This is a reporter Chase story at the site of the Lesbian and Gay Pride week meeting which has just finished up. I'm going to try to get a few words with a female co chair if I can. Madam co chair, Madam co chair. That certainly was a starring campaign speech you made right before the voting. Could you reiterate what you said and how do you plan on running the Gay Pride Committee during the next year?

00:28

00:50

Well, Madam Koecher Do you really think you can do it that way? But what about your male co chair?

01:00

I'm gonna wash that man right out of my hair. I'm gonna wash that man right out of my hair.

01:07

Okay, you also have a lawyer appointed by you on the executive committee supposedly to enact the Robert's Rules of orders. Are you sure that's all he does?

01:21

And why this particular lawyer madam co chair, can you told me what personal gains you hope to get out of running the Pride Week committee?

01:36

All right, is there anything else? How about long term goals for you in the future?

01:45

I want to be the first dyke on dynasty if you 01:53

had not chosen to run for coach or Pride week what would you have done you seem to have a long line of detractors What do you think of them

02:10

and what advice would you give them

02:12

don't bring around

02:18

Oh, I see your male co chairs about to join us? Did the two of you have anything to say to our listeners?

02:25

Always be Bosom Buddies. Friends, sisters on.

02:32

Both co chairs are now joining the rest of the executive committee. I see them coming around the corner.

02:38

We can get

02:49

.....

Hey, they seem to be talking amongst themselves again. Let's see if we can get closer and hear what they're saying.

03:04

Okay, now let's see if we can get a few words from the opposition, sir. Oh, sir. What did you think of the meeting?

03:14

And what advice would you give the gay community do you have any comments for the Gay Pride Week committee?

03:37

This is war. There you have it. This is Chase story at the Pride week meeting.

04:04

This assays reporter Chase story from the side of the second meeting of the 1990 Lesbian and Gay Pride committee. Madam co chair, you talked about how your male co chair and yourself didn't have much to do because the committees were up and running. Tell me where did these committees come from? So But madam co chair in years past members of the community were able to place their names and nomination if they wanted to chair a committee followed by the community voting on these nominations. Can you tell us why the community was excluded from this process? Because that's the way I like and apparently everyone does not agree with you, ma'am. Oh, sir. Excuse me, sir. I understand that you wanted to put your name in nomination for the parade committee. How do you feel about being denied this opportunity?

05:07

This reporter also learned after speaking to a member of the executive committee that the decision to ignore tradition was made, because that's the way the President does it. Yet presidential appointees still go before Congress for approval, and Congress is elected by the people not appointed by the President. I wonder what President they could be thinking of.

05:39

But madam co chair, you said that the purpose of the executive committee is to serve the community and that the community must come first. How can that be when the community was not allowed to vote for the people placed in these very important committee chairs? Want to do things? Excuse me, sir. You're the male co chair. Don't you have anything to say about this? Lovely girl, today? Okay. When we first got to the meeting, we were all handed these little purple hearts as voting tokens. However, obviously, we're not going to use them. Let me see if this lady knows or let me get her feelings on this. Ma'am. Ma'am, you were given this purple heart as a voting token yet no voting took place. How do you feel about this?

06:33

I've been cheated. mistreated.

06:39

Excuse me, sir. You also have a Purple Heart voting token yet no votes were cast tonight. What would you like to say to the executive committee in the past, gay and lesbian Pride Week meetings were spearheaded by both co chairs only now there seems to be an army of people up there. Let's see if we can identify these folks. Excuse me, sir. You're the you're the attorney for Pride Week. Exactly. What are your duties is that all sir?

06:55

07:21

07:30

And you sir, as parliamentarian What's your official job? And you sir, why were you selected to be Sergeant at Arms

07:50

Okay, now let's get some comments from the crowd. Ma'am. Excuse me. How do you feel about what's happened here tonight? And you Ma'am, we understand that the executive committee was not very happy with my first report. Can you elaborate on that

08:14

and you sir, you have such a solemn look on your face. What are you thinking about?

08:27

Sir, you look pretty indifferent to the whole situation. What are you feeling?

08:38

Sir, you look very angry. What's on your mind?

08:45

Someone closer down.

08:49

Here comes a male co chair again. Excuse me, sir. Don't you have anything to say about this? Lovely girl one a day. Okay. Sir, you also look upset. What advice would you give the community and you Ma'am, you look like you have some advice to give the community this is Chase story reporting from the Lesbian and Gay Pride Week committee meetings. I will return with future updates as they occur. Hmm. I wonder what Harvey Milk would say if he were here tonight to witness the actions taken by the executive committee and that the leaders the offensive

09:11

09:52

Hello, this is Chase story at the site of the Lesbian and Gay Pride week meeting which has just finished up I'm going to try to get a few words with the female co chair if I can, Madam co chair madam co chair that certainly was a stirring can't pain speech you made right before the voting could you reiterate what you said stand stands for the rest and how do you plan on running the Gay Pride Committee during the next year?

10:54

Well madam co chair, do you really think you can do it that way?

11:23

But what about your male co chair?

11:25

gonna wash that man right out of my hair? I'm gonna wash that man right out of my hair. I'm gonna wash that man right out of my hair and sanim on his way okay, you also have a lawyer appointed by you on the executive committee supposedly to enact the Robert's Rules of Order. Are you sure that's all he does

11:40

12:10

and why did you select this particular lawyer need to read

12:30

random cochair Can you tell me what personal gains you hope to get out of running the Pride Week committee

12:48

All right, is there anything else?

13:28

How about long term goals for you in the future?

13:33

What does life hold for me? Why? My hour on ABC? I want to be the first dyke on dynasty.

13:52

If you had not chosen to run for co chair of Pride Week, what would you have done you seem to have a long line of detractors. What do you think of them? Change change, change. Change

14:10

14:37

and what advice would you give them?

14:41

Don't tell me not to live just like candy. I'm a son's a ball of butter. Don't bring around

14:55

Oh, I see your male co chairs about to join us. Do the two of you have anything to say to our listeners will always be Bosom Buddies friends

15:10

sisters

15:15

thank you both. Now both co chairs are joining the rest of the executive committee for some pictures they seem to be talking amongst themselves let's see if we can hear what they are saying Mr. Funniest

15:50

Okay, now let's see if we can get a few words from the opposition, sir. Oh sir. What did you think of the meeting tonight and what advice would you give to the gay community?

16:21

16:44

Do you have any comments for the Gay Pride Week committee?

17:04

This is war. Well, there you have it. This is Chase story at the Pride week meeting. Good night, everyone.
