So I'm, you know what I get a call earlier in the week, and I've never really talked to her that much. Except Hi, how are you? Hi, how are you doing? To Sariah? Who owns energy? So she called me, and she wants me to judge the Miss energy pageant tomorrow night. And so I said, Well, of course, right. I would love to do I get free drinks.
- J Jimmy Carper 00:23
And so the only time you got free drinks that energy.
- S Scott Lewis 00:29
Thank God no, I think thank goodness normally. But anyway, so I'm judging the Miss energy pageant tomorrow night and energy. Should be kind of fun. Probably around nine or 10 o'clock. Probably. I don't know. Probably whenever I hope they didn't. Somebody needs to tell me because I have no idea. I think it probably starts around 11.
- J Jimmy Carper 00:46
I would get the original clueless girl, right.
- S Scott Lewis 00:48
Right here. Alicia Silverstone has nothing on me. Yeah, I think I think probably probably about 11. Okay. And I know Miss sapphires going to be entered who won the glorious Stefan lookalike contest at Rich's. So that'd be kind of fun. I'll be there judging, and like fun, representing After Hours, things now.

J Jimmy Carper 01:10

Even though you're not on the pride committee anymore. I know you worked hard on it. And your efforts, you know, should not go unnoticed.

S Scott Lewis 01:19

I mean, everybody worked hard.

J Jimmy Carper 01:21

I know a lot of a lot of different groups have benefited from the fundraisers that the pride committee through?

S Scott Lewis 01:29

Well, we were able to, I was really proud to be able to help create something in memory of somebody who meant a lot to me, and that was the Brian Bradley activist award, you bet, which is a $500 award that we're the committees given to five different organizations, including gay lesbian switchboard, the Texas lesbian conference. The names project. The other ones escaped me right now. I know what they're Yeah, there were five. Wonderful next to me. Yeah, there are five wonderful organizations as well, as importantly, as I said, in an article that that came out in the Chronicle, they interviewed me about Candice Gingrich and stuff. And I said in that article, you know, so important to me to try and keep alive. The diversity. That was Brian Bradley back. You Brian was equally as comfortable sitting at a at the mayor's home. You know, we said, Brian, I've said at the mayor's home or at his office, and talk with him about issues, as he was charging through city hall at John Goodner. screaming at him and getting dragged out arrested. He didn't care whatever it took to make the message heard and stuff is this ring bothering you?

J Jimmy Carper 02:46

No, it's fine. It's bigger than mine.

S Scott Lewis 02:49

So that's about anything in the room. But so I was real proud and happy to do that. As well as pumped up on art was a huge success raised over $9,000. And that was a lot of fun. And I'm working on and this is probably way too early for me to be talking about it. But I've been contacted by Patti LaBelle, those people, too. I think next year, I'm not going to be involved with the I've already resigned. And everybody knows that from the pride committee. And I think next year my project is going to be I'm going to do a concert with Patti LaBelle to benefit probably a dozen local organization. Great, great. So I went and saw her last night as a, you know, a precursor to, and she's just incredible. She's incredibly. So what else you want to talk about?

J Jimmy Carper 03:40

Oh, a friend of mine called JB called and said hello. And you know, I know him from another show. He worked with one of the blues programs. And God he's so hot.

First of all, I want to say you're listening to after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and KEOS college stations. Brian just College Station O'Brien and we're going to do the lion such a white naming Leviticus faggot song.

S Scott Lewis 05:47

That's fine. She's so why don't you know she was the first artists Madonna signed for her label. This is on the Mavericks, right, which is Madonna's label. And the first artists that Madonna signed is her. And she's also known for Jimmy Smith who writes for the twit get a clue. She's awesome. I got a new CD and from Michelle name, whatever. And I've never heard of her before, but it's fabulous. And I'm like, Miss Thing. She's that big song if that's your boyfriend he wasn't last night. Huge hit and all the clubs and she's a club DJ why dancing in her club if she didn't know what that song was then she's she's way outside the loop. But anyway, it's this is Michelle. None of us can pronounce her last name is called Leviticus fagot.

J Jimmy Carper 06:38

Michelle on the donkey Oh, cello. Leviticus Baggett the long version. You probably get the short version if you hear it on any other radio station, but we give it to you the way you want it.

S Scott Lewis 06:50

They don't play it on any other radio station.

J Jimmy Carper 06:53

Probably not. But just in case, you know, because caterer would probably play it.

S Scott Lewis 06:59

Oh, well. You know what, though? Kate's KKK 04? What's it KRB? Yeah, they just got a new music director and he's from the edge in Dallas, so maybe they'll like have some decent music now.

J Jimmy Carper 07:11

S Scott Lewis 07:12

Well, I'm leaving. What? What? You don't want to throw me out? You've left me. Get out. You told me you said get out of 90.1 FM KPFT Houston, and 89.1 KEOS College Station. Get out? I said that? Yes. Oh, well, maybe not in those exact words.

J Jimmy Carper 07:32

J Jimmy Carper 07:32
So where are you headed off to?

S Scott Lewis 07:34
I don't know. I haven't decided. Ah, probably home.

J Jimmy Carper 07:39
Okay, we got some this way out. Coming up. We've got free your mind interview coming up.

S Scott Lewis 07:46
And what's a free your mind interview?

J Jimmy Carper 07:48
It's a it's a book. That's especially for gay teens. It's kind of a helpful coming out book. All kinds of problems you're gonna face as a gay, gay or lesbian teenager?

S Scott Lewis 08:01
God, they're getting it easy now, aren't they? We didn't. It's wonderful.

J Jimmy Carper 08:05
The author, one of the authors of this book was at Crossroads recently, and we have an interview. Oh, wow, who interviewed him lesbian and gay voices. But we talked about the book a week ahead of time to let people know that it was available and that the interview was going on at Crossroads.

S Scott Lewis 08:24
Great. Well, I'm out of here. Big Daddy. Okay, y'all have fun. And I'll see what in two weeks. Two weeks, two weeks. Ooh, la la. Bye.

T Tom Richards 08:36
Jimmy, can I say I'm glad? Yeah. Kids have it easy. Oh, yeah. I don't want him to go back the way we had no, no. 70s No. I'm glad. I'm glad that all the sacrifices made by the brothers and sisters over the years, is finally beginning to pay off.

J Jimmy Carper 08:53

That because for the most part, it sucks being a teenager anyway. Oh, yeah. You know, you're trying to find yourself you're whether you're gay, straight, or what in between, or both, or, you know, you're just finding yourself. And if you're gay and, or lesbian, or transsexual or bisexual, it's a real tough thing. You lots of times you feel you're alone. And so he is with all of the new literature out. And especially since it's a lot of it's available on computer. That's it's a real boon. Yeah, yeah. Because you don't have to, you know, in the old days, you tried to look in the library and then you'd look around to see who was watching you in that section.

T Tom Richards 09:37

I remember well, oh, yeah. But yeah, I'm glad when people talk about the good old I get I love the 70s in Houston, let but what we had to go through on a lot of that stuff I would never want No, no and never, ever, ever want again. I know. I know. Do you arrest to harass supplements and all that. No. So we are making headway and I'm glad I'm glad that it is magnesium. And I'm glad that the youth can hold their head up and say, Yeah, this is who I am and I have no reason to be ashamed I offer no apology that.

J Jimmy Carper 10:18

Okay, let's go to another piece of music by a new group Well, no by Texas singer Diana Jones who we've we've played this before. Then this is available at Inklings. By the way. I was over there today and saw the Diana Jones CD it's she's an openly lesbian woman here in Texas. Thanks She records out of Austin. This is a great song from her CD Imagine me and the name of it is in broad daylight. Hello, Houston, it's Jimmy with the queer music zone. Heard almost every week right here on after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station, got a couple of new ones for you. Well, not so new. But I don't think I've played this group yet. It's Imperial teen just got the album last week. And it's headed up by openly gay Roddy bottom, who is the keyboardist for Faith No More. And this is kind of a different kind of sound for him and his group with Imperial Cain, Imperial teen, and I'm going to start out with a tune called your one and follow that up with something by Katie Curtis. So let's get with it. And I will take your requests for queer music at 526-573-8526 KPFT right here on the QMZ. Oh, yeah, that's Katie Curtis, you probably have heard a little of Katy Curtis during the day here on KPFT. Because she's a favorite and probably with the World Cafe with David Dye that that we run here at KPFT also, but that's, that's her gay song Radical. I really like it. Before that was something else. I am taking your requests for query music at 5265738. Let's pick it up a little bit with something I haven't played in a while, but I really like it. It's from Jimmy Somerville. His latest album, which is entitled dare to love. That cuts real good too. But this is a remake of Evernote one. Next, I've got somebody we haven't heard from in a while. Russ McCoy who has a great album out called the gravity bill. And this is my favorite off of it God's ear. I don't have hush lover hush from Even Cowgirls. Get the Blues by Katie. And we had a caller request everything from Katie Lange. Well, I'd like to but it's only a three hour show. We couldn't get it all in. But I'll I'll play something coming up. We've got requested music by the Pet Shop Boys. Go West. But right now, Russ McCoy. Oh, yeah, Go West by the Pet Shop Boys by request. This is the QMZ and you're hearing it on after hours career radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and KEOS College Station. I'm Jimmy and we're taking a request for queer music at 5265738. This is this was called in by Scott. And he wants to dedicate it to us because this is the only place where you can hear this music. That's right. And this is I had it. It's Boy George and you know, I love a lot of Boy George. In fact, his last album got an award from the GLAAD people. That's the gay and lesbian group against defamation. And this is an earlier one it's called Don't Cry.
