Billy Bob, Jim, Billy Bob, Billy Bob is the bird and bird and be the bird were out there a couple of drinking buddies who worked as airline mechanics, but only Inner Inner tactical, tactical, whatever it is up there on the north side of our intergalactic one day. The airport was fog. And they were all stuck in the hangar with nothing to do so. But I mean, he said, which had something to drink big balls of meat too. And he said, You know I hear you can drink that jet flew and get a buzz Do you want to try? Well, they pour themselves a couple of glasses of this high octane hooch and they get completely trashed. On the next morning, you know Birdwood Next up, and he's surprised my god, he feels great. In fact, he feels so great. No hangover, no bad side effects, nothing. And the phone rings. And it's Billy Bob. And B, the Bible says, Hey, this is how you feel this morning, but it's God. I feel great. How about you boss? Can I feel great too? No hangover, but says no, he said that dead fuel stuff was great. He said, no hangover, nothing. We ought to do this more often. Bob says, yeah, he says, Well, he said, there's just one thing. He said, What's that? He said, you've fired him. Yeah. He said, No, he's about don't because I'm in Phoenix owe me just a little piece of tacky for

05:41

you. Just to bring the show back down to reality just to bring it back down. We've done theater and we've done art and culture and culture and now we back to reality. Back to trash back to tray. Lot of trash that you do in here girl. Last night without coffee you didn't pick up or too heavy to pick up.

05:44

06:07

06:10

Yeah, we save that for have trash day. Did you? Did anybody see Jay Leno lately in I cannot believe that this was on TV Leno on like it was like the seventh of September. His show. Oh, he went into the audience to find the most embarrassing first date that a woman ever had. I can't This is so fun. And in case people didn't see it, I was gonna tell you about the winter told about her first date experience. And it was snowing and it was really cold. And this guy took her scheme. And so she's given this like live on the air. And it was it was a day trip thing overnight, and they were strangers they'd really never met before. But they were on this day. And it was okay. And they were coming back in the afternoon. And they were going long in the car. She tells him and she really had to go take a pee really badly. And so he's and it's like an hour back to civilization. And he said, you know, try and hold it. Well, that worked for a while. But it's all you girls now. It just doesn't work very long. So it finally came to the point where he said, Listen, we either stop or I'm gonna pee in your friend's seat. That's it. So they stopped the car and she went out beside the car and she pulled on her pants and she started to go, Well, she didn't have a really good balance. So she kind of let her buns rest against the fender to steady herself. And she's telling me all this on TV I'm dying. And it was really he was a real gentleman he looked the other way. But when she finished she quickly noticed that her will warm but you know all those thoughts come racing back to my mind of you know the pump handle in the playground bars where you stick your tongue to it and you know, you can't get your bird well anyway. Oh no, you got a problem. So she's thinking of every way she could probably get herself released in his fender but she couldn't couldn't get a button off the fender so finally with a very red face, you know and for half freezing her but she asked for assistance. Well now I mean, and I cannot believe that this is still going on and TV I'm but this time I like rolling and floor calling friends. So this isn't the worst of the story. There's more. She took off her sweater and covered itself as best she could and she came around to see if he could help laughter laughter all subsided and everybody got back into the situation. They had a real problem and they agreed that there wasn't they needed something warm to melt or fender. So thinking about the warmest thing she thought was she just weed What more could they do? You know? So he's looking at that and looking at him and whatever and after exploring every other possible solution in the world. I can't believe they went on a road trip with no hoots in the car. But anyway. She promised to look the other way. So he unzipped the woman the worst dating experience, can you just picture get a mental image of this? Can you believe it? You're on a date with this with your whoever favors. Fender? I mean, oh, please, I'm going out of belief. And this woman stood up on national television and told this story. Oh my God, would you not if you were a family member like Ron, and my barrier so I no longer know you you're not my kin. And imagine sitting at home and the phone starts ringing when you thought you're not around dB talking about her per day. The guy pee dog. I mean, first day

09:33

09:39

golden showers.

09:42

I mean, it's a downhill slide from their kids.

09:47

Large what do they do on the second day? Well,

09:50

I just would love to know if there ever was

09:57

she got up on national TV and told the story that Gotta give it that's some of the guts.

10:01

Well, yeah, and you just said the conference that the rest of the ride home lacked a lot of conversation

10:13

what are we gonna do?

10:16

Can you imagine the guy though? He didn't hit down and dumper off probably 20 miles an hour in front of her door open the door and get into his buddies to tell him you are not gonna believe this while I tell you but

10:31

she could tell her grandchildren

10:35

not less they were all high Whoa that really drew you met and we've Billy Bob had a bad drink and jet fuel. He mean this stuff just keeps coming and coming you're a wild computer buff, right?

11:00

No, no, not really. I thought Jim told me you were Oh no.

11:04

I thought he said

11:07

those things are the work of Satan. I'm telling you that's that's why they have that big apple on there. It's like that Apple of knowledge you know, the tree of knowledge all that? Yeah.

11:18

We I look on the Landover Baptist site and see if they might be some sort of secret thing. Yeah, well, I don't know there's gotta be people out there that does computer here because I don't want to waste this beautiful little piece if you're on the internet, and you're on whatever you get, I don't know I have some of these friends that send me these chain letters. Okay, have you heard about these Oh, and it says pass it on you know to 20 of your best friends and if you do good luck is gonna come to you and then the next three days you know this is a little bit of the or they talk about this poor girl and so on so and that if you pass this on somehow you know five cents of every something's going to somehow get to this girl I mean even not believe the chain letters that come through and they want you to pass them on and then you're gonna have a wonderful day or luck will you know come to you and if you don't, you know shits gonna happen and I don't know what it said it again. Anyway, this friend of mine sent me this it was too funny. Because you get so many of these you just delete delete, you know, it's just too funny. So he got this thing on his thing. And this guy says Hello, my name is Bob Mazzi because our I'm suffering from a rare deadly disease, poor scores on final exams, extreme virginity, fear of being kidnapped and executed by an an electrician electrocution and guilty for not forwarding out of for not forwarding out $50 billion chain letters sent to me by people who actually believe that if you send them on that that poor six year old girl in Arkansas with the breast in her forehead will be able to raise enough money to have it removed before her redneck parents sell her off to a traveling freak show. Do you honestly believe that Bill Gates is going to give you and everyone you send his mail email to $1,000 How stupid are you? Ooh looky here if I scroll down this page and make a wish I'll get laid by every Playboy model in town. What a bunch of BS. So basically, this message is a big screw you to all the people out there who have nothing better to do than send me stupid chain mails to forward maybe even an evil chain letter leprechaun will come into my apartment and sodomized me in my sleep for not continuing in this chain, which was started by Jesus and five ad was brought to this country by a midget pilgrims on the Mayflower and if it makes to the year 2000 I'll be in the Guinness book of world records. Records for the longest continuous streak of blatant stupidity. If you're going to forward something, at least that means something mildly amusing. I've seen all the senators to 50 of your closest friends. And this poor wretched excuse for a human being will somehow receive a nickel from some omniscient being forwards about 90 times I don't care. Show me a little intelligence. Think about what you're actually contributing by sending out all these forwards. Chances are is your own popularity and point of being if you get some chain letter that's threatening you to leave you shag LIS or luckless for the rest of your life delete it that's funny send it off well there you go.

14:34

I read this out it was so funny about these this boy chicks girl with a breast and her for Arkansas parents freak show at school for like she'd be popular in parties. This guy has got a writing talent though. He's really cool. Um, I don't know where this came from. But it was kind of fun. It was just I was scanning through things I thought oh, not another one. You know, because I get these all the time. As if the first time I read was some kind of from the AT and T yeah right like they're gonna depart with a dime I'm gonna if you do this somehow this poor little wave whatever was there there had an I don't know what had some horrible disease was gonna get like five cents from everybody and I'm thinking how am I going to figure out where this when who's monitoring this you know I'm going into myself yeah right how's this gonna happen and then this friend of mine sent me this thing you're supposed to do this whatever and then put your score and then pass it on to 50,000 other people and then this wonderful thing will come back to you so I gave it about you're supposed to be nine hours or whatever whatever excuse me Have you got anything back because I think being broke down somewhere in London it just never happened so this thing came it was so funny because I'm still waiting for all those nickels and quarters to come my way

17:03

17:06

five days ago see by doing a dog

17:44

okay welcome to this week's edition of after hours news and views I'm big Roy with me tonight is Chris and if we saw a little bit crazy tonight that's because we are anyways like having figured that out yet. You haven't been listening long enough.

17:56

17:59

I'd like to begin this week's edition as we do every week given a shout out to all of our after hours news and views listeners to Peter and Andrew here in the Montrose and way up there midway we have Tony and Wade down in Beaumont, we have you know, a whole bunch more. Randy, Randy and then there's Michael and and Tony down in Beaumont written Kyle Tonier letter and Well, like I say there's nothing like having a captive audience.

18:37

It seems very strange to all your fans there seem to be in some form of a penal Institute.

18:43

I happen to have two two fans here in the Montrose

18:48

and surprising None from the mental institute.

18:53

Because we've got that here. Anyways, the Texas courts are hearing oral arguments with recently that are held in a suit against the Texas Court of Appeals using the Texas anti same sex marriage law to challenge the marriage of a man to a post operative male to female a post operative is a guy who's already gone through the surgery, the nip and tuck the gender reassignment surgery, right the gender reassignment surgery. And that's what the Texas lawyer reported this a newsletter called The Texas lawyer they reported that on September 10. And Kristy Lee Littleton underwent three sex change operations between 1979 and 1980 and married her husband Jonathan nine years later in Kentucky. After little tins husband died in 1996. She filed suit alleging his death was caused in part by the negligence As Dr. Mark, a branch branch is now asking that the case be dismissed on the grounds that Littleton was not entitled to survivor, spousal benefits, because she is a he, she is a man, and her marriage is therefore void. And so folks, this is, you know, once again, all kinds of legal maneuverings. And once again, it's all over money. It's not when you boil down all the prejudice that there is against gay people, and everything. It's not over religion or faith. It's over money, inheritance, and things of that nature. And so now we have a case going before a court and here's a person who had a gender reassignment from male to female.

20:52

And unfortunately, looking at this hear a little bit further down on it. The Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals is already showing some signs of favoritism towards the doctors group. Because they're asked in here, he asked the attorney for the for the complaint and Christy Littleton. I think the amputation of the male external genitals is a pretty significant lines differentiate by now that I read it sounds like he was actually deciding for her. Sorry about that people. I miss read. I was reading it while Roy was talking about it. And I misunderstood so it looks like actually the Chief Justice is going on the side there. And the only precedent is a New Jersey ruling that upheld a marriage like that.

21:37

Anyways, I like to thank the Houston voice for this news article.

21:43

Oh, we're doing that now. We're thanking them. We have our sweet little bit of history went away this time, Houston's only lesbian owned coffee shop has been sold to men to PS at 1830, West Alabama, which has been a lesbian hangout with a feminist touch and a feminine mystique has been purchased by two men Norman salvato and Michael shipper there they've been running two peas with a shoestring budget for five years. And the the former owner Carolyn Barum, has decided to pursue other ventures. Latifi people have been showing a little bit of weariness about the change, but they are hoping to keep it Yes, as friendly as the old style was and not make too many changes on that. It's not gonna change the environment of the restaurant. Fortunately staying in the family because the salvato is a gay male. So it's gonna keep in the family and the community but you might see some changes there. And so just get some time people it's everything's going to be a little different for a while.

22:56

Okay, now the lesbian helps reach out that lesbian Health Outreach Project has their well woman clinic, and that's held at the Montrose clinic at 215 Westheimer. And their well women clinic is offering gynecology, gynecological wellness services, and those services include a pelvic exam, Pap smear, manual breast exam, lab work and referral for mammograms. And the exams are done by female practitioners and nurse practitioners. Now there is a fee requested which is $45. However, no one has been turned away. And services are available based on an individual's ability to pay.

23:43

And that is by appointment only at 713-830-3000. Also, part of the lesbian Health Outreach Project is various women's services at the Montrose Counseling Center at 701. Richmond Avenue, individual couples, individuals, couples, family or group therapy, addressing chronic or acute health issues, cancer survivors and their caregivers. 26:05

Well, ladies and gentlemen to prove that wildlife is really wild. We've got two stories from the animal front.

26:13

A sea wall that you will hear on Marlin Perkins.

26:17

Oh yeah, you ain't gonna see them dragging them on the Jay Leno Show either. The same sex emu couple in Australia stumps, wildlife experts to Australian male emus have set up nest together confounding wildlife experts. The two males are caring for a clutch of seven chicks in the Tidbinbilla nature reserve south of Canberra at the Capitol. While wildlife officers are not yet convinced the males are gay, they can offer no under they can offer no explanation for the surprising move. It's it isn't unusual for males to adopt chicks that aren't their own. But the two males having paired up and are getting along very well. Did the acting manager and this follows up with a story that came up last month from Israel about das Sheikh and you how to two male Griffon vultures at the Jerusalem biblical school who raised who were set up as a gay couple. And they put a fake egg in there to see how they would react to it. And they cared for it just like your normal mother birds would. So they decided what the world will give them a real egg to hatch. And they have been taking care of it. And it's seems to be working very well for them. And they're studying this at the Jerusalem biblical school to find out so more about gay couples in the animal kingdom. And I read I remember that one the the one from Israel was on CNN last week. But both these stories are in the Houston voice this week. Telling you know, it's a really wild Kingdom out there.
