Jimmy Carper 00:04

This Week in Texas, has kind of outdone itself. They've got a great, great article on Naomi Sims, the the drag queen of Texas, I guess who died one year ago this week on November 10. If if you can, get out and get a copy of it or get a friend to get your copy of it, because there are a lot of people in this town that we need to remember. I know that every once in a while we say something about Tiffany Jones, who was great drag queen who also died of AIDS. I, I don't know. Naomi means a whole lot to me and recalls kind of a different way of life, a nicer way of life, campier way of life. And I remember when he went out for the female impersonator of the year and won it and the tune that he did, it's, it's not like he was impersonating anybody that night, you know, because what he did was Liza Minnelli's version of New York, New York. But when Naomi got on the stage, it became Naomi song. It was Naomi doing it. It was no impersonation. All the dance steps or the all the choreography. It's just great. And so I didn't want to play the, the, that version, the, the Liza Minnelli version, because I don't want you to get the impression that Naomi was trying to be Liza, I want to play a different version from a gay group, New York City Gay Men's Chorus, and doing a song that they should know how to do. So Naomi, it's for you. I just have to do that once or twice a year. It's the long version of "Smalltown By" by that great group, Bronski Beat, who, of course, is no more. They've kind of broken up several times over. But that's kind of oh, gosh, that's like a gay anthem. Since we were talking about gay anthems tonight. And I just I just wanted to do that. Of course before that New York City Gay Men's Chorus doing "New York, New York." I qant to talk about a couple of things real quick and in here. Kind of unrelated fun stuff you might be interested in. For example, at the good old WestMon Art Bar and Repertory Theater and what> What is that? That's a that's a kind of place that's opened up on the other side of Charlie's. Yeah, kind of little theater that they're doing for a limited engagement Vampire Lesbians of Sodom, an all time favorite. And when I believe that divine did on off, off, off, off, off Broadway. So if you can get to that, tickets are real cheap. Doing Friday and Saturday night at kind of 11-ish Sunday at 8pm. It's gonna be a turkey neck gobbler review over at the Red Room. It's a fundraiser for the Colt 45s with all kinds of special guests like Britney Paige and MS party barge and Blanca de Bri, get it, folks, white trash. Love it. That's going to be November the 21st, 5:30pm, no cover over at the Red Room. We'll be talking about that and next week. Oh, don't forge.t don't forget. Tuesday. I believe it is November the 17th. Bare Magazine is coming to town and they'll be at the mining company. They're gonna do a special Texas kind of review and they're going to pick 'em, pick some guys and take some pictures and then go over to the Lovett Inn for a more personal photo shoot for the magazine. So hey, if you're hairy and you want to show it, hang out at the mining company on November 17. And because this is the QMZ, and I know a couple of hairy guys out there, yeah, well, hey. Oh, okay, because this is the QM-- this is the QMZ, we want to talk about joining the Q-Patrol because this week and every week, every week, the QMZ is dedicated to the men and women out on our streets tonight patrolling the Q-Patrol. So hey, jot down these numbers 8718519 or 643029. It's, it's really kind of fun hanging out then checking out the streets and what's going on and all that kind of stuff on Friday and Saturday night. Maybe Sunday, too. I think, I'm not too sure. Give 'em a call if you'd if you didn't get those numbers, give us a call here at the station that you know, JA-MKPFT 5265738. Now the close out the QMZ. An old group that I've rediscovered it's called Big Boys. It's a group out of Austin, kind of along the same type of deal as Sister Double Happiness with biscuit being kind of the big guy who wrote a lot of the stuff and did most of the singing and all that kind of stuff. And in fact, they they did, did a lot of shows with the Dicks, which was Gary Floyd's group before Sister Double Happiness. But they were kinda, I mean, Biscuit was known to be gay. And so you know, Hey, there's this new CD out with a whole bunch of Big Boys songs and let's do some good old Texas gay punk. Okay, here we go. And you're listening to KPFT Houston. 90.1 FM.

 Michael Crawford 07:27

Okay, that was Bob Mould. The song "Can't Fight It" from the No Alternative CD, which again, just go right on but it, it has a lot of great songs on it. And the whole thing is being used to raise money for AIDS prevention. Are you asleep?

 Eric 07:44

No.

 Michael Crawford 07:45

Okay, because we're gonna, it's announcement time.

 Eric 07:50

Hello.

 Michael Crawford 07:52

Okay, you can announce these. Here you go.

 Eric 07:55

... - - - - -

Is it about the Bering Thanksgiving dinner that we're serving at?

 Michael Crawford 08:00

No, it's about the AIDS Foundation.

 Eric 08:01

Okay. Which one?

 Michael Crawford 08:04

Now, the ones, I think it's like the first day of the 18th.

 Eric 08:07

Oops. Getting the love you want. Psychotherapist Miles Glaspy, CSW of the new Counseling Center will explore the unconscious reasons why we fall into love and offer techniques to create a more conscious image of the person we're looking for. This discussion is based on Harville Hendrix's book, "Getting the Love You Want," and it's aimed at both singles and couples. Sponsored by the AFH and Body Positive at Montrose library, 1400 Montrose, 636796, Bart.

 Michael Crawford 08:49

Okay. Have a press release to come that's come from Red Ribbon foundation or the Robert Foundation says Robert Foundation offers discounts to New York. The Robert foundation will be offering discounts on airfare to New York City this summer for those planning, planning to attend the Gay Games and or Stonewall 25. Discounts range from 5 to 40% off. For additional information or to request a bloke brochure please call 7890278. That number again is 7890278.

 09:30

Yes, the next little block. Nutrition and HIV Tuesday, November the 30th, 6:30 to 8:30pm. Richard Albion R.D., a dietary specialist with home nutritional services will present a discussion on basic good nutrition for HIV infected individuals with emphasis on some of the special dietary needs of people living with AIDS. He will also cover the importance of proper food preparation and storage. Co-sponsored by AFH and Body Positive AFH offices, 3202 Weslayan in the annex building, please call 6236796, Bart.

 Michael Crawford 10:16

Okay, another pamphlet from the Red Ribbon project. It's about the Red Ribbon Reflections, film written and directed by Polo Latimer. And basically this is a film about what the red ribbon means to, I guess various people who call up, who called the one 800 Number we've given out of the last several weeks. In order to get the Red Ribbon Reflections, Send five bucks to the Robert Foundation, The Red Ribbon video, PO Box 630422, Houston, Texas 77263-0422. Run it over. And wait, wait, wait.

 Eric 11:03

Exploring the fun of safer, sensual sex.

 Michael Crawford 11:06

That's the one.

 Eric 11:08

Gay and bisexual men Tuesday November the 16th, seven to 9pm, a confidential and entertaining workshop. We'll discuss the issues and explore options for a safer at sensual sex life without the fear. These free workshops are offered twice monthly, the third and fourth Tuesdays. Or they can be arranged for private groups, i.e. house parties at any time. Sponsored by AIDS Foundation Houston at 3202 Wesleyan, the annex building 6236796, Bart.

 Michael Crawford 11:46

Okay, we're gonna play another song from the new alternative CD. It's called "Bitch" by the Goo Goo Dolls.

 Eric 11:55

Cool.

 Michael Crawford 12:00

Okay, that was "Bitch" from the Goo Goo Dolls, which is actually a remake of a Rolling Stone song. Did you know that? No, you talk into the microphone.

 Eric 12:11

Yes, I knew. I'm very big fan of the Rolling Stones. I knew that.

 Michael Crawford 12:15

Thank you. Well, now we're going to be playing excerpts from "Spare Ass Annie" by

 Eric 12:22

William S. Burroughs and the Hiphoprisy.

 Michael Crawford 12:26

The Disposable Heroes of Hiphoprisy, including the really cute Asian guy on the back. See, Sarah? I know you're not interested but look anyway.

 Eric 12:34

Is this, is this in any existing correlation with the two guys at DiverseWorks this week?

 Michael Crawford 12:44

Oh, no, we forgot to mention that. Where's that Houston press?

 Eric 12:48

It's right there. There it is. This week at the DiverseWorks. Okay, seems that, uh.

 Michael Crawford 12:56

Jorge and Jose, who are the organizers of a week long gay and lesbian art festival in Mexico City are going to be in Houston at DiverseWorks on Wednesday the 17th at 7pm. DiverseWorks is located at

 Eric 13:15

It's the second right after the U of H main entrance.

 Michael Crawford 13:20

1117 East freeway. This is free and the number to call is 2238346. And according to the little blurb here, it says anyone a little curious about what it's like to be gay in Mexico City should check out their video. For the more cerebral types, the two will discuss. Okay. The gay cultural circle, a group that eats here, presents a week long festival of gay and lesbian culture. Don't laugh at me. I'm just an ignorant American. Okay.

 Speaker 4 13:52

I wouldn't even try it.

 Michael Crawford 13:54

Oh, there I have, what about you? Okay, so what? Okay, you kind of moaned. Okay, so the first piece we're going to play from "Spare Ass Annie."

 Eric 14:07

Hey, language.

 Michael Crawford 14:11

Oh, wait, we should have one of those little language things. Yeah, a disclaimer. Yeah, but we figured we play it again. That's okay if we can't find it. Okay, the first one is entitled "Words of Advice for Young People."

 [Music] 14:43

People often ask me how many. Gonna need some water first.
