Oh yes, you've tuned into after hours queer radio with attitude right here on KPFT Houston 90.1 FM. The crew of after hours is ready to bring you news interviews, dialogue and music geared for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered people and their friends. Hear it after hours. We may be diverse, but we have one thing in common. We are all out of the closet and urge everyone to come out of their closets. That means standing up for yourself taking responsibility for your own life and being proud of who you are. Realistically, we know not everyone can do that because of age job or frame of mind. That's okay, we're here for you too. So sit back, relax, and enjoy this week's edition of after hours.

02:07

Right, Hello Houston in College Station and welcome to after hours queer radio with attitude. I'm Jimmy Carper. And this is the July 29 edition. This is the fifth Saturday. This is the fifth Saturday. And so that must be the voice of JD Doyle.

02:25

Yes, it is. And I'm here every fifth Saturday. Got to look at the calendar to figure out when that happens. To help me play music.

02:33

Actually, most of the music you hear tonight it's gonna be coming from JD if not all

02:39

Yeah, I brought the whole box full. I saw that. But I did get to play the first two, didn't I?

02:41

02:47

Well, you took control. So

02:51

it's gonna be that kind of night, folks. And the first two that you heard that last one was a kind of Pepe little number by Stephen Gilman, from his album returned to summer lake it was called Second Chance, which I thought was kind of a clever 10 second song. Yeah, second song, and especially a second chance after the first one which was It's a lonely road for Lancelot from a local boy, Tristan, Mick Avery, and it's off of his tape called Truth. Admit the lies. It's like a demo tape. It is a demo tape. It is however, he's got copies available. I don't have an email Drew. Actually, I do have an email address, but it's at home wasn't that clever of me not to bring it. And I do have a Pio box, which is 1167 Dayton, Texas. 77535 Dash elevens 67. And so he's got good music on there. And in fact, I've been playing this. Let's see, I guess a couple of years now. I got it from another source.

04:04

Oh, another so yeah, I

04:05

know. Oops. When was the first song well, let's not even go into it. Okay. But it was it was it was there was a wonderful song. It's the first song on slide two called dare to try. And I played that many, many times. It's a beautiful, beautiful song and it meant a lot for a couple of folks right here in Houston area. But that was a lonely road for Lancelot that I really liked that. I think he does. His voice is very good on that particular song. It's good boy, and I liked the message. It's a wonderful, it's a wonderful tape and it's available, folks. Okay. We're gonna do a lot of music. I want to in between, we're going to do a couple of things, you know, like, stuff going on around the community. And I know that you folks have been listening to me talk about the community resale shop for forever and ever and ever because they those are the folks who provide to indigent HIV or AIDS folks. Stuff. Every couple of months they can get a certain amount of stuff.

05:19

There. I've been going there checking it out there bargains for a long Yeah, yep, yep. Yep.

05:22

05:25

Books, clothing.

05:27

tapes. Yeah. Yep, sure do. They're located there on Richmond at Jack That's like gum, the 400 block or even almost at the freeway over almost at the freeway there. Yeah. And I've always, I've always pushed for them. And actually, right now they're looking for sneakers. They're low on sneakers, I you know, whenever they're low on something, I get a call from Sam. And he says, okay, you know, we need sweaters. And we need this or we need that, you know, most people have extra stickers back in the closet, you bet you need to get out of that need to get out of there. And here's a great place to take them because they're gonna go to folks who need them. And it's a fun place to shop. And just to dish. Oh, yeah, that's fine. There but pokey Anderson, who has been in the community for eons and eons In fact, in the picture of the people who are putting together the HD HD LPC, the caucus, way back way back in like 8081. She was the lone female picture. And she was like one of the few women who were out of the closet at the time and doing community work. She also for very many years did break through right here on KPFT. On Friday morning she did it was women's music. And she was half owner of Inklings

05:55

06:00

07:03

When did Inklings come into the picture?

07:05

And and that that Inklings was around a long time. I was sorry to see that oh, we all were we all were and well, it's gone and I'm sorry, but in the women's community is much lesser for it. I think but anyway, she reminded me sent me an email or actually sent it to him that that second to none Rios resale shop is right there at the curve on Westheimer. The 15 1400 block in their 13 1400 block. I know that because potpies 1525 near that new bar rainbow yes it is as 07:51

07:48

a matter of fact it is it's close to that the rainbow rumor whatever it is, yeah. This is second to none resale shop supports the human in the Houston area Women's Center, which runs a hotline for women rape crisis services and a sheltered for battered women. The Houston area Women's Center employs open lesbians and that's been part of the movement to recognize and stop domestic violence in lesbian and gay relationships. Second to none Oh, here it is. Second to none is located near the curve on Westheimer 1400. Block. Tada. See, we're right. I knew it. You got that are with. So yeah, go there too. I've been there. It's a big place. Big room in the back get furniture, furniture and knickknacks. Yeah. All kinds of stuff. Beat up albums. Yep. Yep. Boy, they are too. But you never know. You know, that's where you're gonna find gems. And so take that into consideration. So let's say this is music night, isn't it then that 20 minutes after the hour? It's about time to play some?

08:32

08:35

08:59

I think so. What do you got for our focus? What my focus was tonight to bring music that is current music. Music that is fairly readily available on the internet. Now you say that because the show you do on Monday nights? No, the fourth fourth Monday on lesbian and gay voices. Now that's Monday, eight to 10. And here, you're the fourth Monday nine to 10. Right?

09:10

09:24

I had the last second hour of the fourth show. Fourth show of the month. It gets confusing. Yes, I know. You do. It's called queer music heritage and what do you do more of a historical perspective on the gay music. I could play things from the 20s and I have Yeah, all the way up to the present. A lot of stuff from the 70s when gay music was really starting to evolve, especially the women's music. So it's it covers the waterfront. But tonight, instead of bringing old stuff or stuff that's a little bit off off the wall, I decided to focus on new stuff For new artists, and we've got some internet sites to tell you about. Yes, we want to talk about that. But let's start with some music. Okay, I brought to start mark and Dean singing our world, too.

09:27

09:30

10:15

And you're listening to it on after hours on KPFT Houston and que yo is College Station

10:28

Hello. Just so involved that is what happens when we're sitting here chatting with each other anyway, that was no that was TAS Jeff crash. Yeah. And I really liked his stuff I really do when he the one he had 95 was very, very good CD. Oh, yeah, very pop. This one he decided to put some dance. Stairs some ballads too, but it's mostly dance oriented. And I think it's gonna work for him. Well, maybe, you know, maybe level that maybe is on the soundtrack for the movie trick, right? That's a nice entree for any artists. Sure.

10:41

10:58

11:03

11:07

You bet. And the after hours audience has heard 110 in the shade a few times as I've played that. Now that one was called if it's love. Yes. And that was kind of a pet peeve of a number two. I liked Jeff's work, you know, ever since. Well, he took my heart when he did. He did a cover of son of a preacher man. Yeah, wonderful version. And this is this is really good, too. It's called maybe is it available anywhere?

11:38

I haven't seen it locally. Certainly available on the internet.

11:41

Oh, yeah. Yeah, yeah. We're gonna be talking about Internet music sites where to find for queer music. Okay. And before that, we had Mark and Dean Dean, our world to Yeah, that's off of their man of my dream CD. now that CD because a lot of the material is out lyrically.

11:59

12:03

Yes. Yeah. And I know you like that. And I know you prefer a very nice because they're singing about where we ought to be what our rights should be. Love for a male partner. It's good open material.

12:07

12:16

Yes, it is. The after hours audience is used to hearing your spirit, which I've played many, many times, and how many candles is also good. Oh, okay. That's about Matthew Shepard. Oh, yes. Yes. Yes. That is a little bit too sad. Open the show up with what is a little more up tempo?

12:23

12:36

Yeah, yeah. So that's good. Have we got up next and 12:41

text is a Christian and driest. Oh, good local bar. Yes. He's a very nice guy. Very talented. He is very talented. And this particular song I liked a lot is called boy called su

12:53

okay

12:59

we are lesbians. Now.

13:01

She's a lesbian?

13:02

I think so too. I think so. Who was that?

13:05

That was Julia Kelly. He's from Maine. Oh, it says Massachusetts. I'm sorry. And E is made Ma is Massachusetts.

13:14

Yes. Alpha for CD long time common. That's nice. Pretty music.

13:20

Very nice. Pure folk.

13:23

Yep. Yep. Yep. And of course before that,

13:27

we add Christian and Dre is called so yeah, I need to talk to that bar. Yeah, I have his EP that only has about half a dozen songs in this. This have that one to this whole CD. It's got like 13 on it. The story but it's available at his website on mp3.

13:30

13:43

13:45

Oh, you have to go to mp3 and then get in Christian and Draya son and click buy CD. Your credit card number. I say that's how it works. That's how you have to get this stuff.

14:02

I have macros plugged into my keyboard to automatically upload my credit card number

14:10

I can believe it you get I mean you're really into this music stuff you get you get a bunch of stuff a week. Yeah, yeah. And this it's all openly gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender. It's what 14:21

I try for. Wow, openly. openly, lyrically open lyrically Amazing.

14:25

Amazing that there's that much that 14:29

I can ever try and get this new stuff. Yeah, you can't get it all he used to be. You could 14:35

Yeah. Well, yeah. Yeah. There just wasn't. It was romanovski and Phillips and it was 14:42

14:40

and Margie Margie Adams and Chris Williamson and you know make credit. There you go. Yeah. And that group and flotations and you're done.

14:49

14:51

Pretty much except for the the local stuff that you had to travel city by city to pick up right here. Other things that were pressed in batches of 500 sold at the coffee houses.

14:59

15:07

Gosh, now you can get it right over the internet. It's incredible. I love it. And Chris Christian's been on the show before many years ago. And now he's off doing bigger and better things. And New York and LA and everywhere else. Yeah,

15:23

I hear from him once in a while.

15:25

Wow, that's more than I hear from him.

15:28

Guy, right.

15:31

And I guess

15:32

I haven't heard from this next guy.

15:34

Well, before we get into this next guy who you haven't heard from, and I haven't either, so we're even on that when there's some other queer stuff going on the little room downstairs. Isn't that nice? Presents? The Rocky Horror Show. This is not the movie. No, this is a live stage performance.

15:58

It's got to be intimate because that's a small.

16:00

Yes. I mean, you can if you see you're gonna you're gonna be able to smell them up there. Yeah. Yeah, I've seen a couple of things there. And it really is small, but this is going to be playing through August 26. And they are located Of course, 2328 be zoned a between here and Kirby. Yeah. Just a couple of blocks south of Kirby, I guess. It's yeah, August the July 21. through August 22. Home Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, Monday performance at 8pm. Sundays at seven. And it's not cheap. But hey, you know,

16:51

I saw the last session at that theater. Yeah, I saw it twice. Yes. It was wonderful.

16:56

That really was good. That really was good. I was amazed that they do a good job I died. I'd known Richard has Richard Louv has been on the show several times and I had no idea that he could sing and play Yes, wonderfully, wonderfully. And if you can't do that, like right away, or you need to do something really clear immediately. Then tonight, Sunday night, tighten it up to Sunday, July 30. At 7pm at the freed Auditorium in the Glasgow School of Art is a presentation of and it is a film Mildred Pierce. Joan Crawford Yeah. So shoulders I mean to tell you and get know when you when you say Joan Crawford, you know that Joan? Joan, Joan Devlin from from lesbian and gay voices is gonna be there. Oh, yes. And, and here she said she hopes to see all of her hand bitch and hand that friends there to worship at the Shrine of Joan Crawford.

18:12

I have to bring you something for your Christmas show. I had a tape of a six minute greeting Joan Crawford did for radio with our children in the background really? Sounds very, you know, dated. And put on and knowing the background we know now. Unbelievable. It was all sweet.

18:34

Yeah. sugary. Oh, wow. Okay, those two things are happening. And what's happening here tonight is music, career music and lots of it. I don't know we may have time to do a couple of requests or dedications.

18:52

It's a good shot. We might have something Yeah. If people

18:54
