 00:33
I say that I have not thoroughly enjoyed serving with humans. I find their illogic and foolish emotions constant irritant.

Jimmy Carper 03:54

A little goodie we call Spock's sodomy party, put together by an unknown DJ and just kind of appeared here at KPFT. And that's who you're listening to right now. KPFT Houston, and KEOS College Station. This is after hours with Jimmy Carper. Sibilance if you've not heard of sibilance it is a quarterly queer audio zine, which means these folks. These folks make up CD every quarter send it to you for five bucks. And it's a lot of experimental music by gay artists. It's put out by trip records 79 Franklin Street in New York 1013. And the yearly subscription is 20 bucks. And so you get for these suckers. There. I've got number two right now, and I've got a little spoken word thing by a guy named Dean Johnson. And who happens to be the lead singer of a group called velvet mafia, which I'm going to play right after that in their tune called Mona Lisa. This is new stuff, kids hope you enjoy it. Now a few words about direct mail advertising

05:21

I went to KMart to buy a girl because they just opened in the East Village and I figured it would be cheap. So they don't have a men's dressing room in the women's lingerie department. So I went into the limits of the change and some woman comes running in all hysterical she's like,

Wait, sir, wait, sir. You can't go in there without a ticket. So I got the ticket. I went into the dressing room, another woman comes running up in a total panic because she thinks that there's a man in the women's dressing room masturbating on the Jaclyn Smith collapses, you know? So she's an attendant but by then I have my clothes off. So they look at the manager, this very rotund black woman with a select hairdo and a gold tooth and she comes with me says sir, you cannot be in the women's dressing room. So I leaned over the top, I said, Honey, this is the East Village and I am not the last drag we can say to come in here to buy a Girl Okay. So what are you going to do when a sex change comes to you? Are you going to ask them a big they've been castrated yet? If you can't tell if it's a man or a woman are you going to check packages at the door? What are you going to do? You know I said you got these commercials on TV with his big ass Bulldogs making Kmart look so gay friendly, you know. And then I come in here I can't try on underwear and I said you know, transgender people need a supporting feminine environment in which to try on their underwear. And this big black lady with the chillax hairdo and the golf shoes she looked up at me and she said Honey, you are absolutely right. And you take your time in there. I will talk to the manager about our goods so we bought a girl 6099 I'll see you at Kmart tomorrow.

Boots are being polished, trumpeters clean their horns, chains and locks forged through crusade has begun. Once again flags of Christ are unfurled in the dawn and cries of soul saviors sing apocalyptic on airwaves. Citizens good citizens all parade into voting booths and in self righteous saying to the ex away our right to life. I do not believe at some that the vote is an end. I fear even more. It is just a beginning. So I must make assessment look to you and ask Where will you be when they come? They will not come a mob rolling through the streets but quickly and quietly move into our homes to remove the evil the queerness that faggotry from their midst. They will not come closed and brown and swastikas are buried and chest heavy with gleaming crosses. The time and need for such uses are over. They will come in business suits to buy your homes and bring bodies to fill your jobs. They will come and robes to rehabilitate and white coats to subjugate and where will you be when they come? Where will we all be when they come and they will come? They will come because we are defined as opposite perverse, and we are perverse. Every time we watched a queer hassled in the streets and said nothing. It was an act of perversion. Every time we lied about the boyfriend or girlfriend at Coffee Break. It was an act of perversion. Every time we heard I don't mind gays. But why must they be blatant and said nothing. It was an act of perversion. Every time we let a lesbian mother lose her child and did not clear the courtrooms. It was an act of perversion. Every time we let straights make out in our bars by we couldn't touch because of the laws. It was an act of perversion. Every time we put on the proper clothes to go to the family wedding and left our lovers at home. It was an act of perversion. Every time we heard who I go to bed with is my personal choice. It's personal, not political and said nothing. It was an act of perversion. Every time we let straight relatives bury our dead and push our lovers away. It was an act of perversion, and they will come for the perverts. And it won't matter if you're homosexual, not a faggot, lesbian, not a dyke. Gay, not queer. It won't matter if you own your own business have a good job are on SSI. It won't matter if you're black Chicano, Native American, Asian or white. And he's got something to say. You know, first of all, I want to thank all the well wishers that called in. And especially with these last three pieces that you were playing first said that guy What was the name again, David Sarita David Sarita and the poetry and powerful love. And these three pieces just really say it all, it says says it all, as to why we did what we did. And to see how it's all come, how far we've come, you know, it just, I am so happy. I did not realize back though, back then I did not realize what it was gonna be what was going to happen. I did not realize how this was all going to affect gay life. You know, gay people.

This is stuff that was so unheard of it was a dream, you know, we're talking about gay marriages and equal rights in the workplace and all kinds of things. These are, you know, it really fills my heart with so much joy, so much optimism and I pray to God, I live another 47 years, because who knows, we may even have an real fairy. Wow, that would be great.

B Big Roy 38:17

And I it'd be interesting who the first lady would be, you know, first man or the first man or whatever, you know, we've come so far, so far, and that poetry in the good homosexual and really says it all as to why we did what we did. And what we're doing now and which is why after hours is here, many of you are in a closet, and because you have to be and we do not condemn you. We do not fault you. You know, some of us are out. Yes. And that's great, too. But whether you're in or out or undecided, you know, we're here for everybody. And this is for you. And if there's some way that I could convey from my heart to you the feeling that I actually have of optimism and why we do what we do. Lauren, I'm telling you something I'm telling you Jimmy it's just I am just so happy to be working here and to spend my my birthday here was just, it was just the icing on the cake.
