00:39

00:47

there's there is a bit of a difference. Yes.

00:52

Michelle is prettier

00:59

Let me see that cigarette lighter again.

01:02

Well, boys and girls, it's time for the after hours news interviews with big Roy and Chris. And while you're doing that, I'm going to take care of some business right here in the control room. Yes, didi.

01:14

Okay. Well, first of all, before I get off with the news, I like to let everyone know that I don't believe this. Don't sabotage.

01:30

Right doesn't need any help and sabotage.

01:32

I do. Yeah, I do a very good job on my own. Let's start off with news from Brazil around the corner, right down there, the International Festival. Once again, today, I was down there. And I remember KPFT booth from noon until 5pm. And I want to thank all of our wonderful listeners who stopped by and said hi to me and Mary Ramirez who does Mary in the morning. And all the other programmers who are down there. You know, we had a fabulous time and and we have one more day, folks one more day. And once you can get on down there to the Texas stage area and say hi to the folks from KPFT down there. And I was really amazing. It made me feel really good to hear and actually see our listeners, I actually got a chance to see our listeners come up to our booth. And they listened to after hours they listened to Mary in the morning, people were asking about Jim squared and the esoteric adventures which is heard here on Friday evenings and all kinds of stuff. And, you know, one of our listeners wasn't scared when he actually met who, who's on the other side of the microphone. So what got me was his just heterosexual couple, middle aged or a little bit older. Right? And he says, Oh, you're a big boy. And he just leaped across the table and grabbed me and gave me a big ol hug. He said that he loved news and views. He says you guys are too funny. So you know, 03:13

02:49

02:53

some of us try and be serious, you know, get kind of made me feel good. It kind of made me feel good. He said that we were better than Saturday Night Live. Honey, say no, I've got nothing. This is this is true insanity. And in here. Anyway. He goes,

03:15

03:32

Oh, my goodness. Just let me talk in the first five minutes. No, I don't have anything to say right now. Okay.

03:39

A little bit of a sad note. A personal hero of mine, Rudy glendo. has tested positive for HIV. And he came out and the USA Today mentioning that he has tested positive for HIV. And in response to that he has said that his life has been a roller coaster. But people love roller coasters. And that's not a bad thing. I know this. I'm enjoying life so much. I'll do anything to survive. The show will go on and that is so typical Rudy. That is so typical Rudy. And Rudy Glinda became the first US Mexican American to win a US figure skating title and joined basketballs Magic Johnson and Olympic diver Greg Louganis, among a tiny handful of sports stars who have publicly revealed that they are HIV glendo has told his was told his status on March 1. by a doctor who was treating him for a case of pneumonia. Always the underdog Glynda is 1996 victory in the men's competition has been called one of the most electrifying moments in the history of figure skating, as the goatee sporting athlete came from behind to win the title in front of roaring hometown, hometown crowd of more than 10,000 spectators at the San Jose arena. And I would like to add that I've seen Rudy in numerous other competitions. Judges do not are not very kind to moody. However, moody doesn't care because the audience are on their feet, just going wild. They love him, especially now that he's in that kind of a senior circuit for skating of the professional circuit, the professional circuit that he's going around. And it's amazing that when you see his story contributed to that. It's almost a Survivor Series, you've got Rudy Glynda, with HIV positive, Scott Hamilton, who's Rick who's recovered recovering from testicular cancer axonal by by you'll who has been fighting alcohol addiction and the group that grow up figure skater, she was a Olympic winner number of years ago. But she's been on the professional circuit she She's suffering from some sort of a cancer. And

05:27

05:53

06:06

I mean this, this almost can be turned into a skating figure, motivational speaker series of overcoming adversity through sport, and oh, very, very true. Does this the straight guy and his wife that skate and they had to overcome a tremendous sky came from Canada.

06:14

06:30

Unfortunately, I haven't watched much skating as I used to watch.

06:34

Anyway, he's talking about the snake in the medical 06:37

bay now, where you got the concern growing about the possible local epidemic of hepatitis C.

06:45

And folks, remember we mentioned this hepatitis C outbreak. A few weeks ago, we promised that we would keep you up to date and Chris was doing that even as we as I speak, the Montrose clinic is offering a free test for the virus that causes potential fatal liver disease. In February, the first full month of tests was offered 300 People were tested, and 16% of those were found to be infected with hepatitis C virus, according to a clinic spokesperson. They are trying to get as many people who are follow into that risk factor as possible these tests are more expensive to produce or to do then you're HIV testing. All of that goes directly into the community. And here we have some other groups that are nationwide, and they will organize some big event. And yet, Houston will only get a few $100 out of it. I mean, it's just like, there is no comparison. And just like before the new you and you and I were talking what to do as well. One We hear that the crew

06:56

15:01

15:04

15:34

15:53

16:10

Well, they'll probably you know, part of it will go to one

16:15

There's Freddie. Hello, Justin. Hey. Kimberly, right. Kimberly? Right? Yeah. Okay. Hi, Gabrielle. Hey, David. Hi. And Candice. Tada. Oh, and we have seen him back there. Okay. Okay. Okay, so, hatch. Hatch means Houston area teen coalition of homosexuals. To call us at 713942702 It's basically social and support group. It's fun. Go. Okay. On a side note, we did something for Hatch Today we went to where did we go Justin?

19:40

I don't know where that was. It was the Boys and Girls Club of some place.

19:43

Okay, well, that was kind of interesting. That was really cool. That was really how did y'all find that? Great.

19:50

I don't know Carol had directions. No.

19:58

Wasn't that an anti debt? summation something. Yeah, it was called erase the hate or something. It was teams against prejudice. But the thing was, with the whole erase the hate if they didn't, I felt that they weren't all trained to do the whole erase the hate thing.

20:02

20:19

It wasn't. Yeah, I don't think their heart wasn't in it. I mean, 20:24

that sounds like the school we went to. Were you there Tommy went to Martin Luther.

20:28

No, I think I had to go to school.

20:31

Yeah, they were like, they they brought us there as like gay teens. You know, they wanted to hear our story and the whole time they're like, we're there's nothing special. Why should we treat you any special? You know? Yeah, like, we hate when all the guys want to go into the girls bathroom. And I'm like, Okay, I've never heard of that. But like, guys come in makeup and stockings and everything. I'm like, Okay. I mean, it was every gay person right there. Yeah. Well, it wasn't everybody. It was just a few people. I'm saying I'm most of them. They were really good. They were really open to discussion, whatever. And they really they really did hear us out. It was it's, I know, it sounds like, like, well, we didn't like it or whatever. But it wasn't it was really great experience. And it really helped them. It really helped us a lot. Justin made a lot of friends.

20:52

21:12

I did I lost all my bracelets though. It was kind of fun. He was just hanging out. He was here you are here. Yeah. It's crazy. counted his hugs. Yeah. How many hugs did you get Justin to more than that basketball woman that makes me twice as better her. She's all like eight four. She was really big. I don't know.

21:24

21:40

Okay, and what? Oh, yeah, we have to do the PSA thing.

21:44

Oh, yeah. Marcia, free and listener sponsored community radio for the Texas Gulf Coast. Houston's 90.1 KPFT the sound of Texas Pacifica radio network station number KPFT. Houston. K EOS College Station.

22:02

All right. All right. Go. Que es College Station. Okay, on like a side note or whatever. I went to the International Festival last weekend or something to work at the PFLAG booth or whatever that OutSmart is was funding. And it's all for the billboard campaign. They have three billboards located around town ones on Westheimer and Gessner. ones on i 45 southbound and Cross Timbers. The other one and the last one is on 16. East inbound. They go safe schools. They say either safe schools under unconditional love. And my favorite one hate hurts. It's costing $100,000 to keep these billboards up all year. So they need money. So if you want to donate to that, go donations, how do you donate to it? Send it to people like Okay. Send it to the Hollyfield foundation. That's where they all have their meetings and stuff. But okay, so today's program is gay and lesbian trivia. And so so I guess I'm going to be the whole Drew Carey guy because I'm gonna give out points like he does. On Whose Line is it? Point start counting right? It's gonna be fun. All right. Okay, so Canada

23:39

Justin's all PC. Okay, so I didn't know how y'all wanted to do this. Did y'all want to break up into teams? Or 23:48

why don't we just sit where we are in the booth and we'll 23:54

go so do I just go like you answer this. Yeah, you'd 23:57

be the controller will be your Marinette. Okay, that's great. We're puppets whatever.

24:02

Okay. So my first question and when you'd like music like the ones to be a millionaire? Done?

24:13

Sure. Did I just get your final?

24:17

Okay. I guess we'll go with Gabrielle because she's first on that side. Okay. The first gay lesbian couple to be featured on the couple of section and people's magazine was a Lily Tomlin and Jane Wagner. B Melissa Etheridge and Julie cipher. See Ellen DeGeneres and Anne Heche Hush, hush. Oh, you're so hot Kay Tommy. Everyone should know that.

24:43

24:50

Okay, these Dr. Tom Waddell and Charles Deaton who, B or C A, B or C. I'm gonna go with it. Inn hash thing wrong. Okay, really?

24:57

25:06

25:08

It wasn't B or C, was it?

25:11

No, it wasn't too. Yeah. What was it? That gives Justin 10 points for why? It was actually the Dr. Tom Weddell and Charles Deaton. Who are these people?

25:23

Who would have thought, Oh, these people? I no one's a doctor.

25:28

Right? Candice Candice

25:34

and since Candice just scored herself extra five point I'm 25:37

sitting next to Guy rail.

25:39

You get to go. Who was the first openly gay performer on network television?

25:48

A okay. I was like a It

25:53

was Mr. Rogers.

25:59

Think he was just openly gay? He was I'm telling 26:01

you Mr. McFeely. And Mr. Speedy Delivery.

26:07

Was a Ellen B. Amanda Bierce. See Terry Sweeney. Or de Chestatee. Bono.

26:19

Okay, well, she was like five and she was on TV. was open. Okay, I've heard that name. Amanda. bearson. That third one. I've no idea who the heck that is. Ellen go with that. Are you hinting to me? No. Well, I know Ellen's I mean, we'd all like to give her props or anything, but you know, she's not like, you know, the first one. She just got a lot of, Okay, I'll go three.

26:45

Choice. All right. How many points? Oh, you get 5455 10 for not knowing the answer. Okay. All right. Okay, I'm done with that. Do you know who it is? I've heard the name.

26:53

27:01

It wasn't demanded Burstow.

27:03

She doesn't care I'm Sweeney.

27:04

That's minus five points for you.

27:08

To I feel so negative. She was the first out No.

27:16

Okay, this one I'm gonna give to Justin because I think you'll actually know this one. butene. Y'all can do this as a together thing. It can be a duo. Y'all can like whisper and stuff. Okay, sure. You want to let us do you come up with some. Okay, what do Phil Donahue, you want? Hugh Hefner, Bette Midler. Paul Newman, Burt Reynolds. And Yoko Ono all having common canceled shows what do filled on Donahue, Hugh Hefner, Bette Midler, Paul Newman, Burt Reynolds and Yoko Ono have in common? They all were to pay. Yoko, you know, borrow shares her choices? No, this is actually a non multiple choice question. There was only two multiple choice when so Gabrielle and Candice y'all were lucky. Y'all get the hard questions. Y'all were warm up questions.

28:00

28:29

How about they all have gay children?

28:31

No, no. Y'all need to whisper among each other. It's kind of like that dare Double Dare thing.

28:39

We'll get slimed.

28:41

Take the physical challenge

Take the physical challenge.

28:45

Can you go suggest callers to call into if they know the answer?

28:49

Oh, yeah, that's true. Call in if you like no any question, like answers to these questions. Our number is 713. Jam. KPFT or 713-526-5783. Colin? It'll be fun.

29:05

It'd be nice to the people who answered the phones because otherwise you won't get connected through so.

29:11

So okay, all right for that.

29:14

Do you know the answer? Oh, yeah.

29:17

Answer where did i Okay, here we go. Okay, these are all these all of these people are openly supportive of gay rights.

29:28

Is that all we have on our side?

29:34

But that made me feel sad. Why is Donahue but I find that sad. I remember clearly from like, when I was 12 years old, he had this show with these gay kids on it. Wilson Cruz from my so called Life was on there when he was like really young. And there's this chick that was so hot on that. And I remember that still, but like being 12 years old, and like questioning your sexuality and seeing that I was just like, wow, it seems positively because that was like a 92. So that was really cool of him to have that show. Oh, yeah, not many people are paying attention to gay teens and yeah, that's cool. But I found Hugh Hefner like that was great. Oh

29:39

30:02

30:06

Hugh Hefner is probably very supportive. Like come on Playboy Bunny March and April. Let's go.

30:14

All right, he, he's my hero. I love Hugh Hefner. Are you gay?

30:26

Anyone can wear a robe all day every day. That's really great. I want to wear a robe every day. Yes, because flashers. Shut up. Minus 10.0

30:41

I won't email you down to like, do okay. To do. What? Thank you.

30:48

Hey, so I was actually listening to that once. Show of yours the butcher.

30:53

No comment. Okay, so

30:56

we don't have no doubt about that show. Tommy? No, but like you're getting you're trying to get her to sing the Humpty day. Yes. I really liked that song.

31:08

I'm not singing for you. If that's what you're trying to get to the next question.

31:15

Why are you gonna get someone to try to sing the Humpty dance when you won't even sing it yourself?

31:20

Because that's the power of being behind that window. What's the Humpty dance dude? Dances? Me. You know once got busy in a Burger King bathroom. That thing? I didn't know that part. I love that part.

31:38

She knows the whole song. Okay. This is for Steven. Did Freddie leave?

31:46

Yeah, okay. He's Franklin.

31:49

Okay. Well, you're going to do is you're going to try to name the title of this book that was banned. And it was banned for stupid reasons. So listen to the country, this country does know we're gonna have questions about Europe now. I know areas. Okay. This Alice Walker's acclaimed novel had a long history, a Oh, a long history of being banned from high school libraries during the 80s. It was labeled as smart in Nigeria. Originally, I was thinking Moby Dick, I guess. Think about it. Think of all the colors.

32:39

I know. I know. Pick Me.

32:41

Gabrielle. What's the answer? It's the color purple. You're so great. That's a very good because we'll be in and sugar. Sugar. Sugar. That's her because we'll be in and sugar. Sugar. Sugar. That's her name. Shake. Yes. All right.

32:46

32:51

32:53

And they dance and 32:53

they actually she's lesbian? She? Yeah. In the movie. Wow. She falls in love with that one girl.

33:05

So that's just like fried green tomatoes. I mean, the book is so awesome. And so like lesbian like you see the movie and they just like, you know a couple of friends. So Steve gets negative 1000 points. Gabrielle gets one 33:19

33:13

kill me. Look 1000 Look, you

33:23 will not argue with my points. Too much power. Okay, it's all because the window. The window. You know, there's a door that one does not do much for you, Tommy? Sure. To make him. Come over here. What do you can do to the next guys? You know, you're both man. You proved it. Okay, good.

33:31

33:47

33:55

Bye five points for being the facilitator while we have three year.

34:00

All right. That's an intense suck.

34:05

Okay, this is for Freddie. I picked this question, especially for Freddie because I figured he would know, especially especially especially. It's kind of like espresso. Yeah, Justin was freaking out about that last night shot. Espresso. I know. That's what I was telling. Okay, anyway, when ABC first broadcast this play written by by Bob Fosse in 1975, all references to homosexuality and bisexuality, including the crucial, crucial plot element of Brian's affair with Maximilian were removed by network censors. Name that play by Bob Fosse, yes. Oh, God. Well, it's not Chicago.

34:49

34:57

Is that the only one you know? Because I know he's also Pippin I think you even have this poster up in your room. Do I really? I think I don't know. I know.

35:09

Give away two character names. Yeah, Maximilian and, and 35:13

Brian. Brian has an affair with 35:16

a butterfly. No. Oh. It's Cabernet and not Cabernet Cabernet.

35:32

Just got negative five points for correcting the host.

35:36

But ready for this right.

35:43

Okay. Okay. Okay, this is my favorite section of questions because what it is is words that have different meanings what I think y'all are thinking. So I right now

36:02

bag. different meaning.

36:06
