SPEAKERS

Jewel Gray, Jimmy Carper, Speaker 18, Diane Williams

 Diane Williams 00:00

I just love sex with women. It's great. Me too. Yes. No, that's not what, wait a minute. It's hard. It's the freedom of expression. It's, it's getting to, to verbalize an action is your freedom of expression and to be all that you can be literally can see. Oh, you can see. I of course was not naked. I didn't do that. No, it wasn't up for that at all.

 00:30

Can we stop talking about naked women here? Because it's, you know, I'm kind of single these days. It's like,

 Diane Williams 00:35

 00:36

it's Leighton.

 Diane Williams 00:37

Okay, I have one more question. Fall in love with a screamer. That's what I would tend to disagree with that. screamer, okay. Got it. Tell the story about family spotting on the way. You know what I'm saying driving and stuff.

 00:54

Okav here's the story I was just coming new battery out of South Carolina I'm nulling in to Okay, here's the story. I was just coming new battery out of South Carolina. I'm pulling in to Washington, DC and I have not been there for years and years and years and years. So I'm pulling into DC just as the sun is going down. And at dusk, I see the Washington Monument.

D

Diane Williams 01:10

The giant phallic symbol moreall that

o

giant giant p nine thing to the sky. Oh, here's Jimmy. Thank you what's coming? Up No, no, seriously now this it was it was you know, I'm not the most patriotic person if you will. It's like no, no, it's like that bumper sticker. I love my country but I fear my government have you seen I've loved that so that's basically how I feel about things. But when I saw the the skyline and the sun going to I wept

D

Diane Williams 01:43

I started doing our both crying Oh, I

o

tried it was ridiculous. But But just as I saw that, I heard somebody beep and I thought oh my gosh, I'm I'm driving up the highway here the freeway and I must be you know, swerving or something and in my weeping. But no, this car passed me and had a little rainbow flag on the back bumper just like I do have a little rainbow flag on my car. So just in case somebody wants to pull me over and do my hair or something I'll be readily readily recognizable. But anyway, so these two guys gay guys drove by in Hong Kong and just wave it's like, Ah, I'm home. I'm home mammal. And that started the weekend and it did not stop and it hasn't stopped yet. It hasn't stopped yet.

D

Diane Williams 02:31

I went to the Holocaust Museum. Did you I need I didn't go inside the Holocaust Museum. It wasn't open yet. But we did the candlelit vigil. Karen Do you remember what night it was or when it was candlelight vigil was in a bag? That was like Friday or Saturday night I think and it was it was extremely intense and moving it was

o

that's what I needed one more thing to make me cry

D

Diane Williams 02:53

I cried. I cried my friend Kelly who is not here tonight. Kelly if you're here you can already talk to Holly right now. Lovey Kelly I don't know where you are. But I do mission. Really calling Colin Benet calling you folks that aren't here that said you might be here and talk about the march. Because it was just so moving. We call in if you just want to say calling just to say hey, or if you want to pledge Isn't this like pledge week or something? It is definitely asking for money here. So yeah, we're supposed to be asking for money. I hate asking for money. I just want you to do it anyway. I want us not to have to ask because I want us to give you I want y'all to give us money because you love us and you want to keep hearing us and it's the right thing to do.

03:10

Diane Williams 03:18

03:32

What do you turn it into Spike Lee on me now? Diane Williams joined here at KPFT excuse me, it's a Spike Lee thing.

Diane Williams 03:41

See the Spike Lee? I remember did my comedy on the radio a long time ago. That's a spike Spike Jones. That that that?

03:51

Got it. Nancy Lord. Yes. Come in. I had such a great time in Washington and I had a really great time seeing you there.

Diane Williams 03:54

03:57

At the at the wedding. I cried at the wedding and cried at the wedding. And it wasn't I cried it. I went to the Pentagon. I went to the Pentagon thing the following Monday there were about three 500 people there. I saw 70 year old veteran turn and shake his fist at the Pentagon saying are you listening to us all we want is you know lifting the ban equal rights equal rights it was it was beyond anything I cried it that incredibly moving it was incredibly moving it and I haven't even started my period yet. So you know, the I am going to be Miss cry. I'm going to be we've been through a week but she cried when she couldn't get the bellboy.

 04:38

Those bellboys I'll tell you what that would have been my profession of choice being do or a cab driver. Think of all the fringe benefits.

 Diane Williams 04:45

 04:47

Oh, did you know that that's how Washington that was one of the the ways they were counting how many people were there by how many people rode the Metro, the subway, the subway, the bus system? How many gay people do You know would take the subway or the bus and not take a cab come on a taxi taxi. Come on that's at least you know two thirds of us it's a good point. I mean, I enjoyed the subway especially the one that was like two miles up out of the bowels of when I got stuck on like this birth canal type subway today was going to the night and it was broken so I had to walk up three flights straight up with 1000 Miles everywhere called a I hated it. I hated it. But you know the stuff we had absolutely no graffiti on it at all. Period. None beautiful, guys now. My put a big lesbo sticker on the back of somebody's I know 300 300,000 People there were 300,000 people in my hotel. Yeah.

 Diane Williams 05:21

 05:42

 Jewel Gray 05:49

That time they took it at 930 That morning, over the rally side

 Diane Williams 05:53

the park. That that was I

 Jewel Gray 05:56

took photographs and then Medline with

 Diane Williams 06:00

what happened is that the park police estimated that they were a little over 300,000 people. The police department of the city of Washington DC estimated that there was just over 1 million people this is at the same time. Now number two what they didn't get was a park police gets the information from the mall. The mall area which which in itself, you know should clue you in.

 06:19

 Diane Williams 06:23

Nobody goes to the mall. Over five hours to get everybody even started. Yeah. And there were people lined up on streets, you know, backed up everywhere and they had to reroute the parade the whole time was a text Incredible Step. Honey, thank you step sit down. You tell me step sit down. You told me when to sit down. What you told me you went to that. I did go to Texas to party. Was it a Texas thing?

 06:35

 Diane Williams 06:38

 06:47

I Yes. Well, yes. It was an I danced with a lesbian Undertaker from Chicago, which was right wing. She very well. She was she was blonde. She Undertaker. She did lead. I thought I thought it was wonderful. It was fun. It was great. You know if I'm going to dance with somebody, it's going to be an undertaker from Chicago. If you're out there listening, God, what was your name? I enjoyed every minute and fester. I can't remember.

D

Diane Williams 07:20

It was incredible. So the two step party was cool. What is the thing? That was your choice here? Okay.

07:28

choice choice. If you're out there. Wash your hands and calm. That's really great. You know, that's, that's why I'm here. Thanks for sharing. Nancy. I have one more question. It's a big question. It's the big question. This is it. I am going to ask you actually two questions now that you've pointed this out to.

D

Diane Williams 07:38

07:51

You are so smooth. showbusiness

D

Diane Williams 07:56

way. Same way. The big segue is this. What are you going to take back with you? What did you bring back to Houston? What did you get out of the trip besides battery and new alternator? Now tell you what call I came back with a cold myself, quite honestly. It turned my it changed my life. It was a pivotal point in my life. If I can be if I didn't think I could be more out. You know, I didn't think I could get more impassioned about what it is we need to do. You're really good. I'm pretty doggone gay. But if anything, the March inspired me a that I'm not doing enough. And that no matter what you do, it's everyone needs to do as much as they can whether it's going to a planning meeting for Human Rights Foundation, or going to the Texas lesbian concert at the end of the month or come into one of my shows and you know seeing the darker side or getting involved with gay pride. You know, it's everybody has to to help move the barge pick up an oar so to speak. It is a process and I hope I can you know, you do more and more of that.

08:06

D

Diane Williams 09:15

I know you were telling me something earlier about part of that process for you. And I think that you came back and you wrote something for one of the magazines one of the many syndicated magazines that syndicated

09:26

the out of town Express uptown expresses citywide

Diane Williams 09:30

citywide. I'm telling Express is so cool. I love that magazine. But you write for that magazine and you shouldn't be a piece that has a gay slant if you will, which would be lesbian slash Oh be Nancy's article was she's got with her evidently. You know, I never leave home with that. Would you like me to read it as read it? Yes, please. Why don't you because I wanted to ask you how this has affected your career. And part of the things that that part of the part of things I know this has affected your career is a place You're gonna be performing soon. Yeah.

Diane Williams 09:47

10:02

Oh, this is very exciting for me. I got a call, call a Thursday evening, this past Thursday evening. If you're not doing anything, anyone within the sound of my voice, please come to the laughs stop on West gray in River Oaks on Monday night at 730. That would be Monday, May 10. At 730 I'm going to be auditioning, get rid of this hold on to your seats. I'm going to be auditioning for the Joan River Show. Way. Cool. And it was Yeah. And you know, Joan likes community. Well, yeah, it was by invitation. But you know, and it's just I'm very excited about doing it. It's going to be a whole evening of female comics. And they invited me anyway.

Diane Williams 10:46

So you know, I'm thrilled they're gonna lock up the women are you going to be there?

10:49

I hope they do. Once we get all crammed in there, they're gonna lock the doors, and it's only $1 to get in, but it's 25 to get out. So it's gonna be great. So please come by and I hope I'm finding

Diane Williams 11:03

I'll be there. Because I don't laugh I'll make sure to laugh because you know, I laughing

11:06

Well, don't laugh if I'm not funny because Joan would know she would know. Jones Jones very hip.

Diane Williams 11:11

I get that. So okay, you want this read me at least, if not all of this, which I think you can read. And it would be just fine, but talk about it. Okay, here are some of the things that I saw. I won't do the intro here. Is that it? Okay. Blah. You saw those? Why do you ask if I driven 3500 miles in two weeks? No, I didn't get stuck on the loop, which can happen. I went up to Washington for that big queer protest march thing. You know, you saw that hoopla on CNN and C span and ABC and CBS and NBC and MTV and BBC and Pa B. PMS and PBS and all the heavy hitters were there. You saw those leather guys and topless women and cherry has to drag queens and tack today to today, transsexuals, all kissing each other in broad daylight parading around demanding more rights and protection than your average normal citizen. You saw it all on television. Right? Well, let me tell you what I saw. The first thing that gave me the impression that this would be no ordinary weekend occurred about 10 miles outside DC I already told you about that the guys with the rainbow flag tooting their horn. I saw the steps of the Capitol covered with gays and lesbians and their friends and supporters seeing the marches theme song I heard hundreds and hundreds of voices harmoniously repeating the catchphrase no one is free until everyone is free way. I saw middle American PFLAG parents with their polo shirted offspring, sharing hotel elevators with nipple ringed Leatherman comfortably. I was there. I saw children being children chasing each other barefoot through the grass on the Washington Mall, running away from two mothers being reprimanded by two mothers. I saw more than 5000 gay and lesbian couples joined together in a commitment ceremony having been inspired by the example and encouragement of two elderly gay lesbian couples who had spent their entire lives together in a loving monogamous marriage like relationship. I cried them even though it's illegal. I saw performance by Naughty a comic with AIDS. He was funny, he was topical. He was emaciated. If you ever have the opportunity to see this guy in his show do so you'll laugh till you cry. I saw two beautiful men from Houston carrying a beautiful portrait like banner of themselves and their two beautiful young sons. Under the heading we are family. I saw 1000s of new panels displayed for the first time with the names project AIDS Quilt on the expansive lawn between the Lincoln and Washington memorials. It was the only time during an otherwise very bright and sunny weekend that the skies turned dark and rainy. I saw no one using drugs or alcohol during the march by the way. Very impressive. I saw uniform a uniform no I saw uniformed middle aged white men on the steps of the Pentagon laughing smirking as they watched they lift the band demonstration on the lawn below. I saw a middle aged Hispanic man obviously a veteran burst into tears begging them screaming at them to stop laughing. He held an American flag and a rainbow flag. I saw the expression on my family's collective face when they open Newsweek on page 43 and saw my picture in an article with the headline get this gay power is making gains the old fashioned way with money and insider cloud Oh, snap for that.

11:19

You know what else I saw 300,000 people marching in front of me down Pennsylvania Avenue past the White House toward the Capitol. Then I turned around and saw at least 700,000 More behind me. It leaves.

 Diane Williams 15:15
Thank you very much.

 15:16
I saw history being made, right?

 Diane Williams 15:20
We're here. We're queer. And we've come to take your wife to the White House. We're right in front of the White House. 2468 don't assume that Chelsea straight.

 15:33
That was good. We gotta tell you my personal favorite placard was Viva la vulva.

 Diane Williams 15:41
It is a body part. It is the body part. It's okay. Okay, we can say that.

 15:46
Didn't Elvis sing that. I love Volvo.

 Jewel Gray 15:52
Did you guys get to see the scene in my case at Ford is not a thing somebody typed. We haven't seen it yet. We're gonna have a party at Mary Ann's house and all of us are gonna come over and watch it. Tape it meanwhile, and it's gonna be okay. I don't know. I'm really excited about it. Can I come? Yeah, sure can come party with us. You know what time it is. It's station identification time, along with many other things right now. You're listening to after hours. Gay Lesbian news information infotainment, and party radio on 90.1 FM KPFT World Radio for the people what? KPFT Houston, Houston, Texas if you don't know where you are. Am I in Houston, Texas. 7706 a lifestyle not a zip code. I thought this was Virginia Beach. KPFT 90.1 Once again, after hours.

Speaker 18 16:54

Hello, I'm Goodman delver. And this is you're really sick. You know few topics of the past decade have captured the hearts and minds of most Americans as Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, more popularly known as AIDS. So many people's lives have been touched by this often fatal disease. yet sadly, the average person's window to understanding its innocent victims is often clouded by the steam of ignorance. To help shed some light on this national tragedy. I'd like to introduce the spokesperson for the persons with AIDS Task Force. Roger Wainwright. So Roger, since you yourself have been diagnosed as HIV positive. Have you experienced either overtly or subtly any putting, shall we say discrimination? Ah, don't you think I should be a little closer to the mic? No, no, that's all right. I don't want you to catch my cold Roger Wainwright of the persons with AIDS Taskforce. Thank you for joining us. Until next time, I'm Goodman delver and you're really sick when I was a close rosenberry

Diane Williams 18:13

Hey, Jimmy, say well say oh, hey, Joe. Why don't you come here and say, say And we're back? Hey, we're here. Hey, Joel grant. I'm so glad you're here. secret admirer. Yeah, yeah. from Ireland. Cool. It's a secret of actual No, actually, she's not a secret admirer. But she's the strangest woman I've ever had had an affair with you quite an affair with how cool we spent about two years together not living together just kind of kind of an on again off cut camping and going all over the country. And we just kind of drifted off. She moved out of town and we just kind of drifted off. But she drops me these postcards for the last Oh, six years that I've been getting these postcards from around the world when she This one's from Ireland. And it's got this cryptic message on it. So I'm gonna spend weeks trying to figure out what she's telling me. It's really interesting to have that kind of pillar. It says Northern Ireland looks like this postcard was made the day I was born like 55 rougher edges, you know? Yeah, well, I gave that away deny danger and old part will be careful. Being careful. We don't want to be talking about aging here. I saw this one almost get his fuse a little while ago when he addressed to Jimmy you don't address and, and and a wiser wise ripened to gay man and a wise gay man happened right. And he's having fits over there with that tape. He's just as frustrated as he can be. But I was going to tell Greg Greg, Greg that I was gonna pull him aside and give him a little sage. sage advice about you got it is about talking to gay people, especially those who've been around in the community for a while. about their age.

J

Jewel Gray 18:27

D

Diane Williams 20:11

What a faux pa that is a terrible faux pas. That's okay. It's and you know, those of us in the activist community would say the not only is that a social faux pas it is also terribly ageist activist community would say the not only is that a social tax pay, it is also terribly ageist, ageist and age restrictive ages. So anyway, your chastens severely, and we still love you. It's okay. Feel the ageism from people?

20:34

Diane Williams 20:37

I know you do. And that's bad stuff.

Jewel Gray 20:39

Oh, well, let me remind you that just because you feel something doesn't mean that it's right to put it forth. Ooh, that's good. I'll see. I think that I've been we were talking to some friends and I were talking about this very thing yesterday about how could gay people be prejudiced? You know, how was it that people who had been oppressed, could be oppressive. And it was, it was really strange to me, I find it amusing when I find a Jewish person who's who's prejudiced or any of the oppressed people that you find, who is then again, being oppressive to another people. I agree. It amazes me the Academy.

Diane Williams 21:16

And you know, what, the National Council of, I don't know, Jewish people or something. I endorse the march. And they scheduled their whole national conference around in Washington around the same time of the march, so that they could be there during and have the opening of Holocaust museum right afterwards. And it was all very deliberate. I'm that way it was delivered was planned. We supported each other. And it was very empowering for me to see.

Jewel Gray 21:48

I was impressed with the NAACP turnout there. It's right. I was really impressed with the speeches that came from the executive director, the new executive director, and a couple of the people that sat on the board of the NAACP, their speeches, especially were strong, powerful and supportive connective in saying just what I was just talking about, about, you know, how can the pressors the oppressed hack away for forcing each other?

Diane Williams 22:16

Yeah, but not only that, I mean, I think personally to that, everybody, our oppressors are the ones who the responsibility is on. In other words, if gay people are oppressed by straight people, which were also oppressed by each other, but if gay people are oppressed by straight people, then it's up to straight people to stop oppressing us. And it's up to us to educate the same way that racism is only going to be healed by white people. You know, white people are the in general oppressors of you know, everybody, everybody find somebody prejudiced and they've got a whole list of things that they're they're not they're not prejudiced. They hate everybody equally. Yeah. But I had a great time. And you know, I did send you postcards don't

J Jewel Gray 22:46

D Diane Williams 22:50

J Jewel Gray 22:58

I still haven't gotten them. I got this one from Ireland that would get in your hair

D Diane Williams 23:03

there in the studio. Earlier, and Jimmy's got stolen. Stolen it to me I gave you a postcard. Yes.

J Jimmy Carper 23:11

Well, she sent to and I had them here because I kept them in the box. I wanted everybody from the show to see it. Yeah, to see it was the one with the Flying Star Hill and owl with their heads on top of these very athletic bodies that that was on the cover of the advocate that one Kim Vaughn took the straight Jim Yeah, the show to show Kathy

J Jewel Gray 23:34

That's right. What she's missing out there. I know he's gonna He's gonna be in your gym. Hi, Kathy.

D Diane Williams 23:42

J Jewel Gray 23:46

I don't think Catholic listens to us. I think she's jealous because we get so much of him so she doesn't listen to us.

D Diane Williams 23:56
Were talking about you?

J Jewel Gray 23:57
Were super imposing your head on Arnold. Schwarzenegger's body.

D Diane Williams 24:03
I said, No. That's nice. It's a thing.

J Jewel Gray 24:06
Well, I was really jealous that you got to go to the March and I didn't, but somebody had to hold the fort down here. We had a good time. And I heard there was lots of things happen around here. Here in town. Yes. Well, there was lots of things happening here that we had those women from keep saying those women from, from the community gardens and they were real hit. We they talked to us for a little while. And we got I don't know five or six calls at night just to talk to wanting to talk to them. And, and I talked to Rhonda actually, we've been playing phone tag a couple of days ago, I got a message from Rhonda and she said that they had gotten a whole handful of people who've called in and a whole different group of people who've just donated stuff to Oh great. So it really worked really well.

D Diane Williams 24:51
You know, speaking of donations,

J Jewel Gray 24:53
oh yeah, it's time to time to hit you up out there for that nickel dime quarter. No, no, no no donations.

J Jimmy Carper 24:59
I Forgot we've gotten some last night. The potpie restaurant donated a couple of pizzas to esoteric adventures.

D Diane Williams 25:06
Oh, hey, yeah. So if you own a restaurant send us food. We're starving food. I don't know it is that Diane's got a couple of people to thank, I believe, do but you know, I know there's somewhere on this sheet of paper it says whether or not we can say your name on there. Where is it? Here it is. This is yes. What does this say? No, this doesn't say anything. So, you know, there's okay. There's a lovely person out there. I know who it is. We love you. We think about you. We see often we care about you. You've donated a really large sum like a huge sum. Can I say how much? No. Okay, a really large sum. And we appreciate it enough to buy a new chair or a new microphone, a new headset. That's just a new chair on where you shop. pay my rent girlfriend in my bills. Course I live in a poverty level. But you know what I see. I see. I see here this one that was perfect. Well, this one over here says yes. We may think Jana, we'd love you to Yeah, I don't know who the heck er but. Jana, Jana. Overtime. Jewel. Saturday's erotic is at Jana. Jana. Jana, if you're out there. Thank you. Thank you, Charlie. For a router would be the one screaming and crying. Let me go home and go to sleep. But Jana, we love you. We thank you. Jen also mentioned Pokey, and we love pokey Anderson, and she's part of the community and we love her. And we listen to her and we see her all the time. So we're glad that she's around.

J Jimmy Carper 25:13

D Diane Williams 25:15

J Jewel Gray 25:46

D Diane Williams 25:54

J Jewel Gray 26:07

D Diane Williams 26:11

J Jimmy Carper 26:56
Uh, well, not only that, but pokey Anderson has Well, let me put it this way. I often talk to pokey about music to play on this show. So she has a huge influence. Yes, absolutely.

D Diane Williams 27:12
And she just did that hazel which has been

And she just did that hazel which has been an influence in music and this community as long as I've been here 12 years, because I remember pokey delivering hand delivering albums to the record stores to bookstores. Wildenstein 1012 years ago, she was a wild record distributor in town lesbian and gay music. So raise your hand here ever.

J Jewel Gray 27:14

D Diane Williams 27:31

Raise your hand out there if you know what Wildenstein is where it was either location or if you ever been to raise your hand your question? Wow, really trivia question. If you know where either location of Wildenstein ever was calling out jam KPFT

J Jewel Gray 27:44

and name one of the one of the owners and

D Diane Williams 27:49

I don't have any prizes to give out and if your name is Bob, you're going to get that that same sex kind of thing happening that's what we do have a long time. But I see you're gonna ask her I'm gonna have her on one day. Am I is that what it says?

J Jewel Gray 27:59

D Diane Williams 28:05

No, it's not about doesn't have a clue as to when but she is on here often I don't think that she wants to stay up till midnight she's not a midnight person. But she does guest spots on the Friday show occasionally and she will probably be on the arm Sure. But we love poking we miss our in anytime you want to see or you can just drive by Inklings bookstore and she or one of the main

J Jimmy Carper 28:26

46 Richmond Avenue at hazard Yes. And has a

J Jewel Gray 28:30

J Jewel Gray 28:30
lot of promo in front of

D Diane Williams 28:33
ya. Because we live there. That's why in by all the stickers and buttons and jewelry and music and T shirts and I get all the free local information you can pick up Yeah.

J Jewel Gray 28:40

D Diane Williams 28:43
As Sally if she's working there, you know, like what's happening if there's any like cool context to go to a salamander. Hey, let me Salamander. And if you're there with Mani tamani Happy Birthday Cinco Demayo.

J Jewel Gray 28:55
I was thinking about okay, happy birthday money. Happy birthday money birthday money. Birthday. Happy Birthday was

J Jewel Gray 28:59
bladder candles.

D Diane Williams 29:05
Money you still have sexy legs. Okay. For a straight girl. You have the best legs in town. All right. I just thought I'd throw that in.

J Jimmy Carper 29:12
Where are we talking about fundraising?

D Diane Williams 29:14

I know we work. Please. Please, please. Okay.

J Jimmy Carper 29:17

Okay, the number is 5265738. And I'm KPFT. What we have here this time are a bunch of cards with real live listeners just like you all just like them who have been interviewed and tell why they like KPFT. So that that really sounds a lot better than us coming on here and telling you why you like it because you already know.

J Jewel Gray 29:41

It's true. Okay, you wouldn't be here. So let's listen to a couple of those. Sure. Let's all right. Let's do that right now.

D Diane Williams 29:45

i 29:48

I discovered it 10 or 15 years ago, and it brought some sanity into existing in Houston makes me feel great. I'm glad I would hate to see KPFT not be there. It seems like not much to put out a few dollars or think about a few dollars a day or a few dollars a week, whatever you have. So that every time you can turn on the dial, you have something interesting to listen to diversity of views and alternative points of views. The radio offers, said that they just need to imagine Houston without KPFT. And I'm sure they would just first to offer to the registration. I think the PPFD can serve as a focal point for any for many efforts because of the way it reaches so many people in the community at large. Which is not as easily done in the army, the army.
