00:01

realize that we're just like they are 00:05

same hopes and dreams we just deal with a little differently and, and that they might finally hear the message of Jesus Christ and realize that that we should all love one another. Then that's my Christmas.

00:09

00:21

Thanks. Maybe I'll have a Merry Christmas. Thanks for listing Matt

00:30

Well, he's come a long way. Yeah.

00:34

Happily married and settled down. Ben.

00:38

Is he happily married here? I hope he is. This is pretty didn't listen to this.

00:49

At last, but last thing you played was Mannheim steamroller right. This is Patrick ball plucking those heartstrings?

00:54

01:50

Nice Yeah, you know, I've got something that I bought this year that I want to play for you. Because it's one of my favorite people. When I was a kid, my dad, let me join the band, which is something I really wanted to do. And I learned to play the trumpet. And I still play the trumpet. But I didn't like it in the band, because there were about 20 other people who played the trumpet. So I started playing the baritone goodness big horn section. Yeah. But I was the only baritone player and I like that. But anyway, I was the soloist. And I really got into that. And one of the reasons I played the baritone and the trumpet was because of Louis Armstrong, and all the wonderful music that he used to put out.

02:41

Right, that goes back that far. I didn't realize it. Yep.

02:45

And this is something that he did at Christmas. In fact, it's one of the last recordings that he made before he died in 1971. And it's Christmas story that I'm sure you'll recognize and I hope you enjoy it. Okay, okay. All right.

03:04

This is Louis Satchmo Armstrong, talking to all the kids from all over the world. At Christmas time, towards the night before Christmas, went all through the house. None a creature was stirring, not even a mouse. The stockings were hung by the chimney with care, in hopes that St. Nicholas who would be there. The children are nestled all snug in their beds, while visions of sugar plums dance in their heads. And mama and her kerchief. And I in my cap, ad just sell our brains for our long winters net. Went out on the long Dow rose such a clatter I sprang from my bed to see what was the meta way during the winter, I flew like a flash to open the shutters and threw up the sash. The moon on the breasts of the new fallen snow gave a luster of midday to objects below. When what to my wondering eyes should appear, but a miniature slayed an eight tiny reindeer. With little driver so lively and quick. I knew in a moment it must be safe, Nick. More rapid than eagles. His courses they came and he whistled and shouted and calm. Hold them by name. Now Dasher. Now dancer. Now Prancer and Vixen. On comet, on Cupid, on Donder and Blitzen. To the top of the porch, to the top of the wall. Now desert desert desert as dry leaves that before the while hurricane flies, when they meet within obstacle, mount to the sky. So up to the house stop the causes they flew with the slave will have ties and St. Nicholas to and then in a twinkle eyelid on the roof. The Princeton the pouring of each little hole. As I drew my head and was turning around, down the chimney, St. Nicholas came with a brown he was dressed all in for from his head to his foot, and his clothes were all tonus with ashes and said, a bundle of ties he had flung on his back, and he looked like a peddler just opening his pack is eyes how they twinkled. His dimples how merry. His cheeks were like roses is nose, like a cherry is drawn little mouth was drawn up like a bow, and a beard on his chin was as wide as the snow. The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth, and the smoke it in cycled his head like a wreath. He had a broad face, and a little round belly. That ship when he left like a bowl of jelly. He was chubby and plump. A right cheerio L and I laugh when I saw him in spite of myself. A wink of his eye and a twist of his head, soon gave me to know that I had nothing to dread. You he's spoken out of wood, but went straight to his wife and filled all the stockings, then time with a joke and laying his fingers side of his nose. And given a nod up to Jiminy euros. He sprang to his sleigh, through his team gave a whistle and away they all flew like the down on this hole. But I heard him exclaim airy Jove out of sight. Happy Christmas to all and good night. Very good night. And that goes with Satchmo Tim. Thank you.

Oh, that's nice. I've never heard that before.

08:43

He recorded that in his home. In 1971

08:48

I'm so glad that they've got this out now. And now on CD two. Yeah.

08:54

Hello. Yes, I want to watch a couple of friends of mine. Happy 20th anniversary. 20th anniversary. Uh huh. Hey, how great. Okay, it's to pot and Dwayne from Shelley and Teresa.

09:12

Great. That's really wonderful. 20 years so they live here in Houston.

09:18

Yeah, great. I'm not quite sure what area

09:24

09:24

Wow, they've been together. 20 years. They should come be on the show.

09:28

Really, majorly?

09:30

Yeah, there's not. There's not a whole lot of people that I know of that has been together that long. Yeah. Yes.

09:42

I mean, those two Oh, no.

09:44

Yeah. Have any special Christmas wishes or what do you what do you got on your Christmas wish list? Well, are you like me? The FCC won't let you tell us. I don't know. Thanks for calling you get the general idea part of town or you call him from northwest Houston. Okay, baby, take care. 20 years girl. I wish I could spend 20 days with the same man. That's a long story.

09:55

10:15

I've spent 12 years with the same one.

10:18

And we're going to have to hear about it again.

10:22

How rude. I'm just kidding.

10:26

It's a long story.

10:30

A lot of give and take.

10:31

It'll be okay. If it wasn't for this show. I probably wouldn't be this far. I mean, life is like going down a road. And a lot of times you fall in potholes. Yeah. And we've all had our share of potholes. I want to play this song for you, because you listen every week. And this is the first song I really heard these guys sing on a gay program. It was a program called Wildenstein and it was back in 1987 in April of that year, and it kind of led me to this so if you're not an activist, you better turn the radio off because this could like recruit you. Okay, that this is our Christmas message for you. And unfortunately it didn't have those Jingle Bells jinglun in it, but I think you'll get the message. This is the favorite song of mine that Ron Paul sang and Ron called when they were coming to Houston the last time although I didn't get to see him after the show. And said we will sing this song for you. I said thank you very much and they did and it was wonderful. So now we're going to play it for you

11:39

okay

11:57

I leaving on a journey striking 12:10

good

12:14

very, very pretty similar in that beautiful. Believe the first one they ever performed together.

12:21

It is it's the first song that they and they be in Ron Paul, Ron romanovski and Paul Phillips and those happy little homosexuals. And they are ice cream aren't they? Yes they are kind of following their life is like what life is all about? They've had their ups and downs and different aspects of the relationship they had have been led a relationship that was up and down. Yeah, down or off. And now they've they're apart. One of them has a another new lover and now Oh, realize the friends who's got a new lover Ron. I didn't know that. Yeah, yeah. Well, where was he? Was he with them here?

12:35

12:59

13:08

No, no, no. He's not I don't believe he's in show business at all. Oh, girl. So they probably have a relationship like Stan and I do. They really? Yeah. Separated a lot.

13:24

He makes the money and the guy the guy spins it and now now so what kind of relationship? Well, you know, Stan, I talked to Stan tonight. But I won't see him until January. sees on the road. Okay. So what else was going on girl? Well, I'm looking for something so keep talking Mary. Oh, I say tell me what you want for Chris. Fill

13:30

13:44

13:52

in. Huh?

13:56

Tell me what you want for Christmas.

13:57

.....

everybody to be happy.

13:59

Don't hold your breath.

14:01

I know. I have. There's only one thing I want for Christmas. And I think I'm gonna get it. And guess what that is? Money. I've already got that. No. Something else. What? New headphones. Oh, really? Yeah.

14:25

We're gonna get those. Well, I asked Bob for them. So.

14:26

14:29

Is that what he's gonna get you for Christmas?

14:31

I think so. Well, that'll be nice. We'll say he doesn't know what kind to get. I just told him a couple of the kinds I didn't want so maybe that'll point in the right direction. But we can take a phone call.

14:49

You want to? Yeah. Okay, girl.

14:53

KPFT you're on the air. Hi, how are y'all doing this evening? Great. How are you? Oh, just fine. I'd like to wish all y'all Merry Christmas. Oh, thank you. And I hope I hope everybody gets the feeling better. Yeah.

14:56

15:09

Because it really is a wonderful time. Yes, it is. It is. And I hope everybody in your family is doing all right.

15:17

Thank you and yours too. And I guess that's it. Well, that's a really nice.

15:23

What's your name? Kirk. Kirk. Hey, listen, baby. Thanks for calling. Sure. We appreciate that.

15:30

And Merry Christmas to you.

15:32

Yeah, thank you. Hey, you know what we've been talking about Steven Halsey and George Bush and knew all this crap going on in the Soviet. No, we haven't said a word about Dan Quayle.

15:44

What's to say? Well

15:53

here's the story of Dan Quayle Democrats Hill crimp, make them all limp. Black guy said. I'm kind and gentle. Not a wimp.

16:14

For Danny Quayle and Georgie porgies humor from Capitol stons. Yeah. That's pretty good stuff. A whole CD of it steps. Yeah. That's pretty good stuff. A whole lot of it.

16:17

16:25

Yeah, it's in good stuff.

16:30

Wow, girl.

16:31

Yes. We go home. Yeah, no.

16:35

Did Roger ever show up? No, he didn't. I guess he got lucky. Some people have all a lot girl got a new pair of chaps and just got whisked off her feet. Wow. I'm sure that's what she hopes

16:37

16:49

I'm gonna have to choose chance when he comes home.

16:52

Excuse me while I had that may be happening. Even as we speak. I had to carry all this crap over here by myself. Oh, that's right. So that means I have to carry all this crap home.

16:56

17:03

Yeah.

17:07

By myself. Yeah. That's what I really hate about this show. For 15 in the morning, going down the hallway carrying all this garbage and the neighbor's dog starts barking about 412.

17:23

And you're in the jeep.

17:26

It's cold.

17:27

You're not going to help me. Help you do what?

17:30

Take this crap home girl.

17:32

I don't want it thing. Of course,

17:37

I Well, that's okay. I'll handle it myself. Yeah. Can you handle it?

17:41

I know you can get it

17:43

here did not Yeah. What are we gonna do now? Here. Let's read this again.

17:49

Oh, good. That was really really, really a great car, all of you who have tuned in late. And I know you're there. And we're here at work were. So get over it. This is a cute little card with Santa Claus on the front. And it says, dear buddy, last year at this time, I was out of work and without a roof over my head. I was living with my parents near St. Louis. I thought this was the saddest Christmas I had ever experienced. But I never I never gave up hope that I would return to Houston. I sent you in the crew last year a card and you sit back a tape of your Christmas show. I still love it. Well that helped me get through. Now this year. I'm back in Houston. And I have a roof over my head with two jobs and everything seems to be going great. Listening to you on Saturday nights helps me cope with life informs me that life isn't so bad and that there is someone who really cares. Best wishes for a wonderful 1991 Love, Larry. Thank you Larry.

17:53

17:58

18:01

18:52

You betcha.

18:54

I just have one question child. How in the hell do you work two jobs

19:00

and still listen to us?

19:02

Because I know I have a full time job and do this for free.

19:05

I have no job and I'm just busy all day long.

19:07

Oh you hateful Queen

19:14

90.1 FM KPFT and we're leaving

19:17

Oh in a minute

19:32

know put a little love in your 19:34

heart at least

19:35

Yeah, just now when I when I sat back fly.

19:41

Hi, it's me Pee Wee Herman. Hey, seriously, everybody during this holiday season, please don't drink and drive. Da you do that very well. What the Oh, Did I wake you there go my ears already dear?

19:54

20:05

Well, Mary Yeah, I hate to tell you this. What? But I ordered your Christmas present through the through the mail order thing didn't come back order slip. So well, I could give you the backorder slip.

20:26

No.

20:29

I'd rather wait till it got here because I like surprises.

20:32

So I can't tell you what it is. No, I don't want to know. Let me tell you. No, 20:36

I don't want to know why. Because I like gifts to be surprised. I like surprises.

20:41

20:42

I love them.

20:43

I buy gifts today as soon as I get a hold 20:47

of Stanley hates the shop so his gifts are never any surprise.

20:53

Well, then this won't be a surprise.

20:57

There won't be cash either like Stanley gives me but actually it is. But I've written so many checks the bank backorders I see. It's not cash. It's a

21:03

21.00

♂

21:15

No Don't tell me. I want it to be a surprise. Okay, I won't tell you. Yes, you will. No, I won't. I'll wait. Good. Good. Good. If you really don't want to know my birthday is coming out when? The 13th of January. You didn't know that.

21:33

Yeah, but now why don't you bring it up now? Well, it's like you got 10,000 lights on the tree. Yeah. Can't wait for Christmas. Yeah. And now it's not even Christmas day and you're already plugging your birthday.

21:47

Well, it's not every day you get to believe this claim. It's not every day you get to be 117 or that's they put the candles on that cake and the fart of Hey. You bought this?

♂

21:56

♂

22:02

Yes, I bought that. Oh, how often? Well, it's got a couple of good ones on it. Okay, I guess it does. It does. Honestly, and I'll say it but a couple.

♂

22:16

This has some good ones on it too. This is Margie Adams.

♂

22:20

Marky Mark I've been told. Marquis says by I know that's what looks like the pokey. told me it was Margie. hokey, had breakfast with her or something.

♂

22:33

Listen to this okay.

22:57

We shall. He says we shall go forth from this place today. Proud of the things we've done. Sharing the things we've learned. We shall not fail. Did you hear that boys and girls we shall not fail. And we shall go forth.

23:26

From this place, right here willing to open wide sharing the light inside. We shall not fail baby Listen, listen, listen. Bringing together all we know.

23:50

For others, not you, for others who are struggling, alone baby alone. Remember when you were alone, bringing together all we know and all we are offering those who want to find us a way to find ways wait to see this is the good part. Because you know what? Are you listening? And we shall go forth from this place today taking with us the pride of knowing that we can decide Goddamnit not Steven Holsey or mark Weaver or Jesse Helms or any of those homophobic bastards out there that shove us around but knowing that we can decide that we shall go forth in our lives. We shall go forth That's us you that's what kills me about all this. People are waiting for Harvey Milk to come back in common. People are waiting for Martin Luther King to come back here. Come on. Get up and look in the mirror childhoods you. You're the one we've been waiting on. You're the one we've been waiting on we're back in just a minute to say goodbye. Okay.

25:09

25:36

25:39

Orders began with a routine police raid on a homosexual bar the Stonewall on Christopher Street in the heart of the West Village.

26:03

Going

26:09

to savor this next moment. Task of the official count of the lsb and gay rights we must destroy the Miss Swenson drawers shatter them. We must continue to speak out. And most importantly, most importantly, every gay person must come out.

26:31

27:25

For one FM KPFT Houston after hours radio celebrating live from the heart of Montrose.

27:32

We're here and work we're Yep, I'm that faggot that works for the Houston Police Department and dispatch and I'm that faggot who doesn't work at all.

27:38

27:41

And we're here to tell you that Santa Claus is coming. Yeah, whatever kind of Santa Claus yours is. He's coming. I certainly hope he is. Listen, I want to say thanks for spending your Christmas Eve EBV with us. And we'll be there. We'll be back next week when what When? When we say radio in the news. Oh god, somebody called Jesse Helms. No, next week, we're gonna I don't know what we're gonna do.

27:47

28:16

We're gonna it's gonna be the New Year's Eve vbV. Okay, how's that?

28:21

Anyway, have a great holiday?

28:22

When I put together some stuff that we've done throughout the year can I hope you get everything you want? Yeah, and I hope most of all that you get your stocking stuff on Christmas Eve, or whenever you can get.

28:27

28:36

28:39

Have a great week, baby. I love

28:40

you. We love you, baby. Bye bye.
