02:07

Hello, Houston and college station and Huntsville, and welcome to after hours queer radio with attitude onto me Carper. And my special co host tonight is the woman that brings the attitude three times every three months. Michael Roberts

02:20

02:28

Oh, girl, that was good. I liked your image, you say you remember I said I was gonna be I was gonna be in one of two minds. The last time I was here. After this election, I was going to be very ticked off or very happy about the outcome while I'm somewhere in between now, before we get weak before we get going, and I know once you get going I get started. I want to I want to talk about the music that we heard at the beginning of the show. The last one was from John Frederick. I really a very bizarre performer out of New York. And that was called drag queen. None of that in here tonight were transgenders. Okay. Yes. And before that was Victor krummenacher from his CD bittersweet, called the Rose that I found. That's a beautiful, beautiful song. I really like that. Okay, we're here. And I guess it's gonna be political tonight. Oh,

02:45

03:28

god. Yeah.

03:30

Silly me. George

03:32

Bush trying to steal an election. Okay. Well, well, before we get into the political stuff, I had to say I had a very interesting, let's say, month weekend last month, I got a chance to go to my 20th high school reunion was you got it? Remember, I told you guys I grew up here. So yeah. 1980 class of Jesse H. Jones High School. We had our 20 year high school reunion. And of course, yours truly was there. Of course, obviously, when we passed out the awards, I won the most changed awards. I had a blast though. My classmates and if any of you are out there listening.

04:22

And I see it even made the newsletter. You've got a few guests in the talk studio here tonight. Yeah, the usual cast of characters around here. I see a new face or two.

04:36

And why don't you guys introduce yourselves as you go around the room here. Okay, let's Did you like Kristen? Kind of semi regular still Christian I'm here. And

04:41

04:49

Melanie. Plenty of fiber. So I'm regular.

04:57

I'm sorry, Jane Connell. Hi, sir. Jay. Welcome. See you again. Yes. And a new a new person.

05:02

Yes. Alyssa Jacqueline. Right. You can call me all this, let's say. And there's one more person here. Yeah. Where is she? She's kind of hiding in the corner.

05:12

I'm Ashley. Hi, Ashley. Hi, Ashley.

05:15

Welcome to after hours. The very cute ash. Now, actually, you know, with this gang, you know, you're gonna have to jump in there and grab a mic. Yeah. Because I mean, you just share it with her. Okay, good. Good. And I'm gonna sit back. I'm feeling a little, you know, poorly to this evening. You know, we got the cold thing going on. Shoot.

05:35

I'm feeling poorly too after that election Tuesday night. Yeah, friends tried to pull the Chicago routine up here. Yeah, vote early vote off this case, they're trying to make sure that 19,000 votes don't show up in the gore column.

05:52

That's right, show up and don't vote. So well the got on this. And would start on the local stuff first. But I'd say it was kind of a draw.

05:58

Well, we get on this. And we'll start on the local stuff first. But I'd say it was kind of a draw locally here. Got on the Republicans had every I said going into this election, they thought that Jr. was going to have some coattails on this one, but and help them get control of the Texas House and expand your Senate. But after this election, it looks like he's still saying my situation. We're looking at 7872 edge for the Democrats and 1615 edge for him in the house. So why is that important? Well, the legislative session is going to start in another two months. And the other very important thing is a little thing called reapportionment. Remember when you boys and girls or some of you remember when some of you boys and girls are saying I filled out your census forms. Well, this is where that comes into play. Texas is going to probably pick up at least two congressional seats, maybe even three based on those results. Also, the House districts will be redone along with the Senate districts so which party is in control determines how those lines get drawn. If we're looking at a Republican, all Republican, Texas House and Senate we were probably looking at the NSA the chance of Jim Benson and Steve and Sheila Jackson Lee being put in the same district by Republican friends or throwing my neighborhood and Tom DeLay's district and I don't think he wants to add up on my visit up there and 98

07:37

Probably not

07:39

but in this case, at least the Democrats will have a say so in terms of how those lines are going to be drawn. A huge say so. And also some essay our friend and Deborah Dan bird got reelected Yay.

07:57

Oh, what a surprise. Yeah. Yeah, they were kind of nervous for a while but she she you know, she tries to challenge but, but in the meantime, we're looking at but the main thing ever that's been on everyone's lips is Florida. Oh, boy. What can you say about it?

08:01

08:23

I can say that it just kind of smells a little funny that one of the men running for president his brother is the governor of the state you know, and

08:38

I will deliver this state to you bro you can't you

... you can't smell anything

08:42

know you really can't put your finger on anything but it just doesn't smell right.

08:47

Listen to his story about a man named

08:54

I'm sorry oops I'm sorry

09:00

and Can you guys believe that a heavily Democratic county like West Palm Beach delivered Pat Buchanan many more votes than the rest of the state

09:09

and my hard to believe well,

09:11

they're intelligent they knew exactly what they were doing at least that's what the bush people saying.

09:16

Oh yeah, it's funny they can sit up there and holler about rule of law especially when they want when they want to get over they always holler rule of law didn't I remember hearing the same words during that partisan Clinton impeachment to rule of law? Let's just get this over with so we can go ahead and start packing the court with dollar conservatives. Yeah.

09:43

Yeah, so what was that the viewer sent talking about the ballot that butterfly mallet and yeah,

09:49

... the butterfly mallet is a ballot that has a butterfly on it and it's a paper ballot that's it's very interesting that that butterfly ballot on that that was used in Palm Beach County, Palm Beach County was the only county that use it is It's very interesting that well, Florida law, as it stated, says that, that for a photo to be valid, it must the name is you have the name on the left hand side, and that you must punch or mark an X to the right hand side of the candidates name. How are you going to do that? If on the on a butterfly ballot, that you've got names on the right hand side of the hole, so that makes the ballot illegal? Right there.

10:36

Although I must say I did, I've got I've got to say this. I saw a mock up of it over the internet, and it was not confusing to me at all. Um, you know, I have to say that,

10:49

but if you're talking about somebody that's elderly.

10:53

Yeah. Where if that's something that rainbow brought up. If you're, you know, old, older people with cataracts or poor vision or vision might have a problem there for someone who's never voted before that happened. Yes.

11:04

11:07

Yes. And you know, in that area, I bet there's a lot of people who voted for the first time.

11:13

Yeah, um, when I did early voting back in October, I was talking to a lady in line and I was waiting an hour and a half at my precinct, on the floor, and that was the first day of early voting. Oh,

11:28

I vote on voting. So

11:30

I was waiting an hour and a half. And she was telling me about her father. And she said her father hadn't voted in almost 20 years. But he was so afraid of what was going to happen with a potential George W presidency, that he made sure that he was registered, and that he said that he was going to vote in this election. So you did have a lot of new voters out there. The NAACP wasn't doing a massive get out the vote drive along with the nationally syndicated Tom Joyner Morning Show. They were doing a massive get out the vote dry. But there was so there were a lot of you know, maybe first time or people voters or people who hadn't been in the voting booth in a while that were definitely that were ready. Yes. That were really willing and able to keep our friend Mr. Bush out of the White House and keep him in the state house.

12:32

Yeah, I got a call to get out and vote to and which I was like, well, and okay, and they said, and Tom DeLay says was like, Well, let me stop you right there.

12:48

That was like the day. So that early voting day, I had feel Suzanne's people trying to hand me their stuff. I said, I already know everything I need to know about your essay about you, Mr. Sudan, your essay your candidate. Anybody wants to kill Social Security is definitely not on my vote for list here.

13:05

But when you say to tongue aways, people I don't know if I can say it on the radio.

13:13

It counts as one of the deadly words.

13:16

Well, no, I just I told him I told them exactly what I thought about him so you can fill in the blank fill in the blanks. Sort of like what Eastern? Fortman county thinks about it probably along the same lines to 13:35

13:27

Yeah, I happen to live and Tom delay's.

13:40

You poor person.

13:41

Yeah, it was.

13:44

Thank God. I live in Ken Benson's district. He's going back to Congress. Again, so like to congratulate Congressman Benson. He's going back along with Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee and, and Jean green. And even a good friend about Kevin Brady up there. Who else in nutshell, the entire Texas congressional delegation is going back even delay.

14:12

So we're gonna talk about the nadir. Oh, Nightster. Oh.

14:19

Yeah, I don't even want to go there. But um, in terms of nature of the nature of the election, Oh, yeah. During the call. Dark nadir. I liked that one. Yeah, I like that one, because he basically cost Al Gore on New Hampshire will say the thing. You know, it's like, if you want to make a statement, yeah, if that's what his purpose was, he could have waited until there wasn't the Supreme Court justices up for appointment. I mean, if he cares about the Clean Water Act, and you know, Roe v. Wade, and things like that, Why, God, why did he pick this election as opposed to four years from now to make that particular state? or even in 1996, one rally, let's say or a couple of years down the line 2004.

14:34

15:00

15:07

I mean, and I heard him talking on at well, at least I saw it posted online where he was just, you know, really, really tickled with all this. He thought it was just hilarious. Yeah. And the thing that really gets me is he spent all of his life fighting for the ideals that come on under attack from the Supreme Court justices all the time, you know, clean water, you know, Roe v. Wade, all that stuff is solely rights law.

15:36

Claims there's absolutely no difference between Al Gore and George Bush, and he couldn't be more wrong. Hello.

15:42

I mean, I can understand what he's talking about the corporate welfare and stuff. And you know what, both parties are really, really, really guilty of that.

15:53

And both parties are guilty in terms of the financial Yeah.

15:59

He has. He has an absolute point there. But whenever it comes to, you know, civil liberties, there is no comparison

16:09

or support for GLBT people. There's no, exactly. Oh, beautiful. There was a beautiful thing we saw in Q Texas, which is lovely. Election 2000. math quiz. Number of pro gay policies. George W. Bush supported before his meeting with gay Republicans. Zero, okay. Number of pro pa gay policies. George W. Bush supported after his meeting with gay Republican that'd be zero. Now, how did you get a number of times George W. Bush appointed an openly gay or lesbian official to his administration in Texas? Oh, that was a bunch of 16:49

16:12

times when that 16:50

zero number of times George W. Bush, publicly pronounced the words HIV or AIDS, I can tell you that z. And I was listening closely. Yes.

17:00

17:05

number of times George W. Bush, vow to support Hate Crimes Prevention Act, zero thing. George W. Bush promised to support legislation protecting gays and lesbians from Workplace Discrimination altogether.

17:23

Now, the 17:26

number of times George W. Bush said he would support legislation lifting the ban on gays and lesbians in the military. Zero number of times, George W. Bush expressed support for equal legal excuse me, legal protections for gay and lesbian couples couldn't zero. Just baby. And finally, number of times George W. Bush spoke out against anti gay planks in the Republican Party platform zero. That's George W. Bush equals zero. Yeah. Tell me again, why he deserves my vote. Well, he 18:13

18:05

this is wrong Cabin Republicans that this is. This is a direct quote from George W. Bush. And I think it just really sums up his his particular platform and stance on everything. And it says it's important to keep a strong ties in the Middle East. With its credible ties because of the energy crisis. We're now in. I I have to get a sense of should I be fortunate enough to be president, how my administration will react to the Middle East. It's just common sensical. And that just really sums it up right there a direct quote from the Houston Chronicle.

18:18

18:59

One reason not to support George W. Bush, and I'm so off the subject of gay and lesbian. I've got a good friend who's a wicked she's a witch and she pointed out to George W came out, they were talking about should the military be recognizing Wicca is a religion? You know, I don't think it's a religion and we ought not to be promoting it at all. very ignorant policy and thought, oh, yeah, I do too.

19:22

I mean, we're founded on religious freedom. Hello, Christian. What is the official religion in the United States? There isn't. But actually,

19:28

19:31

19:32

what Monica what was that? That post that came out on hand now where it said the religious right shows that SAS and what it was was quoting the religious right, I don't remember who it was, but they were talking about that. The religious right some spokesperson came out and said that this nation was actually a Christian nation founded upon Christianity and And oh, yeah, it was over that Muslim, that you muslim saying a prayer are now the native peoples of this country would not agree with that. That's true.

20:06

20:11

Well, you know, what we'll just not pull into. That was our friend Mr. Robertson, Mr. 700 Club and the quiet power behind the scenes of the Bush campaign. What a lot of people, you notice how quiet that Trent Lott and all those other boys and girls got when they had that minstrel show, I mean convention in Philadelphia. minstrel show up there in Philadelphia. Oh, you were truly evil. Yeah, yeah. Kirby, John Caldwell was still getting a lot of flack from his parishioners about about that little visit he made up there in August. So he's still getting a reverend call will still get a lot of flack from it. So but you're, well, go ahead. People have voted. So, you know, it's kind of a done deal now, so to speak. So it depends on who's who's got the deal, and whose lawyers are. So the only thing about it, you know, we're all in limbo until then. But we still have a President, ladies and gentlemen, William Jefferson Clinton, January 20. And what happens

20:15

21:11

21:23

then if this thing isn't

21:27

in the Chronicle, he could go on and remain President? No,

21:31

he must leave as of January 20. So who takes over?

21:37

Wouldn't that be Speaker of the House Speaker of the House? And as Dennis Hastert and who at the HEOP

21:44

vice president Strom Thurmond.

21:50

Everybody should see Jimmy's face right.

21:56

Good about that, that would probably do the old fart

22:05

then we'd pick up a seat, because matter of fact, that's as a matter of fact. There's a Democratic governor in South Carolina so if he does go by who wouldn't be a Democrat and the biggest of all, a dead man gets elected. Oh,

22:21

22:26

it was wonderful to have a dead Democrat that isn't that incredible? I would feel really bad if I was.

22:38

22:47

Asked Crossman and George W. Probably Sharon 40 ounce, right.

22:53

That was forgetting his first and last name I think was Carnahan.

22:56

Yeah, MILCON him.

22:58

I know I heard a report. I don't know if this is verified or not. But our wonderful friend Fred Phelps. Oh, boy. Apparently had his group out there picketing the funeral.

23:09

Yeah. Yeah, I

23:11

think I saw that on today. Yeah.

23:15

But, uh, Fred just doesn't know when to quit. Does the 23:17

thing of it is nobody pays attention to him anymore. Yeah. Yeah.

23:22

Thank God. But um, but you know, Carnahan, I honestly believe had Governor Carnahan been here for this election, Missouri probably would have went to Gore column. Yeah, to the gore column. I honestly think that

23:38

I'm wondering what the vote would have been if he was alive to the other guy would have got any vote on the hand was very popular in the state. He has already had a double digit lead on Ashcroft. But at the time that he had he passed on he died in a plane crash. Apparently he kept it. Yeah. Yeah. About his wife's house. And 23:59

23:44

23:56

that's what the, they said was that if he won, even though it was dead, that they would appoint his wife to take his place. I think that's great. Yeah. And somebody voted. That's exactly right. Absolutely.

24:11

Yeah. There are

24:12

precedents for that. When Hale Boggs was killed in a plane crash his wife Lindy took over to see which is Cokie Roberts mom. very credible that job. Yeah. For two terms and stuff. And there have been other cases. Well, when Mickey Leland when Mickey Leland died and Ethiopian crest, they wanted his wife Allison to run for the seat. And Allison decline. She had declined at that time. That was when they had the election between Craig Washington Anthony and Anthony Hall, which Craig Washington one but at the time, Craig Washington was a dynamite state legislator, certainly when all of a sudden he got to Washington and I don't know what the heck happened when he got to Washington, but she learned Did uptake in the seat after that? I know. But in terms of 18th district, when you've got the kind of representation that people have had like a Barbara Jordan and a Mickey Leland and you, you can't have step in that district. You have step in that district, you're gone. You're gone with that kind of with that kind of leadership that you've had in that district. You bet. And she was done an excellent job up there for the last, you know, since 94, almost the last 10 years. I take my hat off to her. She's been a friend to the community. Yeah, she's been a very good friend to the community.

25:39

But I think she's a savvy politician. Yes, very. I do. Okay, where are we going? Now? Shoot.

25:47

Good question. Where do you guys want to go on this one?

25:51

Okay. Let me ask you.

25:54

I'd like to bring up a little point, history way back when when Rutherford B. Hayes became president. Yeah. However, however he was, he was one of the ones that ended up with the popular vote being less than actually been not the popular vote, pick. And when he got in, he had a very ineffectual presidency. And when he got in, they didn't call him Rutherford B. Hayes, they called him rather for rather fraud beings, not only because there were a lot of cases of similar things to good old Florida there that went Oh, no, that's the thing I'm really, really scared about is that no, who ever gets this is going to have this pall over their administration. Yeah, and that and it's such evenly divided in Congress that I don't think anything's going to be able to get done that thing that's going to be one of our saving graces, to be honest with you, because they won't be able to really since they, since the popular vote went toward Al Gore. Even if Jr is standing up there taking the the oath of office on January 20. Of he is going to have a Congress that's looking at a 5050. You've got no say in Strom Thurmond, somebody bringing up Strom Thurmond, it was a very interesting point because he is 97 years old. And he's in a state where you've got a Democratic governor. So a strong term and kicks off during the sex during the session. And that means that a Democrat, the Democratic governor would pick his replacement. And you're also talking about Jesse Helms, same situation. How old is Jesse now Jesse is in his late 70s. He's able he's pretty close to that late 70s. To same situation. So that 5050 may anything go before the 92 before the 2002 midterm elections come up to a to see democratic edge are however, those 2002 midterm elections will be the first ones conducted under the new redrawn lines. So that is going to be a but you thought you saw money being spent on this election? Yeah. Wait till 2002 You're right.

26:35

26:54

28:28

You have clashed with Georgia, you're not going to get a election reform on spending. Ah, please, honestly, you know, I don't know what's gonna take to get election reform. I you know, I don't trust either side.

28:35

28:42

I don't either.

28:42

Well, the problem is the nature of the system. The nature of the system is our, um, you need money. To run your campaigns, you need money, you need money for the TV time, you need money for the radio commercials. You need money to pay for that printing and everything else the travel, you know, speaking personally, much newer form, I would like to see the Republicans and Democrats who've done a very good job making sure that only Democrats and Republicans get to debate and get to win really, and third parties be the Nader or libertarian or John Anderson in 1980. They just don't have 29:20

29:19

a fighting chance. No, they don't. That's what's fair about Abraham

29:24

Lincoln was running under today's rules. I believe native pointed this out, he wouldn't have gotten to debate. I think what they're going the new thing they're going to do is the farther down the alphabet that your party starts with, the more money you're allowed to spend. To start the Xena party.

29:31

29:57

Oh man Yeah,

30:03

of course I'm not wrong. I'm kind of wait have a laugh.

30:08

Yes. Yeah, like I'm like Tavis Smiley, he's I'd rather be hard left and right, then half right, anytime. And when he talks about the religious right, he calls them half, right, because they have half the facts give you half the density, give you half the facts. They're half and half the story. And half the story.

30:35

You're talking about, you know, finance reform and things like that. And the truth is, I mean, even if they had free airtime, even if they had millions upon millions of dollars, they would still go out and raise millions upon millions of more dollars because it a soft money rules. Yes. Yes, absolutely. And I don't think that that's about to change anytime soon. or later. No, I don't look at the field Sudan. Can Benson rice, for example, Phil Sudan, who by the way, they kept this real quiet, but he was the attorney for but Adams before the Oilers move, they kept that very quiet. move their bills. Yeah. Phil Sue Dan spent $2 million of his own money in this election. Yeah, but that was lightweight compared to that Senate race in New Jersey, we're causing spin about almost low levels, almost 30 $40 million of his own money.

31:04

31:38

You know, and you wonder, Why the hell would someone do that? I mean, what's the pay? Where are they getting out?

31:45

Because power is more attractive this Monday? Yeah. Well, there was a spoof site. I don't remember which one. But sometimes they had a fake news article. But it was pretty Yeah, I think it was any.com had a really good one. It says, you know, it was supposed to be that Bush had found out actually how much the the job of President why, I wonder the bonuses, you know, to get a person to commission anything. I used to make more than that a month on work and what the pay was 32:22

31:51

32:20

the oil companies went under when the pay for 32:24

a house per se for the house, the speaker of the house gets $171,500 a year. Okay, for the rest of the members currently in the house. 133,600 a year. That's the same for the Senate 133,600 a year. So you spent almost 30 $40 million to get $133,000 a year job.

32:48

Not a very good investment.

32:51

When it comes to getting the power, though it is power corrupts. Absolute. What is it absolute power corrupts? Absolutely. You know, that's where it's going. Speaking of that, the words Senator Clinton sound good to you. Oh, yeah, no, the religious right is rolling over.

33:01

33:15

And I'm looking forward to the day when it will be President

33:18

Clinton. Told we got a woman in there. Yeah.

33:22

But you know, anyone

33:24

can do it. She can Yeah, Dennis

33:26

Hastert or somebody say, well, she's just gonna be one person out of 100. And it's like saying, oh, boy, here she comes.

33:34

One person out of 100 Yeah. But she's gonna have more say in terms of a junior senator coming in. She's gonna have more clout than probably any Junior Senator in history at sa outside Robert Kennedy, probably probably in by seeing a Bruce Lee movie. You know that you know that. One out of 100 can make a

33:50

IN MY SEEING A BRUCE LEE MOVIE, YOU KNOW THAT YOU KNOW THAT. ONE OUT OF TWO CAN MAKE A difference.

33:59

Especially this one

34:01

girl sits where she wants.

34:05

Oh, yeah, that as I know, I would have loved seeing the reaction on that site. I say at the ACLJ headquarters. ACLJ The American Center for legal justice as the right wing.

34:21

And Roberts and you know, oh my 34:24

goodness. Robertson Sekulow. And even our local boys here Bluesun Steven hotseat. Oh.

34:35

Oh, there you go.

34:37

It was so funny. I got in the mail yesterday a nice little packet. And it was from the that organization from Jay Sekulow because it was sent to my old male name so it was kind of fun to see what Thinking of guys who like to run around in parks I have said this before there is only one reason a man is on PicClick picnic lane at 120. I think you said there, and that reason is other man. That's 35:22

34:59

right. Yeah, he 35:24

was just looking for a midnight snack.
