Brother to Brother Brother to Brother, Brother to Brother, Brother to brother. This is [inaudible] reminding you that you've tuned into this way out the international gay and lesbian radio magazine

Christopher David Trenton 00:23

This is Christopher David Trenton for this way out. Sunday, October 11 marks the fifth observance of National Coming Out Day. Lynch apod, executive director of the nonprofit National Coming Out Day organization in Santa Fe, New Mexico, explains the history and importance of this observance.

Nancy Rodriguez 00:41

The mission of National Coming Out Day is to inspire lesbians and gay men to live honest, open lives to become role models for future generations and to live with dignity and self esteem. We encourage people in every possible way to take the next step in the coming out process. A little bit of history, if you will. Oct. 11, in 1987, was the March on Washington. The inaugural visit of the names project the AIDS quilt to the nation's capitol. It also happens to be Eleanor Roosevelt's birthday. So we thought in terms of lesbian, gay visibility, that was a perfect punch to it.

Christopher David Trenton 01:16

National Coming Out Day is now observed in all 50 states in the US, and a growing number of nations around the world in Brighton England, for the first time, 30 Latina gay organizations have come together to form a coming out support group and on Thursday nights at a local pub. They have volunteers who go into the pub and sit there with big green badges. And if you're gay, and you want to come out to somebody for the first time, you can go talk to somebody with a big green badge. One of my favorites this year is in Keene, New Hampshire, that's a university town and happens to be Homecoming weekend, next weekend. And in the homecoming parade through town. The Gay and Lesbian folks have created a gay Coming Out Day float to ride in the homecoming parade along with the football team, etc. National Coming Out Day has a great fortune, I think to be three weeks away from the elections. And I think this is going to be a powerful impact on the voting public. Look here the personal is the political, we are seeing a huge visibility effort in the states of Colorado and Oregon. Because people are having to come out to enroll their acquaintances in not voting for those two horrible propositions that are going on in those two states. If we can say it again, the personal is the political. Most people who realize that they know gay and lesbian people overwhelmingly support our issues. Most people when they don't believe they know anybody, gay or lesbian, they overwhelmingly oppose our issues. It's as simple as that. Once they realize that we don't have tails and horns, they think twice before they vote in a way that will be damaging or hurtful to us. Coming out is a commitment to your own future to your own future with honesty and integrity.

01:24

Christopher David Trenton 03:02

Lynn Chapin is the Executive Director of National Coming Out Day to find out more about National Coming Out Day activities. The organization can be reached by telephone at area code 505982258 Or you can write them at National Coming Out Day. Brian Bradley 03:45

Scott Lewis 03:50

Oh, well. She can't be more of a hick than you are anyway we're back and we're gonna we're gonna sit here and bitch at each other in a few minutes but first I want to do don't tell them that they'll go away.

Brian Bradley 04:00

S Scott Lewis 04:02
Nope trust me all this is the most exciting and the most fun

B Brian Bradley 04:06
that I've had in a long time.

S Scott Lewis 04:07
Well this is true too. They will have to talk about that to my husband my hunt prey husband

B Brian Bradley 04:14
bag is still in the hunt continues

S Scott Lewis 04:17
well so is your basket but we're not gonna get into that.

B Brian Bradley 04:20
We could call this The Hunt for Red October. You are

S Scott Lewis 04:25
are the absolute lay my hair alone so

B Brian Bradley 04:31
I wouldn't talk about just the hair you know The Hunt for Red October was a submarine

S Scott Lewis 04:38
to go where those

B Brian Bradley 04:39
are you being compared to a big thing and water before

S

Scott Lewis 04:50

okay, what we're gonna do here are the most hateful. So this is what you're in store for. So stay tuned right now. I'm going to send this out to my little Chris out in Kingwood my Little Modine, this is for you. And we're back with a cough

B

Brian Bradley 05:09

better than a cop. And

S

Scott Lewis 05:12

this is true, which we're all pretty, pretty close to at this age.

B

Brian Bradley 05:17

I'll give me the box man came in.

S

Scott Lewis 05:22

Oh, well, this is the most exciting part of the whole show. Because this is when Brian and I

B

Brian Bradley 05:27

pull your pants up.

Scott Lewis 05:31

You know, we promised or we said we were going to do nude radio this time. And I forgot all about it. That's the studio audience that you just heard. And their vote of confidence of me doing nude radio.

B

Brian Bradley 05:47

How about me? Yeah. Now all 3000 of you sit down and shut up.

S

Scott Lewis 05:53

And in the studio today are Brian's ex lovers. All 3000 of them killed you're gonna have to let us know whether you like those cats or not. We can leave them at home.

B Brian Bradley 06:00

S Scott Lewis 06:09
But you know, Brian would have to leave his hair at home if he did. So.

B Brian Bradley 06:13
We don't want to talk about hair. If we're going to talk about you know,

S Scott Lewis 06:16
you don't like new color. I went back to my natural color. It ain't to call it bothers me. Plastic Danielle, this shows through your weddings a little loose.

B Brian Bradley 06:19

S Scott Lewis 06:26
Just a hair. You want to talk about bad hair. What about this picture I saw of you in the Chronicle. Dressed up like Sue Cooper.

B Brian Bradley 06:35
When that wasn't made that what that was really super.

S Scott Lewis 06:38
This is the most hideous head of hair I've ever seen you wear. I had all manner of fun cutting out hair up and I took a doe razor and got that Sue Cooper. I love you HIV service provider money and just went down on it. It was wonderful.

B Brian Bradley 06:43

S Scott Lewis 06:53

This is great. This is a picture of you out in front of the Windham Warwick hotel to protest the transfer of AIDS case files from the Greater Houston AIDS Alliance to the HIV Service Division of the Harris County. The Harris County's Grants Administration Office, which is under the direction of Sue Cooper, and I see, well judge Lindsay, if you will. That's the job they created for Miss Cooper one she was going to be asked about their lives now there's all this money in the in this picture with AIDS written over $1 bills with AIDS written on it $100 bills,

B Brian Bradley 07:14

S Scott Lewis 07:21

B Brian Bradley 07:27

baby $100 Bill people.

S Scott Lewis 07:29

Well, you know, Brian didn't come cheap, but you can't have him for a price. And that's right. And all these people pointing at you, which I assume they're pointing at you and shame. What's this all about?

B Brian Bradley 07:39

Well, the HIV service providers which I'm in full sympathy almost always with them, they do a wonderful job. They had their annual breakfast at the Wyndham Warwick a week or so ago. And Sue Cooper is a member of that by virtue of her being a social worker and having membership pay dues like anyone else could. And she was scheduled to be at the breakfast but a group of activists and myself went down there just to continue the pressure on Sue Cooper and the let the public know that there is someone in office or directly responsible for the quality of a lot of people's lives. And so we just all got dressed up and had a little fun. Sue Cooper is a very angle retentive woman and she's always got her little discounted gaming routine. If doesn't that mean she's on our side? mean she's got a broom up her butt half the time, Mary? That's the hope. No, I'm not gonna say it. No, but it was just a little fun little bad drag, you know, and had a lot of fun. Do it in six o'clock in the morning. If you've got nothing else better to do but shave your mustache. I'll put on some five inch Lee Presto nails at four o'clock in the morning and go off to the Warwick and polyester. I suggested some Oh, my picture in Vanity Fair is much better that.

S Scott Lewis 08:54

Let's talk about your picture in Vanity Fair, because this is a wonderful cover if you have not seen it. This is the November issue. So it's how new is this on the stand?

B

Brian Bradley 09:04

Well, this is October Scotland. That's the November issue. So it must be pretty damn near Listen,

S

Scott Lewis 09:09

Mary, I know it's new because it still smells of all the you know, the perfume packets inside. But how has this just come to the newsstands about a week ago but a week ago? It has got the most flawless picture of Elizabeth Taylor on the cover holding a condom, which is torn open. And I guess that's why she's smiling. It's a great article. An interesting titled Liz aid and I guess it's her. Does it talk at all about her new organization does briefly. Yeah. Because Liz Taylor has started her own AIDS organization.

B

Brian Bradley 09:42

Elizabeth Taylor foundation. It's she's going to online again and borrowing the good work that amfAR does for medical research and stuff. The money that Liz raises for the Elizabeth Taylor foundation is going to go directly to patients services food transportation, housing and What's unique about this in which is good if you're Elizabeth Taylor and have the money, she is going to personally absorb all the administrative costs. So if you give to the Elizabeth Taylor foundation $1 $10, she personally guarantees that 100% of the money will go for aid services, no overhead, no administrative costs directly to the person that needs it. It's great.

S

Scott Lewis 10:20

I would think that that would encourage people or want people to really give to that foundation, because then you don't have to worry about a paid staff person, or the airfare to get things here in yonder and the lawyers and so on and so forth.

B

Brian Bradley 10:36

You don't have to worry about her ever becoming a su Cooper. I mean, the article is just as gay positive as it is supportive of people living with HIV.

S

Scott Lewis 10:45

Well, I saw her on what was that I saw her on it was a dark Goldberg. And she she said, Honey, if it weren't for homosexuals, there wouldn't be a Hollywood and she talks about that in here. In this article to just the most fun, just still as flawless as she ever was, unlike the two of us.

B

Brian Bradley 10:55

S

Scott Lewis 10:59

B

Brian Bradley 11:03

Well, I don't see you.

S

Scott Lewis 11:05

But now but now let's talk about because you keep flipping over to this page, and have a picture of us right behind Liz. Now. You're so far behind her. I swear I can't tell if that's you or not.

Brian Bradley 11:20

Trust me, Scott. I was there. In that press conference. The picture was made maybe you can't tell it's me. But I can if you don't have a magnifying glass out there you can tell it also but now it was very exciting to be in Amsterdam and to learn a lot of new things at the AIDS conference and here's some things and the least of which was to be able to see Leah's throw a tirade against George Bush and Secretary of Health and Human Services Louis Sullivan, she was pardon the French and asked kickin Mormon that night. It was very good, but that is me in the background Scott.

S

Scott Lewis 11:52

Well, I will wait until I have a magnifying glass to be sure.

B

Brian Bradley 11:59

Well, okay, just to make things fairly I was in Vanity Fair this month everybody go get the twit and read Scott's I had please

S

Scott Lewis 12:14

I don't have an ad in the twit. Mary, I run my ads right here and we'll get to the husband hunt later. What I want to do is

B

Brian Bradley 12:21

you're desperately seeking anybody

S

Scott Lewis 12:26

B

Brian Bradley 12:28

S

Scott Lewis 12:45

Anyway, we have some free movie passes to a new movie that is playing at the River Oaks Plaza. It just started yesterday. That's the Cineplex Odeon over there. And it's a it's called swoon. It's the story of Nathan Leopold Jr. and Richard Atiba is that low, low, low to their to Jewish intellectuals that were made famous in 1924. When they kidnapped and murdered a boy named Bobby Franks. They were 18 years old, and they were interwoven in a relationship built around a pleasure in criminal activities, which became linked in the minds of the public to the fact that they were homosexual. They committed murders that were they left them easily captured. They had innumerable clues left behind bad alibis, and a trial that followed that became an international news story. It that they say that their trials serve to reinforce the our culture's stereotypes about the dangers of homosexuality. So River Oaks has given us a few passes here, right so they graciously and we appreciate that this exciting to get to do something like this. So if if you're interested in want to pass for to to go see swoon, you can call us at 526 K p f t. And we will set you up we only have three of them. B

Brian Bradley 26:04

I say that again? Say that again? 34225193422519. Yeah, that's for Joe asked for Joe. Not Joseph. Oh, it doesn't matter. Well, I don't want him to get your father and tell him all about there. Oh, no, everyone I know come in contact with knows I'm gay. So
