R

Roy McCarthy 00:03

I can honestly say that we have come a long way. But there's a long way to go. Oh, yeah. an awful long way to go to end all hatred and violence and bigotry. But I'll be honest. There was a time in this country when if you were not a white heterosexual male, you just did not matter in this country.

C

Chris 00:29

Yeah. And in many aspects, it still is. One of the big things that came out of all of this is a need for reporting people to stand up and allow themselves to be counted and to be heard. And it was a great informational panel in John Astin, looking at the the, the history of education, Ray hill of the history of the events that was going on at the time, Clarence Bagby, with the National, gay and lesbian taskforce that gave us statistics we have nationally and more and more people, straight people as well as gain that are standing up and being counted as being against all this. homophobia.

R

Roy McCarthy 01:00

C

Chris 01:11

Yes. And there's there's hopefully going to be some, there was some brief discussion at the meeting about bringing together the possibility of an anti violence task force. You see that you see this in New York City, there's actually one out and a very large one out and Laredo, Texas, anti violence task force of just members of the community getting together and gathering information and working on that. And there were some calls for something like that here. And some people are going to be looking into this, of putting together an organizational thing. One thing I will say that I've that I could tell of how far we've come and that and this was from Ray Hill, who I sat next to, as we're watching the cameras panning around and seeing the audience

Ray Hill, kept on me and pulled me over and said two years ago, half of this audience would have been ducking under their seats, really, and of the people that we I mean, we filled that front room of the community center. And I didn't see a single person ducked down. I didn't we didn't see anyone shrieking away. As part of the continuation of this over the Lesbian Gay community center is we are having a rainbow flag memorial for people who have been victims of hate crimes, physical verbal, people in memory of people who have been killed as a result of a hate crime. So if you go over to the community center during its hours, you can fill out a car and place it on the rainbow flags in the front room. And that's going to be available through the month of August.

R

Roy McCarthy 02:50

With my with my lover, my original puppy love who I who was injured at the Stonewall and riots with that piece of glass that went into his brain. Well, I wonder if he would be qualified.

C

Chris 03:04

Yeah, we do. We do recognize hate crimes under the color of authority on there as well. And the Houston Lesbian, Gay, Lesbian and Gay community center be basically Correct. I hate that I had to remember which way it goes which how the letters go. Lesbian Gay community center is at 803 Hawthorne at the old house there if you wish to take a proactive stance against hate crimes. Q patrol is still in need of volunteers come out and walk ride and roll around the streets. And if you want to join us, you can contact us at 713528 safe that's 7233 and come out and join us on a three hour tour of the community because we really would love to have people out there and we'll something that was actually brought up at the hate crimes form I believe we have some follow up there from cats. Right.

Apparently the body of a transgendered individuals found on a road in Webster this past week. 25 year old Julia transit. A transgender person named Julia was murdered on Thursday this past Thursday, and Webster Police Chief Mike Keller was quoted as saying it appears that the victim may have been choked to death. Calvin Aveiro, who is 18 is sought by police for the murder. Webster police have reported that they do have a juvenile in custody. And this juvenile has confessed that he helped dump the body of Julia and that Navarro was the murderer. It is thought that Julia was killed in the virus house here in South Houston. Originally, it was being reported that Julia was a transvestite. But actually, Julia was a transgendered person. Calvin Navarro is on the run, folks and if you have any information as to the whereabouts of Navarro, please contact the Webster police department at area code 281-332-2426. That's 281-332-2426. And in this or any other crime, if felony crime if you have information that could lead to the arrest of a person, you can always call him here at the Houston Crimestoppers that's 713222 Tip s, your identity will remain anonymous, and they are offering up to a $1,000 cash reward for the information of any individual for serious felony crimes.

The city of Santa Fe best known for its recent Supreme Court laws regarding prayer during

THE CITY OF SANTA FE, BEST KNOWN FOR ITS RECENT SUPREME COURT LAWS REGARDING PRAYER DURING student led prayer during football games, is the city council has approved a measure to erect a sign that reads Santa Fe is no place for hate. The sign comes a response to the mayor arrest of three teenagers who allegedly threatened to oh, hang I'm sorry that the bottom part of the G was missing there and I was trying to hand to hang a 13 year old student because he was Jewish. Representatives of the anti Defamation League asked Mayor Robert Cheek to post a billboard to counter what they see many as an atmosphere of intolerance. City council members remain divided on this, whether the sign would help or hurt the city's image. And once again, I mean it's a city we've heard a lot about here lately. From the religious right, the American Center for Law and Justice helping that case go on to the Supreme Court, which they ended up actually losing recently. You know, I have this my feeling on prayer, public or private is this in prayer in school. As long as they have math and science tests in school, kids are going to be praying as long as they have. EPS on their report cards are flunk or unsatisfactory, whatever they call it these days, people won't be praying in school. I do not see why people get so bent out of shape about growing up or kids saying a prayer.

R

Roy McCarthy 06:50

C

Chris 07:18

Well, the best joke I've read about that I remember was in an old Mad Magazine that they said in case of nuclear attack. The law against prayer in school will be temporarily suspended.

R

Roy McCarthy 07:30

Okay, I myself did not subscribe to a lot of these different religions and people prayed and it never bothered me. I'm sorry. I never felt ostracized or apart or different or just oh, well moving right along, folks now into the political vein with shrub. Yes, we're talking about the little shrub in the upcoming political

White House here it is. Bush has vowed to abolish the White House lives on to the gay and lesbian community. Bush has not stated clearly whether or not he would appoint a gay or lesbian person to his administration. According to the Lesbian Gay rights lobby of Texas. He has appointed no openly gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgendered person to his into a position during his six years as governor of Texas. Governor Bush also helped kill the James Byrd hate crimes bill in the Texas Legislature legislature last year because of its inclusion of sexual orientation. So this is a preview of things to come close.

J Jimmy Carper 09:14
Are you Queen's going to be talking about empower? We will. It's coming good because I don't go I tell you, we're talking about it every week. So I didn't want to want you to make a liar out of me. Oh, it's

C Chris 09:36
Where are we? Oh, we're going national, international International and a recent meeting of the Knesset committee.

R

Roy McCarthy 09:42

Folks. The reason why I got crystal in this report is because we do have folks here in Houston who are Jewish and gay, and are larger and tall and gay. With Jewish lovers or Israeli lovers. Thank you. And you may continue Oh, affects

You just gave this to me because you didn't want to say all these Hebrew words, but talk karma that said the immigration officials now treat same sex couples the same as common law spouses. A foreign partner must present a request to the district office of the Interior Ministry, along with proof for the relationship. By the way, this is Israel, Israel allows gay partners to emigrate, the individual receive a one year tourist permit that allows employment after four years. After four years during which the tourist permit is renewed annually, the individual can request temporary resident status. Several years later, he or she can seek permanent residency and eventually apply for citizenship.

R

Roy McCarthy 10:50

Okay, folks, coming up this coming Wednesday, will be the monthly meeting of the Houston gay and lesbian Political Caucus general membership. The social begins at seven o'clock, the general meeting is at 730 and there will be at the love it in 501 Lovett Boulevard L O V E T T. And folks, the gay and lesbian and bisexual vote is now 5% of the national electorate and can swing a vote in a closed community swing vote in a close election. I'd like to encourage voters to pay close attention to what is said and what is not said during this up next week. In Philadelphia. Not only is the White House in Congress up for grabs, but also the Supreme Court. In addition, voters will decide the composition of almost all the 50 state legislatures, which will draw new political boundaries through redistricting next spring.

J

Jimmy Carper 11:48

Boy, I was holding my breath hoping Chris wouldn't say anything when when big Roy was talking about that swing vote.

R

Roy McCarthy 11:59

Okay, now this in turn, will affect the composition of the US House of Representatives, state legislatures, and many Senate city councils for decades to come. This is a very, very important year. Very, very important election folks. Also, I want to remind folks that there is an upcoming protest meeting of the Boy Scouts of America and it's gonna be in August, August 21 at the Sam Houston Area Council 911 Bagby time is at 8am to 11am. Bruce Reed is the local organizer and you can contact him at 713-227-5973 or you can reach him on his email I Bruce freeze@sr.com. Or Scott Koza. President of scouting for all at 707-778-0564 and this is in regards to the Boy Scouts of America prohibiting gay people within the scouts.

C Chris 13:04

And don't forget also the G cam the Gulf Coast archive Museum is also planning a kind of a tribute to gay scouts inviting you to lend or donate your sash of SAT set of Sascha patches or whatever they

R Roy McCarthy 14:04

I do want to say this. I think it's better that we donated to G camp rather than what a lot of scouts have been doing or former scouts and that's mailing their patches and stuff back to the Boy Scouts. It's better than good because when you mail it back they can you in fact is as if you never existed in the BSS this way at G camp. Yeah, it will.

J Jimmy Carper 14:26

Yes. And it's a matter of fact in the second half of the show, we have a piece of music. Just stuff on that subject about scouting.

R Roy McCarthy 14:36

And then Scott get I mean Chris is getting ready to do an empower thing and Chris is getting ready to do something.

C Chris 14:43

And I'll tell you what, I just love the fashion show. That brothers always puts on adding power. All those boys in those nice little towns and G string. Anyways, are coming up now with Pete flag and Pete flags next monthly meeting will be on Sunday.

C

Chris 17:36

I'm sorry, Sunday, Sunday, Sunday, August 6,

J

Jimmy Carper 17:40

yeah, whatever he said.

R

Roy McCarthy 17:43

August 6, from two to 4:30pm at Christ Church Cathedral at 1117, Texas at San Jacinto. Now folks plan to arrive early because there'll be an after game. And traffic at that time is going to be heavy and parking is going to be a migraine if you can find it. Anyways, Tony Carroll, who is a licensed mass master social worker will give a presentation entitled you weren't expecting the gay child. And after a large group session, please attend one of their smaller groups. The small groups are the heart of their monthly meetings and these groups provide everyone an opportunity to discuss issues concerning and celebration with others in a safe, confidential environment. There is also a special group for Spouse support. For directions to PFLAG meetings or full event calendar. You can contact Pete flags Helpline at 71346 PFLAG that's 716 46 PFLAG and Chris will give off the email address.

Also one of the advertisings that I saw for this was last, not this past Friday, but the Friday before that RuPaul Charles, the producer and writer of But I'm a Cheerleader, we're on politically incorrect. With two members, two members of an organization. I forgot their name for some reason, but their ex gay. They had an ex gay man and ex gay woman. And the most interesting part that came out of that is the ex gay man came out and said that he's had sex with more men than RuPaul. And he touted that three or four times. And he's talking about what he's going to tell his son about his, what if his son came to him and said, he's gay. It's like, I had more sex with men than RuPaul did.

♂

And that was a hell of a lot. And well, he was

c

Chris 21:17

saying like three or 400 Pikeur. But actually, RuPaul was talking about wanting to go didn't go to one of their camps, since the theme behind But I'm a Cheerleader is a kind of a summer camp to straighten out kids. And so he was talking about wanting to go and visit one of their organizations, because if you've ever seen any of the stories on these ex gay movement meetings, I saw him on a couple of weeks ago, at a gaydar session, there was a 2020 story. hilarious, because here you are trying to turn these men straight. So I'm watching the six men in a house, eating dinner holding hands and praying, they're laying on hands of one another. There's not a woman in the room. It's like, if you're trying to turn these guys straight, wouldn't you kind of like throw them in a bedroom and there's a woman there spread eagle

J

Jimmy Carper 23:30

Those were not amusing. There were way too many feathers for my taste, so to speak.

R

Roy McCarthy 23:38

Okay, well, that's it. Folks, thank you for listening. We'll be back next week with more new views and absolute craziness and zaniness. That's it that's it? Tata toodles

J

Jimmy Carper 24:11

you're listening to after hours on KPFT Houston and ke O 's college station when we read Yes, that is unmistakable voice reading Redmond here. Oops. The Steve Cohen Sorry

J

JD Doyle 24:34

Steve Cohen is singing dikes lumber Yes. But

J

Jimmy Carper 24:38

I mean that that gravelly voice I mean you hear that voice one time he obviously oh it's him Bruce Springsteen influence Yes. Heavily heavily. And then his writing to I think the the brick earthy. Yeah. Yeah. Yeah, that's off of this new CD called. I must have been crazy. Yes, that's the new one.

J

JD Doyle 24:54

J

Jimmy Carper 24:58

I don't have this one. I know I've got this first one.

J

JD Doyle 25:01

The first one was silent too long, which is a classic.

J

Jimmy Carper 25:05

Yes, it is. It really is. And that was the first actually. Music review I ever read that you had written?

J

JD Doyle 25:15

Well, Steve loved to.

J

Jimmy Carper 25:17

Yes, I did. I was really impressed. And I sent off for the CD immediately.

J

JD Doyle 25:21

Well, good. That's what I did use her for dispersed sales for artists that deserve exposure.

J

Jimmy Carper 25:28

So you do write reviews every now and then move to and what do you do with them?

J

JD Doyle 25:33

I post them to avoid, okay, the mailing list? Yeah, I've got to be really driven. I have to have a spark from a CD to want to write a review has to make me want to write it. I'm not going to, if someone gives me a CD and they say review this. Well, if I don't like it, I can't write it. I can't. Gotcha. I don't come up with anything.

J

Jimmy Carper 25:56

Okay. No, I know what you mean. It's it's much harder to write something about something you don't like, than something you do.

J

JD Doyle 26:06

And I'm not going to write a negative review. Because the artists work too hard on that CD.

∅

26:12

And rather than just not review it not reviewed.

J

JD Doyle 26:16

So for those artists who send me CDs, and I don't review them, it doesn't mean I don't like it. Well, you know,

J

Jimmy Carper 26:22

I say that because I believe it was Jeff Crasner, who written to me and asked if I would write something about his CD and I just, I'm not a writer. I don't I don't have I don't have the gift of gab. I don't have the use of the language. I just I'm not I'm I'm a lousy writer. And so I did suggest you didn't write one on his. I know, I know. And it didn't do it and okay to write. Really? Okay. We didn't mention who was before that. No, we did. That was John Frederick. A hyphenated name singing drag queen.

J

JD Doyle 26:48

J

Jimmy Carper 27:01

Oh, yes. And, gosh, I've been playing that a long time, haven't I? Yeah, I really, really liked that. That. That was from the days when there was that. I forget the music company that was in New York and then moved up north and it was supposed to be a queer CD coming out every three to six months. Yeah, it was sort of audio magazine. Is what they know that. Yeah. And that was on the very first one. Very simple things. Yeah. Sibilance.

J

JD Doyle 27:38

Yes. Yes. I subscribed to that you were supposed to get for them a year. Yeah, I'm still waiting for my third.

♂

27:44

Yeah, me two years later. Yeah.

J

JD Doyle 27:46

Anyhow, before that, we started out we were joking that the song after the news was not good enough. That's a very good song that happens to be the title. Not good enough by it's by Scott Free. And he's He's a good singer. Yeah. Not so much for his voice. But his lyrics are very good. Have a lot of variety in his CD. One of the songs reminded me of Elvis Costello. Some are very queer core oriented.

J

Jimmy Carper 28:14

Yeah. I think of him was more queer core than anything else.

J

JD Doyle 28:18

You can do other stuff. And he's a nice guy. You mean New York. He's like six, five. Wow, a little intimidating, but very nice. Very nice.

J

Jimmy Carper 28:28

So he looks like the cover of that CD. Now here's the cover. The CD has like this, that big tall mummy type guy

J

JD Doyle 28:35

on it. Yes.

♂

28:36

So what's next? What's

J

JD Doyle 28:38

next is we've been talking about music on the radio, rather the internet radio. And I so I purposely brought two songs that are only available on the internet. Oh, they have not been released on CD. You can only download them. They both are. Well, one of them is from the mp3 site. One of them is from the artists site. The first artist is called Man Boy, it's hyphenated. It's really a fella named Marshall Zarn backed up by Robert Urban and a youth played. Yes. Robert Urban. Yeah. In his CD elegies. Right. Right.

J

Jimmy Carper 29:10

J

JD Doyle 29:15

And the second song of this set is a remix of the song pride like that a lot. I have to It's John Gilbert, leave it song. Yeah. This is a remix by a group called frustrated housewives. That's a male group called frustrated house. Love it. So those two songs available only from the internet. And now here.

29:38

Okay, let's listen to it

29:47

hmm, Yes, indeedy,

JD Doyle 29:50

that was pride. And that's not the original there's no winners next.

Jimmy Carper 29:53

Yeah. In fact, I had to. It was halfway through before I realized that there was a song I knew Yeah, they really really did it a lot differently.

JD Doyle 30:04

Yeah, very electronic electronic dancy. Yeah, yeah. Yeah. rather nice rather nice. And you can download that yourself from the mp3 site on frustrated housewives.

Jimmy Carper 30:19

I'll do that. You are listening to music right here queer music that's gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered music. Right here on KPFT Houston. The show is after hours. Jimmy and JD is the one who is providing the music tonight.

JD Doyle 30:37

My pleasure. Next up, yeah, we have a
