But if you feel that you can't come out right now because of your age your job or whatever reason that's okay we're here for you too. So sit back relax and enjoy this week's edition of after hours

I am what I am I do my own deck Sometimes.

04:51

Okay we're here See, I knew I could do it. Jim is little, little hysterical. This is after hours is to break Excuse me. I'm waiting for Diane Williams to join us. And we're going to talk to Nancy for tonight. And we're going to be doing some lighter stuff tonight. I even brought my rhotic poetry book, we'll see if we can find something that we can actually play on the air. And we'll be doing several of these things, just because you're out there to listen. And first, we're gonna go to the queue MZ with Jim copper. And then we'll be talking to you again at about 1230.

05:31

You're on? Ah, whoa, okay. This is Jimmy with the QM Z. And like Jill said, and funniest thing, because we hadn't really talked about this. I was sitting at home thinking, what are we going to do? What are we going to do? And it was like, boy, we've done all this protesting and played all these protests, songs, and yeah, you're on. Okay. Hey, let's do something laid back. Let's do something kind of mellow this week. Okay, where do you fit to it? I've reached back way back for this first one.

06:05

Oh, back to when I was a young lesbian. That's right.

06:09

And it's from the lesbian concentrate album. Remember that? Oh, yes,

06:13

I do I have that. Actually. No, no, I don't have a record player anymore. But I have the record.

06:19

And when I've played it all and I like a lot of it and you're probably going to be hearing more of it. Oh, great, because I love everything on it. And I've got one written and done by Theresa trawl.

06:31

Oh yeah. One of the one of the stayed listening things and it's woman loving woman. So let's get right to it Yeah, oh lay. That was Romanowski and Phillips doing the Prince Charming tango and when you meet your Prince Charming, you know, these days it's a little bit different. And along those lines, I want to tell you all about something that's coming up tomorrow and we'll be talking about it again later. Dr. Patricia salvato is going to make an appearance at the BRB Yes, that's the Brazos River bottom at 2400, Brazos and she's going to give a review from the Amsterdam conference. So y'all go out there to the BRB, that's three to five tomorrow afternoon or today, Sunday afternoon. And he might stay for steak night or something. Think they have that going on on Sundays. This is sponsored by the BRB, the Montrose clinic services caught 40 fives Houston. So y'all check that out. Something else to check out is a woman that has been causing raves everywhere she goes, unfortunately, except from the C and W community, the straight CW community that is but we take her to heart. She was here last weekend, wasn't it? Oh, yes. JD Yeah. So I want to play one of the favorites around here. Of Cadis.

06:36

08:22

Whoa, yes, big by GAO. No, no more. Just a little about you're listening to the QM z the queer music zone comes your way every week at this time. And this segment and all segments are dedicated to the men and women of the queue patrol out there keeping our streets safe. I saw him last night group walking down one of them streets that I was kind of cruising there. Now can't can't imagine can't imagine. Okay, it's where the last song of the QM Z kind of an update. Even though it's mellow, it's kind of a strange, strange thing here. The tune in the melody is mellow and the background orchestration that's kind of upbeat. And what else could that be?

But erasure, doing their Abbott impersonations, abba, abba, abba. I listened to the tape last week and sound like I was saying Abbott like Abbott and Costello. Not good. Not good. Go ahead, say something. Is that because we look like Abbott and Costello Gotcha. Okay, sorry, I turn that on okay, that's the QM Z for tonight and this Jimmy signing off and giving you over to joule.

stop whatever you're doing and listen to us tonight, because we're gonna have some interesting stuff. If you're on a freeway pull off Listen, may not be able to drive just holding your side's from laughing for tonight, I'm expecting Nancy Ford. And whenever we have Nancy down here, we know we have a good time, because she's probably one of the funniest women in town. And I mean that lovingly, Nancy, wherever you're at right now. Anyway, Nancy will be joining us about one o'clock. I want to start tonight by saying this is my few minutes that I take my take an early tonight and say that this show and every show that I do, and my participation in these shows is dedicated to the men and women of the bearing Care Center. And while I'm talking about my alma mater, I want to say thank you to those people out there who participated, and helped us get our band back on the on the road, we were having some dire straits On July, the fourth, somebody came into our parking lot and stole our band, and trashed it out pretty good and tore the steering column out of it. And, and we had to have all that repaired. And a lot of people came through for us. And we're, I wanted to take a moment and thank those people, Diana, you can pull up the sheets and kiss dollar Good night, whenever you want to, because I made it here. And I made it in record time actually. Let's see, Nancy, a called a little while ago and expressed some regret that she couldn't be here early. So what I thought we do in the few minutes that we're going to have before we do this way out, I thought I would do some of the community events that are going on. So that if you want to you can go and pick up a pen and a piece of paper or a pencil, probably a pencil because I make mistakes. That eraser is not for you. It's because it's for me. And I'll give you some information here some pretty interesting stuff. And you might want to get some of these phone numbers or addresses or contact people. So I'm just stalling here while you can pick up that kind of stuff. And I'll be reading some of this stuff. Munchies is doing a special thing on Labor Day. It the proceeds are going to the AFH to the Houston I mean the AIDS Foundation, Houston. And it's presents the beat band eliminating aids together, beat bands, eliminating aids together. And it will be from five to 10 It'll be a $45 donation. And like I said, the foundation H foundation Houston can sure use the help. It's been it's been a lot of changes down there lately. And I know that they are going to continue to do that. They're going to be some live music and they're going to be giving and some food and they're going to be giving cassettes and CDs away. I would imagine for gay and lesbian music. So here's an opportunity to connect with some of those people and, and to help in a small way support what's going on at the foundation. The nother thing is the lesbian therapy group, dealing with addictions, relationship, relationships coming out sexual encounters, family issues, and many others meet weekly on Thursday evenings from six to 730. At the Sharon Stone and Associates building or clinic or whatever they call it over there. 3935 Westheimer, suite 252. And for information you can call 62360816236081. And I know Sharon and that would be a place to to learn a lot of good stuff. Another thing is smile. Sexual Minority Youth assistance League of Houston, which is growing by leaps and bounds. I understand recently we were talking about and someone informed me that they probably have close to 90 to 100 members now. And I can remember when they first hit town they were here doing an interview. Young man was here doing an interview with Ron sparks one night, and I happened to be here and that was some time ago, probably about six months. So they've done really well in six months or eight months that they've been building in Houston. It's a peer support group for gay lesbian and bisexuals questioning youth and young adults between 16 and 22. I'm also someone who deals with a lot of questions from people out there and Often I'm asked about your sexual minority youth assistance League and Hmm, where they can get in touch with these people. So I know that it's new and upcoming, probably going to get bigger than it is now. They have weekly meetings on Saturday four to six at the intercare Hospital 7601 Fannin, and they have discussion groups, speaker's bureau, community education, information, referrals, and they have a talk line, I think that's like a telephone tree, where you can connect with other people for support. So if you're between 16 and 22, this this is the place to be now so and it's a Saturday from four to six and might maybe you can arrange to have a potluck and or go to dinner afterwards with someone that'd be that'd be cool, too. Let's see what's this image is from life Missouri Street Station. On Friday, August the 28th. From 5:39pm is going to be invite you to kick off cocktail reception at they're going to have happy hour cocktails, entertainment, Terry. And Charlene, that's the entertainment might have to be there. They're going to have a buffet and a raffle. And it says Come and experience the kiss for life. Yeah, I think I will be there a lot of local people are supporting this, there's a $5 donation at the door. And this is all to provide help for PW A's in the community. And I'm in the field. And I know that recently with all the changes and with budget cutbacks and stuff, such that they're going to be needing a lot more of our support in the upcoming future out of our pocket. So this would be a good way to do that is to go down and help these different benefits going on in town because they're going to be needing it. I have a letter here from the executive director, David Lemos from the names project. And they're trying, they're informing us of when the quilt is going to be in Washington. And it will be October 9 1992. And they want to they're inviting us to be a part of it. And I want to extend that invitation to those of you who didn't get this letter, and let you know that this is going to be a colossal event. And they went along with a colossal event is also colossal. expensive, and they're looking for people to help support this. They see they've raised already a million dollars for hundreds of A's organization around the country. And they're looking to raise some more to help us more like I said, in the near future, our community is going to have to support this more than we are at this time. So these people are looking for donations of $35 or more. And for these donations, you get to be a member of the Friends of the quilt and quarterly names newsletter providing regular updates from Washington and various events that quilt is part of. So if you happen to be like me, and you can't if I can't afford $35 to help my friends of the quilt, then SATA SATA, I think I want to do that. So that's a good way to do that. I have an interesting here just for a break. I have an interesting letter someone handed me this evening, and I wanted to read this I thought this was just wonderful. And this is this is hearing it and seeing it and reading it in a different perspective. Then you would have seen it and might have heard it. This is says no one should be surprised by behavior of naval officers. I think we're all pretty aware of the operation Skyhook that went on in the 25 or so female officers were maltreated sexually harassed and abused at this convention. Well, here's a letter regarding the resignations regarding the recent resignations of the Secretary of the Navy in the wake of the sex scandal, I have only one comment to make. How can anybody be surprised by this kind of sick activity is exactly the kind of deviant behavior one would expect when admitted Heterosexuals are allowed to join the military. When will our society learn this was written by Tim Daniels to Seattle and Okay, Tim. Okay, I like reading this. I like hearing more that sounded. I think Jimmy just queued something up. I'm not sure what it was here it is. It's Yes, the only way is up so we'll be back in a minute.
