Oh yes, you've tuned into after hours queer radio with attitude right here on KPFT Houston 90.1 FM. The crew of after hours is ready to bring you news interviews, dialogue and music geared for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender people and their friends. Hear it after hours. We may be diverse, but we have one thing in common. We are all out of the closet and urge everyone to come out of their closets. That means standing up for yourself taking responsibility for your own life and being proud of who you are. Realistically, we know not everyone can do that because of age job or frame of mind. That's okay, we're here for you too. So sit back, relax, and enjoy this week's edition of after hours. Hello, Houston and welcome to after hours queer radio with attitude heard every Saturday night at midnight right here on KPFT Houston, and KEOS College Station. I'm Jimmy Carper.

Big Roy 02:15

And I'm big Roy.

Jimmy Carper 02:16

Big Roy is here. Right and this is the fifth Saturday of the month. So that means it is

Roy 02:25

J Jimmy Carper 02:26
music night. Square music night. However, we're also in the middle of Marathon and it's also another special evening. Why? Okay, this is now September, June 1, which marks the beginning of Gay Pride Month and what a better way to kick off Gay Pride then with the QM

R Roy 02:32
Z Ah, yes, right here on KPFT

J Jimmy Carper 02:49
right here on KPFT. Houston. Oh, someone just walked in. Oh my goodness. And we just see him last week.

R Roy 02:59
I heard that say what did we just

J Jimmy Carper 03:03
see you last week? You did? Oh, what's the deal?

P Peter 03:07
Well, we just wanted to come by because it's it's like ratings month and stuff I mean, you know, we're getting many we just need to be here to support and let you know that it's too cool. Yeah, Sander encourage all the Peter and Connie Linga listeners. Please call those poor people sitting on the other room. The phone banks are waiting five to 65738 and pledge your nickels and dimes and pennies and dollars and 1000s and whatever you want to pledge to support the craziness of the Peter Carey lingo and we just wanted to combine because we love Jimmy Carter

J Jimmy Carper 03:46
to kind of come with you.

P Peter 03:47
She I think is on her way to spread her word and whatever really I came back because I gotta no natty go pretty.

J Jimmy Carper 04:01
Oh, Leon after hours only on NAFTA.

R Roy 04:04
Completely unrehearsed, completely unrehearsed and there is no script folks. We're just doing this we fly by the seat of our pants

P Peter 04:11
but when I got a hot show oh

J Jimmy Carper 04:16
you know Peter and his jokes

R Roy 04:18
I know that right looking forward to this one oh really know what's going

J Jimmy Carper 04:22
on? What's going on in the lobby just cut let's talk about what it looks like out there.

R Roy 04:27
All we have all kinds of people out in the lobby we're waiting for people to call in with their pledges

J Jimmy Carper 04:33
and the usual table that's kind of bare and empty except for twits and voices

R Roy 04:38
and oh, it is

J Jimmy Carper 04:40

our it's filled with with pledge forms and explanations and and you know how much it costs per day and premiums and all of this kind of stuff, right

R Roy 04:53

though? Yes. All kinds of things. And it's you know, With the kind of programming that you get on after hours to all the diversity, and it's just like, so positive, so upbeat and so, so great of a show that I'm sure all of you out there will find it somewhere in your heart to pledge something that's right. Something

J Jimmy Carper 05:20

35 bucks is our, our basic membership fee. And you get a I forget you get a pan or something. No, they give you a bumper sticker or something for that. Oh, and as as you go up, you know, the more you can afford. They give little presents to thank you. It's really your thank you gift mugs and T shirts and, and all kinds of good stuff like that. The the bumper sticker has changed. Oh, it's now the same logo as the t shirt, which is the red white and blue license. Oh, that says K. Yeah. That's pretty neat. That's that's very, very nice. Yes.

R Roy 06:06

And while you're making your pledge, don't forget to keep me busy by asking for a music request. Because this is

J Jimmy Carper 06:14

Oh, that's right, because it's QM C night.

R Roy 06:17

And we love taking your music requests, and your dedications and your shout outs and any other interesting things. And if any of you out there haven't seen it yet, you must pick up the pride guide. The new pride guide, because it has it has our Jimmy Carver who is a grand marshal has a wonderful bio on him and you could learn a lot more about this really fantastic guy. Not enough can be good can be said about him that I think he said just about everything you could say on this radio show. I think we know more about him than we may want today.

P Peter 06:51

Jimmy Carper 06:57

That that is a really wonderful bio. And it was written by Troy Christensen, who I've known for many many years since he was in in college and and member of the gay group there. And Troy has always been which college. Oh, you have ah, you have it. You have a gay group there?

Roy 07:15

Jimmy Carper 07:20

Well, it it's now called Global, gay lesbian or bisexual Alliance.

Roy 07:27

Hey, that's neat. Yes.

Jimmy Carper 07:30

But uh, Troy was instrumental in that and he's always been very positive in the gay community and so he's known me for a long time so great. It's kind of nice to have your bio written by someone who knows

Roy 07:42

you know that

Peter 07:43

they tell that story about when you were four years old? No, they didn't tell that's no see. We do know more about you than

Jimmy Carper 07:51

I don't think I told

Peter 07:52

Troy that story. You told it on the air honey. So the world knows it now baby. About fell off my chair when you ran through that. And I said, Oh, she is out, isn't she? Oh, four.

J Jimmy Carper 08:05

Also we have a special treat tonight. Because Kate Clinton is coming to town. She's gonna be here next Friday night at the laughs stop. She is oh, she was like the first out lesbian comic. She is wonderful. Really. Two weeks ago on Jules show. We played a couple of pieces from one of her tapes. And even though it was back from 1985 It was just as funny today as it was, you know, 12 years ago wins. When's the show? Next Friday?

P Peter 08:39

The sixth? Next Friday six

J Jimmy Carper 08:41

right at laughs stop. Right only to shit two shows one at eight and one at 1030. And that's it though. That's just one night. Because she's gonna be in Dallas the next night.

B Big Roy 08:53

Probably going to be packed out. Oh,

J Jimmy Carper 08:55

yeah. Anyway, we got a scoop on this because we got jewel gray on the phone with Kate Clinton and we have a 30 minute interview that I want to play later on in this hour. And it is really good stuff. Really, really good too. Cool. Yeah, yeah. What now tell us what all they get when little things they get because I haven't heard all the great little promos for this. And we all know that. You know, it's not about the cups and the bumpers but what are the little you get? Yeah, okay. Well for basic membership, you get the bumper sticker which is like I said the the the license plate, the red, white and blue license plate on a white background. And that's for a $35 pledge for a $60 pledge. You get a t shirt or a mug with the KPFT logo on it or a mousepad they have now that for $90 You get two T shirts or s ATX case without KPFT logo on it holds 12 CDs and cool. Yeah. Now for $150, you get the really super super briefcase, that KPFT briefcase, it's one of the Oh, it's almost big enough to use as a carry on for an overnight or a week.

P Peter 09:18

J Jimmy Carper 09:29

Peter 10:28

Your dollars you get your KPFT drip bag, baby now we're talking now for 500. Now it's just not about a little token things. We're getting a trick bag out of this deal. All right, go for it. What else for

Jimmy Carper 10:40

$500? You become a member of the leadership circle.

Roy 10:44

Oh, yes. And we've got our we have our first member in the leadership, sir.

Jimmy Carper 10:50

Last Last marathon we can do we got our first Chris. Yeah, he did. Who should be here later on this evening? Well, that'd be nice. Now for the I remember that one that I think like help this little show get Oh,

Peter 10:58

Jimmy Carper 11:03

really? We're just like, he did it on EFT, which is electronic funds transfer. And they just take a certain amount out of your checking account each month. It's very painless. Oh, that is not. And it costs us far less than any other kinds of paperwork. That's great.

Peter 11:23

Yeah. And really, it is I heard you say it earlier, but it is it's just about like, so. Thanks a lot. It is Oh, you do?

Jimmy Carper 11:31

Right. Now the leadership circle is more than Well, that's a lot because you get a CD every month, they mail you. And you get tickets to things and you get invited to special KPFT parties and all kinds of stuff. I mean, well, that's really big. But I mean, when we give something even if it doesn't, that if it's whatever it is, whatever you bucks, we don't care. Yeah, it's about it's about really showing that you're thankful for this free kind of radio that covers everything. It's not just about the show that we do. The absolute total craziness of Peter and Connie and the good music on the other Saturdays and Scott Lewis and all those other wonderful people. It's not just about that, but I mean, it's like these they have everything child pokers but Sunday morning is not to be missed with that blue shirt. Oh, I never missed that.

Peter 11:45

J

Jimmy Carper 12:16

We are we are tops we are

P

Peter 12:19

I mean there's just stuff stuff stuff all week long that occur when you tune in. There's something really wild and crazy and and polka music is not your thing. Well, that's cool, but it is somebody's Yeah. And they don't get it anywhere. Except in Detroit and who gets that? Oh. Did you know there's so much going on tomorrow that I don't think any one person is gonna be able to cover all the bases.

J

Jimmy Carper 12:38

Oh, you're kidding. What's going on tomorrow? Well, the Montrose softball league. They've gotten ousted from their little feet. Well, the city is somehow not ran. Yeah. Guess whether

P

Peter 12:41

J

Jimmy Carper 12:48

it's playing field.

P

Peter 12:50

Guess where they're playing? Where? Nob Hill?

J

Jimmy Carper 12:53

Where's that?

P

Peter 12:53

I don't know. It sounds good, though. Yeah, no. Oh, that's the problem. It is in Charleville.

R

Roy 13:00

Are you like those knobs?

P

Peter 13:01

Well, I love knobs, honey, but anyway, it's about it's out. Go out. I tend to Gessner Yeah, get off a Gessner go. Don't turn I guess and go on the feeder one more time, you can turn on the first right. So it's out there in the middle of straight Ville. So you know, if you don't have anything to do tomorrow, kids go out and support modular teams, tons of fun people all kinds of wild things. And you know, they're getting ready for their Jackson dresses on the 14th That's right. That's that Stephens house well if it is it is that but it was gonna be at Rich's and starts at seven and you know, dancing all night after that. And it's like one little bizarre thing per each, you know, team and there's loads of teams, I mean, really, the professional guys that are gonna go on to the all state or whatever. And then just the real fun people, you know, and it's, it's gonna be big fun. You get tickets at crossroads for five bucks or you can come out to the field tomorrow and get in for five but there'll be probably seven at the door. And then at four o'clock is the Miss Mary's pageant. Oh, yes, Miss Mary's pageant towel four o'clock not to be missed. I hear there going to be a number that it really should be seen. Rumor has it? Yeah, it may be a nun.

P

Peter 14:21

Well, no, I don't know. She pulls that thing off. I'm not sure. Anyway. Yes, that's gonna be really fun. And then let's see there's something else in the evening. And you forgot. I'm not sure but it really sounds cool. 10 bucks all you can drink eat food. And it's like a big wedding reception. It's either. You can't do that. You I can't just can't do it. You have to see it. You know, it's a visual joke. I think Do you know that

15:14

P Peter 15:17

Jimmy Carper 21:55

Peter 22:05

You stick the dollar up underneath that little thing. Yeah. Thanks. So the dollar has now crossed the pens right under the thing. Then you stick the pen in your hand. Make a fist and shove the pin down in it. Okay, hold the pan up in the air but Statue of Liberty prop your arm up with the other arm. And you ask somebody what is this? What is this? This is Bob Dole at a titty bar. Oh, oh then after you haven't gone oh my god that is then you take that same dollar bill. Yes. And you lay it between your cheek and your shoulder. You know when you get on the phone you sometimes hold the phone with your connected shoulder up towards your shoulder up to your ear and kind of hold the phone there while you're writing something. Okay, we'll take the dollar lay it under there. Yeah, and scrunch your neck over like that and he asked somebody What's this? So for people that wanted to know, call him let us know. But give us a pledge and the for you people that didn't like it. Go and give us a pledge anyway and we promise we'll never do it again.

J Jimmy Carper 24:54
We just we don't do PC stuff here. We just insist that everybody First, you know that everybody understands that this is diversity and people think differently and go with it. Yeah. You know, live and let live. That's it. That's all you got.

P Peter 25:14
I think we just lost our poor

J Jimmy Carper 25:20
I hear groans coming from the lobby. Do you? Yeah.

P Peter 25:24

J Jimmy Carper 25:33
Yes, we need to do that. We do need to do that. Later on in the show. This is supposed to be a music show. We haven't played any music yet. And I'm going to just right away. was about 10 years ago, I thought I'd died and gone to lesbian heaven. She was appearing in one of the auditoriums at Rice University. It was monsoon season in Houston and that, but that didn't keep the place from filling to capacity. And then some room smelled faintly of giovane and summer rain and it seemed everywhere I looked there was a ex lover, or a future ex lover. There was an excitement in the room. As if we were all about to have sex together than the ex English teacher took the stage and for 90 minutes, we were under her spell. We laughed we cried. And then we laugh some more. It was a roller coaster ride that no one wanted to end. When it was all when it was over all too soon. We ate from laughing and a great many of us needed that familiar after sex cigarette. I remember it well. When I got the call last week that I might get to interview Kate. I told them I would drop anything anytime to be there. I gave the interviewer a lot of thought and decided I wanted to know more than the standard interview stuff. I wanted to know. Yeah, I know you've been doing comedy for over 15 years. I've read some of your bios and dug around on the internet. When I found this out, I was surprised how much Caitlyn is on the internet. Did you know you were on internet alive

N

Nancy Rodriguez 33:32

Hernan on the internet could possibly nothing that I could do intentionally, you know, then like a mid computer?

J

Jewel Gray 33:39

Well, I'm telling you, you really have a lot of information a lot through T Town province, province town, and various places that you've been have websites and they have talked about you being there and promoting for when you work when you're going to be there. Right and I've got a lot of information. I was impressed with the things that I didn't know that. I mean, I for example, I didn't know you were an English teacher. I find that totally fascinating. He was teachers have always been close to my heart. I think most lesbians English teachers have been close to their hearts. Yeah,

N

Nancy Rodriguez 34:13

five three. out of the gym teacher. Teacher. Yeah, yeah, the

J

Jewel Gray 34:17

gym. Did coach track girl track. See, there

N

Nancy Rodriguez 34:20

you go. Yeah. Scrub track for I think like two or three years. Mostly because the phys ed teacher one saw me out. I wouldn't say jogging but slogging around his back and he thought it would be a good idea. So I coached and it was a riot. You know, we had the we had the most well behaved team, but we didn't win a lot. But we had a good time together. I bet you did. And I did to Tesco, English, which I think is great. A great preparation for doing stand up comedy. I can imagine. No, I think that you don't have to bring papers home. When you do stand up comedy. That's even better.

J

Jewel Gray 34:58

No grading over the week. You know, it can be pretty grueling. Being a stand up comedian, though can't do, or travel is often grueling, because it's just, you have to be so single minded and focused about getting where you're going. And you know, that part is hard. But I'll tell you the performing it's a dream. Just because I've worked so hard to get to a place, it's lovely. It's a wonderful time. It's a week Ojai, actually.

N

Nancy Rodriguez 35:04

J

Jewel Gray 35:27

Well, I can imagine you I was thinking about this while while I was thinking about this interview, how what, what it must be like to be adored by all these lesbians in your audience.

N

Nancy Rodriguez 35:36

Well, my favorite part is one time I was at the a&p here in Providence town, just looking over some, I don't know, some produce add ons, and I heard parts crashing into each other around me. And I thought, Oh, it's a lovely job. You know, it's really wonderful to make women laugh and to make a man laugh and make people laugh in general. You know, it's certainly not like being an accountant during tax time when you have to give people the bad news. Oh, yeah. So we've been wonderful. I feel like it's a very big kind of comedy gift, and again, a career gift to have found this?

J

Jewel Gray 36:15

Well, we certainly think it's been a gift, it's been a gift to us. I know that, like I said, weeks after you were here, you know, that was the buzzword, almost every bar and gathering hole in town was, you know, everybody was trading back and forth. Little quips and things that they had remembered from that that particular night, and any night that you've been here, it's been like that for several, several days afterwards, that you just leave a cloud of warmth all over the town when you leave.

N

Nancy Rodriguez 36:44

You know, I think that live performance has that effect. It's so wonderful. I mean, we certainly have more gay and lesbian images on television now, but I think live performance and being in the theater where you feel, you know, see your ex lovers with your ex lovers and soon to be at. It's just, it's really important. And I think a lot of times we can, you know, almost by the, the press that we're being given that, you know, that we're everywhere, and we're, you know, we're on TV and blah, blah, blah, but you know, it's really a very personal thing. I and the reason I think I will I have every every show I've done I've thanked audiences for being there for coming out. And you know, it's true. I mean, it's, it's pretty amazing when women come out, and I know that it's a lot of courage for you know, women not only to come out but often to come to the theater. So I think it's a very little nice little spiritual group. Experience.

J

Jewel Gray 37:48

Do you have do you have like a special tour that you remember that really stands out in your mind? We'd love it to be the the time you came to Houston but

N

Nancy Rodriguez 38:01

by were, I was staying at Dr. Sandy scoria. She, she and I share the same birthday. We we always have a good time. And I used to come through Houston in November just so we get our birthdays together. Yes. The monsoon season. Yes, I do remember a parking lot of hers. That was like up to my ankles. And but she took me to the rodeo I think once and we have a picture of us some kind of bronc in Brooklyn Bronco. Not the real thing, but a picture of us and that was really would have been fantastic.

J

Jewel Gray 38:38

Oh, I bet I've been I've been on one of those things. And it wasn't a fun time for me.

o

38:43

Just supposed to picture.

J

Jewel Gray 38:46

Oh, you didn't write it? Oh, well, I think I ride with the seatbelt. Yeah. Well, you know, often, you know, we see you on the stage but we don't get to know very much about the person behind the the the comedy on the stage and I was wondering if you know, I know this is a commonly asked question. I'm pretty sure it's a commonly asked question about your material and I read in your bio that that most of the stuff that you do you do because it relates to you. I was wondering if you could do you find the stuff that you do when you when it pops out of use? Do you find it funny immediately or does it have to sink in a little while before you recognize oh this would be good and oh

N

Nancy Rodriguez 39:33

there are some things that happen that you just know immediately this this is this is it. You there are some things that happen that you just know immediately this this is this is it. You know this is great. I remember when I was talking to a friend years ago, and we were talking about her family was coming to visit and we got talking about what became a routine that people just love which is when what do you do to your apartment when your family comes to visit and we you know the week About straightening up, yes. And that things like that are gifts. But often, I feel like I really work ahead of time to get things to get the right anger and the right angle on things.

J

Jewel Gray 40:15

So it is work, it looks so easy and effortless, when we're sitting out in the seats and enjoying it.

N

Nancy Rodriguez 40:21

Oh, that's great. I'm very prepared. I think probably from my years of teaching high school English, I don't like to waste people's time. So, you know, I worked from a, I worked from a really prepared kind of script, and then I feel comfortable veering off from that, and being, you know, doing improv or spontaneous stuff, but I like to kind of know where I'm going, and to have a have a map. And then, you know, that means I have a record after. And that usually also is what becomes a record, you know, I've done material and I, I want to retire it, but I don't want it to just be in the air and gone. So we recorded and then, you know, I can go on to different stuff.

J

Jewel Gray 41:00

I read somewhere that you said that it was like jazz, you start with a riff, and then you just kind of add things to it.

N

Nancy Rodriguez 41:06

It's true, there's a, you know, some basic themes, I think, probably my basic theme in the last few months, of course, has been the theme of coming out and Alan and you know, and the Oprah show and what all of those things meant, but you know, and then I go from there, the nice thing is that I've had, you know, I have a lot of people who've never seen me before, young people, old people. And so I can bring I do bring things back, but not you know, not their entirety, there might have been, you know, a piece that was 10 minutes long, and it comes back as a one liner. But you know, that is, those are kind of like old themes of mine that make old friends nice to bring back into the mix. And it is very jazzy, I think, you know, and I think that's why I do a longer show. So that I can I have time to develop things. And it's very much conditioned by an audience, because I hear what people are laughing at, or I hear with their quiet ad. And that kind of that effect. consciously and subconsciously, you know, where I go next and performing?

J

Jewel Gray 42:20

Well, kind of like the jazz metaphor I wanted, when, when I read it, I thought, yeah, that's kind of what it was. I remember watching and seeing you take, you know, a reading of what was going on, as you spoke to us, and, and if you know, if the laugh was big, then you went on with that. And if it was a little smaller, you moved on to something else. And, and it was real spontaneous, at least I felt like, that's why I asked you about it, that I felt like it was a very interactive and very spontaneous. And that's why I felt so I felt close to you, when I saw this.

N

Nancy Rodriguez 42:55

It's not like an A, I mean, it's a different kind of chemistry. But it's not like if you were listening to a singer, you couldn't go, you know, I'd like to add another stanza here as the audience, but as the audience had comedy, by your laughter, and often by what people, you know, say, Man, I do have teacher ears, so I can hear them. You know, I do kind of go from there. My comedy goal, though, is to write comedy that all people can dance to. Now that I think would be a trip, that would be wonderful. Can you tell me a little bit what kind of comedians influenced you as a younger person that kind of pushed you in a direction that I mean? That you thought that? Hey, I'd like to do some of that?

J

Jewel Gray 43:25

N

Nancy Rodriguez 43:39

Well, I love Richard Pryor. I was I had a wonderful gift in my life. When I was little, I come from a family of five. So my mother was always busy, but I had a friend. My best friend's mother was the wife of a doctor and she had some leisure time. And so she would call me over and say, you've got to listen to this record. And I would end up listening to like Mike Nichols and Elaine May, I would end up listening to moms, MABLEY records, you know, classics that I probably wouldn't have come across, but those are Alan Sherman, you know, Bob Newhart early stuff and he did phone stuff. It's just wonderful. So it's those people that influenced me really, really early on.

J

Jewel Gray 44:26

So that kind of kind of gives me perspective when when you hear who was an influence of someone and then you can sit back and say, Oh, I can see a tiny bit of that in that performance. I can I hear a little bit of that person in this this performance. Winters with huge effect. Oh, I love Jonathan Winters. Like I mean, there is a piece of work I mean, oh, yeah, nonstop. Well, he's Robin Williams is mentor, I believe. Well, listen, uh, how about your Yeah, tap dance some little. Well, actually, I wanted to ask you something, you know, I'm kind of involved in the community here, we do a radio show here called after hours. That's what we're doing now. And we do this every, every weekend, from midnight to three on Saturday nights. And we have a lot of people, and I'm kind of up into but and I've done interviews with various political figures and, and national figures around and I was really almost embarrassed to find out that you're your partner in life for several years. Is Urvashi. Bad, bad? I was surprised. I didn't know that.

N

Nancy Rodriguez 45:49

It was an evolving thing. You know, we've been together almost nine years. And I guess we haven't really, you know, we don't talk about it. You know, we haven't been real public with it, not because we're, I mean, I'm very proud of our relationship. We certainly worked very hard to continue to

J

Jewel Gray 46:09

two very busy women. It would seem to be something like

N

Nancy Rodriguez 46:13

their big thing that we talked about, you know, it's like a that we get when am I going to see you

J

Jewel Gray 46:18

airports? I imagine airports. Yeah. Common conversation.

N

Nancy Rodriguez 46:23

No. And so that, you know, we just we were I think we both had come from other long term relationships, and we're skittish about getting into it know its relationship with each other, but
