Jimmy Carper 00:38

Oh yes, you've tuned into after hours queer radio with attitude right here on KPFT Houston 90.1 FM. The crew of after hours is ready to bring you news, interviews, dialogue and music geared for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender people and their friends. Hear it after hours. We may be diverse, but we have one thing in common. We are all out of the closet and urge everyone to come out of their closet. That means standing up for yourself taking responsibility for your own life and being proud of who you are. Realistically, we know not everyone can do that because of age job or frame of mind. That's okay, we're here for you too. So sit back, relax, and enjoy this week's edition of after hours. Hello, Houston and welcome to the what's the day today?

Sarah DePalma 02:06

I'm 14.

Jimmy Carper 02:09

I'm trying to get a new intro 14. Hello, Houston. Welcome to the November 14 edition of after hours. I'm Jimmy Carter and with me tonight is

Sarah DePalma 02:20

wheezing hacking. Sneezing coughing Sarah dipalma. Hello, y'all. Well glow Houston. If ever you wondered if I was really transsexual, you'll hear my voice tonight. It probably cracked more than once.

J Jimmy Carper 02:33

Wow. Yeah. You're on the mic. I can hear that. Yeah,

S Sarah DePalma 02:36

Laurie. Thank you for the hot liquids. It really helped. Well, folks, let me give you some advice. Stay dry. That's my advice for tonight. Thank you and good night.

J Jimmy Carper 02:49

Well, that's nice. Okay.

S Sarah DePalma 02:51

It was overwhelming.

J Jimmy Carper 02:52

I guess it's a music night. And it's, you know, it's funny where I live we had, we've had nine inches of rain. No, we had nine inches of rain in our area. And our dog was really hilarious dog went in the backyard to look around to see what it was too high. It was like, get me the hell. This is not the yard I'm used to.

S Sarah DePalma 02:57

J Jimmy Carper 03:14

I know. It was really funny. Yeah, all that all summer long. And we didn't have enough rain. And now we're getting it up to our wazoo.

S Sarah DePalma 03:23

I'm telling you about that I was gonna have to swim to work. Girl car have to turn into a submarine. We have a cool show tonight. What do we have? We're going to be talking about the election a little bit. And we'll be talking about some things that I pulled off the internet. Actually, I pulled a ton of stuff off the internet, because there's a lot going on. There. We'll be talking about the first ever State transgender Lobby Day which is going to be held January the 27th in Austin, being organized by yours truly, no kidding. Surprise, surprise. And we were also you're also going to have an interview tonight with Steve Greendale. Who's who is the lead singer and songwriter for all pretty horse. Oh, okay. It's that group? Yes. That group all the Pretty Horses that in fact, here's the CD, right. It's great. It's right. And in fact, I've had your last time you were on the air right, play two songs off of this. And you took the CD home with you. Yeah, I had met with you. Because it is. It's not available yet.

J Jimmy Carper 04:05

S Sarah DePalma 04:24

Now right. Now, it is available, but not in this area. So

J Jimmy Carper 04:27

I have had two requests for music. From that. Just from people listening to that show.

S Sarah DePalma 04:33

This is one of the better interviews that I've done. I know we've done a lot of interviews, and usually with political people of one sort or another. Steve Grendel is an interesting person. Just had an art exhibit that came back from Europe. He'll be talking about that. has won several awards for his work in film. And we talked about that an interview is the lead singer of what he calls a goth slash glam rock group. Oh, In a perfect perfect preoperative, transsexual, always immensely talented person, ah, that nobody knows. I guess if this is common in art, that you may be well known within your own circle. But breaking out of that is very difficult in secret Dell was finding that to be the case as well. But I think you'll enjoy this interview, his lead singer, his lead songwriters also on the interview with him, very, very interesting talks about the reaction of the audience to his being transgendered. Because he doesn't look at trends, and he looks far better than I do believe me. And the audience doesn't know what they're getting into. Until this beautiful six foot blonde person gets up there and starts to sound like Jim Morrison. People's eyes kind of roll to the back of the head to the hell is that? Yeah. So I think you'll really enjoy this interview with all the Pretty Horses. This is it's a fun interview, and we'll be featuring that music later in the show. He will. Probably let's see. We've got we've got daddy right here.

J Jimmy Carper 06:02

S Sarah DePalma 06:10

We Yeah, big daddy Ray Hill is here.

J Jimmy Carper 06:13
He's going to lose he and he's gonna He's got something tomorrow morning. Well,

S Sarah DePalma 06:19
it's more morning now. Sweet.

J Jimmy Carper 06:22
He's got something to talk about. And we'll be playing that falling in love again. version right after that. But in the meantime,

K Katrina Rose 06:33
me. Yes. Okay. Oh, yes.

J Jimmy Carper 06:39
Katrina Rose is here. Yeah. She's the one who writes on the opposite side of Dale carpenter. Yeah.

K Katrina Rose 06:50
Thought Yeah. Well, I won't even go there.

J Jimmy Carper 06:52
I'm uploading some music to the past, so it's okay. Yeah.

K Katrina Rose 06:57
burdensome music tonight, I managed to finally run across some more of Dana International. Yeah,

J Jimmy Carper 07:04
absolutely. Dana International. She has won what the myth that? It was the Eurovision Song Contest? Yes. representing her country of Israel, believe it or not? Yeah. didn't sit too well with some of the far right of her country since she is transsexual. Yes.

K Katrina Rose 07:10

J Jimmy Carper 07:21

S Sarah DePalma 07:23
I tried to get her for the show. And we ran into a small problem. Yeah, she doesn't speak English. Oh, she doesn't meet us. She says I say I haven't heard that.

K Katrina Rose 07:29

S Sarah DePalma 07:31
Well, that's a real problem when you want to do an interview. Yeah. And I speak no Hebrew. So it would it would not have been the world's best interview.

J Jimmy Carper 07:42
Neither just Stanley. So don't feel bad. Okay.

K Katrina Rose 07:43
Well, as good as her voice is it would it would be nice just to have her come in and talk for a little while. We understood. Yeah, that's true. That's actually yeah. Most of her songs aren't he brought those? Again? I did not know whether she's spoken English or not because she does occasionally sing a song in English but then so did Abba.

S Sarah DePalma 08:01
tells me that she speaks Hebrew in French.

J Jimmy Carper 08:03
Okay. Okay. I want you to introduce that but in the but right before that. I want people to know Okay. Okay. I want you to introduce that but in the but right before that. I want people to know that on tonight's show. We've got Jimmy coughing and 120 We're going to have the Thera coughing. News come in.

 Katrina Rose 08:22
We'll all cough together.

 Jimmy Carper 08:24
All kinds of music for you. And on a personal note, I want to say hi to Tom Zito who's still in the hospital. Tom is still in the hospital. I'm still in the hospital. He I believe he he. Let's see what is it? Pneumonia, something like that. So he's in intensive care right now. Oh, my room 782 at Bayou City. It used to be 12 volts, whatever. Whatever you buy your city Med Center something Yeah, room 782 Really sweet sweetheart of a guy. And some of my incarcerated friends. I'd like to say hello to Roger for one. He's very faithful and sending sending letters and the tee man and Terry, especially

 Ray Hill 09:17
And I'll be on the Wynne tomorrow

 Jimmy Carper 09:18
And ig Daddy will be on the Wynne tomorrow, Wynne unit tomorrow. That's Ray Hill, we'll be there. And Ray will be here talking about it in a few minutes. And he's going to be talking about something else in a few minutes and other issues. But before that, again, view again, Katrina okay.

 Katrina Rose 09:35
So okay, introducing the CD now can you see what's going

 Jimmy Carper 09:38
on? You can't really even introduce the song, can you because it's

 Katrina Rose 09:42
sort of

 Sarah DePalma 09:45

 Sarah DePalma 09:43
know if he did or he didn't. Well,

 Katrina Rose 09:49
I could be creative, but I won't because I like Dana. The song I'm going to introduce is a song off of an album called oompa Tompa which I believe is her second CDs she's prior to her winning Eurovision, she'd had three albums out, all of which were major, major, big sellers in Israel and Egypt, most of which were sold by bootleg. So I don't know how much money she got her many of them but they were very popular. I have no idea what the name of the song is because it's written. Again, some of them have some English lyrics. And occasionally the title is written in English, but this one is not it's written in Hebrew. I assume it's nothing that we could get thrown off the air for if it were translated directly into English. I pick this one good, all the good. All the songs on her desk are pretty good. Yeah, Dance Dance type music if you like that type of music. If you really don't like that type of music, obviously you won't like it. But generally it's pretty good stuff. I picked this one because about halfway through it, she She rips off a little bit of a riff from a song which I'm sure a lot of people listening to the show will recognize. So it proves TSR just like everybody else, they steal music from other artists. There you go. Not much of it, though. But it's I assume that it was just just a little bit of a tribute. She probably likes the person that she took a little riff from, but I'm sure everybody will catch it. Again. I have no idea what the title of the song is. But enjoy it. It's by Dana International. Off the album Goomba Tompa.

 Jimmy Carper 11:19
And you're listening to it on after hours queer radio with additude on KPFT Houston and ke o s College Station whoa Dana international That was hot Music

 Sarah DePalma 11:38
We're sitting in here Boogie and down to the

 Jimmy Carper 11:42
training you think you're getting this back? I don't think so. Girlfriend.

 Sarah DePalma 11:48
You just became the property of Dewey Cropper and that's back. No, that's good stuff.

 Jimmy Carper 11:52

S Sarah DePalma 11:54
That really is.

J Jimmy Carper 11:55
How did how did you get it? And how does a person get a copy of it? She had to convert to Judaism. I don't know um, this this involves actually giving a plug to something that I generally don't like. And that's the Dale carpenter. No even worse. Big, big big mega mega super superstores me record. Oh, yeah. However, admittedly, none of the record stores I've been to here in Houston have any person not even soundwaves?

S Sarah DePalma 11:59

K Katrina Rose 12:06

K Katrina Rose 12:31
I've looked a couple of times. I haven't looked recently because

J Jimmy Carper 12:33
because they have everything.

K Katrina Rose 12:36
Yeah, I'm sure any of them in town can order it, but it isn't in brycie. I just happen to I was in New Orleans a couple of weeks ago, walked into the Virgin superstore.

J Jimmy Carper 12:47
I wouldn't be afraid to walk into any place it said virgin.

K Katrina Rose 12:51

Well, it's no longer a virgin. But yeah, they happen to have it. And the one I brought in a couple of couple of months ago actually found on the internet. There's people typing Dana International, you'll find a couple of basically Hebrew specialty stores on the internet. You can find her stuff. Okay, great. Obviously, the places that make money off of her stuff don't quite have quite the same view as Orthodox rabbis over in Israel. They enjoy her stuff. And actually, she she really is a national hero, because that was the first time in about 20 years. That is real one that Europe is Yeah.

J Jimmy Carper 13:27
Beautiful.

K Katrina Rose 13:29
She's beyond beautiful. I'm jealous. And she has a great voice too. Yeah. And yes, obviously very talented. But I don't know if she plays any instruments or not, but it's good music.

J Jimmy Carper 13:40
Thank you for bringing the music. Now. Daddy Ray is here. Yes,

R Ray Hill 13:46
Jimmy and Sarah, thank you very much for access to your audience tonight. Yeah, we're gonna get serious now, folks, there was a time in gay, lesbian, transgendered. And by history when we were not a community. And when something happened to one of us, the rest of us kind of looked the other way across the street and stepped over the body and went on about our business without much concern. And that applied a lot to abuses of the law against gay and lesbian and transgendered people. It also included frequent things like violence that happened to us. Yes, we were so glad that we weren't victims that we didn't worry about our brothers and sisters that were victims. And so we went the other way very frequently. And the story I'm about to tell is hopefully an example of how we have grown as a community and as a group of people who are concerned about one another. AIDS did a great deal of it sure did.

J Jimmy Carper 14:48

R Ray Hill 14:49
When aids come along, you will not find another example in history where a group of disadvantaged people rushed toward a crisis as opposed to way from a crisis

J Jimmy Carper 15:01
and bringing and bringing lesbians and gay men, the whole the whole community Yes, the whole community responded in a very responsible and mature way. And that's where we learned a lot of community. And that community is now developed a young man who was on after hours from time to time. Young Michael Williams. The story begins when Michael Williams is 16 years old, and he and a 14 year old playing around basically, and if not, in fact, the woods behind the Trailer Park, near Channelview, Texas. We're doing what young kids do, they were basically a circle jerk story, there was no penetration, there was no force, there was no coercion, there was no violence,

R Ray Hill 15:05

S Sarah DePalma 15:48
you said the person was how old a 1414

R Ray Hill 15:51
The two people were 14 and 16. Okay, less than three years separating their age, which is statutorily important both of them and south side of the age of consent, because in Texas, the age of consent is 17. And New Mexico, the age of consent is 14 in Oklahoma, the age of consent is 16. And in Louisiana, the age of consent is 15. So the age of consent fluctuates in their neighborhood, but ours is 17. And for the purposes of man at crossing state line take team. But in this case, both the participants were south of the age of consent, so everyone had a good time, presumably everyone was consensual, except perhaps the mother with a 14 year old and, and she tried to make a stink of it. But they informed her lady, these two people are kids and there's no laws, right to apply as not even a journalist there's some kind of force or or coercion. In the extreme. There's nothing to do here. And so they went on about her business. And she went on to about, they went about their business, she went about her business until the 16 year old turned 17. And then she filed the charges as sexual assault of a minor. And the charges were accepted. And he was arrested and processed through his jail and had to make bond to get out. Now, he wound up in judge Jim bars court who promptly appointed him a lawyer at the arraignment and postponed other things until future date. And the court appointed a lawyer took a look at situation and said, You know what, you're both south of south at the age of consent, you're less than three years difference between your rights. This is this is relatively minor matter. But Michael did what young men do in these situations, I mean, my God had just gone through the trauma of being arrested. And so he decided that that he would just deny that the whole thing ever happen. And so the lawyer, court appointed lawyer worked on that theory until the lie detector tests kind of threw him for a loop of both taken up by surprise. He told the family give me some more money, and I'll do a better job. They gave him a couple of $1,000 in the very next court appearance. i He Michael arrived a few minutes late after docket call. And so they had him in custody. And the lawyer came back and said you're going to prison because we're going to try this case today, and they're gonna give you 20 years. So I worked out such a deal. If you'll sign this six year deferred adjudication, confession. I'll again go home today. And you will be under probation supervision for six years. And he mumbled something about having to report as a sex offender and go to second, fender treatments and things of that nature and But Michael wanted to go home. So he signed the papers and he went home now this happened in December of 1997. A year ago, almost. He was court ordered to do eight hours of community service in December of 1997. But he didn't get a probation officer until December the 29th. In the holidays between Christmas and New Year's and there was no way to facilitate that that would become significant because later on they would say he had violated his probation terms of probation or did not do any hours

and that can be service

R Ray Hill 19:19
when you only had a couple of days even though it was only eight hours. He did his community service in January and February yah, yah, yah hoo. And over the course of 52 years and 52 weeks, he missed to Tuesday night counseling session, but he made them up the following night on Wednesday night, the counseling contract sex offender counseling is a contract with a bunch of Christian psychologists. Those are the people who have political inroads into county governments. So those people who get the political acronym and so at some point, that counselor sat down and said, you know, if you You're in denial about your problem as a as a child molester, then you're not being cooperative with your treatment. And if you're not being cooperative with your treatment, then then you're not going to be helpful to your treatment and your probation is in jeopardy. I mean, it was pretty strong suggestion. And then comes the question, Are you a child molester? No.

J Jimmy Carper 20:21
I mean, he is a child. That's

R Ray Hill 20:23
right. And so, fortunately, Michael has a good sense not to fall for that one. And so he doesn't do that. And another matter, they figure out at the end of the year, they notify him that he's $25, behind on his probation payments. Now, his probation payments are $10 a month. So I can see 20. And I can see 30, but 25 is hard to match. And so But at any rate, in November of 1998, Judge John Hughes, who took his original plea, irrespective of what the statute says, and protections built into it, and gave him that six years deferred adjudication probation, violated him and gave him eight years, hard time for one year, eight years hard time and reason I'll as as as a sexual assault on a minor can carry up to 20 years, and the judge thought he was doing a favor given me eight years. Now, right now, according to the laws in the state of Texas, a conviction under the sex offender laws. If you get an eight year sentence, it means you must do an eight year sentence, there is no possibility of parole under those sentences. There is no good time afforded in those history sentences. So it's eight years and what's going to happen in the next session, the legislature, they're going to pass the civil commitment laws, so that a single person can complain that you're a danger to them or their children. And you will be held in prison, beyond your Senate, perhaps for the rest of your life. Has a very serious, serious situation. So I found out that the judge was John Hughes, they call me after the fact and the sentence had been imposed. And so I said, Well, I'll just go down until John used to unravel the ball of wax. I mean, John Hughes was my criminal defense lawyer some many years ago in 1970. I got hard time and takes the penitentiary. So I go down to see John Hughes. I mean, we know each other I mean, I'm not an officer, the court didn't hurt me to export a jet. So I go down, and I confront John sheets. We good old boy for a few minutes. And as soon as he realized what I'm there for, he looks me in the eye. And he says, Raymond, this is a very dangerous man. And I said, What man, I said, we're talking about a kid. As a matter of fact, we're talking about a kid who was a below the age of consent kid. When this all happened. He said, Well, this court reacted to a very dangerous situation. And this was just not gonna go away. And I said, Judge, I am less concerned about the less than three years difference between this young man and his companion than I am about the more than 30 years difference between you and your wife, John uses 74 years old. His wife is about 40. She too, is a judge, incidentally. And that's okay. And so I could see that this was not going anywhere. So I started to leave and we went out in the hall. And as we were passing in the hall, and a youngster and I had gone in there at 830. And now it was after 930. I waited more than an hour, cooled my heels for an hour to see a judge who I've known for 35 years. I've known him for almost as many years as the difference between he and his wife. And so, his court coordinator came rushing up and said, Walter pink is here and judge stopped in the sense that I'll see him immediately. Let me tell you who Walter pink is. Back in 1985. During the referendum, yeah, a full page ad was taken out in Houston Chronicle. It was signed by Mark Twain didn't have anything to do with the real Mark Samuel Clemens or the real Mark Twain. I remember the document it was a scathing vitriolic. It was the worst piece of print media in my memory in Houston, Texas. I got a personal apology from the editor of the Houston Chronicle, and assurance that such an ad would never no matter what people pay for it would never run into chronicle again. The person who reserved space for that ad and paid for it with his operating account check was Walter pink. And so I have a feeling what's going on here is that the far right wing sex police have created a victim In Michael Williams, and they are digging their heels in. They're going to punish him because they can't get it. The rest of us thought he was 16. He was about all of the all of that is built in the statute, the statute and God save us from Texas legislature but the Texas legislature when composing these statutes built in all of the protections necessary to protect him from that kind of punishment, but you only get the quality of justice as you get the judge. Well, he's an idiot that and the judge has always not He's worse than that. Judge John Hughes is a perverted old man. Can this case be appealed? No. Whenever you deferred you occasion plea, you give up your rights to appeal.

S

Sarah DePalma 25:48

Oh, this is terrible. This guy's been railroaded big time.

R

Ray Hill 25:51

I mean, and so I've got my post conviction loggers looking, I'm limiting you threads were dangling on here. Since he was not admonished from the bench, about the fact that once he pled even to a deferred adjudication that he would have to register as a sex offender for the rest of his life. That means if he moved from apartment 32 A to apartment 32 B, he would have to run an ad in the local newspaper that he was moving that he was a sex offender child molester. For the rest of his life. Those are all laws that were on the books and operative at the time that he entered his plea, we may be able to go back and try to unwind it's a very thin thread. It's a very, very thin thread. And my post conviction specialism Bill Heyburn and Mike Maness, who monitors the best lawyers that can be had for this specialty, are looking into trying to undo it. But I want the listeners to after hours to understand that there are the potential of tremendous injustice is destroying the lives of young man, John Hughes is a perverted old judge who gets inordinate pleasure destroying the lives of young men, evidently, and he then makes up just literally makes up excuses justifying that. I'd love to know what percentage of his money came from hotties Nazis. Well, he's not unelected judge. He has already been through that right. He was elected district judge. And then he left the district bench to become an appellate judge and he was elected appellate judge and he served that, and now he's in retirement. And as a matter of fact, he doesn't have to sit the bench at all his retirement, more than takes care of him. And his wife is a judge and she's growing good money as a county criminal court judge, Judge, and there's plenty of money. I mean, the only reason I can think of weighing go down there and has to set a bench seven days a week is that he's drunk on the power that allows him to add We'll destroy people's lives. Or maybe he needs too much money because he's freebasing Viagra. I mean, he may need the Freebase and Viagra to keep up with his wife that's 30 years younger than he is I don't know. But he's a sick old man and he ought not to be able to destroy young people's lives at will I told Judge that I was going to try to make this a con celebrity because it deserves to be I mean it is such an obscene injustice it is that that we have to react to it and I'm asking the listeners of after hours tale this story tell tell every hell everyone you know, tale this story I'm trying to arrange a date to go speak to hippie Hypno no Hatch has to hatch and in the process of speaking to hatch bringing the game media so vegan put it in a kind of context. Yeah, they're working on it now to set that up. And and then I want to meet with PFLAG. You bet. It's going to take all of us.

Sarah DePalma 27:26

R

Ray Hill 27:31

J

Jimmy Carper 29:15

But the thing of it is the the long range things here is that kids playing Doctor cheese can in jail for life.

R

Ray Hill 29:25

I mean, what we have here is a couple a 16 year old and a 14 year old age peers by any measurable are in a circle jerk. I mean, and if somebody can go to prison for the rest of their life, then our society is a hell of a lot sicker than it has any right to be. Are you one of the interesting things about about this array? Is that be disarmed for people who are all for these tougher laws. Always think the laws will be applied to someone else. Yeah, and Never to them. Oh yeah. And they don't realize that in the advocacy of some of these things, their sons and daughters can be caught up in this. And this can be the nightmare that never ends. You bet. The mother is distraught. I have cars met with Michael's mother and she just you know, bless her heart. She's at home listening to the show right now. And surrounded, surrounded by might say young gay men. Who are friends of Michael's Michael has been on the show. And his lover. And so that end of it. I mean, at least there's a support system there. I'm saying it's going to take all of us do something that there are people listening to the show that no judge us. Oh, I'm sure yeah. I mean, there are people listening to show that are in circle of friends that judge us and his wife travel. As matter of fact, in that courtroom, Walter Johnson, is the court reporter monitoring just kind of flames I mean, I've always admired Walter has always kind of flamed long before you could get away with flaming. I mean, if Liberace were a court reporter that's Walter Johnson. Okay. Right. Right. And that and and he is extremely good as a court report. Well, that's what counts as an absolutely and and his professionalism has kept him alive down there and, and a success in his career. And Walter is there. And so whenever I went to the judge, Walter came out and paid his respect, which is normal for gay folks to do in the courthouse. So I asked Walter, I was being treated and he said, Well, judge who's treats me like a gentleman. And I'm sure that is absolutely the fact. I am absolutely convinced that judge us treats Walter like a gentleman. So would you under you, would you understand that even the worse Nazi had pet Jews and pet queer? Well, that's true. That's true. Absolutely. Yeah, that's true. And and usually the one the pet Jews and peck, where's the ones that flamed a little bit as Jews and queer? Because they wouldn't no point in having a semi queerest image you your friend, it's whole hog and nothing. And I am I'm distraught. But why did you listen? Maybe it's too personal. You know, I've been to prison. I've been sentenced to more years than I could hope to live.

Sarah DePalma 29:47

R

Ray Hill 30:11

J

Jimmy Carper 31:55

R

J

Jimmy Carper 32:24

Not that it's all that personal. You have never met this man.

 Ray Hill 32:27

And it and, you know, and it but it's personal to me, because I know what it's like to go through the prison experience. I mean, I come down here. And I deal with the purging of the hate and the bitterness and, and the fear and the frustration I come to these microphones every week on the prison show. And that's the way I deal with that, in my experience. Every day Michael's soul is dying a little bit more You bet it is he is going to come out of there with emotional and maybe physical scars that he will bear for the rest of his life.

 Jimmy Carper 33:01

If he walks out tomorrow, he will have those Absolutely, if he

 Ray Hill 33:04

after he when he made bond and got out of jail the first day he has scores and my plea is to the listening audience. Don't think that this only happens to other people. There you go. This is I mean, this is where Steven Cozzi and Pat Robertson and all of the chrissteele Nazis want all of us to go. Yeah. Oh, yes. Oh, yes. I thank you again for letting me on after hours and talking with your audience about this. And please tell your friends, please keep your eye on the media and listen to after hours as we do updates because I'm not gonna give up on this one. I'll pedal this bicycle until both my legs are nubs. Good for you. And

 Jimmy Carper 33:47

 Sarah DePalma 33:48

you know what? I believe that. I believe that. Yeah.

 Jimmy Carper 33:53

So lanes, Michael's boyfriend.

 33:57

Thank you all and I'm gonna get out of here. Okay,

 Sarah DePalma 33:59

right and you ate? This error is yours any time

J Jimmy Carper 34:08

Okay, okay. We'll go to that song right now. By all the Pretty Horses, All the Pretty Horses. It's a remake of the famous Marlena Dietrich song, falling in love again and you're listening to it on after hours. Queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston, and ke O 's College Station. We are the queer sound of Texas.

S Sarah DePalma 34:43

Oh, yeah. And so you thought you were going to get sleepy and go to sleep on us, huh? No. Steven Grendel and all the Pretty Horses. Uh huh. He will be our interview II later on After the news segment that is incredible. That is the most. I don't know, I don't know what to say. That's an incredible version of that song. It's telling me story. between takes, unfortunately, it's not on the interview. But he was telling me that they were doing a concert in. I believe it was Milwaukee. And they were so shocked. They were throwing beer cans at them, you know, they had to get like, behind the screen or something. And I thought, I bet they'd go nuts for Marilyn Manson. Yeah, exactly. They love that they love now.

J Jimmy Carper 35:00

S Sarah DePalma 35:09

K Katrina Rose 35:28

S Sarah DePalma 35:33

Yeah. And you know, I mean, in he looks a Steven Grendel. He likes to be called key. That's why I'm saying that. It's not ready to be called Chi yet. Steven Greendale says that he likes to not warn people what they're what they're getting into. Because he likes to watch the shock reaction. And I thought that's so good. But he's going to get himself killed when they've keeps this up.

J Jimmy Carper 35:55

Well, you know, that's poorly.

K Katrina Rose 35:57

Look, he's in show business. And that's that's part of the deal. Exactly. Exactly. Took the words right out of my mouth. I mean, that's, let's face it. That's part of what Marilyn Manson does. Sure. Now, we bet people generally have a pretty good idea. Going into a Marilyn Manson show what's going on? What's going on?

J Jimmy Carper 36:13

Oh, I think that's the difference.

S Sarah DePalma 36:14

I told him. I thought it was a key sounded like Jim Morrison meets David Bowie. And he said, Yeah, that sounds about really like he thought that was a good comparison.

J Jimmy Carper 36:24

I really like it. And there's there's other good stuff on here, too.

S Sarah DePalma 36:29

Well, I wanted to talk about some some news things that

J Jimmy Carper 36:32

version of Space Odyssey oddity, which, unfortunately

S Sarah DePalma 36:35

is not very good. Well, we'll say there's one out there that I really want I want to play after we come out of the interview with him called morphine milk, or what sex are you I haven't a clue. It's about his experiences in touring with the band. Oh, well, which which was pretty interesting. And in the end, the interview also, you'll hear him one of his band members talk about how hard it is to get dates. Touring was Steven Grendel. Which I think was kind of interesting. I want to talk about some some news stories that I have been pulling down from the newspaper and from the internet, and from some other places. And I want to start with this one because this is this fits into what Ray was talking about. Perhaps you saw the story in the paper. This is a story about a person named Matthew Alex McClendon. 15 years old, and this was a story of pulled out of the Houston Chronicle. It seems that Alex comes to school dressed as a girl considers herself to be 95% girl. Yeah, the way that she explained it.

K Katrina Rose 37:42

Touching on the photo. I'd say 100% I reaching on the photo, I'd say 100%.

Sarah DePalma 37:45

would say so too. And the story says 15 year old Alex withdrew from school under pressure, leaving support
