And at that point, she looks at him and says no. Now at that he just like, you know, dropped his jaw Shut up, hung around for another couple hours, walked out the door. Came back to
