 Chris 04:32

a New Jersey Okay, she was there symbolizing you know birth and you know, because Greece is considered the birth of civilization the birthplace of civilization I got actually no we just got new is really a place of civilization.

 04:44

 04:49

My only question is What was with that giant flaming penis that was Greek. Yeah. It was hi think every Greek is as gifted as that fourth world they let it from behind it and isn't that what Greek is all about? Yay.

 05:04

 05:11

Buddy closes in saying first of all we'll be Sucursal will be 20 when he gets out not being in science queen or any

 05:20

Stacy's screen but so smiley,

 05:26

thanks a lot. Hey, Queens, I

 05:27

just like their boyfriends.

 05:30

We appreciate the letter

 Chris 05:32

Carter the one thing that we're talking about the the men's swim team was Michael Phelps was on the cover of Time and Bill Maher made the comment that you know, he didn't want to have to have a gay pornography coming into his house. He said, You know, here's a package so big he had to sign for it will not be legal until the seventh of December. Who won't be legal

 05:54

 Chris 06:00

Aaron Khan. He's only 16 Now it was gonna be sad fantasizing

 06:02

right now,

 06:04

I'm 16. When

 06:05

will you be 17?

 06:06

December 1. Okay,

 06:09

I see a match.

 Chris 06:11

And actually David Gallagher's older than my Frankie Moon Yes.

06:16

clutching the pearls seven he needs to tell him he's a day passes prime.

Chris 06:26

Now for the for the religious right, who are listening. They're thinking we're being predatory. This information is brought to you by MIM db.com. The Internet Movie Database, not some little personal Rolodex file we have on all child actors at home.

06:44

And we have one more live one more letter.

Chris 06:46

Yeah, let's try and get all the letters in in the half hour.

06:55

You'll get a letter from his lover, so Oh, cool. He's really excited about that. And he completed school. So looking forward to what's it gonna be when he grows up?

07:04

07:07

I'm not sure it didn't say Oh, Fallon. When he said, You may remember that I pledged 60. During the final drive, or fun drive fun drawn drive.

07:21

07:24

There wasn't sure that whether the the funds have been counted yet or not.

 07:28

Yeah, and it's you know, we're doing another fun drive like right now.

 Chris 07:35

As we speak, yeah. You couldn't tell it by the lack of bells ringing.

 07:41

I know. We've had two wonderful pledges. Do I have to suffer more bruises?

 Chris 07:47

During the last one, he was putting the humbler pledge?

 07:49

No. I was spanked like the humbler had nothing to do with the pledge. I was just that was me just being willing to be humbled.

 07:57

Okay. That's

 08:01

it was hot. It was very high. humbled by this pretty good warehouse. I got spanked with a bro
Yeah,

 08:06

I got spanked with a breadboard by a black woman. I'm telling you, I'm an equal opportunist. I don't care if it's hot. I mean, they have to get both cheeks.

 08:14

 08:19

08:19
Just one at a time.

08:22
Where'd the show come from? Anyway, he's, he's graduated

08:25
and he says hello to everybody. Hey. Yeah, firetower

C Chris 08:30
talked about a bumper sticker that would work well for this show. Where are we going? And why am I in this handbasket?

08:39
Kick your heels together three times

08:40
to Grandma's speaking of 08:42

the Democratic National Convention.

C Chris 08:44
Oh, yes. Your honor. You were there? Yes. I will. Yes. Wrinkles still skin and you're talking

08:51
16 years old and you were at the How did you do that? friends

08:54
in high places and lots of money. My money my parents didn't pay. Don't worry. I had to foot the bill. Oh, you're what I've been looking for my whole life a sugar baby.

09:00

Chris 09:07

The trip to the national convention but 09:09

also a trip to France. Yeah, I was in France. And I had a layover in New York. We are for France. A small village in France. But I had a layover in New York. So I just took a train from New York to Boston. Oh, good idea.

09:24

A little French exchange student. Oh, well, he came a little while later but the convention was about Fred Phelps was there. Oh, how sweet Yes, it was it was lovely. With signs that had Carrie and Edwards on it that said fag enablers. Which is funny because that's you get a different story from gay people. Yeah. They've you carry networks a lot different than I guess they do. Yeah.

09:27

09:51

Well, were you there for carry speech? Yes,

09:53

I was. I was on the floor. That was the one that actually got down on the floor. What do you think? Florida did?

09:58

That's hot.

10:01

For a man with that much money

For a man with that much money

10:06

and you wonder why I think everything's a trick.

10:11

His speech was really good. Yeah, I really liked it was moving. Yeah,

10:15

I had to applaud them their speech writers for the Democrats were like everything that I heard broadcast on this radio station, I might add, was 10:22

it from what I understand Kerry read a lot of his own speech.

10:26

Yeah. And also a lot of a lot of people. Everyone speech was was censored, because they didn't want a whole lot of anti Bush spiel. Because they weren't really they didn't do the anti Bush stuff to Carter. Well, exactly.

10:38

10:40

Carter didn't Carter's speech. Carter speech wasn't censored, because he's 80s. Your 80s You're 80 years old. And he's been a president. He's still working. And he received a Nobel Prize prize. Like, you know, if anyone knows it's Jimmy Carter. Right? Well, and if anybody could really just come out and bash bush with a friendly or face.

10:57

11:04

And that's what we're all talking about that that night. He made that speech. He's such a gentleman. He never says anything rude.

11:11

Did you notice who was sitting next to the Carters during the convention? Who Michael Moore. Yeah, yeah, that was brilliant.

11:19

You know, there hasn't been a friendlier face bashing Bush since the bashing of Bush since a former governor of our state and she's awesome. She different Bush all together. Here's something interesting. Fred Phelps was going to be protesting the Republican National Convention as well. Ah, Westboro Baptist Church to pick at the sodomized whorehouse masquerading as the Republican National Convention at Madison Square Garden in religious protests and warning God is not mocked America is a river leap dune and it's the last days of Noah a lot Jeremiah God is USA is terrorist know a lot in Jeremiah there was no woman in there at all. What's a man to do? Well, it's it's somebody needs to pull the pillar of salt out of his ass

Chris 11:32

11:57

12:05

12:08

when when the right wing party can lose the support of even the most right wing crazies. They're just doing something wrong. When Fred Phelps and the skinheads will not will not that Fred Phelps is with the skinheads but even the skinheads won't endorse probably slept with a few though. One thing

12:24

12:27

I have

 Chris 12:31

is this is cute. He's got a there's a little political cartoon on his flyer about him going to the Republican National Convention. It's from the Wizard of Oz. It's got the Scarecrow that says carry across him. The Cowardly Lion that says Bush and the Tin Man that says Clintons got carried going, if I only had a faggot was going if I only had a clue, and Clinton saying if I only had a whore

 12:57

Clinton doesn't need horrors. That's what he has interns for.

 13:00

Sorry I've ever heard in my life and they're getting paid. Yeah. How long was she going to keep that dress? I'm sorry.

 13:05

 13:08

That's disgusting. Okay, you know?

 13:14

She was gonna donate to the Smithsonian

 13:20

quote from that, that famous Chinese Laundry joke come again? No, just mustard this time.

 13:29

Okay, so let's go back. Over this day, nobody will notice. Let's no back to the DNC. Okay. What else want to talk about with you know because one thing I go back to the DNC. Okay. What else want to talk about when, you know, because one thing I noticed with watching the Democratic National Convention was, you know, until Kerry showed up, you know, there was a lot of gay pride symbolism I saw and there are a lot of queer, carry Edward signs. And then all of a sudden when Kerry showed up and everyone was watching, all of those signs disappeared. No, that was one night. That extra that extra was paid for by the Kerry campaign.

 Chris 13:32

 13:54

 Chris 13:59

The rainbow one Yeah, he 14:00

paid for all those.

 Chris 14:02

But no way when he came up to speak, you know, they had all sorts of different signs. But you know, I still saw some of the blue carry Edwards signs, but I didn't see the rainbow ones. Yeah, they handed out different signs each night. And the blue signs were there every night. But there were different signs each night that they handed out and the rainbow signs were one night and then great. So there's like some 85 year old little Democrat on the floor has no idea what the rainbow sheep

 14:12

 14:25

 14:29

Oh, yeah. There were there was this one guy who's like 90 years old from like, East Texas. He's like, Oh, I think I want to take one of these back and put it in the party office window. All right, this other guy, this other guy, it was a wavy, it wasn't like a straight rainbows sort of wavy. And it was it was a gradation right? Yeah. And this guy says oh, cool tie dye. Free line marry. Wow,

 14:56

 the flower powder

 14:58
very high. Uh,

 15:00
I've been reading a lot of stuff and stuff, like the voice and different gay newspapers about how there wasn't much gay support at the convention. But it's sort of, I didn't see it that way. I mean, there was no like, outwardly gay rights speeches, but at least one person a night would say, you know, except for maybe

 15:19
Ben Affleck. But I

 15:21
mean, well, like on the very high on the convention floor, people would say, you know, black and white man and woman and gay and straight. And you know, they didn't include that they never, no one ever really came out and said, gay people deserve the same rights as everybody else. But that was sort of empathic

 Chris 15:37
type thing where there was the fact that when, when Kerry spoke, you know, he, he danced around any issue with the gay community, just saying, you know, he doesn't want he doesn't believe that the Constitution needs to be amended for political purposes. And I think that's where a lot of people feel that, you know, there wasn't a support. I mean, Al Sharpton spoke quite highly for our for our side of on that part. And, you know, I mean, he was one that was not meant to be on prime time. So yeah, he did not give his censored speech. Yeah. It was something like 14 minutes over his time. Yeah, he handed in a six minute speech, but come on. I mean, he's a preacher. Yeah, sometimes he rhymes. You get up there and sometimes, you know, it's the flow and the I mean, they knew they hellfire and brimstone, kind of kind of gore sounded anything. During his the election year like he did at the convention, he might have gotten elected, or that one out because Florida was already bought and paid for. That's true. That he ranted he had a couple of months I had a couple months ago, just tearing apart bush.

 16:06

 Chris 16:12

16:34

Chris 16:39

16:44

It was fab. And his speech that I heard was fabulous. I couldn't believe there was passion in that man. I was like, Where'd this guy come from? For the past four years

16:52

all the way through his campaign, his first passed into law, he didn't start fighting for what he really believed in until like the last six weeks of the election.

17:03

That's because every time he did someone attacked him for it, man. I mean, he gets misquoted. And, you know, Ann Coulter, and Bill O'Reilly would go oh, well, he said this when he really said something.

17:13

Yeah, but he didn't completely go after what they would say what they believe, unfortunately,

Chris 17:20

well, he 17:21

still won the election. Like I say, my parents voted for gore. And all I got was the stupid president.

17:30

You know, one thing I do feel like I have to say is that as someone who's over 30, is that I, you know, those of us who are over 30?

17:43

Where am I? dependences.

17:49

I'm about to say something very nice about you. So I think you know, and those of us who could get really sing, you know, cynical about the whole political thing. And, you know, the way it's all going these days, it's really cool to see somebody in your age group, who actually gives a crap about this whole situation, and is, you know, raising their own kind of Hell, yeah, anything's changed. You know, when I'm in the same age bracket, as Bobby, you know, when we were of that age, you know, the important question that they wanted, that our generation wanted to know the politicians was, is it Boxers or briefs? And little did we know that mostly message changed, going all the way down the ladder?

Chris 18:22

18:38

Chris 18:43

It's good to see that you know, that that there is that next generation, whether it is in the queer community in the progressive movement in the liberal movement, or however, there is that next generation that we don't have to wait for the passing of the of the the older generation before someone steps up to do that. Well, how else are we gonna get a transfer of power out of this Provisional Government?

19:00

Chris 19:06

I'm bringing the UN I

 19:08

already thought that one out. All right, let's talk about something even stranger with politics. The governor of New Jersey came out this week.

 Chris 19:10

 19:17

Oh God, and somebody stuffed a sock in his mouth and tell him to quit whining because if he wanted the support of the gay community, he should have been openly gay from the get go not when he got caught in photos.

 19:28

What is this? What did he get? He's a Democrat. Okay. A job. You know, he tried he tried to get his boyfriend a job as New Jersey and his boyfriend several jobs Yeah, tried to get him as he can New Jersey Homeland Security, but but since he's an array Israeli national, they couldn't run the background check. He got on this other position for like a quarter of a million dollars a year. I need to date this man. And we couldn't do any of these jobs. We

 Chris 19:33

 19:50

 19:53

 Chris 19:54

knew that so we had to go into the people complain. So then he got him a private sector job of doing During this and you know, because now, you know the his boyfriend is upset, he's not getting all the perks he wants. He's threatened to file a sexual harassment lawsuit. So he decides to come out with his wife holding hands and goes, I am a gay American. And unfortunately, I forgot to watch it. I was seriously watching the Olympics opening ceremonies. I didn't get to turn on the 700 Club and see what Pat Robertson's expression. God, 20:24

I'm sorry, I missed that too. Right. Let's clap. It's always good for a good laugh.

 20:29

What's the deal with the wife? Now? He's got a couple of kids, right? Yeah. Right. And he's got, you know, this wife, boyfriend,

 20:38

I heard the wife was very like, she was right there.

 20:40

The whole time?

 Chris 20:41

Did she she knew she's known that he's good. Because then yay, 20:44

what good for them. I think finding the the nuclear family, 20:50

you know, personally from you know, it's not that he's gay, that that should be bothering anybody. It's the fact that he was a schmuck.

 Chris 21:01

And no one really cares. Why did he leave? I mean, you know, well, because he's been very blackmailing, being threatened with with a sexual harassment lawsuit and fear it's going to interfere with his duties. So what he's done this he's resigned, but it's not effective until November.

21:16

I get it. There's not enough lube. I mean, nepotism going through the relationship anymore. Well, I'm, like you said is he's like, I shouldn't have done this. I should have just been out, you know, open with everything. And everybody has their own reasonable, fair, and it's not the gay thing that should be bothering anybody. It's the fact that he pulled all these other stunts that have nothing to do. It's really what bugs me is if you wanted to call and whine about support from the gay community, and I'm like, Okay, show me some character. Yeah.

21:23

21:29

21:37

21:46

Get me a job. I'll support you. Okay. Y'all athletically supportive? Yeah,

Chris 21:51

and there is a Supreme Court of California voted against the gay marriage with a fork. They've all they've all been nullified. It's all been nullified. But it's going to have to Mayor Newsom has said he's going to appeal the case. On behalf of those people who read a news better like Khurana he's gonna lose actually check up on it's gonna

21:57

Chris 22:00

22:10

Chris 22:14

take some while to go through because, you know, the first place is going to go is going to be did the Ninth Circuit and you know, they're very pro gay.

22:20

We love change comes slowly,

22:24

especially with the governor and office.

22:27

You are the terminators now.

Chris 22:29

All right, we are coming up way closer to the end for a little music in the background from Hedwig. It's from Hedwig and the Angry Inch it's midnight radio in the back there just a little something different. And any last little bits different
