Mr. Columbo my money we are all, get up boy. Now listen up, listen up, ladies and gentlemen rush Zulu coming into honoree from Port line got Jamaica we're still live but check this out check this out from Lawrence Kansas reading from naked laundry and weighing in slightly over 100 pounds shooting for the $5 Calling in draw your friend My friend member That way one on one all purpose blob. Did I ever tell you about a man and Jodi's so the dog is oh move up and down big party mouth the word it was unlike anything I ever heard. This has talked about I got frequency lit you right down there like you know when you'll be sorted hold on you know yeah to do his turn. Well this talking will hit you right down there a bubbly dicks stagnant sound now. Is when word for current leader in the story but it was like a novelty ventriloquist real funny too at first you had a number he called the better oh that was a scream to get most of it but it was clever. Like oh I say are you still down there old thing nah, I had to go relieve myself for a while yes starts talking on his own would go into anything repair and he's asked what ad lib and toss the gag back at him every now develop sorry to be improving hawks eat the others was cute first and build act around it but the answer would eat its way through his pants and start talking about a screen shot and I want equal rights crying jag nobody loves I want to talk dog with him shut up beat Nepalese candles nothing Shut up in the goes wait don't need you around here anymore. I can talk and eat and everything and he began waking up in the morning with a transparent Yeley like a pale ovary mouth. And this is what the sign is called BT that's undifferentiated tissue which can grow into any kind of bush on a human body with dirt on his mouth and pieces of stick to his hand like burning gasoline jelly go anywhere on anywhere on Mr. Glover that finally is mouse clo or no head would have amputated spontaneous Did you know that condition occurs in parts of Africa and only I'm on the road with a little dough amputates spontaneously that's one thing there so it needed the but nerve connections were blocked and infiltrate in an apt of pain so the brand couldn't or anymore. It was trapped in the skull sealed off. For a while you can see the silent helpless suffering of the brain behind the eye. Then finally the brain must die because they are I went out and it was no more feeling in my mind I cried lie on end of us dark love the sex that passes the sense of squeezes through between your own Euro because they're always a space between and popular songs Grade B movies given away the basic American rottenness, spurting out like a break in recoil, throwing out blobs of differentiated tissue to fall anywhere and grow into some degenerate cancerous by reproducing a hideous random image that would be entirely made a penis like erectile tissue just barely covered over with skin classes of three and or I've been given criss cross of mountain souls human okay that was the "Did I Ever Tell You About the Man That Taught His Asshole to Talk?" The final excerpt we're going to be playing from Spare Ass Annie is entitled "A One God Nation." In case you weren't able to figure that out, that was the mystery song for Nirvana that's on track number 19 on the No Alternative CD, which again is being sold to raise money for AIDS prevention. Before that, the CD version of "Can You Forgive Her?" from the Pet Shop Boys from the album? What? Thank you. The next song is going to be "Bike Boy" by Deborah Harry.
