after hours.

Buddy Johnston 13:30

I remember thinking, I'm the only one. I'm the only one who feels this way.

13:38

There's got to be more to life than this.

Buddy Johnston 13:44

As a small child growing up in Arkansas I thought I was the only one that felt this way. And today 30 years later, I hear the same thing from young people all across the Houston area. I'm the only one. I'm the only one that feels this way. We're gay and lesbian people. And we'll show you a better way to feel about yourself. Every Saturday night at midnight, on after hours. Tune in I remember those days alone in Arkansas, thinking I'm the only one. There can't be anyone out there that feels like this. And you know what? In 1990 30 years later I I still hear the same thing from young people all over the Houston area. I'm the only one. No one can feel like this.
My name is Buddy. I work for the police department. And I'm openly gay. And I produce a program called after hours every Saturday night at midnight, right here on KPFT. You're not the only one that feels that way. And there is a better way to live your life turn into after hours every Saturday night at midnight. And we'll kind of show you the way once you know Saturday nights at midnight on KPFT 90.1 FM

15:47

Well, I had listened to the after hours at work the weeks ago when I want to record on the radio show and one of the drivers come and walk in and he heard the radio show when y'all were playing the I don't know what you call it that you know glory glory. I'm a lesbian Allen and within a sign of a week I had gotten noticed you see my boss and I was terminated for promoting homosexuality on my job. And it dawned on me in the last three weeks that these people that think that they have rights. I mean if you can't even listen to a radio station, you are screwed. This whole thing is is messed up. People think that we have rights and we're out here because we enjoy making scenes in the street. But if you do not stand up for what you believe in in this country, they will walk on you and kill you
