01:12

Sit down, honey. Oh, good lord. No,

01:22

For those of you who listened last week, you heard this letter? And we're going to redo it now. portion of it. Oh, and going from other parts. Where's

01:31

01:33

Where's it from? Was it from?

01:34

This is from Tigger. OH. Jimmy, yes. Kill your mics down a little bit. So you guys make too much noise.

01:44

Jimmy, you don't know how many times I've heard you say either. We need role models are quickly agree with someone else who says it. I know it's true. It's almost like you're hearing Nolan Ryan saying his team. He's really good pitching. It's baseball season again. He has I know Nolan's retired. Back to my point. Do you realize that you are a major role model out and proud even when it wasn't nearly as safe or acceptable as now caring and concerned about others knowledgeable, and with the same man for 26 years, when so many say that kind of relationship with someone of the same sex is a myth. You're both a role model and an inspiration.

02:25

Wow. Thank you, Tigger. Wow. Wow.

02:33

And the reason one of the reasons why we went back was because with you not being here last week. We don't have any dissenting opinions on that. But we do have some concurring lots of variants of work. If you could remember which ones they were when it was just a new one. I remember seeing I remember seeing that piece in there. Unfortunately, I skipped over some of the so we've got letters in here from Czech language in here to read dragonhawk Hey, Dragon. Well, I'll give you a little clue here he ends it with bless it be so we know that genre? Oh yeah. Dragon Hawk

It was a double tongue piercing.

03:40

I don't know if it was I think I think it was Tiggers letter but it mentioned Jimmy something said he about a role models. While a Tigger said couldn't have been more true. I totally agree. 26 years is a long ass time. Hell I'm only 26 So I can't even begin to imagine the strength and will and whatever else that this individual has. I personally can't wait to meet Jimmy in the flesh and shake his hand. He is an incredible person. And so what he does on the show and for does on the show and for the show reflects that. So Jimmy once I get out you can count on me coming to the show to say hello and pay my respect and I'm looking forward to I hope I get the opportunity to get to know you on a personal level. Question Mark exclamation point.

05:17

Yeah, when I see what type of people you're willing to share

05:22

I just moved you a moment ago and you weren't paying attention. You know, I

05:26

05:34

I want to start off thank you for thank you want to tap I wanted to thank us for taking time to read his letter. Who is the one person who said he's mine. Matt was made. I think everyone was pretty much in concur. And

08:29

08:30

This is Sloane. I hope flitter finds finds everyone well and in good spirits. I love your show and what you do for the self esteem of the community. He says his love and utmost respect. His name is flown and respect is such a scary word around here sometimes.

08:44

08:49

And now for the salvation parts as an attractive 23 year old who later on points out that he's gay white male. Do we have pictures? No, no. six foot one. That helps 170 180 pounds. That really helps stocking brown hair slicked back. Dark green eyes, right.

09:11

Okay, smiley. Oh, six foot one and 180 pounds. I'm 510 and 170. And I wouldn't call me stocky. No.

09:19

He's got like, what three more inches over you.

09:22

So in 10 pounds spread out over three inches not stocky. Nice tall, lean. Lean

09:56

And as soon as you get out, they will make you take your two goes on. They will.

10:03

10:54

Getting off is all the everyman on the list, that's 10:59

Hey, my place of employment never closes.

11:42

That's a lie. I was there the day they were closed. The follicle Storm Allison during the flight I was gonna say I was there. They closed and they were sweet and watery. But they can reopen closed.

11:48

11:54

Everything was closed. Crossroads was closed. They were mopping up.

12:01

They started looking fast. About three weeks. Everything's going up up. Yeah, he said he's gonna be out in a couple of months good adulation

12:07 between the 12:09

heel devoted. I'll see how I perked up on that one.

12:10

12:12

Now you're sitting so erect.

12:14

I have a thing for felons.

12:16

For correctness, no, no, you 12:18

know what, Stacy? Saturday. You're not allowed to touch you can only look plenty of touch. Yeah, that's why I'm saying good time to say I won't be here next.

12:33

12:37

Oh, God, I may have to make sure I'm interested to see who gets the more education. The hatchlings are. Yes. Maybe we'll save that for the leather line.

12:48

No, girl, your egg has been cracked for a few years, okay?

12:51

I'm no longer a hatchling on my hatch.

12:55

Honey, considering the fact that some of the stuff you do now is now legal. Compared to when you were enhanced. You know, you can't be the dirty laundry in the backyard and continue with the letter trumpeting a 13:06

13:02

dub dub dub and features in the store? Was that the mother? We never someone's mind and slow looking for? They're looking for pen pals. As many of our I know, he includes a little article in here about FCC censorship. Which of course, you know, KPFT and Pacifica are not well known for. For the or the reason of the seven dirty words because someone played that in our New York.

13:09

13:35

someone. Someone mentioned something. Earlier, we have a new guy here on the roundtable. And would you introduce yourself, please?

13:49

Oh, yeah, we used to do that. Right there.

13:53

Joshua. Hi, Josh. You've been sitting here listening to us, carry on and talk a lot about sex. And of course with men and men with man, it's a lot easier to get sex. And I know that you are a straight man. So does the freedom that we have for sexual encounters. make you a little jealous? No, not at all. Because you probably don't. I mean with women you have to whine and pretend to care. Yeah, and there isn't that sad that goes with it for you can get any women have to be in the mood. Men just have to be in the room. Yes.

14:27

14:33

Be conscious.

14:35

Don't even have to be 14:38

the boss right guys? You know, if you're out of glory. We were able to have sex much more freely. Then straight guys. So Laurie is no reason to be jealous. Just take a couple of notes. Yeah.

14:53

14:57

Okay, okay. that works

15:00

we can teach how to eat oysters

15:04

Yes, we do have a bisexual segment and and you know and women are bisexual too Yes. And I hear straight men love that 15:13

15:09

and much this is a lie has many straight read you know we 15:15

talking bi sexual or bui sexual 15:21

what's the difference? Yeah,

15:23

get your mind out of your wallet. I have 15:28

another question. Take I think he's taking a pot shot back when he and I used to host back then my slogan was as long as I got money in the bank, I got a sex life.

15:38

Because I may straight men over the years, Jason, and all but one so far has said that one of their secret fantasies is having sex with two women at the same time.

15:52

I wouldn't say it was a fantasy. It'd be awesome convenience if it happened. It's not exactly something of digging for one woman's enough.

15:59

I'll tell you how my mom put it. I don't understand why most men want two women in bed cuz it definitely takes more than one man to please a woman.

16:09

Two women who are doing it together have figured out that a man and I disagree with that.

16:15

16:18

There's a comedian that says you know, I already have one unhappy woman in bed. Why do I need to have them? Well, I don't think he's doing his job. I guess.

16:26

16:30

I haven't had any complaints

I haven't had any complaints.

16:32

Have you had two women at the same time? No. Well call us back when you've updated the information the ladies he is kind of cute. Very cute. Very, really pretty eyes.

16:45

16:51

Very pretty.

16:53

Just Just be careful and struggling. You got a pretty mouth. He does have a word of mouth.

17:00

He's not going there.

17:03

To watch him blush.

17:03

I have noticed he has changed seats. The one that there's there's not much room behind him. So his Mac is against the wall.

17:09

That was a security measure.

17:13

To suggest that as long

17:14

as your security

17:16

isn't that the one that also encouraged me to get naked to what he's hiding from what? No, no.

17:23

No behind you. Believe it or not, there's a man behind you.

17:27

Notice

17:30

presently, he does have a problem. 30 days.

17:34

Have you experienced

17:35

i j? Where's my letter?

17:38

The letter? Yeah, we just had before. Okay, it was just it was just while we Okay.

17:44

Where's my letter if you're gonna play this one. So my mailbox has been empty all week. So

17:48

17:50

the only box yours has been empty all week.

17:52

Actually. No. Mine over there. So yeah, it has. I got myself for plenty last week. So I see.

17:59

I see. As you look at me for what?

18:03

You weren't here. I mean, you weren't there. You didn't partake.

18:05

I know. Merlin wants to announce something. Why didn't you guys delegate some responsibility? Okay.

18:08

18:10

You want me to do that now?

18:14

We're circling the drain.

18:18

Okay. At the Houston Museum of Natural Science, there's on June 4 2005. There will be a exhibition Lord of the Rings motion picture trilogy. The exhibition takes visitors behind the scenes of the academy award winning winning film and opens up the world of Middle Earth for exploration. I saw a bumper sticker that said welcome to Miller, middle of June Now go home to me. We're gonna be down at the Museum of Natural Science.

- - - -

18:55

19:03

Okay, this ground by breaking exhibition brings the fascinating world of movie making to life through hundreds of pieces of memorabilia from the epic film trilogy. It was kinda like that Star Wars magic myth thing that they did fine arts. Few years ago. That was fabulous. The Lord of the Rings films combined science and engineering with creative creativity and imagination, said Joel Barsh, president of the museum. And so they're going to, that's going to be cool. That'll be at 12:01am on June 4 2005. So go see that. It's like there's going to be all kinds of stuff, interactive stuff and discussions about the technology that created the massive amount of CGI that people don't realize just how much was sets and how much wasn't really there that they had to play. As if it was all the monsters all the half of the armies in that thing were weren't really there. You know that it was all created in on a computer.

20:22

What's his name?

20:24

Critters? Yeah.

20:27

That was the thing called Gollum. Yeah. Is Gollum is completely CGI. He's based on somebody making the moves, that every move that he does, but for an entire movie, they're playing to someone who's not there. It was, and it was fabulous. I mean, 20:48

that's how a lot of movies are coming out 20:51

in history with their programs on that thing with the way they designed every like during the war scenes, because every little soldier, fighter warrior person thing, they all had their own life. And every time they would redo it, they all had their own. Like they would not repeat the same accent it was like, was completely different time now it's like ran yet, so they're going to actually do special effects demonstrations and talk about how the trick photography was done. And how they made the hobbits look shorter. You know, all the tricks of how it was done. It's got this looks like it's going to be absolutely fabulous. Tickets for the exhibition are 1750 for adults, 1450 for children, and children, three to 11 and seniors 62 and up. If you're a museum member, it's only 950 and 1350 for groups of 20 or more. So yeah, get a group together go to this thing. It's going to be like, get a group together anyway.

21:13

22:03

My boys hidden them for later. All right, thanks.

22:08

He's already set up an orgy.

22:12

So, so yeah, go see this thing. It's going to be fabulous. June 4 2005.

22:20

Kind of interesting little story here to throw out for discussion to the group. This is comes out of New York, Antonin Scalia. Supreme Court Justice was a crook. Now. He went to New York University to receive an honor. And from the annual survey of American law. He was now Antonin Scalia, if you remember is the dissenting opinion. In Lawrence v. Texas. He criticized the decision to overturn a law that criminalized sodomy. While on the court, he voted for the right to desecrate the American flag and the right to abortion and the right to engage in homosexual sex. Which I don't get that for right. But here's the interesting thing. They had a question and answer session. And one of the students a law student, Eric Burt stood up and asked, Do you sodomized your wife? Scalia refused to answer the question, while the crowd gasped and administrative promptly turned off the microphone. What kind of chutzpah to stand up and the bad part is this. There's no recording of this because Antonin Scalia doesn't believe in transparency. So if he's reporting if he's speaking at an event, there's no recording allowed. But this guy stood up and said, Do you sodomized your wife that takes them Kahunas?

23:55

23:59

Any sort of trouble for that.

24:06

There's somebody who actually asked a question somebody might want an answer to.

24:11

Yeah, and, of course, a lot of protests involved with that. But it's very interesting thing that someone would stand up and say the first thing unfortunately, you know, the daily rotten is letting me down. That's the only thing we have to know why wouldn't answer my question, and well, this is making laws on people's personal lives and deciding on what's legal and what's not people's personal life as part of business. And part of his dissent was there's no such thing as privacy when it comes to that sort of thing. But just because of something that happens in his personal life doesn't mean he's going to tell other people know, just because I, you know, don't practice certain things doesn't mean I'm going to tell you not, let's say you don't know that he could set aside his personal opinions for what that's where He stands on public record assuming just because, you know, maybe he doesn't do that with his wife that he's going on. Okay. But the fact the fact is this already has as a Supreme Court justice dissented in the decision to overturn the court case where sodomy law in Texas, who said, 25:21

24:30

24:37

24:44

24:57

25:01

25:07

Would it change anything? If he does? But the fact is, if you're a parent and you smoke cigarettes, would you tell your children it's okay to vote? Here's No, I think it's wrong. Okay. But here's what it's okay for you to do it.

25:34

There's a reason why the question came is because of the fact that when this privacy issue came before the Supreme Court, he said that something like that there's no right to privacy. So by saying that sex has no right to privacy, what you do in the privacy of your own bedroom, the state has the authority to ignore your privacy and invade the fact that sex between two men or sex prosecuting criminals see in Texas, the law was all it was a homosexual conduct law, actually, where basically, you know, if the police were to kick in a door, and they walk in, and there's, you know, king sized bed, and you've got two guys going at it, and two women going at it, and a man or a woman going at it, and they are doing the traditional on all fours, do it like the animals, all four of them were engaged in that the two men, we could go to jail, the two women can go to jail, the man and the woman doing the same exact Act was not illegal in Texas, which in this case, is exactly what happened. And he's kicked in the door. I'm having sit down two men, two men having sex. So the fact of saying that there is no privacy to the sexual act, that person was just very simply taking his word of saying, you know, if, if the act of sex has no privacy and can be invaded by the state, and my anyone who questions it, to ask that question, and technically under, you know, the broadest conservative Christian view of sodomy, we're not just talking about the words of great of the horrible singer just strike or popping her in the pooper. We're also talking about sword swallowing. We're also talking about woman writing on top is considered deviant, sexual heretofore acts outside the position outside or otherwise.

26:39

26:45

27:34

27:39

So unfortunately, those lies laws were applied unfairly towards gay men, because you're in because you're in Texas, that was they originally had a sodomy statute back in 1972. There were some Democrats in the House and they rewrote the statute and what year were those two guys arrested?

27:44

27:55

27:58

90 that was reached 9798

28:01

was when 28:04

things started because a neighbor downstairs called the police and said there was a burglary.

28:10

What was what it was, it was a disgruntled man who was thinking it was going to be a three way and God cut out. So he went downstairs and said, Hey, and said, Hey, uh, please, I just saw a black guy with a gun go into this into this apartment. So in the sticks where they were living, oh, like guy with a gun. They know, the police figured, hey, we're shooting practice time and kicked in the door went looking for this guy. And there's two adult men, consensually having sex together who get taken to jail out of the privacy of their own apartment.

28:36

28:42

Oh, by the way, does anybody recall whether or not charges were ever filed against that question on whether he thought it was his wife or not said that this isn't okay, practice. So why isn't it okay to find out about him?

28:46

28:56

He's not under persecution. These people are given the responsibility to make these decisions and then you're going to complain about it. Yeah. But the fact is this, okay, you've got nine people on the Supreme Court. And basically, their job is to interpret the Constitution. Exactly. So they're supposed to sit down and think of what people's wrote up 260 something years ago,

29:03

29:24

Jimmy, how long how many years it goes is irrelevant. People shot is the interpret the Constitution. That's their job. If they disagree, you can't get your panties in a twist every time.

29:33

But the fact is this. You're talking about when it's discriminatory.

29:38

Discriminatory to somebody

29:40

but no, the fact is this. The Texas law that went before the Supreme Court was specifically against like I said, you know, it was against and again, turns out, but this this person here who is a very good candidate, that was a very good candidate, very likely candidates from like I say he was good for being the next Chief Justice, who really gets to steer the court in their direction. And because that's one of the Bush's allies, strong allies is Antonin Scalia. So we're talking about someone who's going to be really making policy on here and interpreting this. But considering what we had back then, you know, just like recently, not just one person makes a decision, not obviously not just his opinion was, you know, effect it was fun, overturn. So I'd say it was, it was what sees just one person, he's not going to make every law that decides how everyone else lives.

30:24

30:40

In animals, in a way he does, because each one of the Supreme Courts is one of the Supreme Court justices is in charge of a district in the United States. So when the case comes through a Texas like that, it goes to one of the Supreme Courts who decide, how do I even consider TEXAS like that, it goes to one of the Supreme Courts who decide, hey, do I even consider taking this to the whole supreme court to grant a British surrogate or sortition? I think I forgot how the Latin term Securi. So basically, it has to go through a filter of that, just like, I don't know who it is for Texas. But like with all the Terry Chavo things they had to take and submit the writ to specifically I believe it was Justice Kennedy, who had to decide whether or not to take it to the Supreme Court to have for the justices say, let's talk about this. So the fact of he's a gatekeeper of before it goes to the Supreme Court of where he's at now. Yeah, it's one voice. But very simply, he's a strong voice. And as a pretty good chance of moving to being like I said, to be chief justice, because right now with what they've got on there, it's either going to their when they when Rehnquist finally does retire. We're talking about either Scalia, or the other name that's been mentioned is Clarence Thomas. But that's, that's the unfortunately, that's where it's coming from, even though yes, it's all about. It's all about a person's right to privacy and all that. But like the fact that we've got one person there, who is said very clearly said, you know, you don't have the right to do that. And if he's going to be the one guiding it, and he's he's a fairly young guy, he's fairly young man compared to say Rehnquist, so someone who's going to be having a look, if he does become Supreme Court Chief just ever been, he is going to be running it for quite a few years.

32:42

But not just as opinion matters. All the people that you guys voted for will be, you know, having the final say, but if you want to the Supreme Court has not voted for we don't vote for the people who select the Supreme Court.

32:49

32:54

32:59

Sorry, yeah, I didn't vote for bursaries.

33:01

But I know, you're in a room full of gay man, we hate bus, the Supreme, the Supreme Court justices in every level, you know, are either appointed by the president with the consent of Congress, and the way that they're working on it now, that be that, because they're having the same problem with the federal judiciary hearings. They're trying to change the rules to make it easier to just need a rubber stamp, whoever, once you get an appointment to these positions for life, in the federal judge levels for that in the Supreme Court, and they're trying to change the rules, and in a way partially change. The Constitution, the rules matter, obviously, it seems like these rules are being broken, and you're choosing to have a civil disobedience. So even if they make it a law, again, saying that we don't think this is the right, that's not going to change how you live, it's not going to change.

33:41

33:54

But it does change the fact for those two men that were in the privacy of their own home, that they were arrested, and it changes if if I'm in my home, and somebody says, Oh, look, somebody's coming in, or Oh look, there's a fire, or somebody comes barging into my apartment, and I'm elbow deep in some guy that I go to jail for, fill in my waiting. If that law is changed to where that can't happen, and this person's opinion, is not publicly out there. On this level of hey, this is an okay practice, then there's no question that what I'm doing that is between me and another consensual, another consenting adult has any legal bearing on anybody else's life. You know, I don't have to go to jail. My partner doesn't have to go to jail. I don't have to hire attorneys. I don't have to take this case to the Supreme Court. I don't have to make my private life public, which is what this man is doing. And that's what he says is okay, you know, if you want to get a good head job in your car, per se, from a hot young chick, then under under the under, like I said, under the definite the broad definition of sodomy. You know, it wasn't illegal in Texas but other states that had a full sodomy statute, oral sex between a man and a woman was illegal. And that was the law. And that law was struck and was struck down in 13 states that had a a pure sodomy law, because it was interpreted it was expanded out from the homosexual conduct law that we had here.

35:05

35:35

You're already seeing these strict Christian values certain the loosen up a little bit, so I don't see what you guys have anything to worry, okay. 13 states got their sodomy laws, and how many more states are there? The other thing, it's a beginning is that the other thing make it sound like it's gonna stop now. It's not gonna stop, obviously.

35:54

But the thing is having the law on the books, even though people are not generally arrested for sodomy, in fact, there's only two or three cases in the last 20 years of anyone being arrested. The fact remains that the law was on the books, and it was used in different ways. It was used to keep gay people from being police officers in Houston. Because obviously, if you're gay, you're a law breaker.

36:25

That'd be every level, it's gonna affect any. Someone has a personal affliction with crack cocaine, and it's okay to sell crack in the privacy of their own home, but let's build okay, if the cops go to their house and arrest them in their private homes, for something that they're doing that the people say is what was put this way? Okay, ignoring a drug reference on that? Do you think it would be wrong? For some for you go into work one day. And your boss says, I hear that you like sleeping with man, you're fired?

36:41

36:58

Oh, of course, that's wrong.

36:59

Right happens all the time.

37:01

That was part of the justification they had for it. Because we were we were committing a crime. That what about you come home one day. And you know, your landlord says, hey, you know, you got two guys in a chip in a two bedroom apartment. But I came up to change the air filter I know is one of your bedrooms is an office. So that means the two of you are sleeping in the same room, get the hell out of my apartment complex. And legally that could happen. They can legally do that when the sodomy law was still on the 37:31

37:30

books. And it's, there's no, there's no sort of protection. You know, you being a straight guy. You know, imagine you walk in in one day and say, Yeah, I hear you like, going down, you're a month diver. You just You just like you just really treat the women good. And I don't want you around my work. You know, I can't have someone who does that sort of yeah, that's, that's that's the ridiculous part. Yeah. But that's the extreme that you can be fired for that will take him to jail. We're taking, taking the jail, you're in your apartment here most dive in.

38:01

She's loving it. You're in the throes, her legs are wrapped around your ear so that you can hear. And all of a sudden, you're handcuffed muff on your chin and I wouldn't be against?

♂ 38:20

Is your lifestyle, something you're willing to go to jail for? Is it something that is a part of you that you feel comfortable enough with yourself to see okay.

♂ 38:32

I got a question here. Because maybe because the way you're saying

♂ 38:36

you are saying Do you ♂ 38:38

think any man in this room chose to be gay?

♂ 38:46

I'm not. That's not what I'm trying to say you're set. You're saying it's a lifestyle, that saying that someone in this room chose to be gay? Because let me put you this way, saying that someone would willingly choose to be gay. Even in this year of 2005 is almost paramount to saying, hey, if I had the technology, can I turn you to a black man and Alabama in 1950? That's completely different. No, in fact, because really, if we still hold on, wait a minute, I have a scenario when you developed sexuality, and you figured out that you were attracted to women.

♂ 38:49

♂ 39:17

♂ 39:32

And you were like, women are claiming mine Twinkie man. Did you think about it? Okay, just kind of like there for you.

39:42

That's what I want to know. He said you've never made a choice to have some guy do the things he does to you. It's a choice. We make that thing that you desire.

39:56

What part is the choice I'm asking. Did you choose was to be attracted to women

40:03

choose to have sex with one 40:07

was about desire did you choose to have the desire to be with women? What day in your life? Did you wake up and say, I am I want to be straight? Not I am but I want to be straight. I don't want to see I want to just ours to act on those things.

40:23

40:25

Well, you can I know plenty of gay men who are gay and choose to abstain from sex. Okay, but that doesn't, but that doesn't make us any less. Okay. And 40:41

40:33

it doesn't make it any more right for someone to invade these two men's privacy and make their private life and their sexual life a public issue. They were in private, they were not in public. There's no sexual offense going on by any unless you're a straight person barging in to see them. You know, who has really no right to disagree with you. But you're making it sound as if I'm disagreement disagree with you. But you're making it sound as if I'm disagreement.

41:06

41:11

But your job and your your say you you're 41:13

saying it's a lifestyle, and you're saying that it's okay for this man, you know, I'll admit I'll admit this part. Okay. Like I said, when I was younger, you know, I would look at my father's Playboy's and penthouses and it worked because I was told it would work and then after a while of seeing the pictures and going oh, yeah, it stopped working so I I did the traditional thing I started reading the articles I was just demand at that age and was ready to put it anywhere that was willing so you know Yeah, I was because I was taught you know, this is supposed to turn me on it's supposed to have this effect well what is why is the word lifestyle have such a negative connotation? Went to gay lifestyle your bedroom Blue was a lifestyle we had what is 41:57

41:17

41:47

41:54

the game but what okay, what's the how you live? How do you how you live your life, but how do you strike go to places where homosexuals are you act in ways were homosexual, that's a lifestyle. Now make it sound like a bad thing. It's not a bad because it's used as as college. When when several when people use the term lifestyle, they make it seem like it is a choice, that when they use that term, lifestyle, has that connotation of you know, they made a choice. You know, I'm the snowboarding lifestyle, or you know, the skeet shooting lifestyle, or lifestyles are the same way lifestyle, which could be I'm a straight boy, computer geek, or it could be the straight boy, I'm a football player. Or it could be the straight boy. You know, like, I don't ever get laid. It could be any any.

42:05

42:13

42:37

42:51

We're not trying to gang up on the straight guy here. What we're trying to say is that our desire for men is natural and it's not a choice.

43:04

And we're 43:07

going all apoplectic. Yeah, timeout,

43:08

we have a call. We have a caller was putting their two cents worth. Sam, you were on the air? Yes. Hello. Hi. Yes.

43:15

I just want to say that everybody's full of crap on the radio on this crap. You know, like straight people. That's a choice to being gay. That's not a choice. Okay. I want everyone to recognize that fact. I want everybody to put it out there. All right. All right. Thank you. Thank you.

43:36

Thank you for making Muncie natural and the other one seemed natural. That's okay. You're saying that we're 43:41

43:41

making the bolts completely natural but 43:45

but the fact is that other people when we get it when you get into these debates, people put it the fact that we that homosexuality is completely unnatural

43:57

arrogance it's humans putting themselves above nature in 44:02

conversation earlier, when you when you label something a gay lifestyle. Okay, you you set in the idea that we all go to the same clubs and bars that we all frequent the same restaurants that we all frequent the same grocery stores that we all frequent. The same.

44:03

44:25

Hold on, hold on, Sam. Okay, hold on. I want to get I want to get around here a little bit quiet here. Sam. Sam, Sam. Sam, are you there? Yes, sir. Okay, I just wanted to I wanted to get the roundtable quiet. Okay, go ahead, make make a final comment here. Okay, I want to make a final so what's the difference between the onion and a prostitute?

44:39

44:43

Okay, I'll bite what?

44:46

I don't cry when I cut up a prostitute.

44:49

Oh, thank you, Sam. Please lose our phone number. All right.

44:56

I think just because I use the word lifestyle you're trying to use you'd lost the essence of what I was trying to say what I was trying to say is this is something you believe in, right? This is something that's a part of you. Now, if someone disagrees with that, so what? You can't change that? And if the law say that you can't change that, either. So is it something you're willing to sacrifice a little bit of your freedom to be who you are given said the right way. But the fact is, that's the whole essence of civil design, believe we should lose a little bit of our freedom to be who we are.

45:22

45:25

I believe it's wrong. But if it happens, you shouldn't, you know, that's the that's the fact is, you know, there's all this talk about, you know, special rights to go to jail for math diving.

45:29

45:34

45:37

If it was something I believed in, yes, you know, I guess it sounds like you're not willing to make a sacrifice. This is something you believe in, you shouldn't be afraid to say that. It's not that I'm not willing to make the sacrifices. It's not that I haven't decided 45:49

45:45

It is a transcript of a recorded conversation. The text is not necessarily a direct quote and may contain errors or variations from the original speech.

it is the fact that we should should, we shouldn't have to make that choice. You don't have to No, no, no more and more. But in somebody should have to make the choice of raising hell because their lover dying in a hospital, or letting the family take over the family who doesn't care, and hadn't been there for the 20 years that the lover had to change. If they make it along, and they don't make the will it's not going to change.

46:14

46:20

But it is just be who you are, but not the second stream. But I guess the Jewish shouldn't have said about the Holocaust, because they only lost a few few right now. That's not go

46:31

there now that

46:34

we're just but we're not, we're not going to get the point is we're not asking for anything special. We're not asking for anything more than anyone else. As 46:42

I like I said, you

46:43

know, the so right, just screw in my bedroom without the fear of going to jail. If I'm doing it in the alleyway, and you see me, I'm willing to go to jail, because I like public say, You know what I'm saying, and I know that's nothing wrong.

47:01

But like we said, if, if, before these laws were changed, okay, if the police would have kicked in the door, and they found you want to go to the going down woman and found Stacey and they're going down, smiley, Stacy and smiley are going to jail. You're not

47:17

I agree that that's wrong.

47:19

And that, but even 47:20

if they make it a law, and it's not, that's not going to change who I am, that's not going to change what is going to change our rights as people because like our rights as a, as a as a group of people to engage in the activity we want to engage in without fear or risk, because you also have to look at it this way, even though even even though the law was you know, it was a Class C misdemeanor, three misdemeanors, and your habitual criminal, that's a felony. So you can see how something very simple that you know, normally, you'd be given basically a parking citation for, for committing this offense. But a lot of times spending your life in prison over three strikes, you're out rule, and you know, John, does Miley be in big trouble? So I've gotten three strikes this week. But that's horrible. We're looking at it like that. When you when you said, when you use the term lifestyle, like I said, that does set off people in our community because, you know, if you want to put up a little lifestyle, what you got in your pocket there? That's a lifestyle. You know, that's smoky. We don't have a patch to cure homosexuality.

47:26

47:37

48:01

48:06

48:32 or Republican.

48:34

It was considered a disease until 1975. Homosexual disease, homosexuality was considered a mental disorder until 1975.

48:46

But it's not anymore. No, it was 48:49

a bear trying to actually there's a there's a movement, some people to put it back on the books. I want to take the straight pill and go banks and brides but now the key question that they ask is, I can understand why the me saying lifestyle, even if possible, using the wrong terminology would upset you. But you make it sound like it's almost a bad thing that you choose to be who you are, You'd rather believe it's some natural thing that you can't help more that way. You don't have to feel bad about what you do.

49:01

49:19

We're not choosing anything

49:26

can be natural, and it can be a choice. You make it sound like it's a bad thing to choose to do the things you do you want it to do. You want to talk about choice. The choices I made having to do with sex was my babysitter when I lived in Pennsylvania. And Jennifer Kay I'm not gonna say her full name when I was in the fifth grade. And we got negative lay down in the closet together. That was the last choice I was sex I've you know, seeing what it was like that was it. I know factor like the fact that this is more like an addiction. Yeah, I just got it. Yeah, the fact the fact that came down to a point where I mean, I went to this event and February the the loved one out. And, you know, I was having this crisis beforehand going on. There was people that I associate with that there was a 5050 bet that I was coming back as gay or straight. They weren't there was they were that uncertain if I was going to get my brain washed at this event, because of some of the questions I was going through. It's like, you know, I'm already unhappy. I might as well at least avoid getting a break against the head.

49:31

49:55

50:01

50:35

What we're trying to say is our desire for other men is just as natural to us as your desire for other women is natural to you.

50:43

Oh, I agree completely. And that's not I wasn't trying to infer anything.

50:48

And my gay lifestyle is 99.9% of the time you will find me with 110% heterosexual men. You will find me hanging out with your doing their hair, you will find you will find me in 99% frequented heterosexual oriented businesses, whether it be restaurants or clubs or bars or whatever. I'm a member of another organization, and there isn't gay Affiliated Organization that's a part of and I really don't go to the gay club in that organization. I'm in the mainstream heterosexual Zondra have that. You know, so, you know, things that are typical, I like Madonna. I like Tori Amos. I like arranger I'm a hairdresser out Chihuahuas. Okay. And I love painting

51:46

Yeah, okay, let's stop reading up the straight guy we like the straight guy. We want him to come back and do more

51:52

51:56

and he's been an incredibly tolerant good sport.

51:59

And you know we're not anti straight because if it wasn't for you breeders we wouldn't have you know, there's not enough Turkey racers to go around for all of us. Everything

52:12

everybody I know came from straight people so it's straight people who make us there's no there's a couple of guys in the room here. You know, we've been trying to get pregnant but this is my parents are straight. Damn,

52:18

52:23

I've tried to get pregnant. No, the doctor says kids aren't possible but I say try try try.

52:24

52:29

Like when we did the Christopher Reiser interview he was saying you know he was trying to get pregnant is just told me what uterus was and attached to my 52:39

52:34

boyfriend just couldn't get pregnant.

52:42

They're gonna try it auction. Okay, well, we're about out of time, folks. You got two minutes left.

52:49

I think it's time to let everyone know that you've got your 32nd warning. RJ

52:54

alright me back. Goodnight.

52:58

Plus the day much love See you next time. Joshua.

53:02

Listen to Van Halen.

53:05

I do I do I plan to do

53:09

anything else to say?
