 01:58
Yeah, the third David didn't show up tonight. Yeah, really? So

 02:05
.....

We are back at this time for them. We've short on the MBB letters. We got one from our dedicated. Smiley. Smiley

 02:44
Smiley.

 Roy McCarthy 02:46
We smiles. We

 Chris Harrison 02:48
want to say hi to all of our MBBS out there who are listening in smiley mulatto, David, David green eyed devil blue eyed devil Tigger. John,

03:01 take the mystery from Tigger.

03:03

What's up digger?

Chris Harrison 03:05

So I think we got a letter from last week. Wilson dounce.

Roy McCarthy 03:11

No more MBB. He's, he's

Chris Harrison 03:12

a wacko, wacko, wacko. He's in a worse state of hell than in being in prison. He's in Waco, Texas. Waco, who were in coming out.

Roy McCarthy 03:19

03:24

Have you been listening to that? David, what's his name again?

Chris Harrison 03:30

Hey, he

Roy McCarthy 03:31

wasn't the Messiah. No. Oh, darn. I wish he was though. Because I have the great story of saying, you know, I met the Messiah.

Chris Harrison 03:35

And it was at Chelsea street pub at Richland mall in Waco, Texas.

03:46

And you gave him watch.

Chris Harrison 03:47

I didn't. I saw him across the room. I was busy eating my fish and chips and drinking that liter size Texas tea.

03:54

You read something fishy. All right.

Chris Harrison 03:59

Smiley Hoh. We're gonna pass on the information. Heather about the music stuff to JD go over here to the backside. Yeah.

04:08

04:10

Doesn't everybody want to be on the backside?

Chris Harrison 04:15

Yeah. Oh, no, we 04:18

definitely sounds like somebody's on his backside. Oh, we definitely

Chris Harrison 04:21

we can definitely hit read the Stacy version of Stacy's portion there. We'll pass that on to Stacy when when when he when he shows up I here's the one who was last week was in a device called the humbler and was spanked on?

04:39

And of course smiley makes mention of this and that letter does do Yes. Yes. Yeah, smiley, you have a tendency to take notes. While this show was on very long notes. You've made detailed notes. You make no bones about it. You are open and honest and upfront about it. We're certainly glad to hear that somebody out there is paying attention And because

Chris Harrison 05:00

certainly no one here at the studio is why are you complaining about my not listening again?

05:03

Chris Harrison 05:06

Oh, nobody listens. If you're in the lobby, it doesn't. Couple of articles he put in here from The Good News Radio broadcast, which is from The Good News magazine here, which I'm assuming is going to be one of those Christian conservative muckety. Rock papers.

05:25

certainly sounds like the title of one of those things, wouldn't it? Yeah, it's

Chris Harrison 05:29

you ucg dot O R G, Uniform

05:34

Code of Military Justice, no, G,

Chris Harrison 05:37

not j, the gay rights battle? Is there a logical and biblically supported solution to the gay rights battle? Of course there is. And one of the questions he asks, and that is why Alaskan heroes they talk about. They have a quote from one of the scripture readings. And they talk about a

New Revised Standard Version. And so he asked, What do you mean, reinterpreted the Bible, what I mean, the Bible is originally written in Greek, translated to Latin, and then the Great Queen, King James, decide decided, you know, let's make a version of the Bible in English. So actually, I think there's a step in there that was missed for the translation. Hebrew was originally done in Hebrew, then it went to Greek, Hebrew to Greek, Latin, okay, then English, and then was translated into English. And unfortunately, when you translate, you lose, that will take you lose something in the translation, literally. And so when certain words come through, they have different meanings. And there's different depending on who created the translation, explains on what interpretation it is, well, there's

06:17

Chris Harrison 06:30

Roy McCarthy 06:49

also

06:50

in King James didn't actually do the translation, he commissioned someone else to do it. And so they translated it into something that they thought the king wanted to hear. And also, you have to understand two words, change in meaning, during a present period, depending upon which geographical location you are at. That's if you are, if you are in one part of the United States, and you ask for a soda, the clerk at the car would hand you a box of Arm and Hammer. And another part you have to ask for a pump.

Roy McCarthy 07:00

Chris Harrison 07:26

There's those different dialects plus the fact you know, in the ancient Greek language, there was 15 words 15 or 16, there was at least 15 words, that you take the English translation of it, and it's love. But their language was, you know, there's a difference when I love this person, and I love pizza. They use different words. And so unfortunately, you translate it to English, it still comes out as love. So you know, so who's going to carry a thesaurus around with them? Yeah, not me. And

07:51

 Chris Harrison 07:56

that's part of where, you know, a problem was, usually don't hear the differentiation about which biblical reading your which, who wrote the interpretation, you're listening you're reading from, unless it is a conservative Christian organization, they want to make sure you know which one they're doing.

 Roy McCarthy 08:12

And you know, the funny thing is, like, in your hermetic speaking countries, there's not a King James Bible. It's, I believe it's the Philips

 08:22

Crusher, which the gas station.

 Roy McCarthy 08:26

But I think, I think it's called Bible, which is another European Germanic language, Bible, and it's completely different than King James. And being raised as a Catholic, the Latin Vulgate, which we're not supposed to have or read, but I had, you're talking about the missing books of the Bible again, right?

 08:46

 Roy McCarthy 08:49

Yeah, we, you know, it's different than the King James, there's parts of the Bible, there are other gospels and scripture readings that, you know, weren't included.

 Chris Harrison 08:53

 08:57

that for a fact is they omitted those because the king at the time he commissioned the translation of that Bible decided that he didn't want those in, because they shared different family values, then what he thought a good Christian should have my

 Roy McCarthy 09:17

I also want to know whether it was King James or the Roman Pontiff, or whoever, those who chose the scholars who chose those scholars and why and why were other scholars rejected. Why were certain books accepted and others rejected? I mean, yeah, I just have a lot of questions away. This whole organizational thing came in because a lot of it smacks of money comes in, and very, very little, if any of our spiritual nature.

 09:55

The King James Bible, as we read it now is a book which was is designed to be used for the control of man by his fellow man. Right those people in power, which is why the church and the state were not separate in the beginning.

 Chris Harrison 10:14

And you also have to look, I mean, they were trying to make a message out of it, and pulling out what parts they, they thought would be the more covered most of the bases. So, you know, the side stories of, there's supposed to be another prophet who did some more miracles to what Jesus did. But there's no mention of him in the Bible. No, right who I mean, did about the same stuff. I mean, resurrected, and all sorts of other things that are attributed to him, but he doesn't get dementia. So it's one of those things that he got kicked to the curb, basically. Yeah, literally.

 10:47

 Chris Harrison 10:48

I mean, you know, let's face it, the Gospels are not gospel, there are there are additions and revisions to it. And depending on who you're looking at, from what philosophy. That's why there's the big debate of like the 10 commandments. They're saying that it doesn't say the original 10 commandments does not say, Thou shalt not kill, it's Thou shalt not commit murder. And there's a difference between there.

 Roy McCarthy 11:08

And it was a religion that got themselves together all over that thou shalt not kill.

 Chris Harrison 11:15

Yeah, so another article he has in here is call it's from Newsweek, the wheeling Grace effect, oh, boy. And what it is, they're talking about the fact of, you know, the acceptance of will willing grace is leading to, like the Massachusetts gay marriage, and a lot of the other gay friendly stuff that's going around is the fact that you know, because of the acceptance of Will and Grace, how that has done this ripple effect to other things in society. So, I mean, yeah, wheeling, Grace was was groundbreaking and all that. But still, even there's a lot of people in our community that, you know, thought wheeling, Grace was pretty tame. Yes. Didn't really show.

R

Roy McCarthy 12:04

It was. I guess I'm politically incorrect, because I really don't really like Will and Grace unless it Scott wrote it, except for the episode that had voted Glenda on there. Other than that, I'm really I'm more of a governing Greg and I identify more with the Dumars mom, or is that Greg?

C

Chris Harrison 12:25

The rich one or the hippie?

R

Roy McCarthy 12:26

The rich one.

C

Chris Harrison 12:27

That's Greg's mom.

12:28

Yeah. How do you resemble her? Rich and female?

R

Roy McCarthy 12:32

Because no, no, no. She wacky?

12:34

Well, you're wacky, that's for sure.

R

Roy McCarthy 12:36

There we go. That's why I like her.

12:37

I like good. Don was mom.

12:41

Yeah, but he is pregnant at the age of 50. Something Yeah.

Chris Harrison 12:44

Well, the fact is, you're we've got the big things that represent what our community is on television is willing grace and queers folk, and neither one of them are really that accurate. I mean, there's a lot of stereotypes. There's a lot of extreme.

Roy McCarthy 13:04

There's a very now there's a another reality based one, or so they're trying to portray it as that was the torture the whole sexual torture of the Iraqi prisoners. It's not torture or rapists, homosexual. You know, I'm saying, like, when the woman was leading the guy around, it was the sexual law. Yeah, I made the comment that, you know, when I first saw those pictures, if no one would have told me that, that was from Iraq there, whatever thought, you know, why is the mainstream news showing this great new gay porn video that's coming out? But, you know, it was like that, but no, it's not like that. But the fact is, you know, our society is the way it's changed over the years, you know, there is a little more acceptance for our community in some aspects, but you know, willing grace is all great, but, you know, we still don't have the rights to you know, work in many places without getting fired. Housing, we don't have any Prevention's on that. And there's still people getting help. So that was a lead pipe. Yes.

Chris Harrison 13:27

Roy McCarthy 14:12

Which I feel is more important than a document saying that you're entitled to get a divorce in an article from what see what paper I don't know which paper this is, I'm gonna guess it's the bulk I should say on this no more. Now,

Chris Harrison 14:22

14:33

Chris Harrison 14:35

the way it was cut just doesn't have that information. I'm going to the funny papers. It's the way the way it is or this isn't at the top here. I'm gonna take a shot in the dark and I'm saying it's Baltimore. Because they've got the they've got the copyright at the bottom of this. Talking about sex ed funding paying for what parents want kids to know. And it's talking about you know, a The size education that conservatives don't want to teach. And if you do teach it, you know, it's abstinence first. I mean, you're talking about this on Gigi show about how you know, schools aren't talking about sex education and all these things, but just don't do it. Yeah, they're talking six avoidance. Yeah.

15:15

15:17

I never had sex ed in school. Okay,

Roy McCarthy 15:19

I remember in school and our science class. Back in the ancient days, of course, buggy. You know, when I went to high school, when we used to have to walk got a six mile waist deep and snow backwards.

15:34

We get we get the point when they were still trying to put the cart before the horse. Like they had schools back then anyways, we're taught abstinence, and yet every other girl was pregnant. I'm sorry, but that abstinence program just doesn't work. They didn't have to teach me I just turned around. I have absent us for that happened.

Roy McCarthy 15:38

15:50

 Chris Harrison 15:57

Well, you know, there's there's a movie coming out about that called saved. And Joe Scarborough on his show on MSNBC was talking about, well, is the movie saved? Is it just Christian bashing? Because, you know, they're talking about, here's this Christian High School, and you've got a gay character going to a Christian high school, when you've got all the girls get knocked up going down to Planned Parenthood. And so there was accusing them of being Christian bashing, because, you know, they decided to do a little bit of realism and show people what it's all about the fact that you know, teenagers are not the sexually restrained little boys and girls that Leave It to Beaver society.

 16:43

Like it's, you know, World War Two, maybe insane. It was Nazi bashing or something to I'm sure. Yeah,

 Chris Harrison 16:48

I met. They showed me how 16:51

if they show the Nazis in a bad light or something like that, you know, I mean, you know, if somebody's supporting their cause, and say, Oh, they're just Nazi bashing? Well, you know, the facts are facts. You know, just, you know, because I'd read that, you know, and, you know, if you're talking about something that actually happens. Yeah, that's, I mean, yeah, I don't know, they all have different opinions on anything. Anyway. So they've

 17:16

already done that 17:18

list. Yeah.

 17:22

There were people who are out there who were advocates of the Nazis point of view, as it related to what Schindler did. And, you know, well, like the point I made when, when I watched, you know, it was over at my parents house. And my, my family's heritage is Polish. So my father was like, you know, this is our heritage. This is our, where we come from, what do you think about it, and I, you know, I probably considered anti semitic for what I said, but I said, you know, two thirds of the people killed in the Holocaust were Jewish, you know, 1/3 was not, so I go, you know, everyone on this shirt, everyone on that movie is wearing a gold star, got one out of three should be wearing a triangle, whether it be pink, black, green, red, purple, whatever color they they were assigned. So, you know, there's a difference in how you look at it. And everyone has different points of views. And I mean, that's, that's why, like I said, there's different versions of the Bible out there. Different ways of looking at different at how philosophy is, there's a couple articles in here about schoolyard bullies. As well, talking about, you know, we've talked about that a lot is the fact that there's a lot of kids that are, it's still acceptable for you to to yell faggot at somebody. And, you know, you can't run down the halls and you scream the N word. But you can still call someone a faggot, you can still call someone a dyke. And that's perfectly acceptable.

 Chris Harrison 17:34

.. ... ..

R

Roy McCarthy 18:56

Or since he, pansy, and

o

18:58

everything else, or any of the other derivative. Yeah.

C

Chris Harrison 19:02

And, you know, unfortunately, with a lot of these situations, you know, it's the, they try and they figure, the easiest way to take care of it is, you know, let's go after the person who is the target. There's a story this week about a girl who has, oh, I forget what she has. She has some sort of developmental, physical, developmental problem. And, you know, somebody at school, burnt her hair, set her hair on fire, they bullied her, pushed her down and all that. So the way the school took care of it was they sent her home for the rest of the year.

o

Of course, because we all know that if she had been normal, then none of this would have happened anyway,

C

Chris Harrison 19:46

also, and in fact, one of the guys pulled a knife on her and still, he didn't. He didn't get thrown out of school. Nothing happened to him. But you know, because She had the death disability. And, you know, it's easier to get rid of one person than it is for a bunch of others. Yeah, that makes about as much sense as getting a mugging victim and putting them in prison for five years so that all the criminals that are out on the streets can't get access to them. You know, I'll tell you some, I don't know how long. I mean, it's taken hundreds of years in this country, for women to get a fair shake after they've been raped for them to get a fair shake in our judicial system. And even now, today, it's very, I mean, used to be, well, what did you do to provoke this? You, you obviously entice the guy, it is your fault. You were dressed wrong, you were in the wrong place. And the same thing, gave him

20:07

Roy McCarthy 20:16

20:44

the Come on, and then you Yeah, and

Roy McCarthy 20:48

the same thing with with gay guys who are more feminine, right? Or Nellie and lesbians who might be more dire than what have you? You know, I'm saying, Well, what did you do? Obviously, it was your fault. Yeah. It's your fault that you got stuffed in that locker. It's your fault that you got your head, you know, going to go head to head in the toilet, getting it flushed and all this.

21:17

It's all blaming the victim is basically one of the Kobe Bryant case right now. They're trying to get DNA samples from the woman's from some of the woman's friends because they figure it out. She fooled around with a lot of guys that weekend, and we're going to try and find their DNA, enter. I mean, it's a standard procedure with a lot of these things.

Chris Harrison 21:20

Roy McCarthy 21:37

But if you're a famous black rock star, you're obviously guilty

21:43

basketball player in this case, but Well,

 Roy McCarthy 21:45
no, no, if you're, if you're famous rock star, black rock star, like our Kelly, like Michael Jackson, obviously, because you come across maybe a little bit weird. Obviously you're a pedophile. And I don't know how many attorneys have gone through this with with Michael I guess a lot. So my guess Yeah. And every one of them get shut down. And now this is a criminal case is getting ready to get started in September. And they're trying to make him look like a like a dirty rotten scoundrel dog and I really believe it's going to be your shot down as well. Yeah.

 Chris Harrison 22:22
It's it's I mean, it's obvious as the nose that used to be on his face.

 Roy McCarthy 22:26
Oh, Chris,

 22:28
be nice. Leave his surgeons out of this place.

 Roy McCarthy 22:31
You know, surgeons do enough cutting up on their own we don't hear. Oh, that's bad. Yeah,

 Chris Harrison 22:37
we've gone from bad to worse here.

 Roy McCarthy 22:39
Yeah, but we we have kept it clean tonight, folks. Yeah. That is a that is a milestone in and of itself.

 22:49
Well, yeah. But I was just gonna say it. Like I've watched Michael Jackson over the years. And I'm just wondering when he's finally gonna come out as transgender.

 Chris Harrison 22:50

Chris Harrison 22:59

Well, when they showed his mug shot, I said, you know, you know, I see a couple of things wrong with that. First of all, it says he's black and first and second of all, it says he's a male.

23:09

There's one picture, I don't know if it was on website or whatever. I seen a thing one time and they had various pictures of Michael Jackson throughout his life compared to other pictures. And one of them they had a picture of him when he was in the courtroom where he hadn't shaved in like three or four days. Yeah, it was compared one of the pictures from you know, one of the female chimpanzees from like, the age or something like that. I was looking I was like, Oh my God, that's it looks like oh, oh, it was horrible. Okay, let's

Roy McCarthy 23:39

Hey, need he doesn't need a new shirt. Well, good anymore. Yeah,

23:43

I totally dislike his latest mugshot that was put out

23:47

Yeah, that was kind of well I've heard was all the surgery and everything like that they're gonna have him star the next $6 million. Man remake.

23:58

Nice. Yeah, we'll keep the bionics from overheating. We're gonna add and rather than the original plastic, I rather have the original.

24:04

Chris Harrison 24:09

Okay, what I'm gonna do is, you know, it's the last Saturday of one month. Next Next week we start with June and that is Pride Month.

Roy McCarthy 24:25

And I gotta I gotta give a shout out and pride. I will be I will be severely beaten to a pulp if I don't get a

 Chris Harrison 24:35

mic then. Yeah, we're cut I'm cutting. If someone's if it has the possibility of physical harm to Roy, I've got to turn off all I know everyone else understands.

 Roy McCarthy 24:45

Okay, no, this was they don't forget folks. Houston gay and lesbian Political Caucus meeting at that high rise right next to Kroger's on Montrose Boulevard.

 24:59

The burners Got Baris. Yeah, we're the burgers

 Roy McCarthy 25:01

guy bar is where

 Chris Harrison 25:04

the center where the community center is, it's gonna be held in the community center, right? That's 3400, Montreux suite. 207. Right.

 Roy McCarthy 25:14

And it's at seven o'clock. So be there but

 Chris Harrison 25:19

won't be square. You know, if you want to send your promos, someone who can read them, you can send us an email, after hours at KPFK

 Roy McCarthy 25:27

Dirty, dirty pigeons was gonna say, Oh, God.

 Chris Harrison 25:33

I'm glad you added the extra part to that because as soon as you said, I'll take dirty pictures

I'm glad you added the extra part to that because as soon as you said, I'll take dirty pictures. My mind went off it just you know, you're gonna know. I don't want to see that. So I want to see that. Put that thing away.

25:42

Chris Harrison 25:50
