Okay, you've been listening to Tracy Chapman, all that you have is your soul. And Patti LaBelle, you are my friend.

00:08

Nice songs mellow out here at three o'clock in the morning. I have a couple of announcements here. I'd like to just kind of run through. We had Ron sparks on several weeks ago. And he and another gentleman were here talking about a new youth group and found that they were just kind of getting started with at that time called smile. That's S M yal. And for the life of me, I can't remember specifically what that stands for. But not the point is I have a nice new youth group here in kind of in conjunction with the other youth group hatch. We don't want to leave them out. We just don't have any announcements for him tonight. But Ron called earlier and said that they have a new meeting place. It's at the intercare Hospital at 7601. Fannin street that's right across from the Women's Hospital. They're going to be meeting there on Tuesdays at 6:30pm. For the time being, I think that they it's going to their day is going to change to Saturday before too long. But for right now they're meeting on Tuesdays at 630. Anybody who wants to attend one of those meetings is certainly welcome to go. And if they just want some more information, they can call Ron at 5237242 to get any information before the meeting that they might be interested in. And, excuse me, Heartstrings is having a national tour of an event in three acts by heartstrings, the AIDS Memorial Quilt in you. It's announced the 1992 Houston performance date finally, Heartstrings, which raise more than $700,000 in cash and then in contributions and in kind contributions during it stop in Houston in 1990 will be presented Wednesday, April 29 In Jones Hall at 615 Louisiana. Now I think April 29. That's plenty of time for people to get that on their calendar. That's that's a pretty good deal and a nice little fundraiser. The Houston production represents an unprecedented collaboration of the two national AIDS organizations Diffa. That's the design industries Foundation for AIDS. And the names Project Foundation, the Houston joint effort has announced a fundraising goal $1 million. The national goal for the 35 city tour is $5 million. So maybe we can kind of dig into our pockets and put April 29 on our calendar for that go to Dollar. You get $1 I got $1 by April 29, I should be able to raise one I work for the state. So I think that'd be kind of interesting to go to. And since we've been talking about voting and voting, registration and all that kind of fun stuff. State Representative Glen Maxey will speak at 2pm on Sunday, February 16, that the monthly meeting of prime timers in Houston. That's a social organization for mature gay and bisexual males and their friends. The Open Meeting will be held in room 15 of the Montrose Counseling Center at 900. Love it, suite 201. And since next week, I do believe I've heard rumors about this course I'm not one for hearts and flowers, mostly because I don't get them. But Valentine's is coming up. Right? That's right. That's what I keep hearing these nasty rumors. I think it's next Friday, Friday. Let's see she's got it on her calendar, quit sneering over there.

03:45

It's my anniversary, I better have it on my calendar, put it on your calendar in red and blue. But celebrating relationships, which is kind of one of the things that's sort of been hit on tonight with your gentlemen that were here earlier or recorded earlier. But celebrating relationships will be the theme of the special liturgy planned for Saturday, February 15. With dignity and according to the dignity President Bob. Oh, dear. You want me to say this down to? I'm gonna I'm sorry, Bob. I'm gonna apologize in advance. Her Gunda rose I'm not I have no idea how to pronounce this gentleman's name. But according to the president of dignity, the weekend after Valentine's will be an especially good time to reflect on the relationships that give our lives meaning including our bonds with God, family, friends and lovers. The liturgy begins at 7:30pm and 1505, Nevada, and a social hour will follow. So that should be nice for some of the Valentine's lovers who want to do some special things. And let's see what else is going on the Montrose Counseling Center they've always got good things going on. Oh, yeah, well, they've been apparently they've got some kind of a grant here how wonderful Montrose Counseling Center has been awarded a grant to provide in home counseling for homebound people with AIDS in Harris County. And then wonderful. All counseling sessions are provided by a qualified professional therapy therapist. And for information on that do you can call Jim Everett, the HIV AIDS program coordinator at area code 713-529-0037. So I that's wonderful, because so many people are in need of that and don't have any access to it. So I think that's going to be a real beneficial program for them. And an exhibition of black and white photography by Houston artists, Frank parsley, is scheduled to open Friday, September where have I been February the seventh. So that opened just a couple of days ago, at 7pm. And the venture ends 1/3 of the proceeds from the exhibit will be donated to the Colt 45 General charities fund and memory of the artists friends, Rick Kellogg of Houston and Ed Thurman of New Orleans. It doesn't say here how long it's going to be going on. So hopefully we haven't missed that. I would think it probably be going on for at least the whole weekend. So maybe people can catch it tomorrow. Maybe? I hope so. I'm always, always into to any kind of art form so that I can go look at especially female nudes. Oh, wait a minute, I'm sleeping. I was confused. And baring I think that's a familiar name to you. Yes. Has something going on that that sounds like it's going to be really exciting. The problem is I'm going to stutter my way through it. It's one of those things that I don't do well is read and that the other thing I don't do well is pronounce words and I'm not familiar with Asian words. Cajun words. Yeah. Where is Bruce when we need it? Yeah, I know. He's partying in San Antonio. When Well, this is the soiree aubergine. Sounds good to me. It's a three day event event, three day event to benefit the Baron Community Services Foundation. And it'll take place February 21 through the 23rd. At Gentry 2303 Richmond. The benefit consists of three parts our reception and silent auction on Friday, February 21. The fe de rue, I hope gumbo tastes off and buffet and crepe dilla crepe benefit show on Saturday, February 23, and a private party titled last soiree grand grand with a benefit raffle on Sunday, February 23. And the idea of the South Louisiana themed benefit show grew out of the offhand cocktail conversation, okay. According to the organizers, and individuals involved in putting together the events are all volunteers, and the three day schedule of fundraisers will help supplied funds to BCFs programs including the bearing care center bearing dental clinic and emergency emergency financial assistance for PW A's Friday schedule begins at 6pm and includes a reception and Cajun buffet from six to 9pm, and the silent auction and until 11pm. And on Saturday, the gumbo tastes office from one from 3pm to 6pm. And the show starts at 9pm. Both Fridays and Saturdays events are open to the general public admission to Sunday soiree grant from 3pm to 9pm, is by invitation or with a $5 contribution. So all of these events are going to be held at gentry and that address was 2303. Richmond. And now I have to save $1 For April and $5. For boy, I better get on the stick here. So I was lucky. But that takes care of a few things that are going on in the community here. What have you got over there that that sounds exciting to you?

Well, first I'd like to say thank you, Trey. That was a lovely poem. We had a caller a little while ago who called up and said he'd written a poem for the voices on the radio that inspired him. And I'm glad to know that that we are reaching somebody and that it feels good. Trey promises to send us a copy of the poem and when we get it, I will be glad to read it on the air and share it with all those who are listening. The things I want to talk about well first, I want to start in Beaumont, I know you people in Beaumont can hear us I've been there and I've heard us. The congregation of Spindletop Unitarian Church is forming a care team to assist PW A's in the Golden Triangle caregivers have to In an eight hour training program to learn about AIDS in general, and how the crisis is being met locally, seminars are planned by the triangle aids network. For more information call 409-832-2437 or 7242437. Then we move down into the local area. The Gay Men's network will meet at bearing Memorial United Methodist Church at 1440. Harold seven to nine. To discuss why is there separatism in the gay and lesbian community? This is a free thing for more information, you can call 5225957. They do not give a date. So you have to call that number to find out when there's a planning meeting for the Texas and Louisiana chapters of the national lesbian and gay journalist. And the journalist Association and it'd be held tomorrow. No, that's today. That's old news. And Juan Palomo was there. Let's see. Let's try another one. No, no. Okay, here's one he used to wrestling club. Oh boy. Works out the Metropolitan milk tea Service Center West grey every Saturday, every other Saturday between one and four. So you still have the 22nd and the seventh coming up for information call 5225994. This is after hours. 90.1k KPFT Pacifica radio in Houston. I want to talk to the Q Patrol tonight any you guys and you people out there listening. We got a call this evening from a man that had a flat tire in the area. His name was Gary in case you remember him and he thanked you profusely for being there for him and expressed his support for the Q Patrol and we want to make sure that these people know that people are appreciating them. So we're gonna pass this information on as we get it to the Q Patrol. Now the coupon patrol is still looking for volunteers who can serve a four hour shift every month to monitor the streets of Montrose area and alert the authorities to potential danger they also need money for additional radio equipment, T shirts, magnetic signs and printing. Please call Mark gardener at 6455252 or Keith Stewart at 5245110 If you can now listen this is interesting show you love this Valentine's Day by helping the volunteers at the goodness gracious row food Desinger foundation distribute long stem roses to the hospitalized PW A's teams will gather in the morning in the evening to share their special called Kimmy Kimmy K i Mmm I read at Euro tan international at five to 220 100 to volunteer. Another thing about a symphony symphonic band at the Lonestar Symphonic Band is marching in the hood on Mardi Gras parade and Galson with the crew of the Regina Regina February 22. You can too if you rehearse with them on Monday evenings at 730 and MTCR 1990 indicator 5220181. And I want to remind you that there is still a gammas midnight series going on at the River Oaks theater. You still can catch February 14 and 15th, a program called res resident alien. It's a film portrayal of Quentin Crisp, and I've seen it and it's wonderful. So catch yourself up there on the weekends. Let's see. Now we're gonna go to a tape by Harvey Firestein No, not the tape the song. We're gonna go to the song. Which one was that? I'm sorry. I'm unprepared. We're doing Oh, yes. It's Deidre McCall. That's right. It was Deidre McCall. And I think it was when Wrong is Right.

And maybe it's not Hi,

14:36

we're back. So coming up. We're back. And that was exotica as we speak, right? That was a Irati exotica a Soto St. And his lover. Jan asoto is a black gay poet who just put out a book of poetry highlighting 100 black gay poets. So look for it in your local store. I want to remind you again that you need to register to vote before the midnight the 10th. You can pick up registered voter registration cards at Charlie's Inklings Lobos Mary's and other places. Okay.

15:13

Okay. Hi, it's Sean, and I'm gonna play music for you for two hours. But I was worried that all this content in the twit were like somehow encoded to identify gay voters.

15:24

So you mean with like ink or some? Some way?

15:27

You know, some little numerical code like is the one No, no, no, no, no, no, you got him at a Time Magazine? Maybe but give us a break. Here are six o'clock hour on the news next week. We've got every conspiracy, I'm starting to think of AI and so you're saying to it, yeah, do it. Do it. That's your power. That's your that's your power. Get out there and register to vote. There are a couple of last there a couple of last minutes you want to judge here's just for just the thing for you. Heartsong the women's community court course they're very good is is they're having openings for new members in the month of March and they only do this like once a year. I don't think I'm welcomed to join them. They have some very 16:15

15:31

15:38

15:49

16:09

you can join them at rehearsal Monday night seven tonight at the First Unitarian Church on Fannin Are you in? I can't No they can't. You can't if you're interested in joining them. This is a women's group. Thank you so much that I'm going to do a favor

16:31

16:33

four o'clock in the morning on Sunday are not welcome.

16:36

On Monday, the fifth no Monday, the fifth Monday, March 30. Light auditions will be held using only the music rehearse during the previous four rehearsals. Formal verte voice training is not necessarily only the build ability to sing on key Oh, that wife's going 667 to 932. And that's what the Heartsong what are we? This is, after hours a continuing tradition. And we still have 10 minutes of good time. So what are we going to talk about?

17:16

And I've already got my first record on already? Yes. So efficient. This talk about TV Guide. I've been really this is my I heard somebody saying earlier on the other show. What does that last few minutes on the other show? Call up and complain or what is it? That's that's the What's your beef section? What's your beef? Well, this is my what are my beef that the gay cable network is trying to get a listing and TV Guide and TV guy keeps saying no. You don't this and you don't that? Well. They go out the gate cable network and they get all the things that they're supposed to get. And then cable TV guy changes the parameters of what they want to be listed. Well, the article that I have in front of me is talking about some of the shows that are listed American Christian TV and a variety of fundamentalist fundamentalist don't miss it. I'm leaving, I've got to go home and watch anti gay programming service. And the gay cable network is trying to get the TV Guide so there's an address in the front of the TV guy that all you have to do is address your envelope and your your route letter to TV Guide and ask them to why and tell them that you want to see the gay cable network listed in TV Guide. I think that the person you need to send your letter to his name is Anthea A n th da Disney di s n EY at TV Guide. And you can find that address in front of your TV Guide.

18:11

18:50

You're not making the song this is real. This is real. This is real. It's really Richard ready. Sally, Jessy Rafi Oh, and Phil Donahue have like strippers now on every show, no matter what the topic is. We've got to have like one stripper. And we still can't get condom ads on network TV at night. Fox was kind of excited about the idea did like a token one they took one. And except, of course our local Fox affiliate here in Houston thought that was quite at side of the realm of what we'd all enjoy in Houston. And yet nonetheless, what sort of outrageous have you been up to in the last three hours and 55 minutes on this station? I like to ask what kind of people are you?

19:43

I want to remind you something I said to you a couple of shows ago that that the only way to defeat homophobia is to confront it. If you see somebody doing something, say something. Write a note, write a letter, tell them that you're watching. Tell them that you know what's going on and it's not accessible. Do you anymore and leave it anonymously? What is this? Is this the phone? minutes, okay? Make it anonymous. Don't let them know who you are. Don't let them know how many you are. No, no, no, no, this is so everybody out there. Look, look, this phone. Oh, and this is five minutes. I, we three, he's counting it down. All right, we want to talk a minute about I want to put up you know kind of doing a cheers and cheers like in TVGuide here's the cheers the TV Guide got the cheers today we're going to do the cheers here 2020 did a thing on the cracker fighting against the anti gay discrimination at Cracker Barrel. That was considered pretty good. I saw it and I liked the the slant they took. And I liked the way they they interviewed the people who were involved in this, they were examining an issue without a bias in either direction, which was really a new and refreshing, new and refreshing way to handle it. And if you want to if you saw it and you thought it was good stuff, the way to tell people is to write 2020 ABC News and ask to tell them you dress this to the victor, any you f ELD executive producer, and tell him it was good. This is the way we let people know what's acceptable. And what is not. We have power. Sit down, it takes five minutes out of your day, you can do it while you're sitting on the toilet rocking. Right? Take this time over breakfast with your Wheaties or whatever you're doing. Take this time and write a little note, tell people what you think. You can tell the local Klan member at work that you don't like what he's doing there, and you're not gonna stand for anymore, and you're watching him. You can write TV guy and tell him hey, this isn't right. We want this stuff listed. You can write 2020 and say thank you for doing something fair. And just for a change. Take time, right? Take time, register, take the time join the fight. The only way to beat this is to confront it. We we spend a lot of time talking to you here. And at four o'clock. They really give me an open mic to really just let go. And so I do. I've had a great time tonight. It's been lively to say the least. And I appreciate Jim Vaughn here taking care of the boards for us. I don't know what we do without him. It would be awfully dark here without him. It's through a dark and silent. And Judy.

20:13

20:17

20:17

22:49

Thank you very much. I'm sitting over here in silence for five minutes. I don't know what he was afraid I was gonna say. But I am at least turned on now. It couldn't be any worse. Excuse me. Tell me who this was. Again. This is okay. In case you didn't hear that earlier. Sean Canaan Gilson, the world's the world's skinniest news director will be doing his own radio show right here playing music and they don't let me do that like a madman. Not that cinch in ways. You've only been here a few months. It seems to me that you've gained quite a bit of weight. I may say so. It's all in home cooking. He's the boss. He can say whatever he wants. Listen, if you want to catch a great show. This sounds like the one that catches me.

22:57

23:02

23:19

23:31

23:37

23:38

Okay,
