SPEAKERS

Speaker 2, Christian Andreson, DJ, Scott Lewis, Jimmy, Speaker 1, Rob Nash, Lisa

 Christian Andreson 00:01

Well, that I just said it already- It was the breadsticks.

 Scott Lewis 00:04

But yes, it was the breadsticks that did it to us later.

 Christian Andreson 00:10

Don't get me started on this, but he's [INAUDIBLE]. And you know, they're so darn homophobic. It's Pasta Fagioli, right? They call it buzzoole or something [INAUDIBLE] don't try to pull one over on me.

 Rob Nash 00:24

Yes, anyone who goes there knows-

 Christian Andreson 00:26

Gay-spacho.

 Rob Nash 00:26

And spot and stop ordering the soup and salad Get A Life buy a real meal.

S Scott Lewis 00:30

Have you eaten the real meals there?

R Rob Nash 00:32

Yes. Well not anymore. It's too fattening. For such skinny girl.

S Scott Lewis 00:37

She's scary. Let's figure this out Now Christian, you have a- you're working on a mini album five tracks. Yeah. The Love Will Keep Us Together.

C Christian Andreson 00:48

Right? I am doing a remake of Captain Anthony Hills classic, [INAUDIBLE].

R Rob Nash 00:53

Thank you so much. It's a it's about somebody remade?

C Christian Andreson 00:57

Isn't it the mother of all remake? It's just gonna be so wonderful.

R Rob Nash 01:01

Is Neal goning to be on the on the keyboards with you. Or?

C Christian Andreson 01:03

I know, actually, actually though. I- uh I got Billy Joel's music director and producer to play keyboards on it. So how you like them apples. I'm moving on up.

R Rob Nash 01:14

It'll have to do well.

C Christian Andreson 01:15

Yeah, well, yeah. I'm impressed. Nobody knows. See, nobody knows that Captain Tenille did a remake of level keeps together? Because Neil Sedaka.

R Rob Nash 01:25

I know my-

C Christian Andreson 01:25

you go-

R Rob Nash 01:26

I know my gay music-

C Christian Andreson 01:27

-scared of you, Mr. 70s.

S Scott Lewis 01:29

So now would what? When? When are we going to see that come out?

R Rob Nash 01:34

Hopefully in the spring, hopefully on a more general basis, but what's gonna go in? We're gonna test market it in certain areas and see where it's gonna go. The best but I'm going to start doing club reviews. Probably. We're hoping to start booking things in March. Yeah, we're I'm going to New Orleans for Mardi Gras.

S Scott Lewis 01:53

Now and this one everybody else which we're getting ready. We're gonna close out and play that. Where can they get that?

C Christian Andreson 01:59

Well, let's see Cactus had it hasn't been. It's good. We're going to do a rerelease. Everybody else was pretty big on national radio and back in 1992 through 93 But we're going to do a rerelease of it and hopefully we'll have it stocked in the stores. Hopefully in March that's what we're shooting for. But Cactus always has been wonderful to stock my stuff. Oh, go to Cactus Records and talk- ask for the manager and tell the manager hey, I want Christian Andres- Christian Andreson's record and then they'll take note about that.

 Rob Nash 02:29

See, I'm glad that you just had a hard time with your last name because I have had the hardest time-

 Christian Andreson 02:33

And you know I get so pissed at people who do not get I've been called Hans Christian Andersen I've been called-

 Rob Nash 02:40

My name is Rob Nash. How hard is that? I get Ron and Rod and Rocco and-

 Christian Andreson 02:45

Doesn't he have a great name though. It's a very memorable.

 Rob Nash 02:48

People [INAUDIBLE] to say [INAUDIBLE] oh yeah, that would be Knob Rash.

 Christian Andreson 02:53

Hey thank you!

 Rob Nash 02:56

People do it to me all the time. They're like Rob Nash. So that's that's yeah, you're the guy and I'm like no, you don't know me. It's just a cool name. Deal with it, buddy.

 Scott Lewis 03:05

Rob Nash, Christain Andreson. Thank you so much for coming down. This is fun at Stages five 2 stage go see it don't miss it. And I will be there for the for the next one. Because-

C Christian Andreson 03:16

Me too. I want my free ticket.

S Scott Lewis 03:18

And Christain Andreson, Everybody Else can we play it for me. Thank you, You're listening to Scott Lewis on After Hours, continuing tradition on 90.1 FM KPFT Houston and 89.1 FM KEOS College Station. I noticed I don't have to say-

J Jimmy 03:48

College Station Brian.

S Scott Lewis 03:49

It doesn't say Brian on that new thing up there. I just read it read your memo. I got my set to

J Jimmy 03:57

She is such a bitch!

S Scott Lewis 03:58

Is garland listening? Garland, I read the memo. I knew what it was going on. Joining me now is DJ and Lisa from HOG. Now, of course, anyone who knows me right now is probably saying, Oh, that's a new group for big girls or something. But it's not as the Houston Outdoor Group. And what got me what turned me on to hog was a woman that I work with, saw in the twit about one of your outings about one of your camping trips, and y'all do like outdoorsy things you go on camping trips, and she's just all excited and running around telling everybody that we all have to go.

L Lisa 04:41

Great.

S Scott Lewis 04:41

She's holding us hostage.

D DJ 04:43

Are you talking about Wendy?

Are you talking about Avery?

 Scott Lewis 04:44

That's her. That's the one.

 DJ 04:45

Tell her she needs to call and sign up for this trip.

 Scott Lewis 04:47

She's holding us all hostage that we have to go. So tell me what the Houston Outdoor Group is and what you do.

 DJ 04:56

Houston outdoor group is a group that likes outdoor activities. As well as some indoor activities like bowling, but we do go camping about once a month, might be a month we don't go and another month we might go to two places. And we have monthly socials, monthly horseback riding. And we've just started having a monthly Saturday morning breakfast that might go twice a month.

 Scott Lewis 05:19

So you're probably doing something almost every week. It sounds like

 DJ 05:22

Sometimes. It's that way in our newsletter, you'll see our calendar almost every week.

 Scott Lewis 05:27

Which I know she don't send to the station. You know, tell me about this thing like y'all do. You're doing this outing in February. Okay, it's a you're going camping, which is interesting, because when I read the thing about it, you'll say like in a in a barracks, some sort of thing or some sort of cabin something or what's that all about?

 DJ 05:50

Yeah, a lot of people don't like to go camping in the wintertime because of the cold. It's not like it's gonna be cold, it rains. So we know that a lot of the state parks have cabins, and this particular one Bastrop State Park has cabins and they have a group, a group Kabaneri, which they call barracks, actually, it's kind of like summer camp.

 Scott Lewis 06:08

Barracks, does that just not evoke images in the mind? So how many people how many remain generally would go on a camping trip?

 Lisa 06:17

Usually, we have about 25 People go on a camping trip this camping trip that DJ sponsoring and probably have. Well, we got 35 now?

 DJ 06:24

Uh- close to 40. We'll probably end up about 50 because we still have a couple of weeks to go
Yeah, for people to sign up.

 Scott Lewis 06:31

Now what does it cost to go on one of these things.

 DJ 06:33

Usually it doesn't, usually doesn't cost much at all, because the state parks will charge by the campsite like $8 and you can get like eight or 10 people on the campsite.

 Scott Lewis 06:43

Thats going for like a buck?

 DJ 06:44

A buck a night and we're there for like three days. This particular one does cost more because the group facility costs $500. But that'll be anywhere from 10 to $20. A person depending on how many people go, if we get 50 People it'll be $10 A person.

 Scott Lewis 06:58

It's over $10 A person the whole weekend. You're staying in a cabin what's it like? Is there a cable?

D DJ 07:06

This is camping uh- a different kind of camping.

S Scott Lewis 07:09

I see, so now when y'all go in the summer Do you go in like the tents and everything?

D DJ 07:14

Yes, we do mostly tent camping. We do have some of our members have pop ups and campers. And so we try to camp near where there's electric hookups.

S Scott Lewis 07:24

Now, for those listeners who aren't familiar, a pop up is not a breakfast tart. That's that's kind of that thing you you tow behind your car. It's like a half of a thing. And then you like push a button and it pops up. And it's like a little thing that you like, yeah, to thing. My grandparents had one of those. I just wanted to clear that up with that excellent description that I just gave filled with adjectives.

D DJ 07:50

I can tell that's probably the way you'd like to go camping because you're not talking about the tents very much you're talking about.

S Scott Lewis 07:56

Well, let me tell you, I was a camp girl, whatever you call, it was a campfire. I was a campfire girl when I was growing up. And let me tell you those camp outs. They were okay. But Mama had to have her air conditioning. I like the ones where we went and we were in the big cabin that fitted like 20 people and had a kitchen. And I mean, there were no phones or TV or anything. So you know, we had to like play games like you're playing pong or you know, we were roughing it. There were no, but I kind of like it's kind of relaxing. Don't you find out why you do it. Because you can get away there no phones. There are no you know, nobody bothering you. You just you're forced to not have to deal with anything.

D DJ 08:37

That's right. That's right. If I was to stay home, I would find untold number of things to do even though I was just gonna relax, for instance, but on these trips you go and that's it.

L

Lisa 08:45

You get away it's back to nature. I think the only time we did anything like that was when the Rockets were doing their championship and we brought a TV.

S

Scott Lewis 08:54

But that's so is that like a rule to like no cellular phones, no TV, stuff like that?

D

DJ 08:59

No, we don't have hardly any rules.

S

Scott Lewis 09:01

Really. Okay, now let's get to the really dirty stuff. Since there are no rules. Now, of course, we get the images -I get- we get- I try to always include other people in my dirty mind, don't I? I get images. I see.

J

Jimmy 09:18

Uhh this is a clean group.

S

Scott Lewis 09:20

I see gay men and women going out into the woods and sleeping in tents and I see sex in the woods. Is that I mean, now tell me does this go on? Now tell me is this? I mean? No. Is this like a pic- I mean, is this a place to go and meet people and not necessarily for sex? We'll get back to that. But even just to like meet somebody, you know, I'm saying to go and socialize and meet somebody like meet a lover or boyfriend. It's good.

D

DJ 09:47

If you meet somebody in a bar, sometimes the friend introduces you to them hear their name, you say a few words and then that's noisy. You don't get to talk to them. They're off another way or you do meet him and go for one night or something like that, but I'd like to camp out when you meet somebody, you're there with him for the whole weekend. And so you get to know them socially and gives you a chance to get to know them and see if somebody-.

S

Scott Lewis 10:09

So it's a two nightstand

L

Lisa 10:12

You get to see him the next morning.

D

DJ 10:13

I don't really see that much happening. To answer your question and to bust your balloon.

S

Scott Lewis 10:22

But yeah, it's more, it's more of a social thing to get to know.

D

DJ 10:27

Right, and you do get to see people how they look the next morning when they're grabbing the coffee.

S

Scott Lewis 10:33

The private Barrack.

D

DJ 10:35

So you will be going on this trip? And because you described what you like about camping as what we're gonna be doing?

S

Scott Lewis 10:41

What weekend is this?

D

DJ 10:42

It's two weekends away. It's the first weekend in February; the second through the fourth.

S

Scott Lewis 10:47

I don't think I have any conflicts. I think I'm gonna go.

I

Immy 10:49

you do a show on the first and third Saturdays?

 Scott Lewis 10:53

Oh. You know I can rearrange that.

 DJ 10:56

That's right we always rearrange. So we can go on these trips.

 Scott Lewis 10:59

I always do. But I think do you? I mean, Lisa, why do you go Why did you get involved?

 Lisa 11:04

Why I got involved. I got involved. Actually, I kind of got dragged into it. But it's been wonderful. I do it to meet people. It's a nice way of meeting people. It's a nice way of getting out and doing things other than the bar scene. And you don't have to necessarily have best friends that like camping. I can camp with other people. And that's why I like it.

 Scott Lewis 11:27

Do y'all y'all go out and do this once a month? When you go out there? Have there ever been any conflicts? Any problems? Any? What's the worst?

 DJ 11:44

No, actually, the group gets along very, very well. And uh-

 Scott Lewis 11:48

Oh, come on. There's one story back there somewhere.

 DJ 11:52

The only story one, besides the funny ones, was one gentleman that came along. He was a friend of some members. And he got really drunk one night stayed up late. He's playing his music on his car rollout. And, and he was so drunk, he fell over and almost fell on the fire. It would have been disastrous for him. So-

 Scott Lewis 12:11

So that brings up another question. There's lots of liquor there. Not not an AAA meeting, is it?

 DJ 12:16

No, actually, it's the state parks. Don't they prohibit the consumption or display of open containers? But that doesn't stop us from bringing-

 Scott Lewis 12:25

Display like you're at stop and go or something? You have a display?

 DJ 12:30

Yeah. We build things out of the cans.

 Jimmy 12:33

What about things like very experienced campers mixing with someone like me who has never camped? I mean, how does that work?

 DJ 12:44

Oh, that's fun. I'll tell you how to do it the wrong way and then sit back and laugh-

 Jimmy 12:50

Oh how mean.

 Lisa 12:51

It's not true. I don't have a single piece of camping equipment. Actually, I got my first lantern for Christmas. Wow. I'm new now. But uh, we have a lot of fun because there's the real experienced campers that have all their equipment and know how to do things. And that's a way of learning. It's a way of experiencing it.

 DJ 13:10

As an example, as people are arriving, a lot of people get there at night, it's already dark, because you get out of work at six. Some people can take off early or whatever. but most people still have their job on Friday. And a lot of the trips are going anywhere from two to four hours away because we do a lot in the hill country. And as different people arrive you know, people that are already there and set up we'll go over and help them set up so it's not unusual to see five or six people helping put up a tent. Well that's nice. That is great. And you don't need a lot of equipment like like Lisa said she doesn't have very much the only thing that you probably wouldn't need that you don't that you might not have is a tent. But we have some extra tents if you want to just go and try it out and see how much you like camping.

L Lisa 13:49

Usually we have a pre camp meeting before each camp out. And we get together we find out if we all want to chip in on our food or people don't have equipment or tents. We can kind of share them. It's like a networking.

J Jimmy 14:03

That's really cool. Because that would be the only way I would do it. You know because my idea of roughing it is staying at a Holiday Inn.

L Lisa 14:14

Actually, you know we have some members that they will stay at the hotels near our campsite and just participate during the day.

J Jimmy 14:21

Hey, I can do that.

L Lisa 14:23

You can do that?

S Scott Lewis 14:25

Doesn't that kind of defeat- nothing against it- but doesn't that kind of defeats the purpose?

J Jimmy 14:29

Well- maybe- not really because that maybe kind of edges you into it and maybe the next trip you might decide to stay in the tent.

L

Lisa 14:37

They're still getting out and doing things.

J

Jimmy 14:39

Yeah!

D

DJ 14:39

They'll go hiking with us and eat and you know spend the weekend time around the campfire.

S

Scott Lewis 14:45

We can do the eating part.

D

DJ 14:48

We've had some gourmet meals out there.

L

Lisa 14:50

We sure have.

J

Jimmy 14:50

Really.

S

Scott Lewis 14:52

So how's this place? You're saying the barracks has it equipped, equipped with a kitchen stuff?

D

DJ 14:56

Yeah, there's actually the setup the group area at Bastrop Just got four barracks. Each one holds about 25 people. And then there's a separate building that's included in this area that's a dining hall and large kitchen with big professional size stoves and refrigerators. So you just bring everything and that's just for that group area. Wow. And then a separate shower and restroom area.

S

Scott Lewis 15:20

Where- and where exactly is Bastrop?

D

DJ 15:22

It's about 30 miles. No, it's just before you get to Austin. Whenever you go to Austin at I10, and up 71 It's about half an hour before you get to Austin. So it's about two hour drive from here.

S

Scott Lewis 15:33

Okay, so you're gonna drive about two hours. You're going up Friday night and you'll be back on Sunday night.

D

DJ 15:38

Sunday afternoon. Sunday afternoon usually break camp after breakfast on Sunday and go from there.

S

Scott Lewis 15:43

He's pulling out all the heavy lingo break camp.

L

Lisa 15:47

Technical jargon.

J

Jimmy 15:48

What's breakfast? Yeah, I don't get up til noon. What's breakfast?

D

DJ 15:55

Oh, bacon and eggs. Pancakes with fruit mixed in?

S

Scott Lewis 15:59

Yeah, that's a good question. What time do you all get up in the morning?

L

Lisa 16:03

You get up whenever-

DJ 16:04

Yeah, those birds start singing pretty loud. So you got to get up.

S Scott Lewis 16:07

What time do y'all to go to bed.

DJ 16:10

Maybe midnight. Because we like to sit around the campfire the night before. It's usually a little cool. Even in the summertime, when you go camping in the hills. It's cool. Which is great.

S Scott Lewis 16:20

So this is February second, third and fourth. And it's going to be as little as probably $10. At the most it'll be. What do you say? $20? Or more than 20? No more than $20 for whole weekend. That is kind of a deal. Yeah. Kind of makes you forget about the Holiday Inn.

J Jimmy 16:35

No kidding.

S Scott Lewis 16:36

Where can we call for more information.

L Lisa 16:38

They can call the camp outline CAMPOUT, 5267688

S Scott Lewis 16:46

I thought that was your home number.

DJ 16:49

Camp out- with a camp out with a 'K' that might be your home phone number.

J

Jimmy 16:52

That's great. What a great number.

D

DJ 16:56

So when they call you give out all the right information, please.

J

Jimmy 16:58

When we start getting out the newsletter here.

S

Scott Lewis 17:02

Well, you used to be on the mailing list. I'm not sure what-

J

Jimmy 17:05

Well I pick up brochures like a hobo every now and then and well.

D

DJ 17:08

I'm glad you brought [INAUDIBLE] I'm glad you brought that up because we do. Yes.

J

Jimmy 17:14

I thought so.

D

DJ 17:16

And I think it was After Hours when I was here.

J

Jimmy 17:18

Yeah. Oh yeah, we can.

S

Scott Lewis 17:21

All right. I think we have a love connection. Y'all can talk after the show.

D

DJ 17:26

Lisa help me.

S

Scott Lewis 17:28

Houston Outdoor Group. The number is camp out KAMPOUT The next function is a all weekend camp out at just outside of Austin. No more than $20 to attend. It's a hell of a deal. I'm gonna go. Good. You know what, Jimmy?

J

Jimmy 17:46

What?

S

Scott Lewis 17:47

Just found out that it looks like Bronski Beat is going to be the opening act at Pride fest '96.

J

Jimmy 17:53

No kidding.

S

Scott Lewis 17:54

Yeah. So that's gonna be pretty good. Last year-

J

Jimmy 17:56

I have always liked that group.

S

Scott Lewis 17:58

They're incredible. And last year, we had DOJ open for film to film this year. It looks like it's going to be Bronski Beat opening for dentata to be announced. Haven't firmed up-

J

Jimmy 18:10

I see how that works.

S

Scott Lewis 18:12

But yeah, I think it's gonna be a real big deal this year. A lot of fun. And so in case you're not familiar with Bronski Beat here's a little tune they did a few years ago called small town boy. That was Bronski beat who will be opening up at Pride fest '96. That's June 23. So just mark your calendar now Miss Thing because I'm just going to tell you right up real early, just let you have it that you need to be there. Because it was flawless last year. 8000 Queens just out there, just playing, just partying Fem to fem men and all that kind of stuff. I have 120 on a Saturday night, you're listening to Miss Scott Lewis here at after hours KPFT I'm gonna let Miss Rocky Bea have it because she's supposed to be down here with me. And she's not so I'm gonna have to read her later. Also, I want to talk a little bit about a new movie that has just opened up that I really want to see. But nobody has called and invited me to. So I'm just all wrecked about that. It's called Wild Reads. And it just started up this last week over at the Goldwin Landmark Greenway Three. And Wild Reads is a story about a young man who as I understand it, it said in the southwest France near the end of the Algerian war in 1962. And it's about the relationships among a group of teenagers that are there kind of facing the pressure-pressure of their maturing sexuality and the formation of their political ideas. During this time, you know that was kind of a turbulent time to be in French politics. Two of the boys- two boys and a girl are the main character and the tension kind of comes to a head when this other older militant refugee starts attending a boarding school that the two boys are at his politics are real radical and more sophisticated sexually. And it kind of disrupts the whole town. These these guys start studying together preparing for their exams, and they ended up having sex and one realizes that he's gay and in love with the other who is involved with a woman. You put two and two together. I do have a couple of passes for to to see this. At the Golden Landmark Greenway Three. It has won Best Foreign Film from the New York Film Critics Circle and the Los Angeles Film Critics Association. So if you want to call in 5265738526 KPFT you can call in and we do have a couple of passes for two to see Wild Reads which is supposed to be absolutely incredible. Also, 526-573-8526 KPFT. I guess we can do a little bit of husband hunting. I got to understand we've gotten a few phone calls, that y'all are interested in doing a little husband hunting, so you can just call it 526-573-8526 KPFT. Honey, if I can't find your date, I'll just go out with you myself. I want to do a song now I see the lines or lighten up I'm going to do a song we'll come back we'll take your calls. We'll give these passes out 526-573-8526 KPFT. As soon as we come back from this song, I am going to dedicate this it's Bette Midler's first ever dance remix. I kind of like this song. It's called To Deserve You and I'm going to dedicate it to my favorite high school tennis team star. It's called To Deserve You by Bette Midler.

J

Jimmy 22:13

Oh yeah, Bette Midler To Deserve You, remake or actually a dance track of that. And uh and ca-, for those of you who kind of got messed up on that Bronski Beat song a little while ago, we're going to bring you a different one. And in case you were trying to tape it or something and you had my dulcet tones over it. So Bronski Beat does a great remake on their last album of a song that was a big hit in the 70s during the lovely disco era. It's called I Love the Nightlife and it was done by- originally done by Alicia Bridges, a lesbian who runs a bar in Atlanta now, and they do one of the best remix of the song I have ever heard. They sound like Alicia Bridges.

S

Scott Lewis 23:05

And when we come back the phones are ringing off the hook for the husband hunt so we'll be doing that at 526-573-8526 KPFT.

S

Speaker 1 23:23

January 22 1973 Roe vs Wade legalized abortion. 1996 the abortion war rages on. But what if anti-choice forces won can you imagine a future when abortion is once again a crime. After Roe where a movements dream becomes a nation's nightmare After Roe a fictional documentary from Pacifica radio

S

Speaker 2 23:55

Well hump my bubble.

S

Scott Lewis 24:01

Well if that's not an appropriate opening for Miss Lewis I don't know what is. Just-

S

Speaker 2 24:06

Just hump my bubble.

S

Scott Lewis 24:07

Just my bubble. I remember my little sister used to say that that's what she would call that's what she would call it. My bubble my bubble Jr. Do you want to hump my bubble?

J

Jimmy 24:21

That's a lot of humping honey!

S

Scott Lewis 24:24

Trap where's the- Oh Miss Things' that work? Huh? Do we get those tickets- Oh cause we gave the tickets to wild reads away which and I didn't even keep one for myself because I there is a Mexican in this town that is gonna pay for me to see that movie. Okay, I haven't found one yet that will pay for anything. But anyway.
