They have easy long off road rides and all women are welcome regardless of ability and experience. You can dance the night away, listen to magical music for mingle around the poolside while you sip on fabulous cocktails and enjoy hors d'oeuvres and all kinds of other good stuff. All you need is to bring a donation of $3. And this is part it's a joint effort between our Houston press Romans KPFT and a lot of other people. And so you can even leave your 40 word romance at the door. So that's this coming Wednesday, September 13 at 7pm to 10pm at 11am. I'd also like to mention we promise this week that we say this every week. Our Houston women's festival is coming up on Saturday, October 24. 03:52

Oh, yes Lobo. And while you're there, why don't you sample the Lobo? Tyria?

Yeah, I almost got there on Wednesday, but I ended up sometimes. Oh, they have great coffee. Where were you? Like I said, Oh, material. I haven't been there yet. He said, Well, let's go to Barnaby. A little. I know he's not listening.

04:17

Well, it's just it's really just kind of coffee and dessert and Sam sandwiches.

04:22

Well, that's what I wanted. But we ended up some sandwiches in the desserts come from the Acadian maker. Yep.

Roy 04:28

04:32

So remember, Houston women's Festival. It's October 24. And it's going to be 11 hours of fun. Whoa, a buck an hour.

04:41

That's incredible, isn't it? I'm looking forward to that.

R

Roy 04:43

Okay. I'd like to every now and then we talked about new clubs that open up and stuff like that. And Houston's newest neighborhood clubs called decades. And they have a Mexican buffet on Sunday. Do they now and it's always To those plate but all profi proceeds benefit the petrakos

♀

05:04

Oh, cool. Great. Yeah.

R

Roy 05:08

And they also would like to know if you if you want to join their shuffleboard team, you can call Jeff at 713-521-2224. And it's Houston's newest neighborhood bar and it is located at 1205. Richmond. And the Mexican buffet is tomorrow, Sunday. Also, I don't want to forget. There's an all star salute to one of our favorite divas hot chocolate, who's celebrating her silver anniversary in showbiz. That's right, 25 years, and it's going to be this next Tuesday, not this coming Tuesday, but next Tuesday, October 6. And now this is not a benefit. It's just gonna be one hell of a party, and you might want to get your tickets in advance. The lineup that I'm looking at right now is going to include what you paid lady Sean sweet Savage, Kati Collins, Mickey Duval, shady lady, Erica Andrews, Lauren Taylor, Lindsey, love, copy, pervy die, Diane Michaels, and the list goes on and on and on and on and on. And it's going to be a really great show. And it's going to be a 2401 Sandy sento. Again, that's that riches, and they're going to be celebrating hot chocolates, 25 years in showbiz, and atheism, this, this diva hot chocolate, she has really stood in for the community on many, many occasions, and she has really done an awful lot of fundraising for all kinds of causes. And that's the news this week. And I'd like to thank all our listeners for listening into KPFT after hours news with Michelle and one more quickie I've got for you. Oh, we got you got a quickie. Actually, a quickie just walked in the door. Now but Scott Mackey from the bears, because we've got Paul Williams coming up. I got a letter from the Houston pride band, because they have been around guess what, 20 years. They're celebrating. Did you talk about that? No, no, they're celebrating their 20th anniversary and they are looking for former members or people who have experiences about what what happened in the early years. Because I think it started out as a march Montrose marching band or my Montrose symphonic band, but if you have any kind of information or you're one of those people, please contact S P. ♂

08:15

Okay. That's it that's it for me tonight. Tonight on 08:30

Oh, welcome back. This is after hours queer radio with attitude. Right here on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station. I'm Jimmy Carper. And I'm Peter. Peter is still here with us. But we have some new guests in the studio love new guests.

Peter 08:47

08:49

Oh, hello, this is where I come in. This is where we come in. Come on in. Hi, Paul.

Peter 08:54

Hello. Bonaduce yourself set up real close and suck on that microphone like you've had done when before.

08:59

Now we have a real artiste. I mean, like a celebrity here.

09:04

Yes. And we have we have a comedian here too.

09:09

Actually, I was so excited that you guys were plugging my friend Scott Kennedy.

09:12

Oh, gosh, yeah. Yeah, yeah. He's been on the show several times. Right. He's and he's an active member in the community member of Q Patrol and he's done fundraisers at the last stop for different groups and it's great and of course, he just lost his his mate ran I knew about Kevin and so he's kind of rebuilding his life. Well, you know humor a lot of humor is founded in rough time so hopefully some good stuff not a bad experiences but he's a great guy.

09:35

09:42

Okay, we've got Scott What do we got going on here? Um, well, this is this is the bears Houston area bears. fourth anniversary. Oh, four night is that only the fourth we're for? Yes. Oh,

09:46

P Peter 09:55

and I gave it you were saying well,

09:57

you know, because

R Roy 09:58

we are six said Well I know

10:01

at times well we're sick and sex but we're only this is our fourth year. And 10:07

cuz the bears have such a high profile it to me you've been around for a while they're 10:13

just so many of us yeah and you know we're that loves

10:16

that we can day

10:18

long range microphone.

10:20

Oh, I don't mean no he does 10:23

this is like 180 degrees you know you can be a foot away from 10:30

I'm just real tired. Okay, well tonight was the bears fourth anniversary party and I started off with dinner at dirties and I think I chose that. We chose that restaurant just so I could say dinner at dirties. I love it. I mean, with Teresa Ward, and Brenda whatever her name was the managers there.

10:50

Hey, Brenda has it hang on login.

10:54

Brenda couldn't be there tonight. They have been real sweet to us. And they're just you know, I mean, I figured we'd scare him to death. He's great big faggots coming in. But you know that every bond and Harry

11:07

Harry bag Harry faggots

11:08

big hungry Harry bag.

11:12

They couldn't bring the food fast. Oh, and they asked, they asked me Well, will you be wanting the half order of the chicken fried steak? And I said excuse me. Look at me.

11:15

11:24

Okay, you are a generously proportioned demand?

11:27

Yes, I'm I'm not vertically challenged. I'm horizontally enhanced. Very, very good. And Paul, he's stealing all the good line. Hi, you know, I'm just sitting here. Well, and 11:41

11:35

I'm getting this introduction eyes saw Paul. Well, about four or five years ago, when did less miserable start in Dallas 88 to 9494. So it was probably 91 or 92. I was flipping through the Dallas Morning News. And I saw, I'm sorry. I've been on. I've been in the mike Nighthawks. And you have to practically shove that thing down your throat before they can hear you. It's just that you want to do that. I have one word for you.

12:11

12:19

Anyway, so I saw this picture of this guy that I went to Baylor with. Oh, and it said less miserable. And it was Paul Jay Williams, David Crabtree and Pat Skinner, Pat Skinner. Oh, and I thought this has got to be just interesting. Just the fact that they're the name of their trip was less miserable. So I went and laughed until I peed in my pants. That's a lot of pain.

12:44

12:47

And I every time I could see them in Dallas, I went and about, oh, six, eight months ago, I was in Dallas for a bit. Wait bears have to get together because, you know, you know what the rest of the community looks like. So we have to get together because, you know, yeah, all over the country. Well, I was shot for six all over the country.

13:09

13:12

I'm trying. Anyway, I walked in and lo and behold Paul J. Williams is the entertainer and I'm thinking and he is now a solo act. And he is a hilarious, very funny. Screaming queen. It's why.

13:30

Oh, well. And I take that as a compliment. And I mean so now poor David can't get a word in edgewise. Well, that's 13:40

13:37

That's because he's actually just 13:42

got straight man. Really? Um, his excuse me?

13:46

I certainly hope not. That explains a lot about the last couple of months. Yes. Anyway. There's something you haven't told me. Anyway. I'm sorry. There was the comedian that you know, I'm confused. But anyway, before words at this point, I'm off the clock. Just carry on.

13:59

14:06

14:14

He's He's gotten his check.

Peter 14:16

I don't know. I already decided what we're gonna do. We're gonna we're gonna do a duet here in a moment. Have you ever heard of that song about? Oh, gee, banana grand have a man's big and when you love him, you don't know where you're at? You heard that? We're gonna do that just for you. Handy. Oh, I'm so happy.

14:31

14:33

Yeah, I really think Scott has a button on that says it all. Yeah, dare you assume that I'd rather be thin.

14:42

I also have Yes, I have the gaudy body of a god. Buddha Buddha. Anyway, I have to make a long story even longer. I decided that when I was when I took the chair bear ship of the anniversary that I wanted to bring Paul Yeah. And he's wonderful. And I'm going to let him talk now because he's also very funny.

15:08

With you know, it's very interesting because I got, I got asked back in March to come to the bear event in Dallas, which is a huge event. And my gut reaction when I heard that I was that they asked me to come down. I thought, Oh, hello, could this look any more out of place?

15:24

You're kind of, you're slender. Well, I'm 15:27

... . . . .

just your basic preppy. Yeah. Yeah, you're 15:29

a preppy deli queen.

15:33

Thanks. Let's just say I'm not a bear.

15:38

And so like I, you know, right,

15:40

I went into this thing, thinking well, and really not knowing what I was getting into. And I had so much fun. And I told these guys tonight, and I've told this to my friends, too. You know, there's a lot of subgroups within the gay community. Oh, we all kind of like find our niche. But of all of those subgroups that I've worked with, I have to say that I think the bears are probably the most least pretentious, most comfortable with who they are fun people. And, and I mean this in a good way. It's an older crowd as a comic that because you know, you get a you get a young crowd and one of the bars or something and you start doing political stuff, and they're gonna be like, Okay, here's Janet Raina. Yeah, you know, and these are the kids that you want to look at them and go okay, did you know that Paul McCartney had a band before wings? Yes. So when you know that went so well, that okay, whose pagers going off? My Thank you for calling later.

16:40

It's your trick. It's gotten 16:41

to the point now where I'm suddenly next weekend, I'm going to be in Denver doing the Denver bears. No kidding. And yes, there's a certain element of you know, wanting to get up and sing that song from Sesame Street. One of those things is not like the other. Yeah. But you know, who cares? Everybody loves to laugh. And I have a blast with these guys.

17:00

I found the bear group. Exactly. Like you said, I've been to a couple of arrow functions in Houston. And dealing with the Gay Lesbian switchboard. You know, you get the calls coming in that people have there's body problem, right. Oh, hey, I don't look like the brewer twins or you know, the who. There's a blonde skinny boy.

17:25

Nevermind. Yeah. You know, and handsome. Yeah.

17:29

Yeah. Yeah. And, and this is the bears are a place where people who are not into body conscious stuff. Oh, we're all fat. No, that's not what. That's not what I mean. Because it's bears and people who love them. Because skinny guys like me can hang around and get these you know, nice, big, big guys. Like I like, well, I try. I try not to talk. But I do have to say something here. Yeah, the one thing that I see is first, we're, we're gay. We had to accept that. And then we're big or were furry or we had to accept that. And I don't look at a person size anymore. I look at Paul and he belongs. Yeah, I don't look, you know now. That's no listen. You belong. Honey with three of us in a room you kind of disappeared. This man is so skinny. He has to run around in the shower to get wet.

17:54

18:33

But the hard work going into 18:36

here we go. You know there's one. There's one thing the fart jokes. I always I always say I like I like gotten those fart jokes. Very live and uncut. Let me tell you, Oh, 18:46

18:41

I like a man with a little meat on his bones. So I don't have to say two sheets out in the morning to find my track. You know, it just are you in there.

18:55

Scott, don't quit your day job

18:57

we've had. Funny that's not the first time I've heard that. Now we've had we've had to come to accept ourselves. And I think that we can be an accepting force in the gay community or in any community. Amen. I mean, we have to accept ourselves and we can I like people. I don't care what they look like obviously, you know, that's for sure. I could fight for that for Scott the love of anybody as long as they fit just a man being a man. He accepts all right. Man mean you all don't you have something to say?

19:20

19:34

19:35

I wish he would.

19:39

I'm just like, he's cute. I'm just enjoying the ride.

19:43

Can he take his shirt off?

19:44

Oh, he can take a lot off. We're talking about John Benefield. He's because he's just with the leather folks. He'll be coming a little bit later.

19:53

Oh, can I stick around?

19:56

Oh, yes. And he's wearing so much clothing this he's got on T shirt and shorts. Let's, which is a hell of a lot more than you normally wear?

20:02

I liked his outfit. But I can say, 20:05

we're not dishing you, John.

20:06

I know you're I do have to put in a plug here. Thank you. I'm Paul. Jay Williams. How are you?

20:12

John? John? Paul state. Hi, John.

20:17

My name is Paul. Hi, how are you? And where are you?

20:20

I'm Scott. Hi, Scott. And this is David Scott, the 20:24

one who asked me to take my clothes off, 20:25

right? Yes, you're right. You figured that out?

20:29

For me, I have I have to put in a plug here for you guys that are for everyone that's listening tonight. There. I'm actually going to be performing back at Nighthawks tomorrow night. Oh, good. There is going to be the bear the grin and bear it grandest this and that I will be emceeing. Okay. Now,

20:47

what is this grin and bear contest now that 20:49

I can't answer that would be a Scott Mackay or David Martinez. Well, shut up.

20:54

Thank you. Well, the grand barriers that we have, we held it every month. And what it is is for ferry man or other admirers can get in this contest where they parade in their little shorts or hardly anything at all. A couple of questions. Yeah. And when you will get a $50 gift certificate from leather by boots, and one from live forever. Nice. What it is, is just basically we met with fur or big size that likes the parade or stuff on stage at Nighthawks.

21:24

It's a bear attitude kind of thing. It's a bear thing.

21:29

A bear beauty contest.

21:30

Yeah, basically. But it's, it's, it's actually one of the best fair contests I've seen, because you know, sometimes the men are actually bears. But you know, even John could come in and take his clothes off. And 21:43

we're back to that just as 21:45 acceptable. We're trying to get there. So what kind of questions you ask? Well, usually they're up to me. That's why I'm coming in as the guest emcee tomorrow night so that I can create those.

21:51

21:59

My second month moving to Houston, I entered this grin and Barrett contest because I was attacked by a need a man at the front door. She dragged me on stage. Well, this one asked me if I was single. David asked you if you were saying yes, and that was the question and that my answer was Well, yeah. And I did a little home.

22:26

Lovely entertainment.

22:27

Oh, well, we actually made about $400. And who knows if we'd had time to sell tickets, right. Okay, let me reel this fish back in because it's getting way out here. Tomorrow night. Nine o'clock. Nine o'clock. Come on by Paul. Well, Paul's Alter Ego. The guest here tonight? Well, I don't care. He's off the clock. No, put him on. No, I will be. I've done a lot of characters in my day. What have you done,

22:35

22:58

Paul? I mean, because I don't know a whole lot about you. And I'm like, Oh, no. I've heard I've heard of Les Miserables less miserable. But don't be French about it. We're just really white trash English. Can't get laid to save your life. No less miserable was a three man comedy group that formed in 1988 with myself and two other people that started out as kind of a dare they somebody said, you know, we want to put in a late night comedy act in this theater. You know, you guys are funny. You want to jump but you know, we were thinking okay, whatever. We had five people in our audience the first night and six years later, we had performed in West Hollywood, New York City, Provincetown, all over the state and been very successful. And so I've had my ground and, you know, comedy, improv comedy and then broke out as a stand up comic on my own, but as a part of less miserable I did several characters and one of them is a distant cousin to Dana Carvey is the church lady Oh known as Sister Helen holy and so Helen will be helping emcee the bears you dare contest tomorrow night because as a Christian woman grin and bear I'm sorry grin and bear it thank you. As a Christian woman she of course will be appalled at what will be going on on stage and that's part of what the fun is all about. So you know it's a fun it's a fun evening for people who you know if you don't have anything to do on a Sunday night, come on down and join us.

23:07

24:16

Okay, but so what did they just give me that this is 24:22

I'm trying to match later ones here.

24:25

Is he for later? Oh, yes. Oh, man are just walking in.

24:31

The studio is just wonderful. I suppose taken sorry.

24:35

24:38

I could take you someplace.

24:40

I could take you higher.

24:41

I'm taking a Baskin Robbins.

24:45

Now they're closed. Well I

Now they're closed. When . . .

24:46 have a car.

24:50

The back and the front seat recline.

24:53

Both of them do now.

24:55

I would like to is now around. Can you do now Elder ko please do. Well there, I'll let delta introduce yourself.

25:05

One of the things that developed when Les Miserables was together was a trio of business women who were sisters called the Pickens sisters. They were Nelda Nadine and Naomi Nelda. Pickens is a real estate agent with Century 21 And the most white trash every part of town she can find. It was galena park for Houston. And to my friends in Galena Park, forgive me the joke. We had Naomi Pickens, the hairdresser from the beauty bucket, and the older sister Nadine Pickens who ran a used car lot and in Houston's case up on Durham Boulevard. So I've kept Nelda in my show, who is a behind white trash chain smoking real estate agent from Texas. And you know, she's been smoking since she was about four. So the boy of course has gone. And so you know, she kind of gets into this whole morass thing. She's got this real cute three to two, she wants to show you up in the heights. It's real darlin. But inevitably, when I do a show people will come up to me afterwards and go that nailed a character. I swear to you as my Aunt Ruth. And you know, you have connected with people when they can identify on such a person. Oh, yeah. Either that or they'll say, Oh, she sold me my house. You know, and I'm thinking oh, God, this woman works for Rob and Elverson in Houston and we don't know. I mean, I can't see male to pick and selling some big palatial estate and River Oaks that's kind of out her out of her class. But you know, a trailer in Pasadena now that's more that's more her speed. But anyway, so it's a lot of fun. Oh, yes. And the oh and the I will not be doing Nelda tomorrow night it will be strictly a sister Helen type of thing. So it will be religious experience. Well, that's what it is Sunday for those people who can't drag their knees out of bed. You know, come down to the Nighthawk.

27:08

Church. Okay, and grab refreshing beverage.

27:12

Well, yes. An alcoholic beverage. Thank you for calling a spade a spade. Yes.

27:18

Can you again can be a convenient wine. Hey,

27:21

I'm going to experience Oh, is it I want to brag on Paul a little bit right ahead. just closed a one man show that ran for a month. I guess this is off off off off Broadway or so far off. It's not even on Broadway anymore.

27:34

27:38

But called out, left out and not right.

27:44

And it went very well. I was very pleased. The second time I've run the show in New York. And I it's been a fun show. I'm also very pleased that actually every weekend from now to the end of October, I'm going to be on the road performing. So if anyone's listening and has friends in Denver, St. Louis or Columbus, Ohio. I'm going to be in those cities. Oh, in the upcoming weeks. So tell your friends in those cities to check to look for my name. Okay,

28:06

here's a face in the 28:07

door. There's more than a face. It's Peter.

28:14

Citizen in Denver, St. Louis in Columbus, Ohio

28:18

Talk about white trash. Columbus, please. Oh, honey, please.

28:23

I have played Columbus several times. And I'm here to tell you. I would live in that city. If I could. It would that there are so many nice people there. And it's so much like it's a lot. It's a lot like It's like Detroit without the glitter. We're not you know what? It's a lot like Austin. It's a big town. Anchored by a college. It is at the advocate magazine voted columbus ohio is one of the most gay friendly cities in the nation. You know, right up there with San Francisco. No. And there's really nice people there. I have nothing but nice thing to say about Columbus, Ohio. Very good. So do you want this? Listen, that's from Columbus. I'm not making this up. From my heart. He must like snow.

29:02

29:05

I do like snow. That's why I moved to New York. I came back here. I got off the plane yesterday. My hair went oh, well forget.

29:12

Yes. But you know, the nice thing about living in the Gulf Gulf Coast region would that mean? What do you mean what with less wrinkles?

29:22

You get that instant moisturizer?

29:24

Right? I go to Denver. days. I look like the Wicked Witch of the West.

29:31

If this is less wrinkles, hey. I don't even why? A friend of mine once told me who was also a very large man, but he was you know, he had a birthday and I said, Well, how are you? He said I'm 68 and I thought this man was in his 40s he said stay fat. It hides the rake. So this is actually a youth route.

29:58

That's good Scott. You keep telling me Haagen

30:01

Haagen Dazs hides wrinkles they should put it on the side of the carton.

30:06

Now my secret is that how many people will be putting it on their face? Rog my secrets just little hair color. Little matrix number four.

30:23

You need to do your roots having 30:25

honey, I can't help but everybody my family went gray early and I thought I'll that didn't turn loose, but it turned gray. This is fun. I really didn't even know Houston had this. We've been here 11 years. Really? Yeah.

30:38

30:42

We're just a small city don't expect.

30:46

I have a confession to make. Yeah. My brother is a music director and a Baptist church here in Houston, Texas, that I will remain unnamed. He didn't tell you about this show. No. But you know what? He, I told him I said, Well, I'm doing a radio show. But 130 In the morning, he said, Oh, well, you know, I'd stay up. Listen, if it wasn't that late. And I said no, Jerry, I really don't think so. But he knew full well what I was talking about. He said, No, I listened to it to hear you but not at 130 in the morning, which just reinforces my belief that for all the strange people there are in the Baptist Church, there's probably two more who are good people are Yeah, there you go. There's, there's some good Baptist people in Houston.

31:28

And tortured, but good. You know, it's just like I told, you know, there's gonna be some fundamentalists listen to this show, taking notes when he's gonna go to every Baptist church in town trying to figure out who has a brother.

31:32

31:42

His name is Jerry excuse. All right, actually, in the early years of this show, we did have folks that tape boycott.

31:44

31:48

And I'm sure you probably still do.

31:53

Yeah, but we don't we will see we just ignore those folks. Now.

31:56

When we were at Baylor, we had those same people in college that were coming in and, and taping all those liberal theology professors. You remember that? Oh, yeah. Were you one of them?

32:07

No. I was just a sweet young thing. No, we have progressed we have progressed. So you've been here. 11 years? Yeah. We just celebrated 11 years lower power to earlier this month.

32:11

32:19

And I have to admit, they don't want power. They might. They may not. I don't know if they serve any any function other than to make people laugh at themselves. between midnight and three in the morning. You guys have fun down here. That's the whole idea. I love listening to those guys from hatch if honey, when you've got a radio show at midnight, you got to be entertaining. They're gonna tune tune you out. Yeah,

32:35

32:41

I tell you right now, I know there is some but I feel like a TV preacher right now. I know there is somebody driving down West time or their way to the house of pies. That's and I'm here to tell you if you are listening to my voice rather than when you get Oh, brother, you order me a banana cream pie and enjoy it for makers. I would love to have one.

33:05

Get that banana honey.

33:09

Well, I didn't mean it like that.

33:12

Or is that a cucumber?

33:15

No, we do. We have fun. And that's that really is. The whole idea here is to bring you three hours of career life. I mean, we've got bisexuals and transgenders, and country dikes and blether folks. And

33:28

I want to say to you know, as a comic, I really, you know, I know you've done this already. But I really want to give Scott Kennedy another plug because he has done, he and Kevin have single handedly done more for gay and lesbian comics performing in mainline comedy clubs, through their, you know, their gay comedy, Comedy Jam than anybody else has. Because I've run into brick walls with a lot of comedy clubs that do not want to book a gay comic, they're afraid to book a gay comic. They don't know what it's going to involve. And I credit Scott Kennedy, for taking the initiative to go out there and do that and convince these club owners that it is a good thing, that it's not a frightening thing for the audience. And if you have not had an opportunity to see him go to the left, stop. He's a very funny man and a great businessman too. I just have to put the little plug in for him.

34:17

He's, you know, exactly. And the laptop over there on West gray that Ron was very right. Yeah. And they have been very supportive of the gay community. Sure. Have.

34:22

34:26

You know why they've been supportive? Because the gay community has gotten there. And I mean, if if that guy was the owner, there wasn't making some money. Right? Well, it's all about the right. That's right. And the other club owners are finding out that, hey, you get your book in gay comics, and you're going to pull in a segment of the community that normally probably wouldn't go there, right? Because it's a fear thing. Run out to somebody else who I have worked with in this town, whom I worship the water this woman walks on. Wow. And that is Vicki. Y'all go Yeah, Vicki Shaw is probably one of the funniest women I know, have been the thrilled to work with her on several occasions, we have so much in common from our Baptist background, that just sitting in comparing notes with her as a screen, but to my to my women friends who are out there listening and to my guy, friends, if you have the chance to see Vicki Shaw to I'm gonna give her a big old plug, because the woman is just hilarious, and probably one of the nicest woman I've ever met. And she's she does, she's done a lot of work and mainline comedy clubs as well. And then there's me coming to us trying to invade their space.

34:50

35:38

The more the better. You know, there's, there's, it's never just the territory of one person. No, that's true, you know, because there's, there's different kinds of comedy. As as this community grows, yeah, when, when you're in a very small town, there may be one gay bar, and everybody goes to it. And then you know, the larger the community gets, the more you diversify. And that's a good thing. It's a very good, that's a very good thing. Because well, and plus, having lived in Dallas, as long as I did, and having performed there as long as I did, I'm very fool notion that there are people in Dallas that thought about me that and she ever write new material. Just as I'm sure that there are people in Houston will say the same thing about the people that they've seen on a frequent basis. It does not negate any of our abilities or our talents, it is nice to have diversity. And as soon as you do go out there and write new material, you're gonna get some coin out, and the audience is gonna come up to you after the show and say, Well, you know, you real funny, but you didn't do that joke about so and so. And I brought my friend here that will you just can't please.

36:50

You're kidding. You do not get, oh,

36:53

I'm not making that up. That's why I like to stay on the road as much as I do. Because you can do the same show in 50 different cities, and nobody's gonna know the difference.

37:05

Unless you make a CD of it.

37:06

Well, and you know what, somebody came up to me tonight and said, Wow, do you have a CD? I have several reasons why I've not made a CD and a lot of people have and I think it's great. But my attitude is if they can buy me on a CD, they ain't coming out to see me live truly needs

37:20

the money.

37:22

If they can get the man for free. Why do they need the cat? Well, you know, and then if, if I if I go do a show, and it's mostly the stuff off the CD, then they're gonna get Milan Ronnie Hearn thing. Not very. Leave it to a queen in the gay community to get snippy on you. Oh, yes. Oh, yeah. That's a hard set, you know, and I get that like they're a CPA and I'm not gonna go up to their office and go, don't you ever balance your Ledger's? A different way? That is so boring. You know? This is my job. I don't come to the McDonald's and make fun of the way you make chocolate shakes. Now get off my stage. Okay.

37:27

38:10

Just as you are turning on, we have got to turn you off. That's fine.

38:15

Well, I have a few more plugs.

38:17

I know you do.

38:18

Bear auctions coming up in August, October, bear auctions coming up in October. Yes at Nighthawks. Consult your local gay rag and we'll figure out what it is. You know when it is. I think it's October 10. October 10. We're going to auction off men like me. Oh,

38:36

I don't get much of a quarter.

38:39

I'll take it. That's why what's happened Good girl. And I want to thank Jim Roberts because he has definitely so much to towards this anniversary towards bringing Paul down and he's been a real support to the bears. Good man. And I really, really want to make sure that you all got to Nighthawks and then make Jim happy that he's nice to us.

39:03

And real quick to the Houston area bears triad for putting this on and the committee the other members that helped put the fourth anniversary party very well, without their help. We couldn't look this good tonight. It was very well it was very successful.

39:15

And being the press queen that I am my ex goes to the staff and editors of twit magazine, Sean Parker and Brian Oh gave me a really lovely write up in twit this week and I'm very thrilled that they did that thank you guys very much.

39:31

And Carolyn Roberts you're always in are always 39:35

so there you have it. This is the end of the comedy section.

39:38

So you guys can get boring again. Like that's gonna happen. Thank you.

39:44

That's the nicest thing you've said to me ever.

39:47

We'll cherish and how to you know, it's not gonna happen again for a skinny

39:50

man. You're real cute.

39:54

Well, you know, that's that's the one good thing about AIDS. Let me tell you about because I've spent My whole life on a diet just so I could stay under 160 pounds, right? And 40:07

now I'm on a diet to keep you above that.

40:09

I eat everything I want to stay above 140

40:15

It's kind of Murphy's Law. Thanks, 40:17

honey. I have blue belt every night.

40:20

I hate you. I really do.

40:24

I want you to tell Bluebell if you want that tornado job that you do. No, no.

40:31

Well, actually

40:34
