Have you ever been so overwhelmed by a play that it changed your vision of the world or in their speeches by the power of an art exhibit, or seen children's spellbound as they watch their first ballet? Likely none of it would have been possible without grants from the National Endowment for the Arts. But now the arts are under political attack by right wing extremists like Jerry Falwell, Pat Robertson, and Senator Jesse Helms. They fear the power that art has in our lives. They want to control art, they want to control freedom of expression. That's why they're campaigning to restrict the National Endowment for the Arts. But if we allow them to silence the voice of the artist, they have silenced the Voice of America. This is Kathleen Turner. Please join me in fighting back. Call or write to your member of Congress today. urge them to support the National Endowment for the Arts. Let them know that freedom for the arts is freedom for everyone.

And I remember when I first heard about getting high, my so called friends shadow will make me feel better than anything. That was my 12th birthday. Or was it three years ago? seems so long ago. Now on top of stealing from my family for drugs, I've given up my body for it to come of age on the street. I really don't know what's next.

There are many ways you can get high like shooting up and sharing needles, smoking, crack or drinking and all of them can put you at risk of getting the AIDS virus because when you're out there on high, you don't think clearly and you may take foolish risks. Certainly drugs put you at risk. In fact, don't do drugs at all. They can destroy your mind as well as your body. Find out more about our drug use and either related call the National AIDS hotline. One 800 342 AIDS, America responds to AIDS.

Hello. I have appeared in hundreds of Warner Brother cartoons with that squirrely rabbit who always does drag you out whenever I travel. Homophobic troublemakers are always telling me that there's no rooms and no hotels. No available seats in the West Juan's and no cars to rent. It gets downright frustrating. At first I wanted to cry. What's my sexual orientation got to do with my being a good customer. Then I got to gay metal can express card. Now use it everywhere. From crepes and flats to tropical fruits in Honolulu to picking up chicks in Australia might get American Express card does it all get American Express. Don't be Homer without it

This is Teresa Monet. Ladies and gentlemen. Would you please rise for the Mary's national anthem? Thanks, baby.

Buddy Johnston 03:30

Stanley, we need money.

Jimmy Carper 03:32

No, that's not why I did it.

Buddy Johnston 03:34

That's why I did it. That is pretty. This is her new our new album. My romance. Carly Simon.

Jimmy Carper 03:40

Buddy Johnston 03:44

Well, what else is going on?

J Jimmy Carper 03:47

Well, this seems to be since it's July and you know that all saying Christmas in July. Seems that for stone Sue. It's gonna be Christmas in July all month long. Because on the 24th now of July, over at each AES, we're having a Christmas in July party by lady victoria just benefiting the PWA Assistance Fund. lady victoria puts on a lot of benefits. In fact, that's all lady victoria does is benefits. She gives her talent to the community, for the community. And in addition to being the co chair for the parade this year, we can pretty pretty, pretty proud of that drag queen.

B Buddy Johnston 04:35

That's the true a lot of people we can be pretty proud of in our dealings with each other I guess. Sometimes we're not I mean, this young listeners that call me last weekend said why are you depressed? I said Well, it's because I'm by myself. It's because gay men treat each other like crap. It's because we live in a world that's run by a few people who are crazy out of their mind like Jesse Helms. We live in a world where a group like to live crew, the 10, an album out, do you know that album has been out over a year, and all of a sudden, it has gone platinum.

J Jimmy Carper 05:16

So what's the deal?

B Buddy Johnston 05:18

The Florida Legislature has gone out of its mind. And they banned the sale of nasties they want to be. Sorry, it's been out a year, the two on crusade the other day on the radio that hit more so more records in the last couple of weeks.

J Jimmy Carper 05:36

Because when I hear something like that, I get so angry that I want to go out and buy it, even if I don't like it myself just to support it just to support them. That's right. That's why I bought the thing. And boy, I really liked this band in the USA, well, this record is new.

B Buddy Johnston 05:53

It's a CD single and it's available on a 12 inch,

J Jimmy Carper 05:57

which we're just talking to another programmer who who wants to play it on her hand in the

USA. Because it really says what we're about here. I may not like what two Live Crew has to say. But I don't have to go to their concerts. I don't have to buy the records and listen to it if I don't want to have it. But they should be able to say it. The FCC just confirm their 24 hour and decency bands. So we're back in like in the grill in the griddle again. We're running a handful of people run our lives. And what we have to understand is that if we do not support each other, and if we don't register and vote, we're never going to change the world. I mean, I don't think anyone was more excited about the real release of Nelson Mandela than I was. Because we've been talking about Mandela and how his imprisonment was wrong for at least three years, because that's how long our programs been on the air. We started out playing the song I recall that bring him home back in 1987. And it's very exciting. When you see freedom taking hold and South Africa, things are changing in Europe, things are changing dramatically. I mean, yes. And Boris Yeltsin resigned from the Communist Party. I can you imagine that? I saw a news report on CNN the other day a woman was going in, a woman was standing out in front of the Politburo yelling at the members as they were going inside, telling them that the people were sick of communism, and they better do something. Now 10 years ago, she would have been whisked away, yes, five years ago, she probably would have been asked to go home or something. But today, they were showing her on television worldwide, voicing her opinion and you know, things are changing. And if we don't change with them, we're just going to destroy each other.

J

Jimmy Carper 07:47

Sometimes I think people here would rather have communism for this one point in that. They don't realize that a democracy means standing up for your rights, taking care of your own life, being responsible for your own life. And in this way. And the communism way of life doesn't seem to be that way. It's more like the state takes care of people, provides them jobs, it tells them what to do tells them what to think. So when you see a country like Russia, and you see communism slipping away, you kind of sit back and think, are these people ready for democracy?

Buddy Johnston 08:34

They're ready for freedom.

J

Jimmy Carper 08:37

Are they ready for the responsibilities of democracy?

Buddy Johnston 08:39

No, because those who have it like us don't vote and just let people like Jesse Helms run our lives. It's a real scary thing. But there's a lot of scary things going on. One of the scary things that we have to talk about once in a while is AIDS. And recently, RJ, who was one of the most popular DJs at Mary's died, and RJ is kind of special because he won a tour of duty sort of on this program, which he never got. And I don't know how we're gonna make that up to him now, it is largely due to miss. Well, it's a big battle between myself and the Pride Week committee of some years ago as to why that didn't happen. So I don't know what we're going to do to make that RJ one of the things we will do for him now is play a song that we always play. When it comes time to say goodbye to someone. And we've played it quite a bit, so we'll play it this morning for him. He was a wonderful, talented young man who's no longer with us because of something called AIDS and we have a government that doesn't acknowledge that it exists. And I just think that said In fact, if you listen real close, you can hear a part of what happened in San Francisco last year at the AIDS conference. Have you just the follow up unit. How does this work? We have the commander in charge with us. We don't have time for an interview now. Thank you. Okay. You're gonna get here with the barricades, just after the opposite.

10:33

I sympathize with the people that are marching because a lot of the people in the rest of the world are one sided and their way of thinking, since they're already exploiting what we do in private via their federal watchdog groups, that they should acknowledge the fact that everybody in the world has sex, otherwise, we wouldn't be here.

11:01

And it shows two women going down on each other in a highly explicit fashion. Warren is in an obvious state of complete ecstasy. A woman wearing a tank top and a very attractive bracelet with her hand on the other woman's thigh. And the other woman in ecstasy is wearing also nail polish. And well they're going down on each other and next to them is PowerBox

11:32

What's it about him? No, it's about first of all. It's about women and age ruminates.
