[I] [Introduction] 00:01

KPFT Houston the following program contains language or images of a frank or sensitive nature that may be considered objectionable by some listener Discretion is Advised

00:22

Yeah

B Brian Bradley 00:25

Well well well here it is. 2:20am just spinning Scott's perm and it's all a frizz and now we're on the air girl I told you we need to get that self timing Ogilvy self stopping perm

S Scott Lewis 00:34

B Brian Bradley 00:39

but we did we just give it to you on queer time you know two and a half hours late just now here I hope we're here on the air it says we are two hours and 20 minutes into our program only 35 minutes left Hi guys and gals how are you? Morning both of you that are left up now. We started playing a little gospel music honest to goodness the happy Goodman family looking for a city and what happens but the power comes back up either we're bad singers rainbow the clowns horrible dancer, or is there God was we had done that we would have put the damn thing on it early.

B Brian Bradley 01:17

But just look how pretty your hair is.

S Scott Lewis 01:19

It's yeah look like pop Brady towards the end of the show.

B Brian Bradley 01:25

His life. I can say nevermind. Well, since our guests about expired, went home, otherwise went to sleep. I guess we just have a little chat. We've not been together since I went to Washington and other people and you stayed here in town. How was it? fabulous, wonderful wall to wall men, women children of every color stripe bent. It was wonderful, in my opinion, great demonstrations. Great words of empowerment. Just a real queer world. It was wonderful.

S Scott Lewis 02:06

It was like I was touched. But you were in more places than one. That's right. And

B Brian Bradley 02:12

you didn't have to pay for it for half hour but what was your perception of things back here in the hinterlands as we were up there that big city, very little media

that nobody showed up was what was told us 300,000

B Brian Bradley 02:32

Well, having lived in Washington DC and been to more than 1/4 of July fireworks display and the crowds having been 300 400,000 Rest assured history books might not write it but our hearts know it. There was 1 million gay lesbian, bisexual, transgendered and others in Washington.

S Scott Lewis 02:52

I hope Phyllis is listening.

B

Brian Bradley 02:54

I saw Phyllis I know she was there. I did marching very proudly and spoke and spoke as one of the very few people that were given an official spot. It was one I heard Phil Donahue just give Jesse Helms and others hail Jesse Jackson speech was was wonderful, great demonstration in front of the White House where we stopped the parade route for only seven minutes and had a massive die in pharmaceutical manufacturers demonstration was wonderful. We've actually learned this week that we got some concessions out of them with a database. So you know, demonstrations do work. I think a lot of people went to Washington thinking it was a parade if you would. Organizers organized it as a as a march for human rights. And it turned out to be a combination of both. My favorite moment during the entire week I was gone two weeks was my mother nine a couple of other gay or lesbian friends really don't remember who I was with with me. We were walking somewhere. And for as far as you could say, We're just queers everywhere. And behind me one or two people, someone was going to point something out to a friend of theirs. And he said, Hey, Mary, look at this. And when he did like 2000 heads turned out. And then it dawned on them all at the same time.

S

Scott Lewis 04:17

It was good say Mary and this girl, it was great.

Brian Bradley 04:21

The subways were packed, the restaurants were packed. It was a truly queer world. And I drove my little car all over the place and just had fun being back home in Washington where I used to live and seeing just a queer White House in the queer capitol and it was good. It was good. What buttons are you pushing now?

S

Scott Lewis 04:44

Cheers, honey.

B

Brian Bradley 04:45

I know that's gonna have to have a bigger hand and that'll push my button.

S

Scott Lewis 04:50

I'm not into fisting. And I'm not in the press. But they go so well with the firm which you've got to pay for. Uh Iotic got a bit of wealth since we've been out there folks have

B

WHICH YOU VE YET TO PAY FOR. OR LET'S GIVE A BIL OF WEALTH SINCE WE VE BEEN OUT THERE TALKS HAVE been calling diligently and telling us that we were off the air and we really appreciate that otherwise we would have been sitting in here talking to each other at a time that we didn't have to considering that I don't like you. We really don't like each other. People wanted us to give them an update on Roberta Acton Berg and for folks who perhaps haven't read the paper in the last couple of days, Roberta Acton Berg is a president, city Supervisor of San Francisco openly gay, her lover of many years. Mary is a judge in California. They have a wonderful child they've had for eight years. And presidency, President Clinton has nominated her to the number to post in the Housing and Urban Development Department that generally is voted on by a group of people instead of the full Senate of the full house. At the end of that nature. It's 18 people. her nomination, not unlike most other people's was grouped in a lot of people that they would just blanket say yes to. Well, good. Oh, Senator Jesse Helms of North Carolina, who is not on this committee, sat in on the meetings and started the movement, if you will, to vote on her nomination separately. That's what they're doing now. She has been called, among other things, a damn lesbian, a, not a garden variety lesbian, but activist mean, lesbian, Phil Gramm, our great senator here in Texas has changed his vote originally he was not going to oppose her nomination. Now he is they're essentially making fools of themselves. Some of our better friends in the Senate, Carol Moseley Braun, Barbara Boxer, among many others, Dianne Feinstein, some, some very some men who have grown some testicles recently, if you would have stood up in and testified as to how embarrassed they are. Lloyd Benson today as our Secretary of Transportation, Treasury, Treasury, some money or something cars or something. Yeah, they're making fools of themselves, but it wouldn't hurt to call Mr. Graham's office or the president's office and say, you know, get over it. Roberta Acton Berg is highly qualified, and she needs to have her job. It's very important job. Very important job, she will be taking care of all of the discrimination matters that have to do with Housing and Urban Development. And what better person to oversee it discrimination in housing, then someone who I'm sure has suffered it herself and is suffering it today. She's She's one of our modern day heroes. We are very proud of her. And she will be confirmed. That's it. It's a foregone conclusion. So it's just more hot air from Helms. Good friend of mine. Other newsworthy things this week. Perhaps we Barney Frank, Barney Frank, all gays in the lesbian compromise, to be in the closet or not to be in the closet. Seems like now they want us to be just a little bit out of the closet. Lots of controversy stemming over that there's a measure underfoot that would allow people to be openly gay or lesbian, and be in the military and have whatever life they want outside of their duties. And if they if the fact that they're gay or lesbian is brought to the attention of the Armed Services officials, they are supposedly going to be directed not to listen to it. Sort of know ask, don't tell. It's still a second class citizenship, in my opinion. And perhaps some people are looking at this as a partial game that we can build on later. But there's just still something in me that says, I want it all. I don't think it's naivete or childishness, necessarily. I'm just tired of it. I'm tired of the soldier of the year. Coming out of the closet being thrown out the next day. I'm tired of Marguerite Meyer, 26 years nurse of the year, coming out of the closet. She's out the next day. You know, I know some of these people that are anonymous there that have had excellent service records. They're gay, they're lesbian, they're gone. It's not right. I would rather not serve with full understanding of why I'm not than to just be excused if I'm quiet. I'm tired of that. So I don't I don't like Congressman Frank's compromise. At all,

Scott Lewis 09:56

President Clinton has what I think is a better compromise. that he's been circulating through the Pentagon out of the closet, according to CNN last week, he's been circulating. It's a four point plan. I don't remember the specifics, but it would allow you to be openly gay, in the military on duty. It would be a Don't Ask, Don't Tell type policy as well. In that, you know, there would be no more witch hunts. But at the same token, if you, you know, those three words that are getting people thrown out at this point, wouldn't they wouldn't lose their position under the Clean compromise. So it seems like a much. To me, it's not that much of a compromise, it seems to be what we want. He did propose a strict new Code of Conduct Policy, but I have no problem with that. As long as everyone everyone is subject to that, well, until we remove the last barrier that prevents people from being the professionals that they are and the human beings that they are at the same time, then we have discrimination, when a heterosexual person can go to work and place a picture of their spouse on their desk, and no more than that, and be left alone. But a gay person can't do it. Or lesbian can't bring a picture of her girlfriend and put it on her desk. And no more than that, then we have discrimination. We have a basis on which to build, you'd have two distinct groups of people. Not that much of a purist, but that is the way I see it. And it's discrimination is discrimination is discrimination, however you cloak it, you know, it's just you got a bunch of fat over aged, middle aged, overweight, white men who are scared to death, that they're going to be treated by a bunch of gays and lesbians the same way that they have treated women for centuries. And you know, excuse me, I think I would be real concerned about handing a hand grenade to someone who was afraid to drop the bar soap in the shower. They supposed to be big he men they can handle themselves. The Few The Proud, the scared. We were being written cryptic notes by our friend in the corner.

Brian Bradley 10:55

S

Scott Lewis 12:21

Let's talk about

B

Brian Bradley 12:23

baby talk about you and me.

S

Scott Lewis 12:26

Now that the await I'm getting a mental picture you and me having sex. Bad Bad, Bad. Bad. Brian told me you think about us having sex together.

Brian Bradley 12:39

We just handed a note Michael Crawford's, in here visiting us. Senator Claiborne Pell was one of the men in the Senate just this week. If you're not today, right, Michael today. Yesterday, yesterday, Senator Clayman. Claiborne Pell is a long term Senate member, very well respected. he invoked his right of privilege of seniority point of personal privilege and stood up in the Senate and said that he was disgusted and astounded at the behavior that was going on surrounding the Roberta Acton Berg nomination. Why was he didn't stop there, though? Why was he upset or well offended personally? Well,

S

Scott Lewis 13:16

B

Brian Bradley 13:20

Miss Acton Berg has by everyone's yardstick proven to be a capable person, a professional, very intelligent, and for no other reason than the fact that she is a lesbian. Great Controversy surrounds her well, I think it's the fact that she's a militant activist mean lesbian, not you, not your garden variety can exact Okay. Well, I noticed that the federal government's just peppered with garden variety type lesbians and that's okay. But Mr. pail went on to say that he was greatly upset with the tone and the tenor in the language of the some senators behavior. And he cited a personal reason that being that his daughter was a dyke. So not only did he take it personally as a senator, but as a father of a lesbian. That's what we need, folks. That is the answer to the significant portion of our problem. What state he's

M

Michael Crawford 13:36

B

Brian Bradley 13:42

M

Michael Crawford 14:14

from Rhode Island. Thank you. And

S

Scott Lewis 14:17

is he a? Is he a Democrat, Democrat,

M

Michael Crawford 14:21

that was dashed, you know, all of us, all of us who are poor and have tried to go to college, we all get the Pell Grant. So we should thank him for that. But his daughter is the president of the Rhode Island Lesbian and Gay Alliance.

Brian Bradley 14:34

Very good, very good. That that is why it is so essential that every gay and lesbian person that exists come out of the closet. I appreciate constraints and concerns and real dangers. But if you can get to that place, do it as soon as you can. We've got to let our numbers be seen in a forum that That can't be ignored, you know or the count can't be changed.

 Scott Lewis 15:05

Let's talk about Randy fields again. We talked about Randy last week quite extensively. Randy was someone that I know I think we all everyone here anyway felt very close to. And someone that I miss very, very much. And we discussed his funeral last week and your display there and good for you. floral display. No, not sure. They got your message loud and clear. I hear.

 Brian Bradley 15:38

But I'm telling the way I noticed it.

 Scott Lewis 15:41

Tomorrow there

 Jimmy Carper 15:42

have Yeah, we're having

 Brian Bradley 15:45

a friend of ours died on Mother's Day, how appropriate. And his mother was a yeah, that kind of person. He died on Mother's Day. It was appropriate. 25 years old, he had AIDS and gave him a very righteous sending out of the world a good old Christian fundamentalist bang the dead person on the head Bible service. Lots of people from various communities friends of Randy's was at his funeral. But we're not satisfied with that. So tomorrow at Rothko Chapel at three o'clock, we're going to have a queer funeral if you would a queer service, the kind Randy would have wanted. Yeah. Yeah. Randy,

 Scott Lewis 16:29

 Brian Bradley 16:34

Randy fields from clinic defense or Q-Patrol around here on the radio station or just you know, being his regular, contentious, angry rowdy louder now know about your garden variety, queer. He was

 Michael Crawford 16:47

 Scott Lewis 16:49

like he was not a garden variety.

 Brian Bradley 16:51

Right? Right. So we're having another service for any tomorrow three o'clock people will be someone called and asked me Would it be okay, if she wore leather to Randy's any nails? He would he would know, he would be offended if they if they had any just feeling because where she knew Randy from and I said, Well, you know, it's silly of you to even ask, of course, we are the community of inclusivity not exclusivity.

 Scott Lewis 17:03

 Brian Bradley 17:10

 Scott Lewis 17:22

And that's what this is all about is that they tried to keep us out at his funeral. His family didn't want or didn't feel comfortable with us. They're, well get over it. And we were we were Randy's friends. More of a better friend than than his family. I think, well, that's gay and lesbian people have always had to have Sargon families have always had to make new families. And I don't want to get real sentimental or mushy or anything like that. I wouldn't want to give anyone the impression that I have a drop of human kindness or decency. And

 Brian Bradley 17:39

 Scott Lewis 18:00

I don't think you're going to, but I feel like if I can get serious here just for a minute, I'm quite upset about something I've seen a lot of people young come and go, live short lives and die. Lots of times very full lives, trying to say appreciate the precious preciousness of life. My mother called me today and told me some bad news. And I've been real upset about it. But I had one boyhood friend who joined the Boy Scouts with me and we, you know, did the pup kit thing and fish together in play basketball and you know, just was a real decent young guy. And his wife was best friends to one of my sisters, my oldest sister who's younger than me. And all four of them. Were in a car accident last night. And my friend Chuck was killed. And I'm very sad about that. But my baby sister had her neck broken in three places and will go to surgery in about six hours. And I'm just wanting her to know that I'm thinking about her and that her big brother loves her and she was able to talk tonight on the phone and tell me what her current favorite song is. And I'd like to play that song for her. So crystal

 Brian Bradley 18:03

and we are back literally

 Brian Bradley 19:39

you deserted me with doing that oftentimes, I'm sitting here and y'all think that I'm talking to Scott, you know, and he's not he's out there. Retracing his hair some more something well yeah adequate doing that Jimmy through in the song we are one body by a Sophie B. Hawkins. off the wall I Hung's entails album so I you know, I know you were be okay.

 Scott Lewis 19:52

 Brian Bradley 20:05

He did that because you weren't here, Miss Maybelline. Anyway, we don't have a few more minutes left but I want to tell folks about something real positive you know a lot of times you hear we so called activist folks doing nothing but convection and bitching about things. And one group of people that we've griped about for years has been the city of Houston health department and their lack of, of being effective in the fight against AIDS. Well, getting rid of John Doe as the director, Mary devayne, Kendrick has come along and I think she's done an excellent job as an interim director and as a permanent director. I've seen the bureau chief of HIV STD prevention come a long way, Glenda garden, Glenda went to Washington, and along with another straight woman, and advocated for the repeal of 2106. For more AIDS funding, I've really seen a lot of growth and change in it. And I personally have to salute Glenda for that. But I was just amazed this week, I had the day before the city released a new booklet, a newspaper, if you will, a tabloid type paper, Glenda shared a copy of it with me, they printed up 50,000 of them, and they will be available at various clinics and other forms. And it's called a student's guide to HIV and AIDS is excellent for anyone. I have seen similar brochures like these, literally, all over the United States and Europe. And it's if not the best one, certainly one of the two best that I have ever seen. It's gender sensitive, its sexual orientation sensitive, it's full of common sense, it doesn't have too much of a stress on the unrealistic expectation of, you know, monogamy and abstinence as but it does, you know, include that in there as it should. It's just an excellent document. And as a minor point, I want to thank the city of Houston, moving forward on on our community recommendations, because that's where it came from. And it doesn't really matter, you know, who gets the credit. But what really matters is that folks go out there and find this H A student's guide to HIV and AIDS. It's an excellent, excellent paper. It's, it's fun, it's easy to read, it's informative, and I really can't say enough good things about it. So you can call the city of Houston health department and ask for it for your organization asked for it for your school is made to be in schools, and I would really love to see them run out of the 50,000 that they had printed and have to print some more. It's very good. So it's a student's guide to HIV and AIDS. Very, very little in there that anyone should take exception to. And if anyone does, then they could just go to hell.

 Michael Crawford 23:03

Well, you're gonna be there.

 Brian Bradley 23:06

Where's that? How can I own Hale?

 Michael Crawford 23:09

Homosexuals a sin?

 [Introduction] 23:11

Who are you?

 Michael Crawford 23:14

I was gonna say that I was the new mayoral queer mayoral candidate, but

 Brian Bradley 23:18

Oh, you are? Well,

 Scott Lewis 23:20

we let's not get into that. He will be here next week. And we will talk to him at that time about that, because that is a question that we want to ask him about. But here's Brian Bowe, an openly gay declared his candidacy for Mayor on Tuesday. And he will be here next week. And we'll talk to him about that at that time. Thank you and you are more than welcome. I hope you want to come down and talk to him because I don't think Brian's gonna be here because

M Michael Crawford 23:47

I kind of have that question about an openly gay man running for mayor who says that he thinks homosexuality is a sin.

S Scott Lewis 23:55

We'll do that next week.

B Brian Bradley 23:56

Definitely. A couple of I may be here I may not be here. It'd be a surprise. We don't care. I just want to know if I am here. Are you going to shuffle these empty tin cans all across the damn desk again? Or you know so I can have that as don't cheat background musical chi like my I'm playing? I'm playing with these little empty tin cans. Hide the hide the nut underneath remember, like on the old Lucy show? You know, and it's been so long since you've seen one you're not doing any good. I mean, you can't find one here. You can't find one at the ripcord. I mean, you don't need no tin cans to hide. Next Scott has own perhaps the ugliest ever seen. They are a blind golfer. I would not wear those pants. They are a bright putrid, plus color green they're they're not pus colored irregular complexion is plus colored the shorts are lime. The shorts are very Miami, which is a hot city These days. So Brian, you're just totally out of fashion.

B Brian Bradley 24:26

S Scott Lewis 24:47

M Michael Crawford 24:54

J Jimmy Carper 25:00

So, the polka dots are not irregularly shaped, it's just that that material was stretched tightly

B Brian Bradley 25:11

I was I was just been I don't think it's appropriate to ask do you think polka dots have cellulite?

I was just gonna think it's appropriate to ask do you think your gods have changed.
But it wouldn't be appropriate Scott is that your cellulite? We have three minutes left on a half hour friggin show and you're talking about my damn shorts. Like Jean Harrington Jean haircut I love Have you heard him say, I have a year to live and I'm spending it like this. I love that. I've been changing say that for about six years now.

S Scott Lewis 25:38

Heart let's talk just real briefly the Metropolitan Community Church of the resurrection good. Their pride committee is doing. That's not all there is to say. You said briefly. Well, they're doing this their pride committee is doing this barbecue fundraiser and all the money's going to like the Q-Patrol. The fourth Fourth Ward humming Well, if you take the damn press release away from me, I don't know what I'm talking about.

B Brian Bradley 26:07

Yeah, we're talking you are precedent.

S Scott Lewis 26:09

You are precedent of homosexuals for Jesus. Well, and they're gonna have speakers and entertainers. Are you going to? Are you going to be there speaking? Oh, sure.

B Brian Bradley 26:21

Have portable mic will travel. But that's at MCC are is. Their community pride committee has announced his first community wide fundraiser. It's hoped to be an annual event a barbecue with entertainers. And it's going to be held Saturday, June the fifth from 11am to 6pm. And the large parking lot a half block from MCC are at 1919 Decatur.

S Scott Lewis 26:46

Now, what's essential for people to know when they go to this as though they have money to go? It is a $5 donation. But what they need to do is they need to go there after they vote, because June 5 is the day that we need to go and vote for Bob Krueger. If we can just

M

Michael Crawford 27:03

this is also a another another reason to particularly remember that day. It's the the 12th anniversary of the first diagnose aids case. Is that right? Right. Yeah, um, the fifth of June of 1981 the CDC reported that bad men had what was a very odd thing and it's what we call aids today and you know, we keep having these parties and we keep having these fundraisers and we keep wearing these red ribbons and we keep going to these funerals and we don't keep an eye on but if you ever see me with the red ribbon on strike on me with it, I will go you know I will that's a whole nother story a whole nother program maybe some night well we don't have time for talking about red ribbons. Why you bought some stock in the company or something we got to nail a little rainbow rings on our seat tonight. Berry diamond This is not no cheaply covered tn with some little betting on it. That's true Scott why while your shorts are very 90 enemy and bottom for me to know why your shorts are very

Brian Bradley 27:14

M

Michael Crawford 27:36

Brian Bradley 27:41

M

Michael Crawford 28:09

93 the the freedom rings themselves a very 91

B

Brian Bradley 28:17

and then, diamonds are forever as Mr. Hales Berg says,

S

Scott Lewis 28:21

let's just remind the listing on into bed our new producers Scott Lewis and Joe gray have taken over as producers and might be in the market for new hosts

J

Jimmy Carper 28:31

taken over

S

Scott Lewis 28:33

oh, well you Jimmy ascended.

J

Jimmy Carper 28:39

We're expecting explained at all last week. Yeah, whatever.

S

Scott Lewis 28:42

But Michael Mann had ever have a job next week. He keeps talking about my 91 Freedom resorts I love are these that don't need it at 60s.

B

Brian Bradley 28:52

Yes, no, he said 91 You can't even count married 86 Well, I can Where were you in? 86 what not in the retirement home with you?

S

Scott Lewis 28:58

B

Brian Bradley 29:03

Maybe I was cutting up and 86 Let me tell you. I bet you were

S

Scott Lewis 29:06

on Thursdays when they took you to the park. Anyway what do you want to talk about the park that you asked is seen down upon seventh eighth is the court are those charges lewd and lascivious behavior?

B

Brian Bradley 29:11

S

Scott Lewis 29:20

Yeah, well you know Ray Hill was he had his zipper down and he was waving at me and I didn't know that he was know that he was working with Sam knew he

Brian Bradley 29:31

— was Sam waving at you the I guess it was was he giving you one little finger come here there's

 Scott Lewis 29:39

so I need to get rid of I need to get rid of the

 Michael Crawford 29:41

Freedom rings keep the shorts get rid of the Rings

 Brian Bradley 29:43

maybe keep them rings get rid them shorts.

 Scott Lewis 29:46

So but why? What happened? I thought I just thought these yesterday

 Michael Crawford 29:53

with this should have been Unseld and I mean, they were on sale I only paid five their regular 10 You see that's the thing. You know, you know, Jewish

 Brian Bradley 30:01

Oh girl you gotta put some music in that box and push the button because I'm I told you the other night I was in Jr Bar and Grill I found establishment number one

 Scott Lewis 30:10

gay bar in the state listen dummy says

 Michael Crawford 30:13

I got Louis

 Brian Bradley 30:15

let's get back to the point I was in Jr's Bar and Grill place I'm not seldom found because I'm not seldom found in most any bar and I do like the bars and support them and wish the people continus to go there. However I walked by and someone uses a derogatory term about Louis continue to go there. However I walked by and someone uses a derogatory term about Jews and I'm on some new medication and and I had a rolled up newspaper just proceed this MAC the living daylights out of a stranger. So you better be careful with these little epithets. You're thrown around.

Scott Lewis 30:47

Let me tell you the paper. Next week we are going to have an A How do you print Brian Bowen? Is that correct? By one by one. Brian Bowen openly gay computer operator 26 years old who Tuesday declared his candidacy for mayor.

B

Brian Bradley 31:02

Video Mayor

Scott Lewis 31:07

Howard McHale will be here as a guest disc jockey along with myself and Michael Crawford will be interviewing him. We will have Sue level we will have reflections of a Rock Lobster next week. We will have Sue level will be here to talk about Kay Bailey Hutchinson and why it's important for us to all get out and vote on June 5, she'll be wanting to talk about the Gay Lesbian Political Caucus and its president as clarify that point. We are not voting for Kay Bailey. Yes, ma'am. I am a Nazi Hutchinson Bob Kruger.

Brian Bradley 31:34

S

Scott Lewis 31:42

I'll be Yes I am.

B

Brian Bradley 31:44

But we still must

Scott Lewis 31:46

wait for God to get out and do it. Because Kay Bailey will cut our nose off. You've been listening we've gotta go kids. It's been fun You have been listening to after hours a continuing tradition on KPFT Houston World Radio 90.1 FM.
