Now we are privileged to have the dancing town with us. Here's Kay Harper

Kay Harper 00:12

Hi, this is Kay Harper with the community bulletin board. As long as I'm here, they're gonna make me work. Anyway, what's going on coming up in our community. On Monday, April 9 Montrose activity center is having a special board meeting at St. Cheese at 714, West Alabama. If you're interested in going or just you're certainly welcome. If you want to know what's going on call 52912 to three. On Tuesday, go out and vote that's Election Day. Also Wildenstein. We'll be doing primary runoff election returns and coverage from nine until 11 here on KPFT, call five to six 4000 for more information. On Wednesday, the 11th. The Women's Network is going to be doing a program on issues confronting women of color. A panel of women will share their experiences as women of color particularly in the lesbian community in Houston and other cities should be a real interesting discussion. And that's at the Montrose Counseling Center from seven until nine Montrose Counseling Center center. Is it 9000 Love it 900 Love it 9000 is longer than love it is the 900 love it. And second floor it's in the round room for more information call 5290037 on Saturday tisket a tasket which is the largest fund or food drive for stone soup will be happening at Mary's and that's going to be from 10 until six in the Mary's parking lot. To find out more about that call 521 1000 Coming up later on Montrose. Montrose says favorite art festival the West time our colony art festival will be happening Saturday and Sunday the 21st and 22nd of April, there will be something called Art throb at the West Tamar colony Arts Festival this time, that's original work by local artists for sale, and 40% of the proceeds are going to get a stone soup. And that's going to be at art booth number 281. On the corner of love it and Montrose. And that evening, Saturday evening, the Lone Star Symphonic Band will be having their spring concert of the 1990 concert series with guest performers of the turtle from the Turtle Creek chorale from Dallas. And that's at eight o'clock at Hammond Hall to get tickets to find out more call 8625058 or 5224282 Coming up sooner than we expect. much sooner than we expect. switchboards having spring training, and they're going to be training found volunteers. It's a 34 hour course and people are encouraged to apply. We're looking especially right now for people of color and women. To sign up for that you need to call the gay and lesbian switchboard at 5293211. And that's may 4 through sixth and the 12th and 13th. On May 14 through Montrose activity center, we'll be having another board meeting this is their regularly scheduled one as opposed to a intermediate one or a special session of the legislature or whatever that is. Anyway. It's been good to be back. And this has been K Harper with the community bulletin board, as always to find out what's going on in our community called the gay and lesbian switchboard at 5293211. There's somebody there from 430 to midnight, seven days a week and they're there just to listen or to give you referrals to businesses and organizations here in the community. I'll take care.

J Jimmy Carper 03:52
KPFT you're on the on the air

B Buddy Johnston 03:54
We're on the air?

J Jimmy Carper 03:55
Yes, sir.

B Buddy Johnston 03:58
Don't say sir.

J Jimmy Carper 04:00
How you doing buddy?

B Buddy Johnston 04:02
Terrible. So what's next Saturday?

J Jimmy Carper 04:05
Okay.

B Buddy Johnston 04:06
I'm calling from the lobby of the Best Western in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

J Jimmy Carper 04:11
Is that where the action is on Saturday night?

B Buddy Johnston 04:13
Oh, child. They have one gay bar here.

J Jimmy Carper 04:17
one count of 140

B Buddy Johnston 04:20
or 50. Queens packed into it. Yeah. Where did the women go? I have no idea. It's terrible. I remember now I left here 15 years ago.

J Jimmy Carper 04:31
Sometimes the bad memories kind of get smoothed over with time. Yeah,

B Buddy Johnston 04:36
I guess you told everybody my daddy died. Yeah, I did. Oh, actually, he died about 15 years ago, but he really died this past Thursday. And how are you? Well, we're getting what I mean, after that a child or you had a family reunion. And one of the first things they wanted me to do is take the hearing on my hair please The kind of things you forget about when you're on your own and away from that.

J Jimmy Carper 05:00

B Buddy Johnston 05:04
Yeah, no. But I've seen, I'm really lucky because my grandmother gave me her car to drive around. And I'm staying with my aunt. I don't have to see my mother. Lovely mother, as much as possible. But anyway, all in all, it'll be fine. The funerals gonna be Monday, so I won't be back on Monday. Okay. I will see you and Roger.

J Jimmy Carper 05:35
You will? You bet at the airport picking your body up? Yeah, I bet you will? You bet at the airport picking your body up? Yeah, I bet.

B

Buddy Johnston 05:44

The two of you will be there by yourself. Right? Yeah.

J

Jimmy Carper 05:46

Okay. Commercial want to give out the flight information, and we can have a party at the airport. Unless you want to give out the flight information. And then we can have a party at the airport.

B

Buddy Johnston 05:57

Now, I wish we were having a party in Fort Smith and I luck

J

Jimmy Carper 06:01

really, really,

B

Buddy Johnston 06:02

anyway, it's just horrible. Because so many gay lesbian people lose their parents when things happen. And I did. And we've talked about this on the show before we sure have coming home and having to deal with it face to face is really the pit. And I'll tell you all about it next Saturday. Okay, okay.

J

Jimmy Carper 06:21

Everybody's been asking for you. Everybody's been asking for what?

B

Buddy Johnston 06:25

Tell everyone. I'm okay. They can hear you. Oh, they can't. We're on the radio. We're on the radio, baby. Just tell him

J

Jimmy Carper 06:30

B

Buddy Johnston 06:33

that. Everybody. It's okay. It's really lousy. But you know, this too? Shall Pass. Yeah. And next week, we'll be there. But I I just miss you so much. I really do. It's the first time I've really been away away.

J Jimmy Carper 06:46
Tell me baby, it's not the same here with

B Buddy Johnston 06:50
so much I watched the Crockett 12. And now, but it just like, does not feel right. It's one eight team and I was a little bar and I left to come call you because I just miss you all so much. And I know you're thinking about me. And I appreciate all that. Everything will be fine. I'll be back next, next Saturday night. I just wanted to play a song from my daddy. Oh, yeah, just as dedication because I know deep down on his heart, he really loved me. But because of the society and the way the world is the things the pressures that society puts on our parents, sometimes they don't ever have a chance to really figure out how they feel. Yeah. And for my dad, it's a little bit too late. But I know that deep down in his heart, he loved me. I know that deep down in his heart. He was proud of the fact that I work for the police department in Houston. And I know that he knows there are a lot of good people, including all of you that really care a lot about me. So I wanted to play a song for him by Chris spears. It's called where angels fly.

J Jimmy Carper 07:53
I think we better put that right down.

B Buddy Johnston 07:56
I'll see you next week.

J Jimmy Carper 07:57
Take care baby. We love you.

K Kay Harper 07:58
Love you baby Okay, this next one is since we're all doing dedications I wanted to do this for a friend of mine who's kind of in a rough place. And so this is for you rose

J Jimmy Carper 08:41
that was pretty. It's 127. Sunday morning. You're listening to KPFT after hours, radio celebrating life.

K Kay Harper 08:50
From the heart of the Montrose.

J Jimmy Carper 08:52
Thank you. Thank you. Hey, mate, it's

K Kay Harper 08:55
didn't stick around here. No,

J Jimmy Carper 08:56
no, no, no, this seems to be dedication night. It really does. We're getting all of these messages. You know, please play this. Please pay for it. We don't have a lot of what's been asked for we do have some and we'll try to get to it. Sometimes we may have to Serb. But I have a dedication. Do you Yeah. This is kind of a Fave of mine. It's by the kinks. And it's a real strange little song that came out early 70. Yeah. And it was just a really strange subject matter. For the early seven days, especially since the song was so popular. But there is a waiter. Oh for it, Charlie's. I really, really like in fact, I have followed this waiter from steak and Ale. And then he went to the pot pie. And now he's at Charlie's Yes, I say he's here. II I don't even know this man's real name all I know this man as is Lola. Baby This is for you

K Kay Harper 10:17
Okay, next in our list of roving dedications to Joanne from Kim Melissa Etheridge is watching you

J Jimmy Carper 10:43
okay, it's 138 Sunday morning. This is KPFT radio, celebrating life from the heart Montrose. And celebrating life, unfortunately sometimes means celebrating loss. That's a part of life as we found out here, as we're finding out tonight, and as we're going to find out in the next song coming up, I have a special dedication to Damien. And I have a special special dedication to Eugene, wherever you are.

K Kay Harper 11:38
Okay, and this next one is for Ken who just got back with a date and he wants us to play something warm and romantic. And I figured this one sounded good. It's called then he kissed me

 Jimmy Carper 11:59
there you go Can something nice? Something nice and romantic. Actually, that's probably the closest we're ever gonna get to heavy metal on after hours.

 Kay Harper 12:14
And that's a group called the Hollywood brats. And it's just a wonderful song and I couldn't resist.

 Jimmy Carper 12:22
Really, really? It's great. It's great.

 Kay Harper 12:25
should see the the man on the cover with this mustache and anchor being kissed by blonde man.

 Jimmy Carper 12:31
Speaking of blonde man, yes. And yes, yes, yes, yes, yes. And our next we do have a dedication for the blonde bombshell. That's it. Nope.

 12:58

 13:38
I remember when I first heard about getting high. my so called friends said it will make me feel better than anything. That was my 12th birthday. Was it three years ago? seems so long ago. Now on top of stealing from my family for drugs, I've been given up my body for it too. But with age on the street, I really don't know what's next.

14:01

There are many ways you can get high like shooting up and sharing needles, smoking, crack or drinking and all of them can put you at risk of getting the AIDS virus because when you're out there on a high you don't think clearly and you may take foolish risks to lead drugs put you at risk. In fact, don't do drugs at all. They can destroy your mind as well as your body. Find out more about how drug use and aids are related call the National AIDS hotline. One 803 four to eight. America responds to AIDS this year.

14:40

This is Barbara and my buddy Petey. Jimmy Carper 15:29

Okay, we're back after hours radio celebrating life from the heart of Montrose and coming up at three o'clock. Roger will be reading from a way of life away of love or is it the other way around? How Okay. And now I have a special dedication to buddy from juice and broody. You know who you are?

Kay Harper 16:06

And that was Michael Callen. Our next song is by a woman named Hunter Davis and it's called 10% masquerade and it's for everybody who, for whatever reason chooses not to be out right now.
