00:00

Think I'm coming straight to Houston. Austin can wait the only person I know there is Nicki and she's picking me up at the walls. Okay, let me close for now, before I get carried away y'all be good. And I'll see you next Saturday.

Chris Harrison 00:02

00:11

Good.

00:12

Good, good, good. Sounds like you're keeping your sense of humor, which is great. Yes, that is that is good is hot, very hot. You're telling me who's next. Okay, go, Chris. It's your birthday.

00:15

00:25

Chris Harrison 00:28

Let's see if I can emphasize this first paragraph. I'm gonna why I feel like I need to emphasize the first paragraph of this letter. I want to thank you for a program that will allow those of us behind bars to keep up with the happenings in the GLBT community. For some reason, I felt that was an important sentence to say today. Actually, it is I don't know why this is from God. I wish you can't read the handwriting.

00:55

c Chris Harrison 00:56

No, it's he's got he's got his pseudonym on here. Yeah, the pseudonym unfortunately, like give you a little clue since he got it, close it with bless it be married into Roush

01:09

right Jesse Catholic

c Chris Harrison 01:13

mirror didn't last as a as a pseudonym as pen name, mirrored and mirrored into rash.

B Bobby 01:18

Merton is is like another what is a sort of Gaelic Welsh way of saying Merlin, okay,

c Chris Harrison 01:29

Burton, Dariush, okay. He's hoping I hadn't heard about this. There's a bill in the House of Representatives here to put telephones in the prisons, so that Stacy might be able to talk to RJ he heard a couple weeks ago, we're talking about cousins closing that was just a rumor that someone gave us and oh, we ran with it. I didn't either.

J Jimmy Carper 01:53

It must have been in San Diego. Yeah, they just remodeled it. No, they're remodeling Mary's though. It was a disturbing thought and making it smaller. No, they're making it bigger and cleaning it up. Seriously, well causes Boston to buy for. So please let them get through a little piece and buy them Hey, as long as they can get the hazmat team in there, it'll be all good.

01:55

02:09

Bobby 02:14

c Chris Harrison 02:19

transgendered segment was an interesting variation of the usual show. Smiley's brother asked some of the questions that I had wondered about myself. However, I agree with him. I don't want to hear about the specifics of the operation. I started squirming just thinking about it.

02:32

Well, they don't cut it off.

02:35

They just turn it inside out.

B Bobby 02:37

They just make it a blast, a banana split. Literally. No actually split. down the center and split.

02:46

I'm interesting.

c Chris Harrison 02:47

Thank you for playing. Okay. That was from the week before and then this one here. Talking about our roundtable discussion last week. Discussion with a visiting straight guy. I recall the other week when Christina was there was Molly's brother and asked a question about the transgenders. The gentleman last night said anything was anything but adapted to being around the opinionated gay people. At least that's the way it came across to me, I could be wrong and frequently now, here's my feeling that he was a greater example of the attitude of most of society that has little or no contact with gay people. I agree that his use of the term quote, lifestyle and quote, hints of homosexuality being a choice, as someone makes it a point in their life. While I might be tempted to say that it is a matter of choice as to whether a person chooses to act on their homosexual validate. The fact is, it is not a choice on whether or not you're attracted to members of your own sex. Unfortunately, he got cut off from the discussion when he had to go to breakfast. Thank God, thank God is for commissary, oatmeal and hot chocolate with cinnamon roll.

He also said that he lot of times he doesn't go to breakfast, just so he can list the show. And that's why the thank God for the commentary. Yeah, right.

c Chris Harrison 04:07

Okay, I'm sorry, I missed that part of there. Yeah. So he,

04:10

which is a real compliment to the show,

04:12

it certainly is.

B Bobby 04:15

Care, they really, really care

c Chris Harrison 04:17

to show that he wants to thank us for having a program that allows those of us behind bars to keep up with the happenings in the GLBT community. Why just keep sticking in my mind there.
I

04:28

think that's the responsibility.

04:31

There was something that was

B Bobby 04:31

mentioned, to keep people apprised of stuff near people too.

04:36

There was something that was mentioned in the letters and even in an article that was sent. We're talking about some comment that was made. I didn't hear about most of the men that molest little boys. Yeah, and I, you know, my theory on that is that they Oh, and one of the articles they always say that they're heterosexual. I think the Orton word is that they say. And I think that what men who've molesting children are a prime example of our what happens to people who don't have any permission to come out don't have any way of dealing with the reality that they are gay. And that they must, it's imperative that they are in denial and think that they are straight think that that they always have to present themselves as straight. And somehow in their mind they had gets by all the constraints, it gets so warped out that they can't be a healthy sane person, which is an anathema to a lot of people that the ideal would be a healthy, sane person. And that and that. So somehow, in their mind, if they're having sex with a little boy, it's not really gay. It's It's something else. And so they're not really homosexual. They're heterosexual. So I started with a much more twisted path, whether they're straight or gay,

05:52

I understand for first expect like, not experienced, like I didn't do to anybody, but it was done to me. So I understand exactly where like they come from, because personally, I did it wasn't like it all. Didn't come off is that didn't act like it did not like what did not gay didn't come off as gay and practically like said, I'm not gay. And I was like, right, I sat and thought about it, it was like, then why do you do what you do with me, it's all it's all about power. It's not about sex. It's not about sexuality. It's very simply the fact that you want to talk about it. In the simplest of terms, the Bible says it's better to sow your seed in the belly of a horror than to spread your seed across the ground. So these people think any port in a storm, I don't care if it's male, female, you know, it's actually own was accused of threatening to Melissa and her neighbor's dog, it doesn't matter to some people. It's about a power trip. It's about an ego trip. And basically, I'm going to do to you, whatever the hell I want to do for rape, rape and sexual molestation on that level has nothing to do with sex and that they're not empowered to just be themselves exactly in terms of just however they naturally are. They feel powerful for that. It has nothing to do doesn't matter the fact of them wanting to come as saying, you know, the repressed homosexual that's why that's why the priests are doing the kids. It that's that's all BS, whether it's the fact of your when you rape someone, then it is about power. It's about controlling over someone that you know, the the sexual predator you have, they're like when Florida, you know, we've had two cases now in the past month, of where these older guys who had done it before, did it again, and they killed the kid to do it. Sure. The one girl they buried her alive, it has nothing to do with sex, you can say that it has nothing to do with sex, because at some point, if you're actually having intercourse, it feels good. I mean, and there's a lot of people that I've been friends who have been molested. And there's that whole sort of guilt syndrome of like, This feels good. While it's happening, I must be really awful and terrible, because I'm enjoying this on some level on the tax that.

C Chris Harrison 06:19

06:58

07:00

Chris Harrison 07:09

07:47

Roy McCarthy 08:15

But, but the perpetrator of it is coming from something I understand, I understand what you're saying. Something too hard to boil down to just a simple formula,

08:19

Roy McCarthy 08:29

a sexual act, whether it's being committed upon a male or female. And overpowering, they absolutely. And it shows that, for that one instance, that person is empowered, and this other person is totally submissive, not to know about sex, not about sex. But it is a power thing.

08:55

That actually goes down to like the extreme do studies at Oxford University in England, about social disorders, that goes back to like, you know, the submissive and dominant personalities of people. And my sister is actually doing a study now, right now, she's a graduate school student there at Oxford. And it's about like, social disorders. And what's going into is, like, you know, personalities of people that in prison actually are studying people in prison that have been committed for sexual presentation or anything like that. And it goes into actually just do is actually part of their genes that just makes them that way. And it goes back into gene study of like, you know, is homosexuality part of your, you know, your DNA or is it not? And it's a combination of like, study between biochemist and, you know, psycho psychologist psychologists, is that a psyche type thing? Or is it geological type thing? So it kind of stems that too.

R

Roy McCarthy 09:56

But I'll say this that there is a problem where or net, you touched on that really is an important aspect where the victim says, for a moment that it felt good. Is there something that I did? or was there some way that I addressed before the victim starts questioning himself or herself? What did I do? To you know? It's kind of like the a wife beater. Right? You know, the woman almost all the time. Oh, it must be my fault.

C

Chris Harrison 10:32

Yeah, cuz people are people assume that, you know, there has to be a reason for why this was done to me. You know, it sounds like but the fact is, you know, yeah, it's the fact of the person who is the victim in this situation. Can Can, on some level possibly receive some level of pleasure,

10:53

I was a victim. And when I when it happened to me, like, I didn't know what was going on. And I was just like, Is this is this right? Is this I guess this is what happens. This is what they do. I didn't say anything while it was going on. I was just like, do you open your mouth? What do you say? How do you react to it? I didn't, I thought I was doing I thought I was doing the right thing, just because he was more of an authority figure. Because I mean, at that time, adults were more authority for every anything in adult said, went, even if they were like, No, we're gonna go over that trash can. I'm like, Okay, and so, I mean, let's, let's, let's put this link to it. Do you think that if that incident didn't happen, would you still be gay?

C

Chris Harrison 11:35

I think I'd still be gay, but it would have been it would have taken me a wad it would have taken me longer to be able to come out. Because after the incident happened, it sparked like, more interest. Like after that I was more looking towards it when I was nine when it happened. Well, so after that, when it happened, like by age 11, I was looking at guys, and I'm like, you know, I was more curious about them and was more curious as they brought you out earlier than you like I would I think you know, talking about you know, how theories fit their energy centers in the bodies, like the chakras and everything. And that one of the problems with is it that they sort of open and develop in a progress I mean in a timely way. And that part of the problem of child molestation is that progress I mean, in a timely way. And that part of the problem of child molestation is that you're stimulating an energy center way before it's due to be stimulated. And you're sort of in it kind of messes up the the progression.

12:43

Because after that happened, I was more interested in guys. And it was girls. And then like, after that, it just became a little bit more mature than the people around me. Like I was just like, 13. But I would speak to my teachers and speak to people around me like I was like, a friend of my regime, or 16 years old friend of mine last week was talking about his abuse. And he said he went from six to 30. Exactly.

12:58

Chris Harrison 13:03

Mature sirloin had a point

Bobby 13:04

I was one of the other things that is common and I've seen and is that yeah, it is that jump from you know, your age two, twice your age sort of thing there, there's a lot and, and one of the things that is also commonly apparently experienced is that a lot of people who are sexually assaulted, abused at a young age, somehow or other, get it in their mind that that's what they're good at. That's what they that's what they're good for. And they end up becoming sexually active in the extreme. And I mean, despite the fact that this was, may have been, at that moment, a horrible act, a painful act, they, they,

Chris Harrison 14:03

their attacker showed interest in them, and a very personal level. And even with spending, you know, say, you know, if you're attacking, you know, they shower, maybe some gifts on you, hey, hush, hush up, don't talk about this, they pay more attention to them. And some person out there who may not have received that attention in a normal span may not have received, you know, even just the basic, I mean, in a way of putting it, you know, in that instance of just being held, yeah. Even whether even is being held down that physical contact with another human being. If they've really missed that in their life, then yeah, there is the possibility that, you know, they're seeing this stuff as you know, this is what my self worth is that I can you know, I get, you know, I get attention but, you know, I may go through horrible pain. No, I don't I don't think that necessarily you have to be abused, or that happened because, you know, I had plenty of sex in my 20s tons and tons of sex. You know, it was great. It was wonderful. It was the 70s And towards the end. I mean, towards the end of the 70s everything. I, you know, I was very good at sex people really, you know, had a good time. And I got to the point of where I went, well, there you go, there's the rest of my personality. I went through this whole period where I had to sort things out because I basically thought people like me for sex. Yeah, you know, and just in some cases, that was true. And I really needed to sort that I'm not just a body, I think that is a problem in the gay community because we so prized, there's so can it can get so sexually focused, that, you know, if you're not a good leg, get out of my life.

R

Roy McCarthy 15:42

Getting back to getting back to rape and the victims and stuff. One of the big problems in society does this is that if the victim male or female of rape complaints to the authorities, then they become a victim all over again, because of the court, they make them a victim, they say sure. Oh, what did you do? How were you dressed? How did you walk into fact, it's the defense that has has the the moral obligation in a sense to say that they have to put on the strong vos zealous advocate for their client. And unfortunately, that's easiest way of doing it is, you know, my God, he's only human, if you're going to wear a skirt that short or you know, you're gonna leave him alone with with him, you know, that's what you have to expect.

C

Chris Harrison 16:10

16:39

You're talking about the power thing, and I was talking about repression and stuff and warping people, I think that it goes into that thing of like, because of the way society is set up in a lot of ways like that. Somehow, this is the one way they feel safe having sex and it keys right into the power thing. But there's an issue of like, where do they feel secure and safe and having sex in which is very skewed view? Well, but But it's, it's empowered by a lot of old bullshit. And then in society and the way it's structured, a lot of rapists are married and have family so yeah, right, exactly.

R

Roy McCarthy 17:13

♂

17:17

R

Roy McCarthy 17:20

It's not a thing of whether they have

c

Chris Harrison 17:24

this kind of cool calm on this. And sure, everything's next. Sorry. Let's go to the letter that kind of inspired the that. This tangent we went off on. This is from Reginald. Hey, how are y'all doing? I hope everything's well with everyone. He really enjoyed the show the past weekend, everyone sounds like they're having a lot of fun. I wish there were more programs on the air like yours. I enjoyed the talk y'all had with a young man don't remember his name at the roundtable hour. It was the straight guy confused right guy if you asked me. To me, it seemed he couldn't admit that the GLBT person has the same natural born sexual attraction as get as GLBT people, and we as he does as a straight person. He kept confusing sexual attraction with sex. As pointed out to him that a majority of men who rape young boys are heterosexual well, not even the young boys you know, it's the majority of pedophiles out there are heterosexual pedophiles usually it's girls who are who are molested by a man they know. Right and usually it's a family member. Someone needs to sit down and school him it's not a lifestyle. This is my life. And he had a coffee get some sleep I gotta I haven't read over the article he sent in there from the echo. I'll probably get a little bit cuz we were talking with it was I think it's more like this. I'll read it another time they were talking about you know how our society kind of gets labeled as these pedophiles and you know, looking here at the greatest bastion of news information news gathering source that we use here on our show, The Daily going through here and here's the past weeks here we've got mom allegedly videotapes, son's rape, man rapes and murders a nine year old girl here's a story coming out of Florida of a registered sex offender who wants to the people in his neighborhood found out about it put up signs all around his neighborhood saying, you know, call them a child rapist and put his address on there and he eventually committed suicide over it. And if I remember correctly, that was it a heterosexual? Incident? I'm not 100% Sure I thought I heard on something that it was the They have a female that he was. And this was actually the posters were printed up by the county considering all the other things have been going on now and here here's some of the gay stories. I'll admit this judge quits after an arrest in a Cruisee bathroom. Looks the same county magistrate resigned a day after an arrest of the Greenville mall men's room, on a charge of loitering to engage in sexual activity. He's been a time honored

o

tradition at Dallas. Dallas,

c

Chris Harrison 20:36

Greenville, South Carolina. I can't know I don't know which Carolina it is. Pick one. North evidently

o

20:46

from ancient graffiti graffiti as long as there's been bathrooms there's been loitering

c

Chris Harrison 20:55

Chris Harrison 21:00

hurt a woman here who was who was in an incestuous relationship with her father protects him

B Bobby 21:05

from Arkansas.

C Chris Harrison 21:07

Here's here's another story of a man who molested a young girl

B Bobby 21:14

seems to be a lot of that go.

C Chris Harrison 21:16

Here's a here's a moderate child molester who blamed his doing that on the family dog.

♂ 21:25

Massachusetts,

B Bobby 21:27

what the dog has anything to do with the kid? Is this anything like people saying that, you know, their dog told them to kill the Pope or

C Chris Harrison 21:36

here's a school wrestling coach who molested a 27 year old who was doing a 16 year old female student. That was like Kennedy actually. Now here's here's here's one, you know, it's gonna be a little bit of decorum I'll need on your guys's part when I talk about this story. And elementary school bathrooms surprisingly Cruzi. A shocking story surfacing within the La Hoya School District has many parents on edge police said that two six year old boys were performing sexual acts on each other.

♂ 22:16

And it wasn't me because

 Bobby 22:18

I cuz you're not because it's been a long time since you were six years old.

 22:23

When I did it anyway.

 Roy McCarthy 22:27

me because I was 10 when I did.

 Chris Harrison 22:30

They were told the to six year old

 Bobby 22:31

the last time he did it.

 Chris Harrison 22:35

So you know, this is a little strange. I was calling him a prodigy. And you know, Jimmy came in with the fact he was four years old. So precocious little thing, school wrestling. Now you have to have an escort to go to the bathroom. But they actually there are a lot of people that think that one of the kids is an abuser in a situation there are people who are so carried away with the whole pedophile and abuse issue that they think that one of the kids even if they're around the same age it would they they express curious sexual curiosity one of them is an abuser, which I think is absurd. I think it is to definitely is a

 22:50

 Roy McCarthy 23:11

 Chris Harrison 23:14

sign we're talking about when you go through some of these things. And you'll you'll see, principal gets drunk and molest girl. Here's the two kids were doing it to each other. Then that, then that just to me, I mean, kids even call for crying out loud. All they're doing is playing. Yeah.

B

Bobby 23:23

R

Roy McCarthy 23:44

I think it's kind of like a healthy theory. I don't know about six years old, your body changing. But, you know,

B

Bobby 23:53

I mean, you may not know he'd been hell of a lot about sexuality when you're six. But you know, you got one of those and so does he or what do you have?

24:02

C

Chris Harrison 24:06

Now, they said this was not an isolated incident, there will be no prosecution because of the age of the suspects. And the students were given counseling and an in school suspension. And now, if at all possible students are escorted by a teacher and if not, coaches randomly visit the restrooms. Following this story was the story of the school wrestling coach who allegedly is student and then after that makes things awfully convenient for the coach.

24:36

Coaches. So my mom said she caught me with a little girl when I was like really little, and she didn't like jump in and freak out and yell at us for you know, but and she just sort of, you know, called us from the other room Adele copied some cookies or something. But you know, there's proof it didn't make me straight.

Bobby 24:54

I had a nanny who wasn't too thrilled with me playing with her grandson. I thought we were the same age doesn't count, but this time when you're 15. So we're different though. But this time wasn't

♀

25:02

R

Roy McCarthy 25:10

theirs. But this does tie into one thing that I did want to hear roundtable talk about this week, we can set we have this Yahoo from Pat Pasadena, trying to pass legislation here in Texas, making it illegal for gays and lesbians to adopt or be foster parents. And those that already have children have been taken, taken away to protect the children that are not we are not predators. And every time that they tried to do anything against gay, the gay and lesbian community always bring up their children. We got to protect the children. Let's keep segregation going because we gotta protect the children past

C

Chris Harrison 25:59

135 to six with two abstentions. Well, a straight people would quit having babies that they can't take care of aren't willing to not beat and would keep them in their own home and like, you know, take care of them and love them then you wouldn't have a need for gay people to foster parents. You know?

J

Jimmy Carper 26:18

The coin, we've got Spain. The lower half of the Spanish parliament approved the socialist government's gay marriage bill Thursday. ~~ditional li Roman Catholic Spain the third European country to legalize same sex marriage~~

R

Roy McCarthy 26:39

I'm leaving for Spain tomorrow morning bill which one chipping in

B

Bobby 26:45

barely communicate here the

J

Jimmy Carper 26:47

bill which will also pave the way for gay couples to adopt children will now go to the Senate where the socialists have ample support for final approval in the coming weeks. Belgium and the Netherlands are the only two European countries that have legalized gay marriage ~~spam~~ once again. Can you believe it? Macho Spain, and once again, your Europe and the greater surrounding areas proves that they have their ~~can together about this better than anybody in this country~~ crap together about this better than anybody in this country.

Bobby 27:09

J Jimmy Carper 27:19

And then Connecticut approves same sex civil unions. Yes, once you got into your son,

R Roy McCarthy 27:27

go ahead and move to New Haven or Hartford or something like that.

J Jimmy Carper 27:32

So we're you know, we're

B Bobby 27:34

moving back north.

♀ 27:36

Now, I don't want to you know,

♀ 27:38

I I'm all in favor of marriage, anybody that wants to get married to get married, but part of me is like afraid it's gonna ruin like gay life, because there's gonna be so many whiny little Queens going. You don't really love me. You marry me.

♀ 27:51

Can you imagine if I gave up can you mention a gay divorce? They do? They're going to lose your phone now.

♀ 27:57

I mean, no, just the whole idea that they whine about if you would have been

R Roy McCarthy 28:03

refreshing all these warning queens. We got them now. Exactly. Yeah. But there's about everything though. Can you imagine that we're committed to another person like that. And as

28:09

c Chris Harrison 28:14

the diamond industry we'll definitely be making a killing.

28:18

No, trust me actually sees these will because they will read in the cult sorry, summertime is actually summertime with some art.

28:27

Exactly. But

R Roy McCarthy 28:30

it actually will become legalized. Because lawmakers whether it's on the state or federal law, when a same sex marriage becomes legal. I'm marrying a straight man.

28:35

c Chris Harrison 28:40

I need somebody to work on the car and fix the plumbing and stuff.

B Bobby 28:43

So as one stand up comedian said, as one comedian said, Go ahead, let gay people get married. Why should straight people be the only ones who suffer?

R Roy McCarthy 28:58

For me? I'm not going to know why.

C

Chris Harrison 29:01

Okay, let's see. You'd have to have a proposal honey. I propose he moves to Spain all in theory for last minute comments about you know, this is our last show in probably on Saturday night. And certainly in this time space.

J

Jimmy Carper 29:13

♂

29:22

I would like to say that I have been listening to K KPFT. Since I discovered it in the early you know, early, like late 60s, I guess.

♂

29:33

No, we didn't come on the air.

whenever it was, whenever I discovered it. This show has always been here. And that's always been very comforting. And it's always been thought provoking. And as I said, when I very first met you, Jimmy, do you realize how many actual lives you have saved in terms of people who just can't I don't know what they're gonna do because they don't know Have anything to relate to in their immediate surroundings? Hey, say hi. I just want to thank everybody that's ever been on this show for all the wonderful things that have happened because of this show.

J

Jimmy Carper 30:10

There have been 1000s of people on this show. Yeah, either as guests or are hanging on. Well, yeah, no.

B

Bobby 30:16

J

Jimmy Carper 30:20

Official unofficial unofficial chit stirs. Yeah.

C

Chris Harrison 30:24

Now one thing is this like a for the what you're hearing out there. This is not our complete

NOW ONE THING IS THIS LIKE A FOR THE WHAT YOU'RE HEARING OUT THERE. THIS IS NOT OUR COMPLETE FAREWELL. THIS IS THE SEASON FINALE.

J Jimmy Carper 30:33

We will be back probably Friday night,

C Chris Harrison 30:35

or late only things. The only thing we can say is tune into KPFT at 1am. Friday Night Slash Saturday morning. You're gonna hear Jimmy? Who's with Jimmy, we don't know it. You're either gonna hear me? Or you're gonna hear Jim Vaughn. Yeah, one of the two. We don't know, the best thing to keep up to date with it is check out during the week www.kpft.org. Or you can call in to the radio station at 713-526-4000. And Jose is the receptionist and she'll be she'll probably be able to help you once they come up with a schedule of when we are going to win. And if and what all is happening. We don't know. As I said, this is our season finale, we might be back here next week, we may not be we may be on later, we may be on 23 hours earlier, two hours later,

I have always considered it an honor to have airtime on this radio station to bring queer life to the to the audience. He listens. And I know that a goodly part of our audience are straight people. And so they're they I'm teaching people it's about undermining. Yeah, yes. And that that's the big part of it. And I've always said, you know, if we got canceled tomorrow, I would grab the hand of the general manager and thank him for all of the years we did have, I'm grateful for the airtime and I'm looking forward to next Friday night or next Saturday night whichever it may be. That is the positive attitude got got to his

They say change is good. And you know, well, hopefully what you're gonna see is especially coming back, you know, one way or another, we're gonna have some big changes happening in May. And we're starting with black on black on the first segment during the third week. We're looking at bringing in some new hosts we're on some of our segments, we have the new Latino segment is very exciting that we did so you know, this show is about diversity. It's about letting all sides for a discussion be heard. And we're going to continue it whether we've got three hours or four hours or how much overtime we get we'll get as much as we can into it and we
