

[MUSIC PLAYING]

- Well, I hope you enjoyed that Ray Bourbon program. You're still listening to After Hours radio, celebrating life from the heart of Montrose, on KPFT, Houston, 90.1 FM. Just sitting here listening to all of that I thought well, that is really great entertainment and great comedy from days gone by, by a gay artist. But, how about something more up to date by two modern day gay artists. Yeah.

Romanovsky and Phillips, doing one of their first-- off of their first album, "The Prince Charming Tango". And after that, to our program, there's something else I kind of miss and I get to really want to hear. And especially when Buddy's not here, you don't get to hear all of the Harvey Milk stuff. So to satiate my need, I think we're going to go to the "Coming Out Of Hiding" mix again, the one that he's so famous for.

- The soldiers began with a routine police raid on a homosexual bar, The Stonewall, on Christopher Street, in the heart of the west village.

[SOUND CUE]

[MUSIC - PAMALA STANLEY, "COMING OUT OF HIDING"]

- All right, say it so they can hear you in the capital. For love and for life, we're not going back. For love and for life, we're not going back. For love and for life, we're not going back. For love and for life, we're not going back!

- I want you to savor this next moment. I have the proud task of telling you that the official count of the lesbian and gay rights march-- the official count is over 500,000 strong.

- We must destroy the myths once and for all. Shatter them. We must continue to speak out, and most importantly-- most importantly, every gay person must come out.

[CHEERING]

- It's all right, you may all come out.

- We're queer.

- As president of the board of supervisors, it's my duty to make this announcement. Both Mayor Moscone, and Supervisor Harvey Milk, have been shot and killed.

- Toto, I have a feeling we're not in Kansas anymore.

- They've got to understand something-- they've got to understand something, we are not talking about crotch politics. This is not a movement from the waist down. We are talking about our right to love, and to choose, and to live. And I don't care about street parliaments, and I don't care about real understanding. You better hear me in Washington. We are demanding-- we are demanding our civil rights.

- I ask people all over this country to do one thing.

We must destroy the myths once and for all. Shatter them. We must continue to speak out, and most importantly-- most importantly, every gay person must come out.

[CHEERING]

- Harvey, do you have a few words for KPFA?

- Come on out. Join us.

- Difficult as it is, you must tell your immediate family; you must tell your relatives; you must tell your friends, if indeed they are your friends; you must tell your neighbors; you must tell the people you work with; you must tell the people in the stores you shop in.

[CHEERING]

Once they realize that we are indeed their children, and we are indeed everywhere, every myth, every lie, every innuendo, will be destroyed once and for all.

- I ask people all over this country to do one thing. Come out. Come out America, come out.

[CHEERING]

[MUSIC - ABC, "ONE BETTER WORLD"]

- Yo, "One Better World". It's one of the favorite tunes on this show. And we want to thank you for being with us tonight, and on After Hours radio, celebrating life from the heart of the Montrose, where we're here, and we're queer. I had to say it all myself.

Mike was with me earlier, and had to leave early. Poor baby, he's got to be up at dawn, doing something early in the morning.

So we want to remind you to vote coming up November 5th. And the HDLPC has done their homework, and endorsed a whole bunch of candidates. And if you need to know who they are, give them a call at 521-1000. They'll be glad to send you their election news and their little voting card.

And coming up November 3, From All Walks Of Life, the AIDS 10 k, five k, Walk Run or Roll-a-Thon. You can still call any time 526-4000 to get a pledge sheet and information sent to you, so you can be part of the KPFT After Hours contingent. Even if you might not want to be part of the After Hours contingent, you can be the-- KPFT contingent, because we're all going to be together on that day. Walking that beautiful area along Memorial, across Shepherd and back along Allen Parkway, it's really going to be nice. That takes place in Sam Houston park, November 3rd, for a good cause.

[MUSIC - YAZZ, "STAND UP FOR YOUR LOVE RIGHTS"]

If you can't walk, you might stop by Lobo, and pledge money for the two bassetts-- the Lobo bassetts who are going to be walking on November 3. And what are their names-- ah yeah, Bruiser and Rupert. Bruiser is the older one, Rupert is the younger one. And they'll be on a leash with their owners, the owners of Lobo. That'll be fun, I look forward to seeing both Larry and Dill out there.

And if you can, there's a wonderful fundraiser going on tomorrow evening at the old Metropolitan Theater or-- Majestic Theater, that's it, the Majestic Theater. It's The Roxy Horror Beauty Shop. It's a take-off on The Rocky Horror Picture Show. We've played a lot of their music tonight from Rocky Horror, and I may have time to slip you one more. Won't that be good?

But, in the meantime let's enjoy another one of our favorites, Yazz, and talking about what we talk about on this show, "Stand Up For Your Love Rights".

And as those little notes of Rocky Horror Picture Show take us up to 4 o' clock, we've got the Blues Broad. Just one broad tonight, Kathleen is here with blues for you. The little blue corner. And I want to thank everybody in conjunction with the show tonight, and we sure will welcome Buddy back. And as we always say, or what Harvey Milk always says, which is--

- Which is what?

- Right--

- Which is what?

- Rights are not won on paper. They are won by those who make their voices heard.

- And that's just probably the truth, don't you know-- don't you know.

- All the way around.

- You're tuned to 90.1 FM, KPFT, in Houston, Texas. It's 4:00 AM, Sunday. I'm the Blues Broad, and I have blues for you.
