03:17

I'm freezing, sir.

Chris 03:20

The last time the first thing they were talking about it was too, too warm in there.

03:23

I just walked in from outside. Well,

 Chris 03:27

I'll Tigger wrote in there. He really enjoyed last show and he's looking forward to hearing more discussions on topics pulled from the Exodus thing. We talked about our discussion with Reverend daddy and it didn't go all that well. That he's doing there. He wants to recommend a book called the bible and homosexuality by Michael E England to help teach them a lot about the ex gay their shout out on here to smiley Yes,

 04:06

Mike's not on my it's not on. Hey, Tigger sent you a letter got yours. What's up?

 Chris 04:11

Hi Smile. Congrats, man on the freedom and stay out of trouble. Bet that

 04:18

Jeffrey road also also Paul out in Miami who's listening on the internet. So we got Jeffrey Tigger, Tigger. All right back on that. No artwork this week. Oh, there's Oh, that's always there. No.

 Chris 04:33

And there was the bookmark there. Right from from slave and slave. Is that oh five? Yes.

 04:41

 Chris 04:42

Yes. So nurse.

 04:45

He does some hot artwork. It is. There's your word Jimmy hot. Words hot.

 Chris 04:51

Chris 04:51

Yeah, well, Jimmy could use a nurse there and think it's a wet nurse. That's exactly what he needs breast milk. Sorry slave also mentions that little he's the one he sent in the article Danny about the from the echo. Was that him that did that? Was that the other one?

05:04

Chris 05:15

No, it's a different letter that's that's actually save mentions about his parole serve all. Yeah,

05:17

Chris 05:22

he's gonna be there for 2007 which he'll be there till after his. It'll be kind of a birthday party will be 33 days after his 28th Birthday keep your head and that was me slave that recognize that dude in that picture. Smile. Yeah, he doesn't know how you recognize him because the guy's never been to Houston. Yeah, he's never known him to go to Houston, or any family there. He's very curious how you know him. He's been a good boy. Talking about the new segment he likes. He likes a good idea. Let people know what's going on. So she wasn't able to get into the mix. His sexy little shemale nurse. He's taking a little break for the poetry working on a booklet of them. Another one of those shout outs there to smiley, Jolly to keep out of trouble.

05:30

Chris 05:34

06:11

Let her hear from 06:12

funny even RJ says the same thing.

c

Chris 06:16

Apparently they don't want you back. It

o

06:19

was it was fun. The first time Jerry writes from the Wayne What's up Jerry? Not much saying here. He apparently asked questions about the commissary they have down there and TDC Yes,

c

Chris 06:28

somebody sent in a while ago the A. A list of the the commissary and the pricing. So we spent a show going through the list and again, you know, all we saw were proxies that we didn't see sizes.

o

06:42

I was always to show any no on size. Well, not for us because we're all size queens. For

o

06:47

Jerry was that we got your letter holler back at you and that one.

c

Chris 06:52

Okay, Angel. Angel. Yeah.

o

06:56

Does he regularly, regularly right. And

c

Chris 06:58

we got? Yeah, we do have her. He's the one with the ICO story.

o

07:02

He's the one with the ICO story. Oh, yeah, he's the one that makes the comment about me taking the gas on the code. 20 actually jacking off on some Hispanic lady. She wasn't even cuto cute.

c

Chris 07:14

One of things wants to mention here. So during the fundraiser, he really wants to thank each of you HMS here at after hours. And that includes each and every segment each and every person that volunteers his or her time, knowledge and love for all of us. Thank you. And thank you to Angel for you know, being out there listening to our show. And being a part of it, you know, he he along with the rest of our MBBS really are, are a great part of the show and give us a lot of information and story ideas of where to go through with that.

o

07:47

Get like the feedback. We want the feedback, give us a feedback, send a SYN syn, whatever it will, most likely it's actually we'll probably we'll talk about it.

c

Chris 07:55

One of the parts on here. He mentioned there is this past week regarding Victor's letters, his station. Station matter? Why do people always start off with saying, Well, I respect your point of view? When actually they don't? Like with me, with Chris, you know? How do you spell your name? Well, we use it for spelling my first name, he spelled it right. Don't even try the last name. Smiley will tell you why. Yeah, I

o

chopped it up for about two years. Finally,

c

Chris 08:21

you'll have a hard time getting the first letter.

08:25

The only combo I didn't try, Chris

c

Chris 08:27

and anyone who supports the death penalty, I would never tell a person that I respect that opinion when I don't. The fact. And I agree, you know, the fact is that with, with what the station is and what the show is, we love a difference of opinions. And I do you know, even with wheezing with Victor, and with his his comments that he made towards with what we're going, I do respect his opinion, because, you know, if I didn't respect his opinion, and his ability to express his opinion, I wouldn't read the damn letter. I respect the fact that a person has the right to give their opinions. You know, I respect the right to cover my ears, stick my fingers in my ear. If I don't want to hear it, you at home, you can turn the knob, you know, there's the power button, and there's the knob that changes the station. And you said at the same time, like I think people sometimes act like I've, I've had people tell me but you have to respect that person's opinion. And I respect their ability to have don't I mean, I think like just like the the access international people. They're entitled their opinion, but that doesn't mean I have to respect it. Yeah, I can think they're bloody nuts for it. You know, I mean, I don't respect certain opinions regardless of however, you know, free this country is there just some things I don't agree with and do not respect and then you're gonna have to also realize it's a two way street. If you don't respect their opinion, they're not going to respect you. Most of the friction of the communication, what it comes down to, at least with me is, you know, I may not respect the words coming out of your mouth, but I respect you having the ability and the right to say those words, right freedom and freedom of speech, your freedom of speech ends at the tip of my nose. Okay, so you know, I can decide whether or not I want to hear it, or believe it or understand it. So, say what you will, I will, you know, defend it have the your right to say it.

09:55

Chris 10:02

10:31

I thought we were gonna play bad music in the background. Yeah.

10:37

Like, I'll still have a respectful decent conversation with that person about their opinion and about my opinion, but that doesn't mean I'm going to give them any validity toward it.

Chris 10:49

Okay, well, yeah, that comes from there. And like I said, danger when we do that, when we say this stuff, especially on our show here, you know, we do mean it there. It's and we respect someone's ability to make the commerce.

11:01

11:01

Here's my opinion, Angel. I do support the death penalty. I think in some instances, there's there it does. It does serve its purposes. And in Texas, all people know if you commit a felony, while while in the act of a felony, it's capital punishment. So to on that one.

c Chris 11:22

We'll we'll delve back into that discussion. Yeah. Oh, we have a whole hour. Because, yeah, there's some conflicted opinions respectfully, yeah.

11:26

c Chris 11:32

We Yeah, we we started that debate once and it was like you.

11:37

That's an ON FIRE subject that needs to be held over? Because I'll respectfully decline from stating my opinion.

c Chris 11:49

Yes, we've suffered too much. Hold on. We're the MBB letters. Oh, yeah.

11:55

And look, He only wrote 100 pages. Now. He only He only wrote eight pages. I know. It's actually pretty good. There was something on the first page. I wanted to read more as always. I heard smiling on the airwaves last night. Yay. Smiley, your proof that they'll actually let us go. I hope you aren't too exhausted from last night's event. Like, can you? Yeah, you can say bastard on the air. Yeah,

c Chris 12:18

you can say say he's like a movie that has that title in it. I think we can say Tell him I see Parolin nine months. So he's expecting I'm expecting my turn. I don't know if that means with you or me or, or both or whatever. That's cool. Had a three day weekend because you know, Presidents Day holiday, cut his finger on a coat can I don't know what you were doing sticking your thumb in the coat can but RJ there are smarter ways to pass the time, honey. Right, me and my mother and safer holes. Just take it. You know, that's what I was thinking. But flip side of that page. I wanted to say that Chris did a good job on the Focus on the Family deal. Thank you. And he has some conflicted opinions about the whole Christians and their compassion and open arms and what kind of bias it's under? And what's their real agenda? And of course, like it, that's kind of the concern with all of this, and nobody's buying completely into that. But he goes on to say, Scott made a point. We can't argue about what we don't know about, but neither should they. The guy who did the billboards for focus said his son went through a period of being gay that he overcame is like the flu. I don't know.

 Chris 13:37

I briefly met him. Yeah, he says I can have him.

 13:40

And I'm paraphrasing all of this stuff. Since I've lived my life. I've lived my whole life living in denial, because it wasn't right to be gay. All of my very few experiences have been anonymous and in the closet why life should be about fulfillment. It should be about goals, not hiding fear of what others think. I wish I could attend the conference just so I could hear what they have to say, of course, I'd also like to be heard too.

 Chris 14:05

Well, if you're out there nine months there, you'll still have the opportunity to hit about three of the different conferences. Well to depending on how your release is allowed if you're allowed to leave the country or not. And so Harry says, I'm so looking forward to your letter as I have been for so long. It's a real treat to hear from you. I can't wait but what I really can't wait for is getting out and having a powwow i Listen earnestly, every week to hear you speak to me. If you only knew how much I appreciate it. Like last night the schedule was jam packed and you still got a quick word to me. Chris said Okay, hurry up and get them off. What was that all about? Like? I don't know Chris and I shooting dirty looks at each other through the glass. That was funny. Thanks for getting a real quickie and it means a ton. He also was kind of sad because he didn't get he didn't get a visit but he had some had someone on the outside or the girl that he came out of the closet to hooked him up with it with a subscription to outsmart or something, or to OUT magazine, one of the two. And whatever picture that you were talking about the really hot guy that you were supposed to send did not make it in the mail. So I don't know if it got taken out of the envelope fell out of the envelope, or you just didn't get it put in the envelope. But it's not here who was sending it to him. RJ was sending it to me.

 14:17

15:28

probably forgot. Oh, I already forgot to put it in.

15:32

He can't wait to get out into the Montrose. He's reading another good book, The Davinci Code, blah, blah. talks a lot about horses and riding. And I'm all about that super horse kind of cowboy. You know, whatever. Yeah, I'm glad your friend wrote you and beg forgiveness. That's good. Anyway, yeah. So I'm sorry. You had to endure the guy whose breath smelled like 10 cats had gone to the restroom in it, but you know, now that he's away from you, I'm sure you can breathe.

Chris 16:07

I do believe that commissary lists did list mouthwash.

16:10

I know. Some people just may not be so fortunate. It's cheap. It's cheap. Well, what's that? Well, I have got a pocket full of breath savers anyway, so anyway, RJ, you know, faithfully and forever yours. I love I love the way he signs his letters to me. And he looks like Vin Diesel. I finally figured out who the Polaroid looks like you look like Vin Diesel. Oh yeah. Nine months dude, I know you have my letter now. So I know you have at least three examples of what I look like. And some good book size a novel of chicken scratch.

16:50

Okay.

16:52

And that's what anything else on RJ letter we know so much about RJ now. One of the things I want to put in real quick here. Once it's worth mentioning about the MBBS who contribute too much to the show. We want to thank all of you who contributed to the show the past two weeks during our fun drive. We you know the MBBS we love their their letters, let us know what they are, what they they think and what they're hearing and all that but you know, we also want to thank those who contribute the show that keeps us on the air keeps the station going and lubes the wheels of our speech and 17:23

Chris 16:56

so that you know at least we can still get through to the MBBS so you can hear that 17:35 thank you to the people that did donate during the fun drive especially that here given here every

17:39

time I read it read it

Chris 17:43

listen up we're gonna plug Okay, it's time for us to plug the straight boy here.

17:49

That was Afro punk March the fifth

Yeah, from adding hooks there's more it's actually

18:25

James Spooner more than any typical Black History Month documentary this film tackles the hard questions such as issues of loneliness, exile, interracial dating and Black Power. All right, right on.

All right, rad. So we've plugged you Yeah, I'll come back here. Let me plug you again. Cost

o

18:48

Christian wanted to let us know about positive transition serving the HIV transgender community. Once again, positive transition serving the HIV transgender community that's by Christian,

c

Chris 19:33

Krista Williams, a frequent guests that we've had here and choose to host her. She hosts frequent guests there with a transgender segment. I'm trying to get her to be a host there.

o

19:41

c

Chris 19:45

You know, Christina, one of the founders of cats community awareness for transgendered support now she's moved on to hacks.

o

19:52

Not much of a crowded neighborhood. I mean, do I we should discuss Jimmy's wardrobe change. What's Jimmy's wardrobe change?

19:58

Well, he's not wearing pink And he's actually got on blue. He's 20:01

he's got a pink happy face. That's that's that's all the pink he needs.

Chris 20:06

He's rosy pink. And one of the few times Jamie has something has to do with work below blue, 20:10

and he's not on his knees

20:16

oh my god, like, what? 15 minutes 15 minutes and drive

20:22

tonight, and I know that's a departure for me. It is but the problem is it's winter. And I only have a couple of pink long sleeve shirts. You know? I've got 18 Pink short sleeve shirts.

20:37

I know we need to go on a hunt for more pink long sleeves.

20:40

Yeah, we do.

20:42

I think the girls department at one of those large Tino Walmart type stores probably has some pink long johns

20:51

20.54

actually that pink leather jacket that would have been Oh, that was high. It was good. You said hi. No, I said hi. Okay, you're it's the word that I want to banish because it's too general. But But I really like that Jimmy is

20:53

c

Chris 21:08

so much into pink there. I'm surprised he's not trying to sell Mary Kay just for the damn cat. That would be working.

♂

21:17

Well, which Mary would he sell? Okay, yeah. Question.

21:21

The takeaway is license.

21:24

So married to k two.

c

Chris 21:28

Okay, we got a couple of the news articles we're gonna go into

21:33

it's dead besides what's going on in Montana, what they the Montana House on Monday killed a bill 54 to 46 that would have extended the state's hate crime laws to protect gays. The bill would have made it a crime to target people based such factors as age, economic condition disability, gender or sexual orientation. So now in Montana, it do discriminate or fire or do a hate crime against any open or by homosexual transgender lesbian is no longer against the law apparently in Montana. I don't think it ever was it ever. Well, they had a bill. It's now a House Bill 5446.

c

Chris 22:07

That was reversed. It was part of the best Why don't you go in on your own mind?

22:12

It wasn't there embarrassed thing?

22:16

Actually, I haven't really heard much about what I'm still not a hate crime in Texas to beat up a fag. Well, and yeah, actually it is. It's just not enforced. But what I've been used for? Well, the the way the hate crimes bill works in Texas, is it's not really you know, you can be charged with you committed a hate crime. What it is, it's actually a bias crime that only takes effect once you have been charged with say assault. And then when it comes time for the sentencing phase, they go, okay. He said faggot when he when he was kicking the crap out of that person, it's that we're gonna give them an extra enhancement. Yeah, they can use this, Travis. Yeah, of course. window and I know this is like, it's not people. People say, Oh, it's legal to beat up someone who's gay. But that's not it. I mean, well, yeah, check, Rosenthal would probably just give me another notch on your belt. But they say it's special rights. People get up there on the floor of the House of the Senate. They they vote it down, they go, I won't give homosexuals special rights. And yet they include economic class and that that's the first time I've ever had economic class included in anybody's hate crimes bill, whether it's national or state or city, it's probably to target the people that are poor are on welfare, Rome lists with economic status.

22:18

Chris 22:24

22:46

22:50

23:23

23:27

c

Chris 23:28

I think I think what it is, is to protect there when you complain about the rich folk who are getting away with murder, check

o

23:34

the hustlers in Montana. But like, you know, I don't understand using for weights and not special rights. saying you can't beat someone up is not a special right? In my opinion. No, of course not. I

o

23:36

o

23:46

o

23:47

don't I don't see

o

23:50

us in the mainstream. So they don't want to do that. It's

o

23:52

a debate focused mainly on whether the law should cover crimes against gays and lesbians and whether it would stifle free speech and prevent clergy from speaking out against homosexuality in their sermons. Well,

c

Chris 24:03

part of it comes from a crime. But see what happens is, there was a case it was in Minnesota, I believe, where a bunch of preachers came up during a gay rights rally or gay parade and started spouting their beliefs. And they were actually charged under a hate crime statute because of it, and then, of course, you know, everyone's stifling free speech and freedom are bullies, though. Yeah, but but thing is, is your verbal assault. Well, is there really something there? There is rulings against hate speech?

24:34

c Chris 24:40

Yeah, but it depends on how it depends on how its worded and all that if that state had a rule of saying, you know, calling someone a faggot is against the law. Yeah. In Texas, you know, it just comes into a fat it only comes the James Byrd hate crimes bill. Just brings it down to the fact that if someone is true harsh with with assault that you know it doesn't doesn't kick in until later on. It's not against the law to kick someone and say you know faggot when you're beating them up, it doesn't affect the rain law every first found guilty of assault. And then when it comes time to to sentence somebody if the district attorney believes it wants to pursue and can prove it, they have to prove it. Also in Houston Chronicle. Today's Houston Chronicle Study Finds military law skilled actually, it's not today's Houston Chronicle. It's covered. Fridays Oh, yeah, that's right. You did read that article Study Finds military law skilled troops to gay rule, translators and technicians among the 9488 troops who left the ranks because of their homosexuality. Don't Ask Don't Tell. There. It's I know it's the issue of war and against how liberal KPFT and everything of it is, but they're now finally starting to realize that all the money they invest in training and the future now the young is it, it's it's cost. It's a little late. Yeah.

25:24

26:00

I'm gonna turn 18 soon. And if they reinstate the draft, I will like get homo tattooed across my forehead.

26:09

You don't have to the pink flowers sparkly earring does it all?

26:12

No, really. I mean, like I will. That's one thing that has upset me about this lawsuit. Is I'm sitting here going no, do not remove Don't Ask Don't Tell until the draft is not is definitely not coming back. Because while there is a possibility, I would still like an out in the middle of Kenya,

26:31

you make fun of my age conscientious objector. In December 12. Gays expelled from the military because of their sexual orientation sued the government citing the Supreme Court ruling that state laws making homosexual sex a crime were unconstitutional. It's funny that I mentioned that. I'm curious all these states that put on the ballot for not recognizing Sammy, same sex unions or gay marriage. Yet here with that ruling in the Supreme Court. What did that made it unconstitutional? No, because that sexual acts, the sexual act was illegal sodomy, whether it was between gay people or straight people, it was illegal.

26:32

26:57

27:05

But that's not the law that was cited with the fact that the law CITES is the privacy of your own home, not the act itself, not the conventions, its marriage, marriage, it doesn't occur in the privacy of your own home. It's a state funding Oh,

27:12

c Chris 27:17

actually, they're not even talking about marriage we're talking about, basically, you have to look at this when we talk about Don't Ask, Don't Tell. You also have to look at it the simple fact that we're talking about employment, for in the job in the employment the employer is the United States Army and the Navy, the Air Force Marine. So basically, what it comes down to is the same thing as employment rights. You know, you can walk into a job and they can, you know, you can walk in one day and say, Oh, by the way, you're a fag. You're fired. And there's no legal recourse, especially in Texas in other states, my house but it comes down to this Don't Ask, Don't Tell is the same thing as not as as discrimination in the employment place. The only way you're going to have someone fight with this in the court is if ENDA was to actually come to fruition and have some teeth in it. And then you know, when someone tries to kick out someone for being gay in the military, and they go wait a minute, and as your take effect because it you are my employer, because there's a big difference between civil law and military 28:19

28:16

28:21

the same time, the Military Court recognized Lawrence vs. Texas. In a recent thing really? Sodomy? Yeah, sodomy is also oral sex and a straight man and a straight woman were caught having oral sex together and charged with sodomy. However, the court overturned it and removed the sodomy law from the military law books, citing Lawrence vs. Texas so now they're saying they're using that right

28:44

now. You can have oral sex all you want now,

Chris 28:47

but the interesting thing is is still in the military adultery is considered illegal.

28:52

They're using that ruling in the military court to get it out. And the employee non discrimination act is another one of those things that they say gives homosexuals special rights by saying we can't be fired for being gay.

Chris 29:05
