00:03

Ah yes pansy division right here on after hours I'm Jimmy Carper and with me is Chris he wants to talk about this because I just played three pansy divisions in a row smells like queer spirit horny in the morning and from their brand new one pretty bored. And sometimes this music is hard to obtain. I know you may not pick not everyone has access to either Crossroads or Lobo or Inklings to get this music which is where basically is that really out queer artists like pansy division? Some of the other artists like future Bible heroes that I've I've attained that sound waves or, or some of the other places, but you were saying that there's access on the computer? Oh yeah, the internet.

00:53

I spent one night downloading some of the songs from Panzer Division, you can go in and listen to some clips and some of the songs that you get we can't play there's some people here got some funny little rules about what words you can't say on the air. The uptight people that you can listen to free on the internet and purchase their CDs. Or I mean, all I gotta do is just go to one of those web browsers and type in pansy division. And I don't remember the exact website. It's in something like woodworks.com/p division, I think. And it takes a little bit download the music and it's pretty good sounding. And also another place you go through romanovski and Philips, his website, and you'll find just about everything Jimmy has in his little pink crate. It's,

01:46

I bring down a couple of about 200 CDs every week.

01:49

It's all listed by the artist. It's www dot fresh fruit as one word.com.

01:58

And fresh fruit is the record company that romanovski and Philips run

02:03

and you go through the it hasn't been updated lately doesn't say anything what they've where they're going lately or all that but it has a lot of listings for different artists. And like I said just about everything. I've seen Steven Kowalski in there, I think Melissa Etheridge, I've seen quite a few and they're planning the RNP and they probably have Leah's a carry. I don't know if you remember that name. She does a great version of glory glory.

02:24

02:30

Probably I don't know if I got that far down in Florida. Yeah, starting to listen through. And it's, it's a real great way that if you're not able to get down here, or if you live too far out, and since the antenna is a bit taller, and we you're getting better and better. Yeah,

02:43

02:47

that's a that's, that's the amazing thing I remember having to listen to it actually coming out of the college station was stronger than the one out of Houston. I live that far west. But it's that's one way you can at least if you enjoy the music, and you want to be able to listen to it more often or hear some of the songs I can say that they go into a few different subjects that they really can't play on here. I was listening, listening through some of these and going you can even say the titles on some Yeah, it's that good. It's very interesting, interesting what you can but especially with pansy division, they sang openly and proudly of sex. Yeah.

03:17

03:23

They're they're a queer punk band. And just like on the mainstream radio stations, you're not going to hear some of the things they can put on a punk band even though you can't hear the words on there's at least bands division you can you can understand the words. Yeah. And that's probably what you're in concert. By the way. They come about once a year and do a concert. It's like, there's not a big, queer punk following. And so it's always a small crowd. But well, I remembered last year, they had some coverage on MTV, because they were the opening band for Green Day for green dead. Yes. And so it was kind of like a combination of the real heavy punkers with the queer pockets and saying it was weird how they were getting a straight following. From going around with this.

03:40

03:52

04:11

Yeah, it's amazing. Yeah. And when they're here, they play at Fitzgerald's, which is a good venue for for punk bands. And also, it's a very good venue for openly gay punk bands. They're very tolerant over there, and the crowds are always good. Of course, I go there and I feel like everybody's father, you know? But hey, what the hell I still love the music. Yeah, I mean, well, yeah. They always say if it's too loud or too old.

04:34

04:37

I guess that's right. And so I never complained. Now getting back to some music, Chris and Copperfield wanted a certain dedication for Jay who's also from Copperfield because he has made it and so, Jay, Chris, it's for you.

04:58

If you ever need a placement All you got to do is holler they're always there right on the job. For instance, here's the best one that money can buy. Oh

05:13

I'm a real police. Oh, would I love to give you the third degree? My gazing at my sexy farm with rapture you'll be stricken. Take one look at me fellows and me you'll find some chicken. I rubbed me and wants to bite me. I gave him one pole gaze. And as I really met with her, I said to him, I said, your arrest and your arrest was with me. We're going to the station and it's RJ shields serve t now stop that. tittering I insist you hard, hard, man. Because I'm a real policeman. To God. I am. Oh, you're a large deal by walking down the street one day with my girlfriend by my side. She said look at that horrible fistfight. I think all running high. But instead of failing as you suppose my smelling salts I drew and dashing mascara on my eyes and to the fray. I flew. So I said to him, You booger. You're ready. You're ready. Now cabbage wants with me. We're going to the station and Assadi she'll serve tea. They'll stop that snickering I assist you horrid hard man. Because I'm a real policeman. Honest to God, I am. Cruising in my squad car last night. I came upon to not the boys parked in the car. I'll be damned they are. So I shine my flashlight in the car and I says Okay, fellas. What's going on in there? One of the boys said well, nothing officer what is sitting here talking, just chewing the fat, you know? So I said, Well, how long have you been parked here? He said about an hour, sir. I said You mean you've been Parker an hour and nothing has happened? He said No, sir. I said well, here you get out and hold the place light. Let me in there. Well, I'll never forget my Tempest. The rest was a bartender, big and rough. He says I wasn't a policeman. I didn't look tough enough. But did I bought him out something terrible, right? Then I called his bluff. And finally my kerchief in his face. I said, I've had a no, I'm somatic. It's bit.

07:12

So I said to him with authority and my voice, your arrest. Your rants and not Thomas was with me for going to the station massage and she'll certainly hold everything. You said three times the sergeant she'll serve. Certainly I said it three times now you mean the sergeant He'll serve to you don't know your English. Well, you don't know my sergeant. That's not that's thick right guy and said You hired hard man? Because I'm a real policeman. Now honest to God. I

07:22

07:32
