Hey, and people moving on up. Fabulous. Fabulous. And some good news for chuck out there. Hey, that's right, Chuck. There's finally somebody that called in for you specifically, they want to talk to you, big guy. So call back in and we'll give you that number. And God would have been like, we'd start out talking about Michael Jackson. And the next thing, you know, we're hooking people up, and, hey, I even have a phone number. So what the heck kind of grieving. And you know, what we were gonna do tonight that we didn't get to do was we were gonna play that interview I did with Michael M. And we didn't get around to it because we just got so busy and so many phone calls, and I didn't want to cut anybody off. So we're gonna play that Michael M interview. I believe in two weeks. We'll play that if we have time. We'll play it next week. And if not, we'll play it the week after chances are it'll be two weeks. But we are Rob and I are gonna head out. And leave you in the capable hands of Jimmy Carper with the Q Q haha, queer music zone, as that all tries to come out. But I want to leave you with a little Michael am His most popular song and so you'll know who we're talking about in a couple of weeks. It's a great fun interview. He's a lot of fun big coin, who? Who just camps and carries on. Thank you to Roy out on the telephones who has been bribing every one of y'all to mention his name on the air and how wonderful he is when you get in. Don't think that we didn't wise up to that when after about the fourth call Roy. But Groys the greatest and we appreciate it. And tonight and phones had been so busy that Roy hasn't actually been in the kitchen cooking all night, which is what he usually does. He's in there cooking stuff all night long. I mean, it's like a damn cooking show in there. But and Dr. Rob the love doctor for coming down. Hoo hoo. I tell you what, it

Hello, Houston. It's Jimmy with the QMZ the queer music zone, heard just about every week on after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and KEOS College Station Bryan, and I'm gonna that's gonna be kind of punkish tonight, because I want to start out with a group that I first played three years ago, I went to San Francisco and came back with a tape of a brand new group. In fact, people in San Francisco didn't even know about this group and I started playing it on after hours and y'all called in saying hey play more of it. Because we really liked this group. The name of the group was pansy division. And since then they've had a couple of CDs the last one being called pile up. And I really liked it because it's it's a lot of there are 40 fives that are and besides that have been put together really good stuff and I want to play a couple of those and I want to start out by one of my favorite all time pansy division songs. No, it's not fair in the black leather jacket. Although I think that may be the first one we ever played by pansy division. This is called anthem. It's one we had to take in into the production room because we had to cut out a couple of words. Anthem by pansy division and then we'll be bringing you selections from boy girl a local group where I have a tape so hey, this may be the new pansy division. We'll let you decide right now. Pansy deficient anthem. Yeah, pansy division with anthem. And now I went to a fundraiser at Fitzgerald's a couple of weeks ago it was a fundraiser for the gay and lesbian switchboard where a bunch of bands got together just to devote their talents and it started out with a male and a female with acoustic guitars sitting on the stage and doing doing a song I really like when they sing together but they They've got a, the group was called boy girl and they've got a couple of couple of songs they they do by themselves and then a couple of songs they do together. And this one, really, really hit home because it kind of reminded me about what it's growing, what it's like growing up to be gay and having those questions from all those outsiders and the reactions. And the real reason that you get some of the reactions you do. This is baggage. Oh, yeah. Oh, yeah. That was tribe eight. Oversized ego from the out punk dance party compilation, you can pick that up at a sound exchange or run Westheimer. And before that pansy division with a cover tune. Real Man, Joe Jackson thing. And as promised, I got a couple of more from boy girl, and also a cool scene called hissy fit. Yes, it's very good. Actually. It's going to read if I have time later on. I'll read a little bit. If not, maybe I'll save that for next week. But this is the song that I first heard them do. And I want to give you an address. Let's see here. Few write to Katie. Where's that address? tu tu tu tu tu tu tu do a Katie. Katie do got the UGA T at 14119 Meyers Bill Houston, Texas 77049 Send her a buck and she'll send you a zine about about four bucks. And you can get the tape that you're hearing tonight on after hours. And the QM z the queer music zone where we play music by openly gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered artist right here on after hours. Now, this is the song that I first heard and it just blew me away hearing it live. It was really, really good. In fact, I saw one of the owners of Fitzgerald's like, halfway through the song say, Hey, who are these people? I want to get them to open up for some other people. So I hope this will help them along. This is punk rock boy. Yeah, boy girl with great cover of steppingstone and before that punk rock boy, you can see them around town, go to their shows. And let's see, Katie, I do want to tell you that the CWA only straight girls wear dresses is something that we've got here in the studio that we ran through the production room, and that's on kill rock stars, and it's a compilation of stars kill rock. And you had asked about that. Now you are still listening to the QM z the queer music zone heard just about every week on after hours queer radio with attitude and we're gonna go to something new on this way out compilation. It's something that we played last week it's a group called Special head all women group and it's called motorcycle but boy yeah special head with motorcycle but and Katie because you asked about CWA, and we happen to have that only straight girls wear dresses off of that kill rock stars compilation plate for you now. Oh, yeah, that was the end of the QMZ and it's just about the end of after hours for this edition. I'm Jimmy Carper. And I'll be with you next week with Sarah dipalma. For the transgender show, and the week after that will be Howard McHale with Stacey the leather lesbian. And the fourth Saturday is is going to be me again with bisexual group. Little Something for everybody here in the queer community. Stay tuned for the carbon dating game with Eric he is in the house and ready to go so until next week, everybody have a great weekend
