 Bruce Reeves 00:02

The following program contains language or images of a frank or sensitive nature that may be considered objectionable by some listener Discretion is Advised

 00:15

I am what I am I have my own special creation so come to give me the all the Ovation it's more than I want Crighton and it's not a place to hide in lies not worth a damn to you can say

 00:57

hi you've discovered after hours continuing tradition on KPFT

 01:13

don't want is I don't want to bang my own drum it's pretty 01:31

dry try things from a different angle

 01:33

God life is a sham to you and shout out

01:50 am what I am what I need no excuses I do my own deck sometimes is known as nobody buys it down till you can shout out

H Harvey Milk 02:32

we must destroy the Mistresses Roy shatter them we must continue to speak out and most importantly most importantly every gay person you must tell your immediate family you must tell your relatives you must tell your friends if indeed they are your friends, you must tell your neighbors you must tell the people your work you must tell the people the stories they realize that we are indeed the children and we are indeed everywhere every every lie every innuendo will be destroyed and you will feel so much better used to do my own deck some time.

04:43

You may all come out. Where will you be when they come? Oh yeah. Good morning.

B Bruce Reeves 05:50

Good morning. It's been a long time.

05:53

I know. That's right. Am I on? Well, I guess I am I can hear don't have a green light. But you're one in green light. That's the only way I can tell these things. Hey,

B Bruce Reeves 06:02

I'm not gonna complain about a Greenland I got a new chair.

06:06

That's true. You haven't fallen on your face or anything else since we got more in peace. It supports my back. I mean, it's just 06:14

B Bruce Reeves 06:10

I can do better than you. I have headphones and I'm falling down around my shoulders.

B Bruce Reeves 06:18

Of course I know. I now have to push a pin and the CD player to get it to change. I don't want to hear. I don't want to hear it. Well, how are you this morning again,

06:21

B Bruce Reeves 06:26

if you're, if you're under a pretty good and yourself.

06:29

I'm wonderful.

B Bruce Reeves 06:31

I'm Bruce reliefs. And I'm Judy. And we're here with the after hours crew. We are the after hours.

06:41

Going to be one of

B Bruce Reeves 06:42

something like that. I went to the beach today and fried my brain. So you look at what are we doing tonight?

06:49

B Bruce Reeves 06:50

What are we doing tonight? Well, Jack Valinski and Carol Clark, who are the co chairs of Lesbian Gay Pride Week 1992 are in the lobby and they're going to be coming on about oh, in about 10 minutes. We'll try to get them on.

07:05

That's assuming Jack gets over what he just finished doing. He looked a little flushed when he came in. And Kara gets her coffee down in time.

B Bruce Reeves 07:13

And they're gonna talk about Pride Week, which started yesterday, officially. Well I guess now it's day before yesterday. This is Sunday.

07:23

First day I said this is the longest day of the summer

B Bruce Reeves 07:27

the longest day of the year, feast day, hot day. Do you see all the heat lightning when we were coming?

07:30

B Bruce Reeves 07:35

pretty lucky now. But so we're gonna be doing that in the top half of the hour and we may or may not have a guest in the bottom half of the hour. We haven't figured that out yet. You can interview me we're gonna do lots of stuff on Pride Week and all kinds of fun stuff and play a lot of good music. And we're gonna kick off the evening with a song from Ron rollin OSCEs solo album is brand new album called baby take advantage of me is the name of the song called a hopeful romantic so many of us are so let's push that pan a little one. I have to figure out which one of these three holds I'd stick my finger in no come in. Just push it I think I did it's not saying anything well or we could talk

B Bruce Reeves 08:31

Oh hidden that was the Gay History wrap by someone I don't have any idea who and before that we heard the Washington sisters doing rock me baby. And joining us now are Jackie and Carol the co chairs of Pride Week and good morning now. Oh this morning.

J Jack Valinski 08:55

Yes. It's so great to be here.

B Bruce Reeves 08:59

It's it's good to have you all here. So I mean, we're on the road and started already I know Jack just got back from the jockstrap party or something right

J Jack Valinski 09:08

Big Daddy let the daddy auction

09:11

Oh

09:12

even betting How many did you buy?

J Jack Valinski 09:15

What do you mean get to them. So crossover adventure in I've never seen it that crowded before.

B Bruce Reeves 09:21

Wow. So well. Tell us a little bit about what's happened already and then how we got to where we are and what we're gonna be doing all week.

09:30

Well we had a nice day today is nice and sunny and warm and maybe a little too hot. But at least it was good weather we had the started off with the garage sale which was venture and was putting on with various other organizations in the community. And that started off about 10 o'clock this morning and it went well for about the first year hour and a half I think all garage sales always take off the first hour and a half then you kind of have a law doll you know I get all the early morning shoppers and everybody melted in went home. Yeah, let's do

J Jack Valinski 10:00

Describe shell started at BB time, which is 9am rather than regular grind shell time, which is probably what you're an expert on. That was right.

B Bruce Reeves 10:08

I don't do that hour of the morning.

10:11

Well, and then they carnival for the switchboard, I think, I don't know if they had too many people, but those are there, I think had a good time that a nice dunking booth. And I think that a lot of volunteers are getting on that dunking booth, not good.

J Jack Valinski 10:24

And then we had a town meeting, which was sponsored by a number of youth groups, which is a new thing here for the gay and lesbian community. And it was hatch and find young queers and smile, and that was over at the First Unitarian Church. And basically what they did is they wrote down all the problems of the world and how they're going to solve it, which is good, right? Maybe they will. And after that, there was a coming out workshop by the French PFLAG Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays, which was the first time I've been to one of their meetings, and it was absolutely wonderful. A number of them gave their own personal stories, including a young woman and her mother there. And it was just really great. This evening, we had a concert at the Rice University, which is called all the time by the Montrose singers. And unfortunately, I only got to see half of it, the first half of it. They also brought in the Men's Chorus from Austin. And it was very good.

11:23

Pull activities for the first full day of Pride Week. Yeah, really. And then just a full week to begin with. Well, I mean, y'all have been working at this for almost a year.

B Bruce Reeves 11:26

♂ 11:33

10 months, right, uh, 10 months, I think, August of this year, he's counting are officially sanctioned, sanctioned or whatever. So it was August, so? Well, yes. When we ran on a no resign platform.

J Jack Valinski 11:42

♂ 11:45

And yeah, I think we're gonna make it

♂ 11:47

one more day.

♂ 11:50

We're gonna fulfill our promise,

J Jack Valinski 11:52

this is actually easier time all the hard work is done. The money has been raised the permits have gotten the insurance and all that stuff that most people don't really care about, but has to be done to actually do the celebration, oh, we're gonna do is watching the weather channel for the next three or four days.

♂ 12:03

B Bruce Reeves 12:06

They're the only people I mean, y'all have the easy parts now. Because Jeremy know you're true to the event, you can just go to the events and have a good time. And

J Jack Valinski 12:15

but it's really neat. I mean, it was really exciting to seeing these young people involved. And as we've seen over the past year, the coordination and some of these other groups, well, in the town meeting in a weird weird, didn't did an interview several weeks ago about the town meeting, when they were still trying to decide what they were going to call this event. But how did he come in? Were there a lot of people there, too, there was about 20. And they weren't all just young people, there were people who were involved in working with young people good. And it was a nice turnout. And, but what's nice about that is they're able to get a lot more people involved with and discussing the problems of HSD and sex education. And even the things about the topics of Big Brothers and Big Sisters, you know, there are so many things that you don't always think about that are obstacles to being feeling good about yourself when you're growing up. And sometimes we forget how tough it was when you're young. Right?

 Bruce Reeves 12:25

 Jack Valinski 12:37

 Bruce Reeves 13:11

Okay. Well, so like what's going on today?

 Jack Valinski 13:16

Oh, actually, today, sort of an easy day. Yes, we get to sleep in a little bit. Factory, we only really actually have one event. And that's later on this evening about 7pm at noon, you were complaining.

 13:18

 Bruce Reeves 13:28

 13:32

I was softball game though. 930. It's gonna be sponsored by the Human Rights Campaign fund. And it's going to just be a discussion on issues and goals and strategies of the nation's gay and lesbian organizations that can take place tomorrow at 7pm at 900 Lubbock suite 101, which is the home of the gay and lesbian Political Caucus.

J

Jack Valinski 13:56

And you know, Friday night, we had an event. So we had a couple events Friday night, but one of them was that actually was listed on our events was the Gospel according to Ray Hill. And that was at the Montrose palace. And he was discussing the history since 1842. And he's still going Yes, yes. I think he's on about 1982 At this moment.

B

Bruce Reeves 14:16

And of course, the the Bible here that that we're all kind of accessing. While we hope everybody was one of the CO editors here and really, I know I've done this before. It's not a lot of fun, but it's I want to let you on the guy because it's really wonderful. We did a lot of work. Let me tell you, I had a lot of compliments. In fact, we've noticed when we put them out that they're just gone. But the pride guides are were passed out at most businesses. There's some still here at KPFT. And if you can't get a pride guide, you can pick up a Houston press, because the entire listing or most almost all the listings of Pride Week is half page in on page 65 of these impress and we're very thankful for their it's wonderful. Yes, yes. a freebie, a freebie. And basically, it's a nice little write up saying that, you know, you need to read this stuff. And it's our understanding that Eastern press is going to do a Lesbian Gay Pride Week issue next week. Well great. And if you're if you're looking for for pride guide, it's the front covers black with white print that says pride equals power, which of course is the logo this year everywhere and it's got hot pink colors on it. And it's just it's really neat. It's it's a nice crack and

J

Jack Valinski 14:32

Bruce Reeves 15:12

I've been walking the streets for nights here putting the hands on. Oh, you finally got to watch history.

B

Bruce Reeves 15:34

Oh, well. Time to do that. Neither one of us do. So we've we've got a big week. Obviously ahead of us on Monday we've got the names project workshop, and that's actually happening all week Monday through Friday from five to 8pm. And Pete is there sowing names panels. In fact, he was doing Felix's as I saw him last week at that's what straight friends are for. I'm sorry, that's what friends were for. Names project. They're having a workshop. And if you want more information, call five two names. And, as is is a play that's also going to be happening through the week through June 26 June 28, at downtown grounds, 8908 Wood Street at San Jacinto.

J Jack Valinski 15:49

∅ 16:25

And that is sponsored by the gay and lesbians of rice. And that's another one of our new groups. I think that's participating this year.

J Jack Valinski 16:31

Great. On Tuesday, the 23rd. There's an ice skating AD Join local gay lesbian groups. And this is happening at the Galleria, at eight o'clock, eight o'clock at 5015 Westheimer. And you can call 5236318 For more information, and they're asking everybody to either wear pink shirts or their Pride Week shirts. Ah, right.

B Bruce Reeves 16:49

J Jack Valinski 16:54

The real interesting,

∅ 16:56

um, is the gospel concert by the community Gospel Church, also at 7:30pm. That's at 501 East 18th Street at Columbia.

J Jack Valinski 17:09

And we moved to Wednesday, the 24th making our voices heard. It's a roundtable discussion involving members of the lesbian and gay community that's happening and sponsored by the gay rights lobby of Texas and aids equity League, and that's happening with a monstrous palace 1505, Nevada at Commonwealth.

17:28

And Thursday, we're back to the play, as is sponsored by the gay lesbians, students at Rice and at the downtown Coffee House.

J Jack Valinski 17:37

On Friday, the 26th the Texas gay Rodeo Association pride nights begins at EA Jays featuring their members and it happens at 7pm to 1am. It's basically a tour of a lot of the bars. Was it my turn? Yeah, okay.

17:54

We already had two cups coffee, I'm okay. We have a night in Monte Carlo from 9pm to 2am. And here we are for all you late nighters at K Tec which is next to the ranch. Sponsored by the Kingdom Community Church. It's a $4 cover plus $6 for casino money. So all of you would be gamblers you'd like to go out there and play well.

18:18

That's my event. I'm going to that one.

J Jack Valinski 18:22

Also on Friday. It's a night in black leather at the venture end starting at 10pm and sponsored by the National Weather Association and venturing lives is that 2923 Maine that brings us to Saturday the 27th and it starts our full weekend of activities. So just mark your calendars and you can just be busy and running the streets all day weekend. We start Saturday morning at 10am with a bagel blast and you need to call for 52079774 information and you're gonna be going to the golf tournament right

18:40

J Jack Valinski 19:01

19:03

oh yes I'm going to go we're gonna go run around ring Yeah, some golf to chase that white ball around the course.

J Jack Valinski 19:08
That's happening at Turman Park golf

B Bruce Reeves 19:09
course you should use pink balls that day.

∅ 19:12
I will use my pink balls and

J Jack Valinski 19:15
call 9568132 for more information.

∅ 19:19
All right, and you're gonna do the bar to bar fun.

J Jack Valinski 19:23
I think I'm gonna do that this year. That starts at 6pm at the Brazos River bottom yes yeah 2400 browsers

∅ 19:32
you can be shaped into go to the translator on the concert

J Jack Valinski 19:36
in the Bali and about the concert is Lesbian Gay Pride Week concert. That's Lonestar symphonic band at Rich's, which is 2401 San Jacinto at 8pm.

∅ 19:47
Right and I'm sorry we forgot that there is a 10am there is a bike park bike tour. And you meet at the parking lot and heavens and it's wanting to buy the chain gang Bicycle Club. Cost is free.
Just bring You're on bicycle, I guess,

J

Jack Valinski 20:01

national associations having a symposium at 2pm at the Montrose Palace, 1505, Nevada at Commonwealth.

20:09

And then that brings us to Sunday our big day.

J

Jack Valinski 20:13

The big one here, the Lord mentioned, Miley. It's happening at 9pm at the Sheraton Astrodome, and you can call 2704548 for more information.

Bruce Reeves 20:27

Okay, now we can't talk about the project because I play a song before we do that. Oh, but hey, but but but there's a couple of other things I think that are going on during the week that we need. Yes.

J

Jack Valinski 20:38

On Friday. Well, yes. Wait, let's start with on Wednesday from one to three, Deborah Bell and I will be hosting them 123 program here on KPFT. And we will be interviewing none other than Carol and Jack and also the grand marshals of the parade, Brian and Sherry, and the honorary grand marshals of the parade. The Gay and Lesbian switchboard will be here and also on Wednesday, which is not in the listing is the Montrose it's not a substation, the Community Relations HPD station is having an open house from like one to 9pm, please. So go over there and meet your neighborhood cops there. And on Friday before the this Friday, there's an open house at the mayor's house. And if you'd like some more information on that you can call the pride line at 5296979 years. How's it going? Yes, in River Oaks River.

B

Bruce Reeves 20:41

J

Jack Valinski 21:00

This in on the azalea I was gonna say on the azalea we were supposed to get into we can barely get through the yard.

 Bruce Reeves 21:44

Let's see, I think Barbara, you tried to

 Jack Valinski 21:47

pick the flowers.

 21:48

Now I was trying that nevermind.

 Bruce Reeves 21:51

Barbara has the song she wants to sing the Oh. And of course, Deborah and I congratulated Jackie and Carol last year because they were the first co chairs to ever have it rain on their parade.

 22:07

Again, I'm leaving town.

 Bruce Reeves 22:10

So we're hoping that it won't rain on the parade. So that brings us to Sunday of next week. You know, it's been a long year. And we've had lots of meetings. And it's been tough, and we haven't raised the money and all that type of stuff. But last Tuesday, we had the parade meeting and it went, we feel very smoothly. Maybe we're too close to the woods here. But what's really neat about this city is that we seem to get along concerning the parade and the pride committee is that from drag queens, to the leather community, to women, to the religious community, they're not non religious community that we're moving along, we're moving together moving forward. And that's real neat.

 Jack Valinski 22:17

 Bruce Reeves 22:50

It's one of the few events in the city.

J

Jack Valinski 22:53

Well, I don't know whether that's a compliment or not. But it feels real, real good. If it was real good that we move forward. And that the parade is something that's going to happen. It's a celebration to everybody. And it's actually we're inviting for all the non gay and lesbian people from the city to come join us watch the parade, because it's celebration. It's not really a protest march, however, to people to be in the print, it's still a political statement, because they can get fired, if they're seen on TV, or if somebody sees them or hurt or you know, whatever. But it's a celebration. And we want people to come there and join it, watch it. And if you can't be there, you can listen to it.

Bruce Reeves 23:33

That's true, because KPFT will be doing live coverage on Sunday afternoon, June 28, from four until eight o'clock. So we'll be hitting that two hour window from five to seven ish when the parades actually jumping down the street and Deborah Bell and I again, will be co hosting that event. And undoubtedly will have most of the members of the gay and lesbian radio community on hand in some form or fashion to talk to you somewhat about what we're seeing, so that you can try to see that as best you can. But I would encourage everyone that can to you know, come out to the parade and if you have to put a paper bag over your head and do it anyway because it'll be good for you and remind everybody to come early because we have the rally this year it's going to be free and it starts at three o'clock next to the parking lot to Marys, and we have about 2122 Various booths of organizations that will be out there from selling wares to cokes and hotdogs and giving out literature and all sorts of things. So you know Ray said something very interesting last night that we're talking about the parade and Pride Week and the fact that most of the people they are at the event last night were the choir, you know people who are involved in the community and he says you know the parade you put on the marching Washington's that you know, we do it to get some publicity but we do it mostly for ourselves to energize ourselves and that you know, You worked very hard, as you know, you've been involved in in the March on Washington and the march on Austin, when you go up there, and you do that March, you feel energized yourself, you're a different person, it's it's impossible to do any event like that, where you see more than 10 gay and lesbian people in a room or on a street together, and not be empowered by it. And it's, it's to be in the Houston parade or to watch the Houston parade, either one is very empowering. And it's empowering to be in the parade and walk through all of those people. But it's equally empowering to see all the people in the parade and see, when you're in the parade, and you round that curve, and you just see the merits. People have, you know, 20 deep or whatever it really is.

J

Jack Valinski 24:37

Bruce Reeves 25:10

J Jack Valinski 25:47

And it is it's absolutely incredible. The fact that, you know, we sort of tear ourselves apart every year saying, you know, is it worth it, to raise all this money for a two hour event. And then when you look at it, and you know, last year, keralite took over, and we didn't know all the ins and outs of it. In fact, you never really do. More outs. But the idea was, is that the parade was going to happen. People are ready, they're setting up there. And as you know, people don't like to be outside in the summer and Houston. But for that those couple hours they do that.

B Bruce Reeves 26:23

I mean, Ray Hill has made the statement on more than one occasion that if you didn't have a pride committee at all, there'd be a parade sometime on Sunday, the last Sunday in June, because it's just it's gonna happen. And you know, and it always does, regardless of what kind of shape the committee's, and Magellan have a great committee we really do. It's, I think it's made jackin our job so much easier. We've just had people who are very conscientious and very hard working. And I mean, you know, we hardly call them you know, I just call them every once in a while, just say, Hi, how you doing? It's all we're doing fine. No, you know, and, and you don't worry about it, because you know that they're going to do their job. And you know, there are some gaps, but they somehow they get filled. That's true. And it was it is incredible. And next year, Pride Week is going to be breaking away from the Montrose activity center. Mac is going to concentrate on building a center, sometime in the future. And Pride Week is going to be concentrating on Pride. So I'll just cut your 501 C three, yes. So once this celebration is over with, we will be talking to our lawyers, they'll be talking to their lawyers, and we'll get back to them and they'll get back to us. But they'll actually it is pretty incredible sometimes that we talk about how sometimes we don't get along, and that it's there's two, you know, two or three gay and lesbian people in a room, they all disagree. But on the other hand, there are so many times that we've been at a meeting that somebody will say I'm having a problem at this and somebody else to say, Well, have you tried this? Or have you tried that, that we have this incredible networking system. And you know, none of us have been experts on fundraising, but somehow you get through it. And fundraising is always the hardest thing to do. But we've been lucky to have people who know how to do it, and businesses who volunteered and helped out. And it's like, you know, the pride guy, the pride guy would not be possible without the advertisers and the service. Fundraising would not be possible without the the bars and the community and the clubs and the build community and the businesses. You know, for example, Union Jack Union Jack has, you know, they got the T shirts from us, and they gave his check up front. That's, you know, that's incredible. That's just like one little story of the things that work. And just think if we had a lot more gay, lesbian people active than the few of us who are and I think it's also it's an advantage because it's, it's kind of easy to sell Pride Week, you know? Well, you're writing it is because because it everybody wants this week, and everybody wants his parade. And it's and to me, I mean, I found that when I was going in, and Sam from Pride Week say, Oh, absolutely. Are you gonna talk to me about it? And we'll do something with it. So I think there's a real community atmosphere that they really want to cooperate, because, as I think we all mentioned before, people really look forward to this.

J Jack Valinski 27:02

J Jack Valinski 29:10

And you're right, Carol, I mean, when I was trying to sell ads for the Houston gala has been Political Caucus, for their, their, their newsletter near the election time, it's harder, because if somebody is on the opposite side of the political spectrum, whether you're endorsing the mayor or not, or endorsing the mayor, it's tough. Whereas Pride Week is like we're an organization of organizations, and that we put on this event, but most of these events are sponsored by the many organizations in the community. So it's a lot easier for us and like we says, all our hard work is done, because all these organizations are putting on the events now. We'd help do the publicity. We help, you know, help them sometimes find the space to do it. We, you know, do all this groundwork, but they actually do the events.

B Bruce Reeves 29:55

Of course, we might want to comment that the gay and lesbian Pride Parade in Houston Here's the only gay and lesbian function that ever starts on time. Right? Because right Hill will be down there. It's starting in and he will start that parade at five o'clock whether anybody's ready to go or no, you're right does it but the police do.

J Jack Valinski 30:14

They're actually though I think this year race is going to be doing television. Oh, really. They are we are videotaping not us, personally, Mike Stubblefield. And company, the Alternative Media Access, yeah. And he's going to be turning it over to access TV. And it's my understanding that that evening on access on one of the access channels that will be on at 10pm, that night, and then repeat it over and over again. But so we're looking forward to that. And we'll finally have copies of tapes, so that we can archive them and save them and stuff like that, you know, jazz pas who works at twit in is also a nurse and one of the AIDS wards is planning to write a book. And she's doing a lot of research on it. And I was talking to her tonight, in fact, and she's just saying she's it's just so exciting to to, you know, find out all these things and do the background on this stuff because, and especially because she's basing on Houston and we're looking forward to that should be great. So anyway, the I mean course the big event is going to be on Sunday, it's the parade from starts at five o'clock, it'll start down it would head on time at five o'clock, and it'll work its way down West time or beyond Montrose. Most of the crowd will be around Marys. And don't forget our rally now. And then the rally starts at three and runs till 830. And then there's going to be a party up on Pacific street that starts at seven. So it's going to be lots and lots of stuff to do and tan all afternoon and day. And of course, we'll be having coverage here live will probably with some of the rally from four to five Vish until the parade gets down to where we are. And then we'll be picking up the parade, we'll probably have a little parade coverage and maybe even a little pre parade coverage from down at the starting point as well. So you can hear that live here on KPFT if you can't make it down. And be sure and tune in to KPFT Wednesday afternoon from one to three and listen to Jack and Carol tell you a little bit more about how the week's going. And you can we'll also be interviewing Brian and Sherry, the grand marshals and the honorary Grand Marshal this year as the Houston gays and lesbians switchboard, right. And if you need some more information, you can call us at 5296979. Or you can call the switchboard at 539 3211. And I want to remind everybody, it's gonna be hot out there. So bring water to be prepared. And we're hoping that as it's happened in most years that the rain hold out at least till the parade or a rally some early early. Right. I mean, we I remember one year that a typhoon came through or whenever it came through, and it looked like it was going to be a terrible day it was going to rain all day. But it just it actually was one of the nicest parades because it got nice and cool.

And in the voice this week, the new voice there'll be the lineup of the parade what we got so far. And it's gonna be a long parade. And we're looking forward to it Great. It's growing every year.

Bruce Reeves 33:40

Which one's longest?

Jack Valinski 33:42

It's either the rodeo parade or the Thanksgiving Day Parade. I'm not quite sure okay. And
